CONTENTS

Publisher's Note

The footnotes in all the earlier volumes began and ended with a part (Pārā) of the Holy Qur'ān. As, however, the third volume was terminated with the Sūrah Fātir, a portion of Sūrah Yāsīn which is included in Part XXII, had to be brought into this volume. Consequently the footnotes begin with the Sūrah Yāsīn and continue into Part XXIII. In subsequent parts the usual practice of giving the footnotes by Quranic Pārās has been followed. Care has been taken to correct the references to the footnotes of Part XXIII wherever they are cited subsequently.

Sūrah Yā-sīn

Ya-Sin.[1] XXXVI

(Makkan, 5 Sections and 83 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION I

1. (يسين) Yā-Sīn.
2. (والقران الحكيم) By the Qur'ān full of wisdom,
3. (انك . . . المرسلين) verily thou art of the sent ones,[2]
4. (على . . . مستقيم) upon the straight path.[3]
5. (تنزيل . . الرحيم) This is a revelation of the Mighty, the Merciful,
6. (لتنذر . . . غفلون) that thou mayest warn[4] a people whose fathers were not warned,[5] so they are neglectful.[6]
7. (لقد . . . يؤمنون) Assuredly the word[7] has been justified against most of them,[8] so they shall not believe.
8. (انا . . . مقمحون) Surely We have placed on their necks shackles which are up to the chins; so that their heads are forced up.[9]
9. (وجعلنا . . . يبصرون) And We have placed before them a barrier[10] and behind them a barrier,[11] so We have covered them;[12] so that they do not see.[13]
10. (وسواء . . . يؤمنون) It is alike to them,[14] whether thou warnest them[15] or warnest them not; they will never have faith.[16]

---

1. The chapter is regarded with special reverence by the faithful, and is usually loudly recited on the approach of death. The word ياسين is said to be an abbreviation of يا انسان 'O man!'

2. (O Prophet).

3. (towards God, so that anybody who would follow thee could become sure of his salvation).

4. (primarily, and in the first instance).

5. (in the near past by a prophet directly). The reference is to the Arab nation and does not preclude the possibility of their having received prophetic messages indirectly or through other nations and peoples.

6. (of the commandments of God).

7. i. e., the sentence of God.

8. The sentence of punishment hath become necessitated as suitable to the requirements of justice, or as being just or right, to take effect upon the greater number of them.' (LL)

9. i. e. they cannot lower their heads and cannot see.

10. (to prevent their looking forward).

11. (to prevent their looking backward).

12. (with darkness).

13. The whole passage is a vivid description of utter blindness and unshakeable obstinacy on the part of the perverse and wilful opponents of truth and light.

14. (in point of futility).

15. (as is obviously thy duty, O Prophet !)

16. Because they have no will to believe.

11. (انما . . . كريم) Thou canst warn[17] him only who follows the admonition and fears the Compassionate, Unseen.[18] Bear thou to him the glad tidings of forgiveness[19] and a generous wage.[20]

12. (انا . . . . مبين) Verily We ! We shall rise the dead ;[21] and We write down[22] what they have forwarded[23] and what they have left behind.[24] And everything[25] We have counted up in a luminous Record.[26]

SECTION 2

13. (واضرب . . المرسلون) And recount thou to them[27] similitude of the residents of a town,[28] when there came thereto the sent ones ;[29]

14. (اذ . . . مرسلون) When We sent to them two. Then they belied the twain; so We strengthened them with a third, and they said : we are envoys unto you.

15. (قالوا . . . تكذبون) They said : you are but human beings like ourselves,[30] the Compassionate has not sent down aught,[31] you are only lying.

16. (قالوا . . . لمرسلون) The envoys said: our Lord knows that surely we are envoys[32] to you.

17. (وما . . . المبين) and on us is naught but manifest preaching.[33]

18. (قالوا . . . . اليم) They said : surely we augur ill of you;[34] and if you do not desist,[35] we shall certainly stone you, and there will befall you from us an affictive chastisement.

19. (قالوا . . . مسرفون) The envoys said ; your evil augury be with you.[36] What ! do you call it ill luck because you are admonished ? Aye ! You are a people extravagant.[37]

20. (وجاء . . . المرسلين) And there came a man running from the end of the town.[38] He said;[39] my people, follow the envoys——

21. (اتبعوا . . . مهتدون) follow those who do not ask any wage of you,[40] and who are rightly guided.

17. (with effect).

18. It was the indifference of the Arab pagans that was the root cause of infidelity. They never gave a serious thought to the after-life.

19. (from sins).

20. (for good works).

21. (on the Day of Resurrection).

22. (in angelic records).

23. i. e., their own works, good or bad, which they shall find.

24. i. e., their good or evil example which they shall have left behind them.

25. (which is yet to happen) i. e., every future event.

26. i. e., the Book of Divine decrees: the Preserved Tablet. امام is not only 'a leader,' or 'an exempler' but also 'a book, or written record.' (LL)

27. i. e., the Makkan pagans.

28. i. e., a certain town peopled with pagans. Several commentators have identified the town, though not on very strong grounds, with Antakiya or Antioch, the capital of Syria under the Romans, and a very important city in the annals of early Christianity. 'The squalid village of Antakiyah marks the spot of Antioch 'the great' and 'the beautiful.' The city occupied as honourable places as the mother-church of Gentile Christianity and the centre of the missionary enterprise which carried the new faith to Europe. Here, too, Jesus' followers were first called "Christians." (New Standard Bible Dictionary, p. 51) 'Josephus calls her the third city of the Empire, next to Rome and Alexandria.' (DB. I. p. 104)

29. i. e., several apostles of God.

30. (and not supermen or demi-gods, so you cannot be the messengers of God).

31. (by way of Revelation).

32. i. e., the apostles of God.

33. (of the Message).

34. i. e., you are harbingers of ill-luck. Omens and portents, so important and potent with the polytheistic peoples everywhere, have not been without their influence even with the Christian nations. 'It was to be expected that some at least of the superstitions of heathenism would survive in the church. In fact they did survive, and none more vigorously than the observation of omens and portents, which Christianity has never been able to extinguish.' (DCA. II p. 1461)

35. (from your preaching).

36. i. e., whatever ill-luck there is in consequence of your own malevolence.

37. i. e., a people given to transgression.

38. (who had already embraced the true faith).

39. (addressing his fellow-citizens out of the sincerity of his heart).

40. (for themselves) i. e., who are not moved by self-interest.

PART XXIII

22. (وما . . . ترجعون) And why should I not worship Him alone Who has originated me,[41] and to Whom you shall be returned.[42]

23. (ءاتخذ . . . ينقذون) Shall I take, besides Him gods when, the Compassionate intends me any harm, their intercession will not avail me at all, nor would they save me?[43]

24. (انى . . . مبين) Verily then I[44] should be in clear error.

25. (انى . . . فاسمعون) Verily now I believe in your Lord,[45] so listen to me.[46]

26. (قيل . . . يعلمون) It was said:[47] enter thou the Garden. He said:[48] would that my people knew——

27. (بما . . . المكرمين) that my Lord has forgiven me,[49] and has made me of the honoured ones.[50]

28. (وما . . . منزلين) And We sent not against his people[51] after him,[52] a host[53] from heaven, and We have not been sending down any such

29. (ان . . . خمدون) It was but one shout,[54] and lo! they were extinct.[55]

30. (يحسرة . . يستهزءون) Ah the misery of Our bondmen[56]! there comes not to them any messenger of Ours but him they have been mocking.

31. (الم . . . يرجعون) Do they[57] not see how many of the generations[58] before thom We have destroyed? Surely to them they shall not return.

---

41. i. e., it is manifestly reasonable on my part to believe in and worship my Maker.

42. (after death, for final judgment).

43. (so that the 'gods' have no power either in themselves or through their influence with Almighty).

44. i. e., if I were still to practise polytheism.

45. (to the exclusion of all false deities).

46. (and follow my Lord).

47. (to him at his death, after he had been stoned by his unbelieving community).

48. (after entering the Paradise).

49. (my sinful past).

50. All this he felt impelled to utter by his sheer love for his people and his devotedness to them.

51. (to avenge his death).

52. i. e., after he had been slain.

53. (of angels).

54. The punishment came in this form.

55. Literally 'became extinguished ashes.'

56. i. e., such of them as are infidels.

57. i. e., the later-day infidels.

58. (of rejecters and scoffers).

33. (وآية . . . يا كلون) And a sign[59] unto them[60] is dead land. We revive it and thereout We bring forth grain, so that they eat of it.

34. (وجعلنا . . . العيون) And We place therein the gardens of date-palms[61] and vines,[62] and therein We cause springs to gush forth——

35. (ليا كلوا . . . يشكرون) that they may eat the fruit thereof. And their hands worked it not.[63] Will they not, therefore, give thanks?

36. (سبحن الذى . . . يعلمون) Hallowed be He, Who has created all the pairs[64] of what the earth grows and of themselves,[65] and of what they know not.

37. (وآية . . . مظلمون) And a sign[66] with them is night,[67] We draw off the day therefrom, and lo! they are darkened.

38. (والشمس . . . العليم) And the sun runs[68] to its assigned term; that is the disposition of the Mighty,[69] the Knowing.[70]

39. (والقمر . . . القديم) And the moon! for it We have decreed mansions[71] till it reverts[72] like[73] the old branch of a palm-tree.[74]

40. (لاالشمس . . . يسبحون) It is not permitted to sun to overtake the moon,[75] nor can the night outstrip the day;[76] each in an orbit, they float.

60. i. e., unto mankind.

61. 'Among the Arabian flora the date-palm tree is the queen. It bears the most common and esteemed fruit: the fruit par excellence. Together with milk ı ı ovides the chief item on the menu of the Bedouin, and except for camel flesh, is his only solid food. Its crushed stones furnish the cakes which are the everyday meal of the camel. To possess 'the two black ones' i. e., warter and dates, is the dream of every Bedouin.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 19).

62. In Arabia 'among the domestic plants the grape-vine, introduced from Syria, after the fourth Christian century, is well represented in al-Ta'if.' (Hitti, op. cit. p. 19).

63. i. e., fruit and grains are the handiwork of God, not of man.

64. One of the recent scientific discoveries is that everything in nature exists in pairs as male and female. Not only the vegetable and animal life but even the rock crystals and electricity have their sets of opposites. See also P. XXVII. n. 23.

65. Such as men and women.

66. (of Our majesty and providence).

67. Which is not a deity to be adored or worshipped. In the Hindu mythology Ratri (night), the sister of Dawn, is conceived of as a goddess.

68. (in its daily rotation as well as annual revolution). This may refer to the apparent motion of the sun and to its path among the stars. The apparent annual path of the sun lies through twelve constellations as groups of stars, and the zone which these stars occupy is called the zodiac. Within this zone is also found the orbit of the moon. Or the reference may be to the rotation of the sun above its axis and its actual motion in space. The solar system, like all the other systems of bodies in space, is in motion. Not only the system as a whole is rushing bodi y through the space but each individual member of the system has spinning motion of its own.

69. i. e., One who has power over even the biggest of heavenly bodies.

70. i. e., One whose every decree is governed by His all-pervading wisdom and knowledge.

71. (to traverse).

72. (at the end of the lunar month after passing through the 28 constellations, one every night).

73. (in respect of slenderness and curvature).

74. (withered and shrunken). 'When a palm branch grows old, it shrinks, and becomes crooked and yellow, not ill representing the appearance of the new moon.' (Sale).

75. (in its course). The sun and the moon both traverse the belt of the zodiac, yet they never catch up each other.

76. Each one is subject to God's laws.

SECTION 5

68. (ومن . . . يعقلون) And whom We grant long life We reverse him in creation;[112] why then they do not reflect?

69. (و ما . . . مبين) And We have not taught him[113] poetry, nor does it become him.[114] This is but an Admonition[115] and a luminous Recital——

70. (لينذر . . . الكفرين) in order that it may warn him who is alive,[116] and that the sentence[117] may be justified on the infidels.[118]

105. (so that they shall not be able to open them in their own defence).

106. And this testimony of the hands and feet will make the guilty dumbfounded.

107. (in Our universal Scheme, to punish them in this very world).

108. (and grope unsuccessfully).

109. See n. 107 above.

110. (into certain ugly shapes).

111. (but as nothing of the sort has happened, and their sight and power of motion are unimpaired, they have the choice of their own way, and great is their responsibility).

112. i. e., in nature and constitution, so that he is made to go back to weakness after strength.

113. i. e., the Prophet.

114. i. e., the thing is much beneath him. This is said in answer to the pagan Arabs who held the holy Prophet to be a poet. Now, a poet in their parlance, did not mean a versifier. Poetry according to them, as according to most primitive peoples, was not a fine art, but a sort of magical utterance, inspired by powers from the Unseen; and the poet in their estimation was more allied to a soothsayer than to a literary composer. 'The Arabian poet (Sdhā'ir), as the name indicates, was originally one endowed with knowledge hidden from the common man, which knowledge he received from a demon, his special shaytān (satan). As a poet he was in league with the unseen powers and could by his curses bring evil upon the enemy. Sataire (hijā') was therefore a very early form of Arabic poetry.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 94) · · · his disavowal does not refer primarily to the poetic art, but rather to the person and character of tbe poets themselves. He, the divinely inspired Prophet, could have nothing to do with men who owed their inspiration to demons and gloried in the ideals of paganism which he was striving to overthrew.' (Nicholson, op. cit. p. 159). See also P. XIX. n. 368.

115. (from God summoning mankind to piety and devotion, and not allowing them to indulge in vain fancies and superstitions).

116. i. e., who possesses a living conscience.

117. (of damnation in the Hereafter).

118. Who do not choose to profit by the clear Divine admonitions.

119. i. e., the polytheists.

120. i. e., mankind.

121. (so that the cattle are to serve man, and not man to serve them). This emphasises the fact that all cattle, however much some varieties of whom may be sacred to the polytheists, are no more than created beings. Pastoral communities such as those of India and Egypt have been noted for cow and bull cults.

122. i. e the cattle.

74. (اتخذوا . . . ينصرون) And they have taken besides Allah gods, hoping that they may haply be succoured[126].

75. (لا . . . محضرون) They[127] are not able to give them succour, whereas they shall be against them host brought forward[128].

76. (فلا . . . يعلنون) So let not their speech grieve thee[129]. Verily We ! We know what they conceal and what they disclose[130].

77. (اولم . . . مبين) Does not man see[131] that We have created him of sperm[132] ? Yet lo ! he is a manifest opponent[133].

78. (وضرب . . . رميم) And he[134] recounts for Us a similitude and forgets his creation. He says : who shall quicken the bones after they are decayed ?

79. (قل . . . عليم) Say thou[135] : He shall quicken them Who brought forth them for the first time[136]. And He is the Knower of every manner of a creation[137]——

80. (الذی . . . توقدون) Who gives you fire out of the green tree[138], and lo ! you kindle[139] therewith.

81. (اولیس . . . العلیم) Is not He Who created the heavens and earth for the first time able to create[140] the like of them ? Yea ! He is the Supreme Creator, the Knower.

82. (انما . . . فیکون) His affair, when He intends a thing, is only that He[141] says to it[142] : be, and it becomes[143].

128. i. e., the associate-gods instead of proving a help to their worshippers on the Day of Judgment will appear as a band hostile to them.

129. (O Prophet!).

130. (and shall requite them accordingly).

131. (who rejects the doctrine of Resurrection).

132. (mean and contemptible). See P. XXIX. n. 507.

133. (against Us, oblivious of his low origin).

134. (in his arrogance).

135. (O Prophet!).

136. It would be interesting at this juncture to recall a passage from the Zoroastrian scriptures. 'Zaratusht questions Ormazd in this connection . . . regarding the question of forming again the bodies of the dead, inasmuch as the material frames of the dead have perished and been reduced to dust. Ormazd, thereupon, tells the prophet that even as it was possible for him to have created something from nothing, when nothing at all existed, and as he was able to create the sky and the earth, the sun and the moon, and the stars, fire and water, clouds and wind, grain and mankind, in fact everything that formerly had no existence, it would not be difficult for him at the Resurrection to form anew something that had already existed. The spirit of the earth, the water, the plants, and the fire will at that time restore the bones, blood, hair, life and other materials which had been committed to them by God in the beginning, and in this manner the bodies will be formed anew. (Dhalla, Zoroastrian Theology, pp. 284-90).

137. (whether it be original creation or restoration).

138. The Arab method of producing fire was by rubbing two pieces of wood. The verse may also imply a condemnation of fire-worship——so general in the Aryan religions——by making it plain that fire is as much a created object as other things of the world.

139. (your own fires). 'These two methods, percussion and friction, have always been the chief ways of making fire . . . Friction has been by far the most widespread method among primitive people.' (EBr. IX. p. 263). See also P. XXVII. n. 400.

140. (once again).

141. (out of His mere Will, without needing any material or helper).

142. i. e., unto the thing proposed, and as yet non-existent except in His knowledge.

143. (by a single act of His all-powerful Will). His word of command is all that is needed to bring it into existence according to His Plan; and this is the clearest evidence of His absolute omnipotence.

225. i. e., agreeing with him in the fundamentals of religion.

226. i. e., free from all taint of vice.

227. Who were polytheists of the most degraded type———worshippers of idols as well as of stars. 'Mesopotamian religion was the worship of these high gods, clearly associated with a fertility cult : but no less prominent in the beliefs of the people were the innumerable evil spirits whose attentions had to be warded off by incantations and charms.' (Gregory, op, cit., p. 13).

228. i. e., do you realise or not that He, the Creator of the universe, is One and Unique ?

229. (on a certain occasion).

230. (as if to gather some future knowledge from the aspect of the heavens). As a pastoral people chiefly occupied with the cultivation of the land and the care of flocks and hens, and also as a people addicted to divination the Chaladaens were constrained to have a constant look at the stars and planets.

238. (after they were informed of what had happened).

239. (an order to put them to shame).

240. (with your own hands). The reference is to the stone images and idols of the Babylonians. Compare the exhortation of a Christian addressed to the idolaters :—'O vain and blind ! can you believe in images of wood and stone? Do you imagine that they have eyes to see, or ears to hear, or hands to help ye ? Is your mute thing carved by man's art a goddess ?——hath it made mankind?——also ! by mankind was it made. Lo ! convince yourselves of its nothingness—of your folly.' (Lytton, The Last Days of Pompeii, p. 343). See also P. VII. nn. 526, 527 : P. XVI. nn. 153, 158 P. XVII. n. 137.

241. (among themselves). 'They' refers to the counsellors of the king and the wise men of the state. Worsted in argument they think of resorting to the extreme penalty of law. See P. XVII. n. 147.

242. 'A building' here means a furnace. 'The furnace was heated to a great and consuming heat. . .The women, carrying their children with them, ascended to the roofs of their houses, and the men gathered in great numbers : but all stood far off, for none dared approach the great heat to look into the furnace; (Polano, op. cit., p. 38).

243. A. Cf. the Talmud :—'And both Abram and Charan were brought before the king, and in the presence of all the inhabitants their robes were removed from them, their hands and feet were bound, and they were cast into the flaming furnace. Now the heat of the fire was so great that the twelve men who cast them therein were consumed by it.' (Polano, op. cit., p. 39).

244. (and delivered him). Cf. the Talmud:—'God has compassion upon his servant Abram, and though the ropes which bound him were burned from off his limbs, he walked upright through the fire, unharmed.... And the servants of the king called out to their master : Behold Abram walks unhurt through the flames, the ropes with which we bound him are consumed, yet he is uninjured. . .The king was lost in amazement, and commanded his officers to take Abram out of the fire. They were not able, however, to execute his order, for the forks of flame blazed in their faces and they fled from the great heat... Their second attempt was fruitless as the first and in it eight men were burned to death. Then the king called to Abram, saying : "Servant of the God of Heaven, come forth from the fire and stand before me." And Abram walked out of the fire and the furnace and stood before the king. And when the king saw that not even an hair of Abram's head was singed by the flames, he expressed wonder and amazement...And the princes of the king bowed before Abram.' (Polano, op. cit., pp. 39-40). See also P. XVII. nn. 149, 151.

100. (رب . . . الصلحين) Lord[247] ! bestow on me a son who will be of the righteous[248].

101. (فبشرنه . . . حليم) Wherefore We gave him the glad tidings of a gentle boy[249].

102. (فلما . . . الصبرين) And when the boy[250] attained the age of running with him[251], he said : son ! I have seen in a dream[252] that I am slaughtering thee[253]; so look, what considerest thou ? He said : father ! do what[254] thou art commanded : thou wilt find me, Allah willing, of the patient.

103. (فلما . . . للجبين) Then when the twain submitted themselves, and[255] he had prostrated him[256] on the temple[257].

104. (ونادينه . . . يابراهيم) We cried to him : Ibrāhīm !

105. (قد . . . المحسنين) of a surety thou hast fulfilled the vision[258]. Verily We ! thus do We recompense the well-doers.

106. (ان . . . المبين) Verily that ! that was a manifest trial[259].

107. (وفدينه . . . عظيم) And We ransomed him[260] with a mighty victim[261].

108. (وتركنا . . . أخرين) And for him We left among the posterity[262] :

109. (سلم . . . ابراهيم) peace be upon Ibrāhīm[263].

110. (كذالك . . . المحسنين) Verily We ! thus do We recompense the well-doers.

111. (انه . . المومنين) Verily he was of Our believing bondmen.

112 (وبشرنه . . الصلحين) And We gave him the glad tidings of Is-ḥāq, a prophet, and of the righteous.

113. (وبركا . . . مبين) And We blessed him and Is-ḥāq[264] ; and of their offspring some are well-doers, and some who wrong themselves manifestly[265]

247. Thus Abraham prayed after he had arrived in the holy land of Syria.

248. Notice that Abraham prays not only for a son but for a son who would grow up in righteousness and piety ; and the great prophet's prayer was sure to be granted.

249. (and mild-tempered). The epithet contradicts the ferocity of temperament attributed to Ismā'īl by the Jews and Christians.

250. Ismā'īl, the son of promise and the first-born of Abrāham.

251. 'And when he attained to working with him : or, and when he was able to assist him in his working.' (LL) The first son born to the father occupied a prominent place in the Hebrew family.' (JE. III. p. 222).

252. And the dreams of prophets must come true and be fulfilled. منام literally is the time of sleep, and this state of partial consiousness, in the case of the prophets, is one of the moments chosen for divine communications to man.

253. i. e., am offering thee as a sacrifice to God by His command.

254. (as a matter of course).

255. i. e., Abraham.

256. i, e., Ismā'īl, who was for 14 years, the only son of Abraham. Cf. the OT :—And he said, 'Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac—' (Ge. 22 : 2) The word 'Isaac' in the context is clearly an interpolation, since he was never 'the only son', of his father. For a repetition of the epithet 'only son' see verse 12 of the same chapter of Ge. 'For now I know that thou fearest God seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.'

257. (and was on the point of drawing knife across his throat). 'And Abraham stretched his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.' (Ge. 22 : 10).

258. Taking the intention for the deed.

259. According to the Bible, it was in the 'the land of Moriah.' (Ge. 22 :2) which took Abraham three days to reach (22: 4), where this 'tremendous trial' took place. The Biblical scholars are not unanimous at all in locating this region. 'What was originally denoted by this designation is very obscure.' (DB.III. p. 437). 'Great obscurity hangs about this name.' (EBi. c. 3200). To an unsophisticated mind the 'Moriah' seems to be a very close approximation to 'Marwa'—a hill near Makka.

260. i. e., Ismā'īl.

261. i. e., a fine ram from Heaven. ذبح is 'An animal prepared for slaughter or sacrifice, i. e., intended victim.' (LL)

262. (the following salutation).

263. That Abraham (peace be on him !) holds to this day a unique place of veneration not only among the Muslims of the world but also among the Christians and Jews is in part a fulfilment of this prophecy.

264. (with abundant progeny, and with a multitude of prophets among them).

265. (by their ungodly ways).

266. i. e., from the Egyptian oppression.

267. (against the Egyptians).

268. i. e., unto Moses primarily and principally, and unto Aaron as his lieutenant.

269. (the following salutation).

270. Identified both by the Jews and the Christians with Elijah of the Bible, who 'was a prophet in Israel in the first half of the ninth pre-Christian century, under king Ahab.' (JE. V. p. 121). He 'came from the land east of the Jordan, to wage war, in the name of the God of his fathers, against the worship of Baal.' (ib) He 'was among the greatest and most original of the Hebrew prophets ......and is not unworthy of a place by the side of Moses.' (EBi.c. 1270) 'The loftiest prophets of the OT, raised up by J'' at a crisis in the history of Israel to save the nation from lapsing into heathenism.'(DB. I.p.687)Foremost prophet of the Northern Kingdom, whose activity......falls chiefly in the reign of Ahab (876-853). He is known as the Fishlite, probably because he was a native of Fishlite in Gibad... He performed some miracles, among them the restoration to life of a poor widow's son...Elijah like Enoch, is said to have been translated to heaven——apotheosis due no doubt to his great zeal for God and his insistence upon the spiritual and ethical value of Hebrew monotheism.' (VJE. p. 201)

271. i. e., the people of Samaria.

272. 'B'al is a primitive title of divinities, which is found in all branches of the Semitic race.' (ERE. II. p. 283). Hence the use of the name in the Qur'ān with an indefinite article بعلا . The particular Baal mentioned in connection with Elijah is the Baal of Tyre. 'And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the Lord above all that were before him,...and went and served Ba-al and worshipped him. And he reared up an altar for Ba-al in the house of Ba-al which he had built in Samaria.' (1 Ki. 16 : 30-32). 'When the Israelites invaded Western Palestine and passed over from a nomadic to an agricultural life, they learned from the older inhabitants not only how to plough and sow and reap but also the religious rites which were a part of Canaanite——the worship of the Baals who gave the increase of the land, the festivals of the husbandman's year.'(EBi.c.402-3). 'The Baalim were mainly active gods of fertility (the bull served as a holy animal) and their worship was connected with ecstatic frenzy and lewdness...The Hebrew prophets combated the worship of Baal that had become prevalent among the Israelites.' (VJE. p. 64).

273. 'And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions ? if the Lord be God, follow him : but if Ba-al, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.' (1 Ki. 18 : 21 ; Also JE. II. p.380). For 'the best of creators' see P. XVIII. n. 15. The phrase allows the existence of the other 'creators than God'. This suggests the teachings of modern thinkers, such as Bergson and Iqbal, who hold that the universe is not yet a completed act, but is still in the course of becoming. 'The process of creation is still going on and man too takes his share in it, inasmuch as he helps to bring order into at least a portion of the chaos.'

274. Perhaps under Jezebel, when the prophet had to flee for his life, see 1Ki. 19:2, 3. 'Particularly dangerous was the cult of the Phonecian Baal (Melkart) introduced by Jezebel, and against which Elijah and Elisha inveighed.' (VJE. p. 64) 'Elijah forced on the popular mind the conviction that Jehovah and Melkart were mutually exclusive.' (DB. I. p. 210).

275. (and arraigned before their Lord).

276. (the following salutation).

277. Another form of the word Elyas, adopted here for the sake of rhyme.

136. (ثم . . . الاخرين) Then We annihilated the others.

137. (وانكم . . . مصبحين) And surely you pass by them[279] in the morning.

138. (وباليل . . . تعقلون) And at night[280] ; will you not then reflect[281] ?

SECTION 5

139. (وان . . . المرسلين) And verily Yūnus[282] was of the sent ones.

140. (اذ . . . المشحون) Recall when he ran away[283] to a laden ship[284].

141. (فساهم . . . المدحضين) Then he joined the lots[285] and was of the condemned.[286]

142. (فالتقمه . . . مليم) And[287] fish swallowed him[288], while he was reproaching himself.[289]

143. (فلولا . . . المسبحين) And had he not been of them who hallow Him.[290]

144. (للبث . . . يبعثون) He would have tarried in its belly till the Day when they[291] are raised.

145. (فنبذنه . . . سقيم) Then We cast him on a bare desert[292] whilst he was sick.

146. (وانبتنا . . . يقطين) And We caused to grow over him[293] a tree, a gourd.

147. (وارسله . . . يزيدون) And We had sent him to a hundred thousand[294] ; rather they exceeded[295].

148. (فامنوا . . . حين) And they believed[296] ; so We let them enjoy life for a season[297].

149. (فاستفتهم . . البنون) Now ask thou them:[298] are there daughters for thy Lord and sons for them ?[299]

150. (ام . . . شاهدون) Or, did We create angels female while they were witnesses ?[300]

151. (الا . . . ليقولون) Lo ! verily It is of their falsehood that they say.

278. See P. VIII. n. 571 ; P. XIX. n. 301.

279. i. e., their sites ; the places where they once dwelt.

280. (during your frequent travels, O Makkans !) The ruins of the people of Lot lay on the trade route between Arabia and Syria.

281. Would you have no wisdom therefrom ?

282. See P. XI. n. 402 ff.

283. (like a slave from his master's captivity, angry with his people, because the punishment wherewith he had threatened them did not fall upon them). ابق is 'A slave ranaway, or fled, or went away, from his master, without being induced to do so by fear, or severity of work......In the Kuran it is said of Jonah, because he fled from his people without the permission of his Lord.' (LL)

284. (and that ship, after he had embarked, was seized by tempest in the midst of the sea). 'But the Lord sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.' (Jon. 1 : 4)

285. The sailors, thinking that the ill-luck was caused by there being on board the ship some fugitive slave, wanted to discover him by casting lots. Then the mariners were afraid..And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us.' (Jon. 1 : 5, 7)

286. i. e., one of them, upon whom the lot fell. 'So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.' (Jon. 1 : 7)

287. (after he had been cast into the sea, according to the custom of the country, as the result of being found guilty by lots). 'So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea : and the sea ceased from her raging.' (Jon. 1 : 15)

288. 'Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.' (Jon. 1:17) According to the Jewish rabbis, 'this fish had so large a mouth and throat that Jonah found it as easy to pass into its belly as he would have found it to enter the portals of a very large synagogue.' (JE. VII. p. 227). According to the Bible, Jonah 'went down to Joppa ; and he found a ship going to Tarshish.' (Jon. 1 : 3), which voyage suggests the Mediterranean. Our commentators mention the river Tigris, on the right bank of which stood the city of Ninevah ; and this 'river contains great numbers of fish.' (JE. XII. p. 145) Sharks and other fish of very large size have even recently been known to swallow human beings. During the last World War, in July 1942, a certain captain G. D. Hodges' ship was torpedoed and sunk north of Cuba. In the month of November a shark was caught off the coast of Cuba, and in its stomach was found a signet ring which bore the initials 'G. D.' The circuit court admitted it as a piece of evidence of the captain's death in the belly of the shark.

289. (for having gone to the sea, and embarked on the ship, without the expres spermission of his Lord).

290. 'Then Jonah prayed unto the Lord his God out of the fish's belly.' (Jon. 2 :1)

291. i. e., mankind.

292. 'And the Lord spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.' (Jon. 2 : 10)

293. (to shade him).

294. The number of adult population. The reference is to Ninevah, the ancient capital of the Assyrian empire, which lay opposite the modern city of Mosul. Assyria was at the height of its power and Ninevah was the metropolis of the world (VJE, p. 325).

295. (that number). Taking in view the total population. 'Now Ninevah was an exceeding great city of three days' journey' (Jon. 3 : 3) : 'that great city wherein are more than six score thousand persons.' (Jon. 4 : 11) 'The actual extent of Ninevah proper is about 1,800 acres, or about two-thirds the size of Rome within Aurelian's Wall. It would contain a population of 175,000 on the allowance of 50 sq. yds. to a person.' (EBi. c- 3421) 'Captain Jones, who made a trigonometrical survey of the city in 1853, estimates that allowing 50 square yards to each inhabitant, the population may have amounted to about 174,000 souls.' (DB. III. p. 554)

296. (on the approach of the punishment wherewith they had been threatened).

297. i. e., until the expiration of their terms of life.

298. i. e., the Arab pagans, O Prophet !

299. i. e., while they are ashamed of having daughters for themselves they feel no shame in attributing them to God. The emotional side of Semitic heathenism was always very much connected with the worship of female deities partly through the associations of maternity, which appealed to the purest and tenderest feelings, and partly through other associations connected with woman, which too often appeals to the sensuality so strongly developed in the Semitic race.' (Robertson Smith, Religion of the Semites, p. 59). 'In point of fact, goddesses play a great part in Semitic religion, and that not merely in the subordinate role of wives of the gods.' (ib. p. 52)

304. (like other helpless creatures for final judgment).

305. (O infidels !)

306. Lit. 'Ye cannot against Him be tempters.' The purport is : far from having any other power you cannot even seduce anyone except him who is himself inclined to go astray, and for whom therefore it is decreed in Divine knowledge that he shall be a companion of the Fire.

307. (in the Divine knowledge).

308. (and who is himself paving his way to Hell).

309. Thus say the angels.

310. i. e., so far from being gods or demi-gods we are but His servants obediently serving Him and carrying His commands, and cannot go beyond the limits imposed on us by our Maker.

311. (attending the commands of God).

312. (His praise and glory).

171. (ولقد . . . المرسلين) And assuredly Our word has gone forth[321] for Our bondmen, the sent ones,

172. (انهم . . المنصورون) that verily they shall be made triumphant[322].

173. (وان . . . الغلبون) And verily Our host[323] ! they are to overcome.

174. (فتول . . . حين) So turn thou aside[324] from them[325] for a season.

175. (وابصرهم . . يبصرون) And see them thou[326], they themselves shall presently[327] see.

176. (افبعذابنا . . يستعجلون) Do they seek Our torment to hasten on ?

177. (فاذا . . . المنذرين) Then when it descends to them, face to face, a hapless morn that shall be for those who had been warned[328].

178. (وتول . . . حين) And turn thou aside[329] from them for a season.

179. (وابصر . . يبصرون) And see thou[330] : they themselves shall presently see.

180. (سبحن . . يصفون) Hallowed be thy Lord, the Lord of Majesty, from what they associate[331] to Him !

181. (وسلم . . المرسلين) And peace be unto the sent ones[332].

182. (والحمد . . العلمين) And all praise to Allah, the Lord of the worlds !

Sūrat-us- Sād

Sad. XXXVIII

(Makkan, 5 Sections and 88 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1.

1. (ص . . . الذكر) Sād. By the Qur'an full of admonition[333].

2. (بل . . . شقاق) Verily[334] those who disbelieve are in vainglory[335] and schism[336].

3. (كم . . . مناص) How many a generation We have destroyed before them[337] and they cried[338], but the time to flee[339] was past[340].

4. (وعجبوا . . . كذاب) And they[341] marvel that there should come to them a warner from amongst them[342]. And the infidels say : this is a magic[343] and a lie[344]

5. (اجعل . . . عجاب) Does he make the gods, One God[345] ? Surely that is a thing extraordinary[346].

6. (وانطلق . . . يراد) The chiefs among them departed saying[347] : go and perseve in your gods; surely this[348] is a thing designed[349].

7. (ما . . . . اختلاق) We have not heard of it in the later faith[350]; this is naught but an invention[351]

333. (that the infidels are entirely in the wrong).
334. بل , a particle of digression, is here synonymous with ان (LL).

336. i. e., opposition to the truth.
337. i. e., before the time of the present-day infidels.

342. i. e., a mere mortal like themselves.

343. (in his aspect of a miracle-worker).

344. (in his claims of inspiration and Divine revelation).

345. So that was the only real 'offence' of the Prophet of God!—his preaching of the One True God in place of so many separate godlings !

346. (and therefore must be rejected unheard and condemned forthwith). In the realm of polytheism the number of gods, higher and lower, and sub-deities is such that one is, in fact, overwhelmed by their vast medley. 'Starting from the theology of savage tribes, the student arrives at the polytheistic hierarchies of the Aryan nations. In ancient Greece, the cloud-compelling Heaven-god reigns over such deities as the god of War and the goddess of Love, the Sun-god and the Moon-goddess...In modern India, Brahma, Vishnu, Siva reign pre-eminent over a series of divinities...such figures as Indra of Heaven and Surya of the Sun, Agni of the Fire...the divine Rivers, and below these the ranks of nymphs, elves, demons, ministering spirits of heaven and earth.' (PC. II. p. 251)

347. (to one another). ان is here explicative used in place of يقولون (LL).

348. i. e., the preaching of this new prophet.

349. (against us to draw us from their worship).

350. i. e., whatever may have been the practice in the remote past, we have never come across this strange doctrine of the unity of God in the religion of our immediate ancestors.

351. (on his part).

8. (انزل . . . عذاب) What, has out of us[352], upon him[353] been sent down the admonition ? Yea ! they are in doubt concerning My admonition[354]. Yea ! they have not[355] yet tasted My chastisement[356].

9. (ام . . . الوهاب) Or is it that with them there are treasures of the mercy of thy Lord[357], the Bestower ?

10. (ام . . . الاسباب) Or is it that theirs is the dominion of the heavens and the earth and what is in-between[358] ? If so, let them ascend[359] by steps.

14 (ان . . . عقاب) There was not one[366] but did not belie the messengers; so My wrath was just[367].

SECTION 2

15. (وما . . . فواق) And these wait but for one cry[368] which will not be deferred.

16. (وقالوا . . . يوم الحساب) And they[369] say: our Lord ! hasten our portion to us before the Day of Reckoning[370].

17. (اصبر . . . اواب) Bear thou[371] with what they say, and remember Our bondman Dāūd, endued with strength[372]; verily he was oft-returning to Us[373].

18. (انا . . الاشراق) Verily We so subjected the mountains that they hallowed Us with him[374] at nightfall and sunrise.

352. (to the exclusion of our chiefs).
353. —a mere orphan—
354. (itself) i. e., they have wrong notions of the very nature of Revelation.

355. لمّا is compounded of لم and ما الزائدة, and means 'not yet.' (WGAL. II. p. 41)

356. Which is sufficient to open the eyes of the most perverse and obstinate of the rejectors.

366. (of them).

367. (on them).

368. i. e., the second blast of the Trumpet.

369. i. e., the scoffers.

370. i. e., bring our punishment here and now, immediately; why postpone it to the Day of Judgment ?

371. (O Prophet !)

372. 'He was a man of valour in a very extraordinary degree.' ("Ant." VII. 15 : 2) 'His military capacity is proved by the uniform success he achieved as a commander... To these qualities he added astute diplomacy and far-seeing statemanship.' (EBr. VII. p. 78). He was the real founder of the Hebrew empire. 'Israel rallied to David...and under David's leadership the supremacy of the Hebrew kingdom was decisively established.' (UHW. I. p. 677 : see also II. p. 817). 'David was brave, generous and magnanimous. He was a master-spirit who drew others to him and for whom they would gladly lay down their lives.' (NSBD. p. 173).

373. That David's was a deeply religious personality is admitted even by unfriendly critics. 'David himself was sincerely loyal to Jehovah, Israel's God. His battles were fought and his victories won in the name of Jehovah. None of his public acts was marked by any disloyalty or unfaithfulness to Jehovah...Through David the popular conception of the power of Jehovah must have been greatly strengthened.' (NSBD. p. 172) 'He was a sincerely religious man, a devout worshipper of Yahweh' (EBr. VII. p. 78) 'David's piety was so great that his prayers were able to bring things from heaven down to earth' (JE. IV. p. 455).

374. See P. XVII. n. 171.

19. (والطير . . . اواب) And so did the birds also, gathering[375]; all oft returning to Him on his account[376].

20. (وشددنا . الخطاب) And We strengthened[377] his dominion and vouchsafed to him wisdom[378] and decisive speech[379].

21. (وهل . . . المحراب) And has the news of the contending parties[380] reached thee[381], when they walled his apartment[382] ?

22. (اذ دخلوا . . . الصراط) When they went in to Dāūd, he was frightened at them[383]. They said : have no fear; we are two contending parties[384]. One of us has oppressed the other; so judge between us with truth[385], and be not iniquitous, and guide us to the even path.

23. (ان . . . الخطاب) Verily[386] this my brother[387] has ninety-nine ewes while I have a solitary ewe, and he says : entrust it to me, and he has overcome me in argument[388]

24. (قال . . . اناب) Dāūd said : assuredly he has wronged thee in demanding thy ewe in addition to his ewes and surely many of the partners oppress each other save such as believe and work righteous deeds, and few are they[389]. And Dāūd imagined[390] that We had tried him[391]. So he asked forgiveness of his Lord, and he fell down bowing[392] and turned in penitence[393].

25. (فغفرنا . . . مآب) So We forgave him that ; and verily for him is an access to Us[394] and a happy retreat.

375. (round him for the purpose).

376. i. e., all of them hymned the praise of God in unison with him.

377. 'David raised the land to the highest state of prosperity and glory, and by his conquests made the united kingdom the most powerful state of the age. To do this other qualities than mere military capacity were required...His talent enabled him to weld together the mixed southern clans which became incorporated under Judah, and to build up a monarchy which represented the highest conception of national life possible under the circumstances.' (EBr. VII. p. 858. 11th. Ed.)

'His real monument was the united kingdom which he established, its influence stretching right up into Syria : it was the most powerful Empire that Palestine ever produced.' (EBr. VII. p. 78) 'Greatly loved in his day, deeply revered by those who came after him. David was perhaps the most winsome character in Hebrew story, lovable, because so human, even in his faults. A great warrior, and a great statesman, his importance as the real constructor of the Hebrew kingdom can hardly be overestimated.' (ib) 'It is no easy task to gather into one view the various traits of character which the history of David's life has displayed before us. One feels so petty beside this great man : one's own feebleness is in such marked contrast to his strength, that, however one may strive to appreciate his many excellences, one is conscious of being unable to do justice to them.' (Deane, David : His Life and Times, p. 205). David's work for Israel was of greatest importance...His fame will endure as Israel's greatest ruler after Moses. He not only reunited Israel and gave it for the first time a strong, well-organised, and well-administered government but he gave it a new national consciousness......Under him for the first time Israel had a capital city, a central government, a standing army, a court, and a supreme court of justice.' (NSBD. p. 172).

378. حكمة , in addition to its other meanings, also means 'Equity or justice, in judgment or judicial decision.' (LL) 'We may safely assert that... no ancient Israelite exercised such a personal charm as David, and that he owed this not merely to his physical but also to his moral qualities. In him the better elements of the Israelitish character start at once into a new life.' (EBi. c. 1033) 'He knew well how to wait his opportunity, and instead of snatching at the kingship in haste allowed the fruit to ripen until it fell into his hands, all the while strengthening his hold upon his fellow countrymen. His choice of Jerusalem as capital is an excellent example of his wisdom.' (EBr. VII. p. 78) 'He was a discerner of men and knew how to use each in the place for which he was best fitted. As a king he showed a kingly dignity and bearing, but was withal affable and approachable. Politically he was shrewd and far-seeing, and his military skill gave him victory in all his wars. His people trusted and loved him as a just ruler'. (NSBD. p. 173).

379. David 'was also of very great abilities in understanding, and apprehensive of present and future circumstances, when he was to manage any affairs.' ('Ant.' VII. 15 : 2). 'Heading a kingdom which he had made, and giving to it institutions, military, civil, religious–he is energetic, laborious, unsparing of trouble, fertile in expedients, courageous in danger, self-relying, sufficient, in all transactions competent.' (Deane, David : His Life and Time, p. 211)

380. (in the reign of David).

381. (O Prophet !)

382. i. e., the oratory of David, which was well-guarded, and meant for prayers and devotion. They were perhaps prevented from going in to him by the door, because of his being engaged in devotion.

391. (through this incident).

392. (in thanksgiving.) Or 'prostrating himself.'

393. (for what he, judging himself by his own standard, considered himself guilty).

394. (in Paradise).

26. (بداؤد . . الحساب) O Dāūd[395] ! We have appointed thee a vicegerent in the earth[396]; so judge between mankind with truth[397], and do not follow thy desire[398], lest it cause thee to err from the path of Allah. Verily those who err from the path of Allah, to them shall be a severe torment for they ignored the Day of Resurrection.

SECTION 3

27. (وما . . . من النار) And We have not created the heavens and the earth and what is in-between in vain[399]. That[400] is the conjecture of those who disbelieve[401]. And woe unto those who disbelieve——the Fire[402] !

28. (ام . . . كالفجار) Shall We make those who believe and work righteous deeds like unto the corrupters in the earth[403]? Or shall We make the pious like unto the ungodly[404]?

29. (كتب . . الالباب) This is a Book blessed[405], We have sent down unto thee[406] that they[407] may ponder the revelations thereof, and that there may be admonished men of understanding.

30. (ووهبنا . . . اواب) And We vouchsafed to Dāūd Sulaimān[408]. An excellent bondman[409] ! he was oft-returning[410].

31. (اذ عرض . . الجياد) Recall when there were presented to him[411] at eventide[412] coursers swift-footed[413].

32. (فقال . . بالحجاب) He said[414] : verily I have loved earthly good above the remembrance of my Lord[415] until the sun has disappeared behind the veil.

395. (God addressed him thus).

396. (to execute and enforce His laws). 'David was not only a warrior but also a wise and energetic ruler.' (JE. IV. p. 455) 'This man was of an excellent character, and was endowed with all virtues that were desirable in a king, and in one that had the preservation of so many tribes committed to him.' ('Ant.' VII. 15 : 2) 'We can readily understand that the Jews of later days looked back to David as the ideal king and pictured the ruler of the happy day for which they hoped as a second David.' (EBr. VII. p. 78, 11th Ed.)

397. (and justice) 'To the chief civil duty of a king--the administration of justice—David paid the utmost attention.' (EBi. c. 1031) 'In after-times his name became the symbol of a righteous rule.' (c. 1034) 'He was prudent and moderate, and kind to such as were under any calamities : he was righteous, and humane ; which are good qualities, peculiarly fit for kings : nor was he guilty of any offence in the exercise of so great an authority.' ('Ant.' VII. 15 : 2)

398. (of thy heart). David's character 'should be judged by his habitual recognition of a generous standard of conduct, by the undoubted purity and lofty justice of an administration which was never stained by selfish considerations or motives of personal reasons, and finally by the calm courage which enabled him to hold an even and noble course in the face of dangers and treachery.' (EBr. VII. p. 858. 11th Ed.) 'Further criticism of records has only confirmed the eulogy given to David by Robertson Smith in 1877—that the administration of justice was never stained by selfish considerations or motives of personal rancour.' (EBi. c. 1034)

399. i. e., without a serious purpose.

33. (ردوها . . الاعناق) Bring them[416] back to me[417], and[418] he set about slashing their legs and necks[419].

34. (ولقد . . . اناب) And assuredly We tried Sulaimān[420], and set upon his throne a mere body[421]. And then he was penitent[422].

35. (قال . . . الوهاب) He said,[423] Lord ! forgive me[424], and bestow on me a dominion[425] which no one may obtain besides me[426]. Verily Thou ! Thou art the Bestower[427].

36. (فسخرنا . . اصاب) Then We subjected to him the wind ; it ran gently by his command witherward he directed[428].

37. (والشيطين . . . غواص) And We subjected to him the evil ones[429]: every builder[430] and diver[431].

38. (وآخرين . . الاصفاد) And others abound in fetters[432].

39. (هذا . . . . حساب) This is Our gift[433], so spend thou or withhold, without rendering an account[434].

40. (وان . . . ماب) And verily for him is an approach to Us[435], and a happy end.

SECTION 4

41. (واذكر . . . عذاب) And remember thou[436] Our bondman Ayyūb[437] when he cried to his Lord[438]: verily Satan has touched me with affliction[439] and suffering[440].

42. (اركض . . . شراب) Stamp thou the ground with thy foot[441]; yonder is water[442], to wash in, cool, and to drink.

43. (ووهبنا . . الالباب) And We bestowed on him his household[443] and along with them the like thereof[444], out of mercy from Us, and a remembrance to men of understanding.

416. i. e., those horses.

417. This Solomon said to those around him.

418. (to atone for his momentary negligence.)

419. i. e., slaughtering them as a sacrifice to God.

420. (in another way).

421. On a certain night, it is related, Solomon said that he would go in to his seventy wives, and thus would beget seventy sons, every one of whom would be a warrior in God's cause. Unhappily he omitted to add 'if God will,' which omission, though no sin in itself, was unworthy of a prophet of God. The consequence was that instead of 70, he had only one son, and that also a misshap, undeveloped invalid.

422. (of that slight negligence, as befitted a man of his deep spiritual susceptibilities).

423. The desire in Solomon's heart for begetting a number of sons was not for its own sake, but in order to obtain recruits for God's army. Now on reflection he prays for a state of things when need for an extremely efficient army should no longer exist, so that his entire time and attention should be devoted to acts of prayer and worship.

424. (for the past).

425. Which worldly power was evidently intended to be used for God's service.

426. (in my life-time, so that I may have no occasion for such negligence in future). 'History, Poetry and Legend combine to magnify the splendour of Solomon... He filled an unusually large space in the eyes of his contemporaries.' (Farrar, Solomon : His Life and Time, p. 129) For the greatness and splendour of Solomon's empire see P. XIX. n. 420.

427. (see that it is not difficult at all for Thee to grant this prayer).

428. See P. XVII. v. 81 : P. XXII. nn. 175, 177.

429. See P. XVII. n. 177.

430. (of wonderful structures). See P. XVII. n. 179.

431. (that brought up pearls from the sea). See P. XVII. n. 178.

432. (by way of punishment for their unruly behaviour).

433. Thus God said to Solomon.

434. i. e., thou art owner and master in the full sense.

435. (in the Hereafter).

436. (O Prophet !).

437. 'There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job : and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God and eschewed evil.' (Job. 1 : 1) 'And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil ?' (Job. 1:8). The land of Uz lay on the eastern borders of Palestine, near the desert of Arabia. Repeatedly in the Bible, he is classed with such personages as Noah aud David. 'These three men, Noah, David, and Job.' (Ezek. 14 : 14, 19) : and these are mentioned as the three most righteous men. His age and his epoch are matters of uncertainty. According to the rabbis, 'he lived in the time of Jacob's sons;... was born when Jacob and his children entered Egypt;... and died when the Israelites left that country.' Consequently he lived 210 years. (JE. VII. p. 193). 'Tradition places the home of the patriarch in the Hurān, where a monastery bearing his name exists. He is said to have been a native of Jol'an, and early Arabian authors state that he was born in the neighbourhood of Nuwā. Not far from the monastery is shown the Makam Eyy'ub, or Station of Job, his well, and the trough in which he is said to have washed after his trials were over... The currency of the tradition among both Christians and Mohammadans living in the district implies that it is of considerable antiquity.' (DB. IV. p. 842) See also P. XVII. n. 181.

438. (after the loss of his sons and himself being afflicted with a loathsome disease).

439. i. e., mental distress.

440. i. e., physical diseases. Job, a prophet of God as he is, attributes, out of sheer respect, his ailments to the devil, though everything was from God.

441. Thus God said to Job.

442. (for thee)

443. i. e., We restored to him his family.

444. i. e., not only were they restored but also their number was doubled. 'Also the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before... So the Lord blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning.' (Job. 42 : 10, 12)

44. (وخذ . . . اواب) And[445] take in thy hand a handful of twigs[446], and strike with it[117] and break not thy oath[118]. Verily We! We found him patient[449]. An excellent bondman[450]! verily he was oft-returning[451].

45. (و اذکر . . الا بصار) And remember thou Our bondmen, Ibrāhīm and Is-hāq and Ya'qūb[452] all owners of might and vision[453].

46. (انا . . . الدار) Verily We! We distinguished them with a distinct quality: the remembrance of the Abode[454].

47. (وانہم . . الاخیار) And verily they are of the elect of the excellent ones[455] with Us.

48. (و اذکر . . الاخیار) And remember Ismā'īl and Al-Yas'a[456] and Zul-kifl[457]; all of the excellent ones[458].

49. (هذا . . . ماب) This is an admonition[459]. And verily for the pious is a happy retreat——

50. (جنات . . . الابواب) Gardens Everlasting, the portals of which remain opened for them.

51. (متکئین . . . وشراب) Therein they will recline; therein they will call for plenteous fruit and drink.

52. (وعندهم . . اتراب) And with them will be virgins of refraining looks[460] and of equal age[461].

53. (هذا . . . الحساب) This it is which you are promised for the Day of Resurrection[462].

54. (ان . . . نفاد) Verily this is of Our provision; there will be no ceasing of it.

55. (هذا . . . ماب) This[463] for the righteous. And verily for the exorbitant there shall be an evil retreat——

56. (جہنم . . . المهاد) Hell, wherein they roast, a wretched couch[464].

57. (هذا . . . وغساق) This——let them taste it, scalding water and corruption[465].

58. (وآخر . . . ازواج) and other torments, like them conjoined.

445. (God said this to him further). Job, when he fell ill and had a very prolonged and loathsome illness was attended to very devotedly by his wife. Once the devil appeared to her, and taking advantage of her distracted condition reminded her of her past prosperity, and promised her that if she would worship him he would not only heal her husband, but restore to them whatever they had lost. On coming home she wanted to sound her husband on the subject. But hardly had she mentioned the proposal when the prophet Job was incensed at the very audacity of it, and swore forthwith to punish his wife with hundred stripes.

446. ضغث is 'A handful of herbs;... or a handful of twigs of trees or shrubs;... or whatever is collected together, and grasped with the hand.' Here it means, 'A bundle of rushes, a hundred in number, consisting of slender stalks without leaves, whereof mats are made.' (LL)

447. (thy wife). She was by now restored to her former youth and beauty. Job, to satisfy his oath taken in a mood of moral indignation, is now directed by God to strike her one simple blow with a palm-branch having a hundred leaves.

448. (by abstaining from striking her altogether). The obligation of the oath is rescinded as a matter of special mercy.

449. See P. XVII. n. 181 ff.

45 . 'And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.' (Job. 2 : 3)

451. (to Us). 'Then Job answered the Lord, and said....Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.' (Job. 42 : 116).

452. All of whom resisted and overcame evil.

453. i. e., men of action as well as of knowledge and understanding. This is added to vindicate their character from the charges of immorality brought against them by the Biblical writers.

454. i. e., they were men of true devotion and piety.

455. i. e., among the most honoured of the honoured ones, and not men of doubtful and mixed character as painted in the writings of the Jews and Christians.

456. See P. VII. n. 569.

457. Prophet Ezekiel of the Bible, noted for his splendid visions and literary imagery. Very little is known of his personal history beyond the fact that he was asked and consecrated to the ministry in the fifth year of his captivity in Babylon, and that the period of his ministry lasts probably from 592 B. C. to 570 B. C.

'Ezekiel and Jeremiah were contemporary prophets, though the latter was the much older of the two.' (Dummelow op. cit., p. 489) 'One of the great literary prophets, a son of Buzi, of priestly lineage. . .Highly respected on account of his piety and sagacity.' (VJE. p. 219) 'He is supposed to have been born during the reign of Josiah and to have been a younger contemporary of Jeremiah. . .He was carried captive with Jehoichin to Babylonia in 597. . . He is sometimes styled as the prophet of reconstruction. Others call him "the father of Judaism," since he placed the emphasis on love of God, need of holiness, and pre-eminence of the spiritual over the political aspect of communal life, thus cementing the real foundations of historical Judaism.' (ib). See also P. XVII. n. 188.

458. This is added to correct and contradict the darker side of their nature as depicted in the Bible.

459. (so that he who follows it shall fare well).

460. i. e., who shall refrain from looking at any besides their spouses.

461. i. e., of the same age as their spouses.

462. (O believers !).

463. i. e., so far with regard to the rewards of the righteous.

464. (to lie on).

465. (flowing from the bodies of the damned).

59. (هذا . . . النار) This is a crowd,[466] rushing in along with you; no welcome for them ; they are to roast in the Fire.

60. (قالوا . . . القرار) They[467] will say[468]: nay ! it is you for whom there is no welcome; it is you who have brought it upon us. Ill shall be their resting-place.

61. (قالوا . . . فی النار) They[469] will say : our Lord ! whosoever has brought this upon us, to him increase doubly the torment of the Fire.

62. (وقالوا . . الاشرار) And they[470] will say : what is the matter that we do not see the men whom we counted among the evil ones[471]

63. (اتخذنهم . . . الابصار) Did we take them for a butt of mockery so unjustly, or are they deluding our eyes[472] ?

64. (ان . . . اهل النار) Verily this is very truth : this wrangling[473] of the inmates of the Fire.

SECTION 5

65. (قل . . . القهار) Say thou[474] : I am but a warner, and there is no god but Allah, the One[475], the Subduer[476].

66. (رب . . . الغفار) Lord of the heavens and the earth and whatsoever is in-between them, the Mighty, the Forgiver.

67. (قل . . . عظیم) Say thou [477]: it[478] is a great news[479].

68. (انتم . . . معرضون) You are averting therefrom[480].

69. (ماکان . . . یختصمون) I had no knowledge of the chiefs on high[481] when they were disputing.[482]

70. (ان . . . مبین) Naught is revealed to me[483] except that I am a manifest warner.

71. (اذ قال . . . طین) Recall when thy Lord said to the angels : I am about to create a human being from clay;

466. (of the culprits). Thus the damned will say to one another.

467. i. e., the seduced ones ; the followers.

468. (to the seduced, the ringleaders).

469. i. e., the seduced ones.

470. i. e., the inmates of Hell; both the seducers and the seduced.

471. i. e., whom we, viewing with our distorted vision, took for the erring ones.

472. (while they are with us in Hell).

473. i. e., this mutual incrimination.

474. (O Prophet !)

475. (with no 'Persons' and 'Incarnations'). The number of the pagan gods is almost unthinkable. In the Hindu Pantheon 'there is often mention of thirty-three, or three times eleven, once of three thousand three hundred and thirty-nine; in the Atharva-Veda this last number is still further increased, the Gandharvas alone amounting to six thousand three hundred and thirty-three.' (Barth, op. cit., p. 25).

476. See P. XII. n. 496.

477. (O Prophet !)

478. i. e., the Message I bring.

479. (worthy of being listened to with heart and soul).

480. (as a mere man, and by myself).

481. i. e., angels.

482. (concerning Adam).

483. i. e., Revelation is the only source of my knowledge concerning the happenings on high, and so you ought to believe in me.

72. (فاذا . . . ساجدين) Then when I have created him and breathed into him of My spirit[484], fall down before him prostrate[485].

73. (فسجد . . . اجمعون) The angels fell prostrate; all of them.

74. (الا . . . كافرين) Not so Iblīs[486]. He grew stiff-necked, and became of the infidels.

75. (قال . . . العالين) Allah said : Iblis! what does prevent thee from prostrating thyself before what I have created with my both hands ?[487] Hast thou been stiff-necked[488], or art thou of the exalted ones[489].

76. (قال . . . طين) Iblīs said[490] : I am better than he[491] : me thou hast created of fire[492], and him Thou hast created of clay[493].

77. (قال . . . رجيم) Allah said : get thee forth herefrom[494], verily thou art driven away.[495]

78. (وان . . . يوم الدين) And verily My curse shall be on thee till the Day of Requital[496].

79. (قال . . . يبعثون) Iblīs said : Lord! respite me till the Day whereon they are raised up[497].

80. (قال . . . المنظرين) Allah said : verily thou art of those respited.

81. (الى . . . المعلوم) till the Day of the time appointed[498].

82. (قال . . . اجمعين) Iblīs said : by Thy Majesty, then I shall surely seduce them[499], all,

83. (الا . . . المخلصين) save Thy sincere bondmen among them[500].

84. (قال . . . اقول) Allah said : the truth is, and it is the truth I always say,

85. (لاملئن . . اجمعين) that I shall fill Hell with thee and such of them as shall follow thee. all together.

86. (قل . . . المتكلفين) Say thou[501]: I ask of you[502] no wage for it[503] nor am I of the affecters[504].

87. (ان . . . العلمين) It is naught but an admonition to the worlds.

88. (ولتعلمن . . . حين) And you shall surely come to know of its truth after a season[505].

484. 'And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and men became a living soul.' (Ge. 2 : 7) Note that this spirit of God breathed into man was never withdrawn from him. Hence there is no doctrine of the 'fall of man' in Islam:

485. See P. I. nn. 149, 150.

486. See P. I. n. 151.

487. 'The Muslim mystics explain this as meaning with both the glorious and the terrific attributes of God, whereas the angels were created by the exercise of only one class of attributes.' (Pickthall)

488. i. e., hast thou through arrogance an exaggerated idea of thyself ?

489. i. e., or art thou really too high in rank to bow to the command of God ?

490. (choosing in effect the latter alternative).

491. (and so I ought not be asked to do obeisance to a being lower than myself).

492. (which is a superior element).

493. (which is an inferior element).

494. See S. XV. v. 34.

495. (from God's grace and mercy).

496. (so that there is no chance whatever of forgiveness).

497. i. e., the dead.

498. i. e., the time of Resurrection.

499. i. e., mankind; the progeny of Adam.

500. i. e., marked by Thy grace. 'In the Louvre there is a picture, by Guido Reni, of St. Michael with his foot on Satan's neck. The richness of the picture is in large part due to the fiend's figure being there. The richness of its allegorical meaning also is due to his being there——that is, the world is all the richer for having a devil in it, so long as we keep our foot upon his neck. In the religious consciousness, that is just the position in which the fiend, the negative or tragic principle, is found; and for that very reason the religious conciousness is so rich from the emotional point of view.' (James, Varieties of Religious Experience, p, 50).

501. (O Prophet !)

502. (O pagans).

503. i. e., for my preaching. The purport is: I have no thought of gain or any other such motive for forging the role of an apostle.

504. i. e., nor am I led by nature or habit to practice deceit and falsehood.

505. (but then it shall be of no avail).

The troops. XXXIX

(Makkan, 8 Sections and 75 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

1. (تنزيل . . . الحكيم) The revelation of this Book is from Allah, the Mighty[506], the Wise[507].

2. (انا . . . الدين) Verily We! We have sent down the Book to thee[508] with truth : so worship thou Allah, making exclusion[509] for Him in religion.

3. (الا . . . كفار) Lo! for Allah is the religion exclusive.[510] and those who take patrons[511] besides Him, saying[512]: we do not worship them save in order that they may bring us nigh unto Allah[513]——verily Allah will judge between them[514] concerning that wherein they differ[515]. Verily Allah does not guide him who is[516] a liar and ingrate.

4. (لو . . . القهار) Had Allah willed to take a son, He would have chosen whomsoever He pleased out of what He has created[517]. Hallowed be He[518]! He is Allah, the One[519], the Subduer.[520]

506. i. e., Able to punish the opponents of His will immediately.

507. i. e.. One who gives respite to the transgressors in accordance with His universal Scheme.

508. (O Prophet !)

509. i. e., sincere and exclusive obeisance is due to God and to re-establish them on the earth was the mission of the holy Prophet.

510. Zeal and enthusiasm must follow true religion and piety.

511. (as more intimately connected with the affairs of man and more responsive to his invocations).

512. i.e., apologising for their cult of saints, angles, incarnations, and other gods !

513. i. e., the ever recurring plea of the polytheistic people. Compare and contrast with this absolute, pure, and unadulterated monotheism of Islam the palpably polytheistic attitude of Christianity. 'The faithful who belong to the Church militant upon earth, in offering their prayers to God, call at the same time to their aid the saints who belong to the Church in heaven; and these, standing on the highest steps of approach to God, by their prayers and intercessions purify, strengthen, and offer before God the prayers of the faithful living upon earth, and by the will of God work graciously and beneficently upon them.' ('Longer Orthodox Catechism,' quoted in ERE. XI. p. 51) 'We ask God to grant blessings, we ask the saints to be our advocates. To God we say; "Have mercy on us"; to the saints we commonly say : "Pray for us"...We beg of them, as they are pitiful, to take compassion on us and interpose in our behalf.' ('Roman Catechism', quoted in ERE. XI. p. 51) This mentality, perhaps, is at the root of the primitive manes-worship and the Christian cults of the dead. 'A crowd of saints, who were once men and women, now form an order of inferior deities, active in the affairs of men and receiving from them reverence and prayer.' (PC. II. p. 120)

514. i. e., the true believers on the one hand and the polytheists on the other.

515. i. e., respective divine honours to be offered to those Mediators and gods and goddesses.

516. (by habit and choice).

517. i.e., that 'Son' as a created being would have been in any case inferior to Him. The argument is : assuming that God betook for Himself a Son, is that Son an uncreated Being like Himself, or a created being inferior to Him and belonging to another class ? If the former, then the clear conclusion is a doctrine of Dualism; if the latter, does it befit a Perfect Being to beget one who is imperfect ?

518. (from all such blasphemous notions).

519. i. e., admitting of no duality or plurality in His person.

520. i. e., admitting of no partnership in His attributes. See P. XII. n. 496.

5. (خلق . . . الغفار) He has created the heavens and the earth with a purpose[521]. He rolleth the night around the day, and He rolleth the day around the night[522] and He has subjected the sun and the moon[523] each running on for a term appointed. lo ! He is the Mighty[524], the Forgiving[525].

6. (خلقكم . . . تصرفون) He created you[526] of a single soul[527] and made his spouse[528] therefrom[529]; and of the cattle He sent down unto you[530] eight kinds[531]. He creates you in the bellies of your mothers, one creation after creation,[532] in threefold darkness.[533] Such is Allah, your Lord. His is the dominion, there is no god but He. Whither then turn you away[534] ?

7. (ان . . . الصدور) If you disbelieve, then verily Allah is independent of you[535]. And he does not approve of infidelity in His bondmen[536]. And if you return thanks[537], He approves of that in you. No burdened soul shall have another's burdened[538]. Your return is thereafter to your Lord, and He shall declare to you what you have been doing[539], verily He is Knower of innumerate secrets .

521. i. e., with a definite purpose ; and not aimlessly or sportively.

522. 'Professor Whitehead describes the universe, not as something static but as a structure of events possessing the character of a continuous creative flow. This quality of Nature's passage in time is perhaps the most significant aspect of experience which the Qurān especially emphasizes.' (Iqbal, Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam, p. 61)

523. (to His laws). Being no deities or sub-deities, these two heavenly bodies, like all created beings, are subservient to Him and His laws.

524. So He shall punish those who reject His signs.

525. So He shall forgive them who repent after their rejection.

526. (O mankind !) See P. IV. n. 476.

527. (which He originated). The Holy Qurān makes it absolutely plain that all the present varieties of mankind have descended from a single undivided stock, and that the white-, the black-, and the red-skinned people of to-day,——the typical Negrito and the typical Caucasian——have sprung from one common ancestor. 'Specific unity of mankind is shown, in the words of a recent authority on anthropology, in the prevailing physical and mental uniformity of all peoples. According to E. B. Tylor all tribes of men, from the blackest to the whitest, the most savage to the most cultured, have such general likeness, in the structure of their bodies and the working of their minds, as is easiest and best accounted for by their being descended from a common ancestry, however, distant'' (ERE,V,p. 522). The question of the unity of mankind has occupied a prominent position among the ethnological attempts to survey the cultural history of the non-historic peoples.. World-wide distribution of similar cultural types could not possibly have taken place at early stage of human civilization, if, as some believed it to have been, the origin of humanity would not have been one, but manifold and parallel, in various regions of the globe. To this evidence, moreover, the observations of physical anthropology have still to be added. The various social, i. e., the bodily types of the human race, are different in superficial details, such as colour of skin, hair and eyes, form of nose, lips, eyelids or structure of the hair. But still, the human body is fundamentally the same among all the nations of the world.' (Ehrenfels in The Islamic Culture, for Oct. 1940, pp. 439, 440). The Qurān is clear and emphatic in asserting the basic unity of mankind and in proclaiming that Man is of one kind. See also P. IV. n. 477; IX. n. 346.

528. i. e., Eve the first woman.

529. i. e., from that soul.

530. i. e., four classes, male and female, of sheep, goats, camels and oxen.

531. i. e., for your general domestic use.

532. i. e., by various stages.

533. The embryo is covered by a membrane, which is in the womb, which again is in the belly; hence the three veils of darkness.

534. (O polytheists !)

535. (so you cannot harm Him possibly).

536. (in their interest, as it is to their own hurt).

537. (to Him, by accepting true doctrines).

538. (in the Hereafter). This does away with the doctrine of atonement altogether.

539. (and shall recompense you accordingly).

8. (واذ . . . النار) And when some hurt touches man, he calls upon his Lord, turning to him in penitence. Then when He bestows upon him a favour from Himself, he forgets that for which he had called on Him before, and sets up peers to Allah that he may lead astray others from His path. Say thou[540] : enjoy thou life in thy inf delity for a while[541], verily thou art of the inmates of the Fire.

9. (امن . . . الباب) Is he who is devout in the watches of the night prostrating himself and standing, bewaring of the Hereafter and hoping for the mercy of His Lord to be dealt with like a wicked infidel ? Say thou[542] : shall they who know and those who know not be held equal[513] ? It is only men of understanding who receive admonition.

SECTION 2

10. (قل . . . حساب) Say thou[544]: My faithful bondmen! fear your Lord. For those who do good in this world there is good[545]; and Allah's earth is spacious[546]. Surely the steadfast will be paid their wages in full without reckoning[547].

11. (قل . . . الدين) Say thou[548]: verily I am bidden to worship Allah, making religion exclusive for Him[549].

12. (وامرت . . . المسلمين) And I am bidden this, in order that I may be the first[550] of those who submit[551].

540. (O Prophet !)

541. i. e., during the brief little life of this world, O infidels !

542. (O Prophet !)

543. (in the sight of God).

544. (to the believers on My behalf, O Prophet !

545. (as compensation and reward).

546. So let him who cannot safely exercise his religion in his native land, emigrate to a place of liberty and security.

547. i. e., to their heart's content, and even more.

548. (O Prophet !)

549. i. e., to the total exclusion of every other worship.

550. (in order that others may follow me).

551. (themselves to God ; and others should follow my lead).

قل إني أخاف إن عصيت ربي عذاب يوم عظيم ۝ قل الله أعبد مخلصا له ديني ۝ فاعبدوا ما شئتم من دونه
قل إن الخاسرين الذين خسروا أنفسهم وأهليهم يوم القيامة ألا ذلك هو الخسران المبين ۝ لهم من فوقهم ظلل

وأنابوا إلى الله لهم البشرى فبشر عباد ۝ الذين يستمعون القول فيتبعون أحسنه أولئك الذين هداهم الله
وأولئك هم أولو الألباب ۝ أفمن حق عليه كلمة العذاب أفأنت تنقذ

13. (قل ... عظيم) Say thou[552]: I[553] fear, if I disobeyed my Lord, chastisement of an awful Day[554].

14. (قل ... دينى) Say thou: it is Allah I worship, making faith for Him exclusive.

15. (فاعبدوا ... المبين) So worship whatever you will besides Him[555] O pagans! Say thou: the real losers are those who shall have lost themselves[556] and their households[557] on the Day of Judgement. Lo! that will be a manifest loss[558].

16. (لهم ... فاتقون) For them! coverings of Fire will be above them and beneath them. With this Allah frightens His bondmen. My bondmen therefore fear Me.

17. (والذين ... عباد) And those who shun the devils lest they should worship them and turn to Allah in penitence, for them are glad tidings[559]. So give thou[560] glad tidings to My bondmen.

18. (الذين ... الالباب) who listen to the Word and follow the excellent thereof[561]. Those are they whom Allah has guided, and those are men of understanding.

552. (O Prophet !)

553. ——ever I am——

554. Even sinless prophets enjoy no privileged position in God's universal Law.

555. (and you will soon see the result, O pagans !)

556. (by their own errors).

557. (by having caused them to err).

558. (and real). Cf. the NT. 'For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul ? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ? (Mt. 16 : 26)

560. (O Prophet !)

561. Which means the whole of it.

19. (افمن . . . النار) Is he then on whom is justified the decree of torment——wilt thou[562] rescue him who is[563] in the Fire ?

20. (لكن . . . الميعاد) But those who fear their Lord, for them are lofty chambers with lofty chambers above them, built[564], whereunder rivers flow: the promise of Allah, and Allah fails not his appointment.

21. (الم . . . الباب) Dost thou not[565] see that Allah sends down water from the sky, and causes it to enter springs in the earth, and thereby produces corn various-coloured. Thereafter it[566] withers and thou seest it turn yellow; then He makes it chaff. Verily herein is admonition for men of understanding.

22. (افمن . . . مبين) Shall he then whose breast Allah has expanded for Islam, so that he follows a light from His Lord be as he whose heart is hardened ? Then woe to those who hearts are hardened against remembrance of Allah.[567] They are in a manifest error.

23. (الله . . . هاد) Allah has revealed[568] the most excellent discourse, a Book consimilar[569], oft-repeated[570], at which trembles the skins of those who fear their Lord[571]; then their skins and hearts soften to the rememberance of Allah.[572] This is Allah's guidence to which He guides whom He will[573]; and whom Allah sends astray, for him there is no guide[574].

24. (افمن . . . تكسبون) Is he, then, who will shield himself with his face from the evils of torment on the Day of Resurrection[575] be as he who is secure therefrom ? And it will be said to the ungodly: taste what you have been earning.

25. (كذب . . . يشعرون) Those who belied[576] before them[577], on them came the torment from whence they knew not[578].

26. (فاذاقهم . . . يعلمون) Allah made them taste humiliation in this world; and surely the torment of the Hereafter is greater——if they but know.

27. (ولقد . . . يتذكرون) And assuredly We have propounded in this Qurān every manner of similitudes for mankind, that haply they may be admonished.

29. (ضرب . . . يعلمون) Allah propounds a similitude: a man has several partners[582], quarreling[583], and a man the property of one man[584]. Are the two equal in likeness[585] ? But most of them know not[586].

30. (انك . . . ميتون) Verily thou[587] art mortal and they[588] are mortals.

Equally clear is the serenity of mind attending the worshipper of the only True God. Cf. the NT ;—'No man can serve two masters : for either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other.' (Mt. 6 ; 24) Also Lk. 16 : 13.

PART XXIV

32. (فمن . . . للكفرين) And who is a greater wrong-doer than he who fabricates[1] a lie against Allah, and belies the truth when it comes to him ?[2] Will not be the abode in Hell for the infidels ?

33. (والذی . . . المتقون) And whosoever brings the truth[3] and whosoever gives credence to it——these ! they are the pious.

34. (لهم . . . المحسنين) Theirs shall be whatever they will desire with their Lord[4]; that is the wage of the well-doers.

35. (ليكفر . . . يعملون) This will be in order that Allah may expiate from them the evil of what they may have worked, and may recompense them their wage for the best of what they have been working.

36. (اليس . . . هاد) Is Allah not sufficient[5] for His bondmen[6] ? Yet they[7] would frighten thee[8] with those besides Him[9]. And whom Allah sends astray[10], for him there will be no guide.

37. (ومن . . . انتقام) And whom Allah guides for him there will be no misleader. Is not Allah Mighty and Lord of Retribution ?[11]

38. (ولئن . . . المتوكلون) Wert thou[13] to ask them[13]: who has created the heavens and the earth ? They will surely say: Allah,[14] Say thou[15]: consider you then that those whom you call upon besides Allah,——could they, if Allah intended some hurt for me, remove His hurt ? Or if He intended some mercy for me, could they withhold His mercy ?[16] Say thou : enough for me is Allah; in Him the trusting put their trust.

39. (قل . . . تعلمون) Say thou: O my people![17] act according to your station ; I am going to act in my way; presently you shall come to know——

40. (من . . . مقيم) on whom comes a humiliating torment[18] and on whom alights a lasting torment[19].

41. (انا . . . بوكيل) Verily We! We have sent down to thee[20] the Book for mankind[21] with truth. Then whoever receives guidance it is for this own soul[22], and whoever strays, strays only to its hurt; and thou art not a guardian over them[23].

SECTION 5

42. (الله . . . يتفكرون) Allah it is Who takes away the souls[24] at the time of their death and those who do not die in their sleep[25]; then He withholds those[26] on whom He has decreed death, and sends back the rest[27] for an appointed term[28]. Verily herein are signs[29] for those who ponder.

43. (ام . . . يعقلون) Have they[30] taken others for intercessors[31] besides Allah ? Say thou: what! even though they[32] own not aught and understand not?

12. (O Prophet !)

13. i. e., the pagans of Makka.

14. The Makkans believed 'in a supreme God whom they called Allah'. (ERE.I.p. 326) 'Wellhausen cites a large number of passages in which pre-Islamic Arabs mentioned Allah as a great deity'. (p. 664). The offence of the Arabs was not that they denied the Supreme Being or the Creator; they fully recognized His existence, but they associated other deities with Him.

15. (to confute them).

16. i. e., have these associate-gods of yours any power either for good or for evil in the presence of the Almighty ? In the philosophy underlying the religion of polytheism, nature is throughout divine. Everything which is impressive by reason of its sublimity is supposed to be capable of affecting man for good or evil, and therefore becomes a direct object of adoration and worship. It is this position the Quīān is so merciless in assailing.

17. i. e., the Arabs.

18. (in this world).

19. (in the Hereafter).

20. (O Prophet !).

21. i. e., for their benefit and instruction.

22. i. e., for the benefit and advantage of his own soul.

23. i. e., responsible for their actions.

24. (of men in toto).

25. (partially). Life itself ceases at the time of death, while conscious life undergoes temporary cessation during every act of sleep.

26. (souls) i. e., does not permit them again to return into their bodies.

27. (to their bodies, when they are awake).

28. i. e., till the time of their death.

29. (of His providence).

30. i. e., the pagans.

31. (and therefore as objects of adoration and worship).

32. i. e., images and idols.

44. (قل ... ترجعون) Say thou: Allah's is intercession altogether[33]. His is the dominion of the heavens and the earth; then[34] to Him you shall be returned[35].

45. (واذا .. يستبشرون) When mention is made of Allah alone[36], the hearts of those who believe not in the Hereafter[37] shrink with aversion; and when mention is made of those besides Him,[38] lo! they rejoice[39].

46. (قل ... مختلفون) Say thou[40]: Allah! Creator of the heavens and the earth[41]! Knower of the hidden and the open! Thou shalt judge between them[42] concerning what they have been differing in.

47. (ولو ... يحتسبون) And were the ungodly[43] to own[44] all that is on the earth, and with it as much again, they will seek surely to ransom therewith[45] from the torment of the Day of Judgment, and there will become apparent to them from Allah what they had not been reckoning[46].

48. (وبدالهم .. يستهزءون) And there will become apparent to them the evils of what they earned, and there will surround them what they had been mocking at.

49. (فاذا ... يعلمون) When hurt touches a man[47] he calls on Us[48], and afterwards when We have changed it into a favour from Us, he says[49]: I have obtained it[50] by force of my knowledge[51]. Aye! it is a trial[52], but most of them know not.

33. i. e., none can presume to intercede with Him, unless by His permission. This strikes at the very root of Saviourhood and Mediation of Christ and others. Referring to four passages in the NT says a modern spokesman of Christianity :—'In all these passages Christ is represented as mediating between God and man. God and man have been estranged. The relation which normally subsists between them has been destroyed, and the work of the mediator is to restore it. In 1 Timothy this work is explicitly connected with the redemptive death of Christ; there is one mediator between God and men, Himself man, Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a ransom for all'. (ERE. VIII. p. 516). The Christians pride themselves on calling this faith the religion of Mediation. 'While the word "mediator" is rarely met with, the idea contained in it is one of the most vital and influential thoughts in religion. Nearly every religion bears witness to it...(It) is found more clearly and forcibly expressed in Christianity than in any other type of religion. So prominent and characteristic is the idea that we might define Christianity in the abstract as Theism plus Mediation...for it is this idea that most distinguishes the religion of the NT from pure Theism.' (D.B. III. p. 311-12).

34. (after the expiry of your life in this world).

35. (so Him alone you are to worhip).

36. (as the One and Only God).

37. i. e., those who are not true monotheists.

38. Whether as independent gods, co-equal with God or as subordinate associate-gods.

39. Although the pagans of Makka were familier with the idea of a Creator, Allah, yet this belief 'had little significance in their lives, as in the Maker of the universe they did not see their Lawgiver and Judge, but held themselves dependant for their good and evil fortune upon all manner of beings which they rendered favourable or harmless by animistic practices.' (Hurgronje, Mohammedanism, p. 29) Not very different is the case of the Christians. Look at their invocation of the saints, their veneration of relics and their use of images. And look at their Litany of the Blessed Virgin :—'We fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God ! despise not our prayers in our necessities, but deliver us from all dangers, O ever glorious and blessed virgin, Lord, have mercy on us. Christ, have mercy on us...God the Father of Heaven, have mercy on us. God the Son, Redeemer of the world, have mercy on us. God the Holy Ghost, have mercy on us. Holy Trinity, One God, have mercy on us......Lord of God, who takes away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.' (Butler's Catechism, pp. 9-12). See also P.I.n. 523).

50. (قد . . . يكسبون) Surely said it[53] those before them, yet there did not avail them what they have been earning.[54]

51. (فاصابهم . . . بمعجزين) And there befell them the evils[55] of what they had earned. And of them they who go wrong[56]——presently will befall them the evil of what they earn; nor can they frustrate[57].

52. (اولم . . . يومنون) Do they not know that Allah[58] expands provision for whom he will, and stints it for whom He will ? Verily herein are signs[59] for them who believe.

SECTION 6

53. (قل . . . الرحيم) Say thou[60] : My bondmen who have committed extravagance against themselves[61] : despair not of the mercy of Allah : verily Allah will forgive the sins altogether[62]. Verily He! He is the Forgiving, the Merciful.

54. (وانيبوا . . تنصرون) Turn penitently to your Lord[63], and submit to Him[64], before there comes to you the torment, and then you shall not be succoured[65].

55. (واتبعوا . . تشعرون) And follow the best of what has been sent down to you from your Lord[66] before there comes to you the torment of a sudden, while you perceive not[67].

56. (ان . الساخرين) lest[68] a soul should say[69]: Alas ! for that I have been remiss in respect of Allah, and I was but of the scoffers!

53. Compare a saying of Korah in Surat-ul-Qasas, verse 78.

54. i. e., their devices and designs.

55. i. e., the evil consequences.

56. (of men of this generation).

57. (Our vengeance).

58. (in accordance with His own universal laws, and not as a consequence to the infidels' petty devices and designs).

59. (of God's sole potency).

60. (on My behalf, O Prophet !)

61. (by acts of infidelity and impiety).

62. (to those who sincerely repent and confess His Unity). Compare and contrast with this the teaching of the NT :—'All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in the world to come.' (Mt. 12 : 31, 32)

63. (to earn His forgiveness).

57. (او تقول . . . المتقين) Or, lest it should say: had Allah but guided me[70], I would surely have been of the pious!

58. (او تقول . . . المحسنين) Or, lest it should say when it beholds the torment: were there for me a return[71] I would be of the well-doers.

59. (بلى . . . الكفرين) Yea![72] surely there came to thee My revelations, but thou beliedest them and wast stiff-necked[73] and wast of the infidels.

60. (ويوم . . . للمتكبرين) And on the Day of Judgment thou[74] shalt see those who lied against Allah[75]——their faces blackened[76]. Is not the abode of the stiff-necked in Hell ?

61. (وينجى . . . يحزنون) And Allah will deliver them who feared Him to their place of safety. Evil will not touch them, nor will they grieve.

62. (الله . . . وكيل) Allah is the Creator of everything,[76-A] and He is a Trustee over everything[76-B].

63. (له . . . الخسرون) His are the keys of the heavens and the earth[77]; and those who disbelieve in the revelations of Allah——those! they are the losers.

SECTION 7

64. (قل . . . الجاهلون) Say thou[78] : is it other than Allah that you[79] call me to worship, O you pagans![80]

65. (ولقد . . . الخاسرين) And assuredly it has been revealed to thee[81] and to those before thee[82] : if thou[83] joinest[84] surely of no effect shall be made thy work, and thou shalt surely be of the losers.

66. (بل الله . . . الشاكرين) Aye! Allah must thou worship, and be among the thankful.

70. (in the world) i. e., had His guidance been reached me through any of His messengers.

71. (into the world).

72. Thus they will be answered.

73. The denial was due not to any lack of understanding but to sheer contumacy.

74. (O Prophet !)

75. (denying the mission of the holy Prophet and calling the Holy Qurān a human production).

76. (with the scorching fire of the Hell, as also with fear and disgrace).

76-A. Even a thing so evident to the religious conciousness of mankind has needed special emphasis in view of the crudities and monstrosities of many a 'philosopher.' Aristotle, for example, is no believer in Divine creation. 'If the question be asked, whether Aristotle thinks of God as creator of the world, the answer must certainly be that he does not. For him matter is ungenerated, eternal; he expressly argues against a creation of the world.' (Rose, Aristotle, p. 184)

76-B. (and not only the First Cause or Prime Mover, as understood by pagan philosophers). He is the supreme Director, the Provider of everything big or small, and is into the closest conceivable relation with every object of the universe. 'Aristotle, when he considers the nature of God, feels that the ascription to Him of any practical interest in the world would detract from His perfection.' (Rose, op. cit., p. 124).

77. i. e., He is their sole Creator, Preserver and Ruler.

78. (O men of Makka !)

79. (O Prophet !)

80. جاهل literally is 'Ignorant; and, silly, or foolish, in conduct; and, wrong in conduct; characterised by جهل in any of the senses assigned to this word above.' (LL), but in the usage of the Holy Qurān is also synonymous with a 'pagan' or 'a heathen'; and it is in this sense that the word is used here. See P. IV. n. 264.

81. (O Prophet !)

82. (of the prophets).

83. (O reader !)

84. (aught with God).

68. (ونفخ . . ينظرون) And the trumpet shall be blown[92], when all who are in the heavens and all who are on the earth[93] shall swoon away[94], save whom Allah wills[95]. Then it shall be blown again, and lo! they[96] shall be standing, looking on[97].

69. (واشرقت . يظلمون) And the earth will gleam with the light[98] of the Lord[99] and the Record[100] will be set up,[101] and the prophets and the witnesses[102] will be brought, and the judgement between them[103] will be given with truth, and they will not be wronged.

70. (ووفيت . . . يفعلون) Every soul will be paid in full[104] what it has worked; and He is the Best Knower of what they do[105].

SECTION 8

71. (وسيق . . الكفرين) And those who disbelieve will be driven to Hell in troops[106] till, when they arrive thereto, its portals will be opened, and its keepers will say to them[107]: did not there come to you messengers from amognst you, rehearsing to you the revelations of your Lord and warning you of the meeting of this your Day ? They will say : Yea ! but the word of chastisement has been justified on the infidels[108].

85. i. e., the polytheists.

86. See P. VII. n. 585. Compare a saying of Paul in the NT:—'We ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.' (Ac. 18 : 29)

87. (with all its vastness).

88. i. e., no more than a mere handful. So great is His might !

95. (to except from the common fate). 'Who can be the subject of this exception but those in whom the ego has reached the very highest point of intensity ? And the climax of this development is reached when the ego is able to retain full self-possession, even in the case of a direct contact with the all-embracing Ego. As the Qurān says of the Prophet's vision of the Ultimate Ego : His eye turned not aside, nor did it wander.' (53 :17) 'This is the ideal of perfect manhood in Islam. Nowwhere has it found a better literary expression than in a Persian verse which speaks of the Prophets' experience of Divine illumination :

موسیٰ زهوش رفت به یك گوشهٔ صفات   تو عین ذات می نگری در تبسمے

"Moses fainted away by a mere surface illumination of Reality : Thou seest the very substance of Reality with a smile !" (Iqbal, op. cit. pp. 163-164).

72. (قيل . . . المتكبرين) It will be said: enter the portals of Hell to be abiders therein[109]. How ill, then is the abode of the stiff-necked!

73. (وسيق . . خالدين) And those who feared their Lord will be driven to the Garden in troops[110] till, when they arrive thereto, and its portals will be opened,[111] and its keepers will say to them[112]: peace be to you! excellent are you, enter it as abiders[113].

74. (وقالوا . . . العاملين) And they[114] will say[115]: all praise to Allah, Who has made good His promise to us, and made us inherit this land[116], so that we may dwell in the Garden wherever we will![117] Excellent, then, is the wage of the workers!

75. (وترى . . . العالمين) And thou wilt see[118] the angels thronging round the Throne[119], hallowing the praise of their Lord. And Judgment will be given between them[120] with truth[121]; and it will be said[122]: all praise to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

The Believer. XL

(Makkan, 9 Sections and 85 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (حم) Ha. Mim.

2. (تنزيل . . . العليم) The revelation of the Book is from Allah, the Mighty, the Knower.

3. (غافر . . . المصير) the Forgiver of sin, Accepter of repentance[123], Severe in chastisement, Lord of Power[124]. No god is there but He; to Him is the journeying,

4. (ما . . . البلاد) None dispute concerning the revelation of Allah save those who disbelieve; so let not their going about in the cities beguile thee[125].

5. (كذبت . . عقاب) The people of Nūh and the confederates[126] after them, belied their messengers before these[127], and every disbelieving community advanced towards their messenger that they may seize him[128], and disputed with vain talk, that they may confute the truth thereby[129]. So I seized them, and how terrible was My chastisement!

123. Note once more that the expiation of sin in Islam entirely rests, on the one hand, on the repentance of the sinner and, on the other hand, on the forgiving and merciful nature of God.

124. ذي الطول means 'The Possessor of all-sufficiency, and of super-abundance, or of bounty, or the Possessor of power, or of bounty, and beneficence.' (LL)

125. (into thinking that they will escape punishment, O reader !) See P. IV. n. 458.

127. i. e., before the time of these Makkan pagans.

128. i. e., that they might get him in their power.

129. (perversely ignoring the merits of the Message).

6. (وكذلك . . . النار) And thus has the Word of thy Lord been justified on them who disbelieve, that they shall be the inmates of the Fire.

7. (الذين . . . الجحيم) Those[130] who bear the Throne, and those who are round about it, hallow the praise of their Lord and believe in Him and ask forgiveness for the faithful[131], saying : our Lord! Thou comprehendest everything in mercy[132] and knowledge[133], so forgive those who repent and follow Thy path, and protect them from the torment of the Flaming Fire.

8. (ربنا . . . الحكيم) Our Lord! make them enter the Everlasting Gardens which Thou hast promised them, and also such of their fathers and their wives and their offspring as are fit[134]. Verily Thou! Thou art the Mighty[135], the Wise[136].

9. (وقهم . . . العظيم) And guard them against evils[137]. And whom Thou shalt protect from evils on the Day, him Thou hast certainly taken into mercy: and that: it is a mighty achievement.

SECTION 2

10. (ان . . . فتكفرون) Verily those who disbelieve——they will be cried unto[138]: surely Allah's abhorrence[139] was greater than is your abhorrence toward yourselves[140], when you were called to belief[141], and you rejected.

130. (of the angels).

131. (and dwell on the earth).

132. (so Thou art sure to be merciful to the believers).

133. (so Thou art sure to have knowledge of their belief).

134. (to enter Paradise, but yet whose good works are not of the highest order). This shows that the faithful by their good works and prayers may cause their relatives who have died in the faith a higher degree of merit than they would be entitled to on the ground of their own works.

135. i. e., Able to make whomsoever Thou wilt enter the Paradise.

136. i. e., Full of wisdom in apportioning degrees to the immates of Hell and Heaven.

137. (of every sort).

138. (when in the agony of Fire they will be feeling highly disguested with themselves).

139. (towards you).

140. (just now).

141. (while in the world).

11. (قالوا . . . سبيل) They will say: our Lord! Thou hast made us die twice[142], and Thou hast made us live twice[143], now we confess our sins[144], is there no getting out any way ?

12. (ذالكم . . . الكبير) That is[145] because when Allah alone was called upon you denied; and when some one was associated with Him you believed[146]. So the judgment is of Allah, the Exalted, the Great.

13. (هوالذى . . . ينيب) He it is Who shows you[147] His signs[148] and sends down provision for you from the heaven, and none receives admonition[149] save him who turns[150] in penitence.

14. (فادعو . . . الكفرين) Therefore call to Allah, making faith pure for Him, averse as the infidels may be.

15. (رفيع . . . التلاق) He is Lofty in degrees[151], Lord of the Throne. He casts the spirit of His command[152] upon whomsoever He will of His bondmen, that he[153] may warn the people of the Day of meeting——

16. (يوم . . . القهار) the Day whereon they[154] will appear[155]; nothing of them will be concealed from Allah. Whose is the dominion today ? It is of Allah, the One[156], the Subduer[157].

17. (اليوم . . . الحساب) Today every soul will be recompensed for what it has earned, no wrong-doing today; verily Allah is Swift at Reckoning.

145. This will be said to them by the angels.

149. (and guidance).

150. i. e., who wills to believe; who is sincerely and seriously desirous of finding guidance.

151. Or, the Exalter of ranks; One who has lofty degrees to confer.

157. i. e., admitting of no partnership in His attributes, See P.XII.n. 496.

19. (يعلم . . . الصدور) He knows the fraud of the eyes, and what the breasts conceal.

20. (والله . . . البصير) Allah decrees with truth, while those whom they call upon beside Allah cannot decree anything[160]. Verily Allah: He is the Hearer, the Beholder!

SECTION 3

They were mightier than these in strength and in the traces[163] in the land. Yet Allah seized them for their sins, and from Allah they had none as protector.

22. (ذالك . . . العقاب) This, because their messengers were wont to bring them evidences[164], but they disbelieved: so Allah seized them. Verily He is Strong, Severe in chastisement.

23. (ولقد . . . مبين) And assuredly We sent Mūsā with Our signs: and a clear authority:

24. (الى . . . كذاب) to Fir'awn[165], Hāmān[166] and Qārūn[167], but they said: a magacian, a liar.

158. (O Prophet !) آزف applied to a man, hastening, or quick; and endeavouring to hasten, or be quick. الآزفة The resurrection;...or it means, the near event, or case, of being on the brink of the fire of Hell.' (LL)

159. (with terror).

160. i. e., God is and shall be the sole Judge. This repudiates the Christian doctrine of Jesus being the Judge and Arbiter. Cf. the NT :—'For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.' (Mt. 16 : 27) 'When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory : and before him shall be gathered all nations : and he shall separate them one from another, as a shephered divideth his sheep from the goats : and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.' (Mt. 25 : 31-34)

161. i. e., the present-day infidels.

162. It is a fact noted by historians and anthropologists alike that 'imposing civilizations in the past have been overwhelmed in sudden and wholesale disaster.' (EMK. I. 400)

26. (وقال . . . الفساد) And said Fir'awn[172] : leave me alone, that I may slay Mūsā and let him call upon his Lord[173]. I fear that he[174] may change your religion[175] or that he may cause disruption in the land[176].

27. (وقال . . . الحساب) And said Mūsā[177] : verily I seek refuge in my Lord and your Lord from every stiff-necked person who does not believe in a Day of Reckoning.

SECTION 4

28. (وقال . . كذاب) And a believing man of Fir'awn's household[177-A], hiding his faith, said[178] : would you slay a man because he says, my Lord is Allah, and has come to you with evidences from your Lord ? If he is an impostor, upon him will be his imposture[179], but if he is truthful, then shall befall you some of what he threatens you with[180]. Verily Allah does not guide[181] any one extravagant or a liar[182].

175. i. e., your ancient national religion, which included the Pharaoh worship. The popular religion of Egypt, at the time of Moses, was gross form of polytheism. 'The priests had invented, and maintained the outward polytheism and idolatry, as the only religion suitable to the mass of the people; they inculcated it; they administered its rites; they sanctioned its grossness, its licentiousness, its lowering and debasing materialism.' (Rawlinson, Moses : His Life and Times, p. 39)

176. (by setting at naught the laws of the country and by raising seditions).

177-A. Cf. the Of:—'He that feared the word of the Lord among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses' (Ex.9: 20) That some, at all events, of the Egyptians had come to believe in Moses seems certain.

178. (to the people of the Egyptian court).

179. (i.e. upon his head will be the evil consequences of his life.

180. Compare a similar incident, recorded in connection with the apostle Jesus, in the NT :—' When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them. Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law . . . And said unto them , Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men . . . And now I say unto you, Refrain form these men, and let them alone : for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought : But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.' 35. (الذين . . . جبار) those[194] who wrangle concerning the signs of Allah without any authority that has come to them. It is greatly abhorrent to Allah and to those who believe. Thus Allah seals up the heart[195] of every stiff-necked high-handed person.

36. (وقال . . الاسباب) And Fir'awn said : Hāmān![196] build for me a tower[197] that I may reach the roads[198]——

37. (الاسباب . تباب) the roads of the heavens so that I may mount up to the God of Mūsā, and surely I believe him to be a liar[199]. And thus fair-seeming to Fir'awn was made the evil of his work, and he was hindered from the path[200]. And the plot of Fir'awn ended only in perdition.

SECTION 5

38. (وقال . . . الرشاد) And he who had believed[201] said : my people ! follow me, and I shall guide you to the path of rectitude.[202]

39. (ياقوم . . . القرار) My people ! the life of this world is only a passing enjoyment, and verily the Hereafter ! that is the Abode of rest.

40. (من عمل . . . حساب) Whosoever works an evil, he shall not be requited except the like thereof; and whosoever, male or female, works righteously, and is a believer——they will enter a Garden wherein they shall be provided for without measure.

41. (وياقوم . . . النار) And, my people! how is it[203] that I call you unto salvation, while you call me to the Fire?

194. Another instance of the abrupt transition in Arabic, from the singular number, to the plural.

195. (with no trace left for receiving the truth).

196. That the Theban High Priest of Amon was himself only next in importance to Pharaoh is a fact well-known to history. ' As the wealth and power of Amon in particular increased, his High Priest at Thebes became a more and more important political factor. We recall that he was head of the sacerdotal organization embracing all the priesthoods of the country : he thus controlled a most influential political faction. Hence it was that the High Priest of Amon under Merneptah (Ramses II's son and successor) and possibly already under Ramses himself was ab'e to go further and to install his own son as his successor, thus firmly entrenching his family at the head of the most influential hierarchy in Egypt.'' (Breasted, History of Egypt. pp. 456-457). See also P. XX. n. 100.

197. In the Jewish tradition there is a dim yet sufficiently distinct mention of a castle being built for the king of Egypt 'between heaven and earth'. (JE. I. p.288). The kings were the builders, and the high-priests carried out their directions.' (Rawlinson, Ancient Egypt. p. 290). Hāmān, or the Theban High Priest of Amon was also the Principal Architect of the empire (ib).

198. See P. XX. n. 211.

199. (in his assertion that there is a God other than myself). ظن here stands for belief or conviction.

200. (of rectitude)

201. (among the people of Pharaoh). See verse 28 above.

202. See the concluding words of the verse 29 above. The path of rectitude, says the man of faith, lies with him, and not with Pharaoh.

203. An expression of wonder, equivalent to 'how is it ?'

(ان الذين . . . البصير) Verily those who wrangle concerning the revelations of Allah without an authority having come to them[224] ——naught is there in their breasts save ambitions[225] which they shall not achieve. Seek refuge thou then in Allah;[226] verily He! He is the Hearer, the Beholder.

57. (لخلق . . . يعلمون) The creation of the heavens and the earth[227] is indeed greater than the creation of mankind;[228] yet most of mankind know not.

224. i. e., with no plausible grounds whatever.

225. i. e., the quest of greatness.

228. (for a second time; at the resurrection). This is said in answer to the pagans who denied the possibility of Resurrection.

229. (O infidels!)

230. (and not unto others). Prayer is the higher medium, in Islam, whereby man can enter into communion with God. See P. II. nn. 231, 232; P. XX. n. 8.

231. Whether that answer be immediate, direct or indirect. Cf. the OT :—'Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.' (Is. 55 : 6) And the NT :—'Watch ye therefore and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass.' (Lk. 21 : 36).

232. 'God, himself, the One, reveals himself to man through prophets and otherwise, and man, in prayer, can come directly to God. This is Muhammad's great glory. The individual soul and its God are face to face' (Macdonald, Religious Attitude and Life in Islam, p. 38)

233. Contrast with this such fantastic doctrines of certain polytheist peoples; 'Summer and Winter are at war with one another, exactly like Day and Night; Day and Summer gladden, as Night and Winter vex the world.' (ERE. v. p. 103)

234. (by acknowledging His unity)

63. (كذالك . . . يجحدون) In this wise those who were wont to gainsay the signs of Allah have strayed away.[237]

64. (الله . . . العلمين) Allah it is Who has made the earth for you a resting-place and the sky a structure;[238] and fashioned you[239] and fashioned well, and provided for you goodly things. Such is Allah, your Lord! So blessed be Allah,[240] the Lord of the worlds.

65. (هو . . . العلمين) He is the Living;[241] no god there is but He. So call upon Him, making faith pure for Him. All praise for Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

66. (قل . . . العلمين) Say thou;[242] verily I am forbidden that I should worship those whom you call upon besides Allah when evidences[243] have come to me from my Lord, and I am commanded that I should submit to the Lord of the worlds.[244]

235. This strikes at the godless, childish and materialistic cosmogonies of the Greek 'philosophers.' According to Plato, 'fire and water and earth and air all exist by Nature and chance' and none of them by an action of mind, and 'the bodies which come next in order——the earth, sun, moon and stars——have been created by means of these absolutely inanimate existences. The various elements are moved by chance, and also by inherent forces according to certain affinities amongst them ......After this fashion has been created the whole of heaven and all that is therein, as well as all animals and plants and all the seasons. These come from these elements, not by any action of mind or of any god or from art but by Nature and chance only.' (EMK. I. p. 3) And, according to an Aristotelian dictum, 'nothing comes into existence out of that which is not, but everything out of that which is'; so that 'there can have been no process of creation, merely a redistribution of four elements and their four qualities.' (ib).

74. (من . . . الكفرين) besides Allah? They will say: they have failed us: aye! we have not been calling on aught[257] before. Thus does Allah lead the infidels[258] astray.

268. See P. XIV. nn. 125. 126. Not only have animals been very frequently deified and not only is there a regular cult of animal-gods among polytheistic peoples, but animals in various mythologies have also been known as Creator. 'In some cases chance seems to have caused an animal to figure as Creator.' (ERE. I. p. 485) 'Though we find cases in which the Creator is an object of worship, or at any rate of respect, we also find a share in creation assigned to animals which are not even specially sacred. كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ ۚ كَانُوٓا أَكْثَرَ مِنْهُمْ وَأَشَدَّ قُوَّةً وَآثَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَمَآ
أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُم مَّا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ۝ فَلَمَّا جَآءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَٰتِ فَرِحُوا بِمَا عِندَهُم مِّنَ
الْعِلْمِ وَحَاقَ بِهِم مَّا كَانُوا بِهِۦ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ۝ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا قَالُوٓا ءَامَنَّا بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُۥ وَكَفَرْنَا
بِمَا كُنَّا بِهِۦ مُشْرِكِينَ ۝ فَلَمْ يَكُ يَنفَعُهُمْ إِيمَٰنُهُمْ لَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا ۖ سُنَّتَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي قَدْ خَلَتْ

82. (افلم ... يكسبون) Have they[272] not travelled on the earth that they may behold[273] how has been the end of those before them.[274] They were more numerous than these, and mightier in strength and the traces[275] in the land. But naught availed them of what they had been earning.

83. (فلما ... يستهزؤن) And when their messengers came to them with evidences,[276] they exulted in the knowledge[277] they had with them, and there surrounded them what they had been mocking.

84. (فلما ... مشركين) Then when they beheld Our prowess they said: we believe in Allah alone, and we disbelieve in what we have been associating with Him.

85. (فلم ... الكافرون) But their belief[278] profited them naught[279] when they had seen Our prowess. This is Allah's dispensation[280] that has been in regard to His bondmen.[281] And[282] lost were the infidels then and there.

6. (قل . . . المشركين) Say thou[293]: I am only a human being like you[294]; only it is revealed to me that your god is but One God[295], so take the straight path to Him[296], and seek forgiveness of Him[297], and woe be to the associators,

8. (ان الذين . . . ممنون) Verily those who believe and work righteous deeds ——to them shall be a wage unceasing.

SECTION 2

9. (قل . . . العالمين) Say thou[299]: are you indeed those who disbelieve in Him Who has created the earth in two days[300], and set up peers unto Him? That is the Lord of the worlds.

10. (وجعل . . . للسائلين) And He placed therein mountains firmly rooted rising above it, and He blessed it[301], and ordained therein the sustenance thereof[302], all this in four days[303], complete[304]; this for the inquirers[305].

11- (ثم . . . طائعين) He thereafter turned to the heaven[306], and it[307] was as smoke[308], and said to it and to the earth: do you twain come willingly or loth[309]? they said: we come[310] willingly[311].

298. i. e., who are so misguided in practice.

299. (to the infidels, O Prophet!).

300. Perhaps the first two days of the weak.

301. (by many things of advantage and benefit).

302, i. e., designed to meet the needs of its inhabitants.

303. That is, including the two former days wherein the earth itself was created.

309. The purport is : Obey you must Our physical laws and commandments like all others created beings ; now the question is, shall ye accept the Divine rule heartily and cheerfully or only grudgingly, feeling it as a yoke ?

310. i. e., submit to Thy rule.

311. i. e., with the passionate happiness of loyal and loving servants, not in the drab discoloured way of Stoic resignation.

ذَٰلِكَ تَقْدِيرُ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ ﴿١٢﴾ فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَقُلْ أَنذَرْتُكُمْ صَاعِقَةً مِّثْلَ صَاعِقَةِ عَادٍ وَثَمُودَ ﴿١٣﴾ إِذْ جَاءَتْهُمُ
الرُّسُلُ مِن بَيْنِ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ ۖ قَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّنَا لَأَنزَلَ مَلَٰئِكَةً
فَإِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُم بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَأَمَّا عَادٌ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَقَالُوا مَنْ أَشَدُّ مِنَّا قُوَّةً ۖ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ
اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَهُمْ هُوَ أَشَدُّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً ۖ وَكَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يَجْحَدُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا صَرْصَرًا فِي أَيَّامٍ

وَأَمَّا ثَمُودُ فَهَدَيْنَٰهُمْ فَاسْتَحَبُّوا

12. (فقضهن . . . العليم) Then He decreed them[312] as seven heavens in two days[313], and revealed to each heaven the command thereof[314]. And We bedecked the nether heaven[315] with lamps[316] and placed therein a guard[317]. That is the ordinance of the Mighty[318], the Knower.[319]

13. (فان . . . وثمود) Then if they[320] still turn away[321], say thou: I warn you of a calamity of the 'Aād and Thamūd.

14. (اذجاءتهم . . كافرون) Recall when the messengers came to them from before them and behind them[322] saying: worship none save Allah. They said: had our Lord willed[323], He would have sent down angels[324], so verily we disbelieve altogether in what you have been sent with[325].

15. (فاما . . . يجحدون) As for the 'Aād, they grew stiff-necked on the earth without justification, and said:[326] who is mightier in strength than we? Did they not see that Allah Who created them, ——He was mightier in strength[327] than they? And they used to gainsay Our signs.

16. (فارسلنا . . ينصرون) Wherefore We sent upon them a raging wind in inauspicious days[328], so that We might make them taste the torment of humiliation in the life of this world, and surely the torment of the Hereafter will be more humiliating, nor will they be succoured.

312. Or, 'finished.' قضى, He finished a thing entirely, by word, or by deed. This is the primary meaning.' (LL)

319. i. e., Cognizant of the needs of all.

320. i. e., the Arab pagans.

321. (from the doctrine of unity).

322. i. e., from everyside, persuading and urging them continually.

323. (to send messengers at all).

324. (and not mere human beings like yourselves). The fact of the prophets being mortal and mere human being has always proved a stumbling-block to the pagan nations.

325. (as ye profess).

326. (in reply to the warnings of the prophets).

327. (and ahle to inflict punishment on them).

328. i. e., inauspicious for them on account of the Divine visitation.

العمى على الهدى فأخذتهم صاعقة العذاب الهون بما كانوا يكسبون ﴿١٧﴾ ونجينا الذين
آمنوا وكانوا يتقون ﴿١٨﴾ ويوم يحشر أعداء الله إلى النار فهم يوزعون ﴿١٩﴾ حتى إذا ما جاءوها شهد عليهم

الله الذي أنطق كل شيء وهو خلقكم أول مرة وإليه ترجعون ﴿٢١﴾ وما كنتم تستترون
أن يشهد عليكم سمعكم ولا أبصاركم ولا جلودكم ولكن ظننتم أن الله لا يعلم كثيرا
مما تعملون ﴿٢٢﴾ وذلكم ظنكم الذي ظننتم بربكم أرداكم فأصبحتم من الخاسرين ﴿٢٣﴾

17. (واما . . . يكسبون) And as for the Thamūd, We guided them[329], but they preferred blindness to guidance, wherefore the bolt of the torment of abjection struck them because of what they had been earning.

18. (ونجينا . . . يتقون) And We delivered those who believed and were God-fearing[330].

SECTION 3

19. (ويوم . . . يوزعون) And on the Day when the enemies of Allah will be gathered towards the Fire, they will be set in bands[331] ;

20. (حتى . . . يعملون) until when they come to it[332] their ears and their sights and their skins will bear witness against them of what they had been working.[333]

21. (وقالوا . . . ترجعون) And they[334] will say to their skins: why do you bear witness against us? They will say: Allah has caused us to speak, as He causes everything to speak, [335] and Who created you the first time, and to Whom you are now caused to return.

22. (وما . . . تعملون) And you have not been taking cover against yourselves[336], lest your ears and your eyes and your skins should bear witness against you[337], and you imagined that Allah did not know much of what you were working.

23. (وذالكم . . . الخسرين) That conception of yours which you formed of your Lord has ruined you, and you have become of the losers.

329. i. e., showed them the way through Our prophets.

330. (in awe of their Lord).

331. i. e., classed according to their guilt.

332. i. e., to the Judgment-seat, close to the Hell.

333. To keep in view, in this connection, the modern development of the palm and finger-prints system,——the evidence of one's own limbs——would be interesting as well as instructive.

334. (dazed and bewildered at this self-revelation)

335. i. e., the Ultimate Source and Efficient Cause of all speech has caused us also to speak, why express suprise then !

336. (and keeping secret from your limbs and members, while you sinned in the world). Thus will the confirmed sinners and infidels be addressed.

337. i. e., you were powerless from hiding your sins from your very limbs and members and could not imagine that they would rise up against you as hostile witnesses.

فان يصبروا فالنار مثوى لهم وان يستعتبوا فما هم من المعتبين ۝ وقيضنا لهم قرناء
فزينوا لهم ما بين ايديهم وما خلفهم وحق عليهم القول في امم قد خلت من قبلهم من
الجن والانس انهم كانوا خسرين ۝ وقال الذين كفروا لا تسمعوا لهذا القران والغوا فيه
لعلكم تغلبون ۝ فلنذيقن الذين كفروا عذابا شديدا ولنجزينهم اسوا الذي
كانوا يعملون ۝ ذلك جزاء اعداء الله النار لهم فيها دار الخلد جزاء بما كانوا
بايتنا يجحدون ۝ وقال الذين كفروا ربنا ارنا الذين اضلنا من الجن والانس

24. (فان . . . المعتبين) Then if they are patient[338], the Fire is their very home[339], and if they seek term to please Allah, then they will not be of those who are allowed to please Allah[340].

25. (وقيضنا . . خاسرين) And We have assigned to them[341] companions[342] who had bedecked to them what was before them and what was behind them[343]. Justified upon them was the word[344] pronounced on the communities of jinn and mankind who passed away before them[345]. Verily they were the losers.

SECTION 4

26. (وقال . . . تغلبون) And those who disbelieve say[346]: listen not to this Qur'ān[347], and babble therein[348], haply you may overcome.

27. (فلنذيقن . . . يعملون) So We will cause those who disbelieve to taste a severe torment, and We will surely requite them the worst of what they have been working.

28. (ذالك . . . يجحدون) That is the meed of the enemies of Allah —— the Fire. Therein is their home of Abidance —— a meed for their gainsaying of Our signs.

338. i. e.. if they bear their torment patiently.

339. (and this resignation on their part would bring them no relief).

340. 'And if they solicit God's favour. they shall not be regarded with favour; or, if they petition their Lord to cancel their compact, or to restore them to the world, He will not do so ; i. e., He will not restore them to the world : knowing that, if they were restored, they would return to that which they have been forbidden to do.' (LL)

341. i. e., unto the infidels.

342. (devils in human form).

343. i. e., those companion devils had dressed up pleasures of sin in the eyes of the infidels.

344. (of God announcing punishment to the offenders).

345, i. e., the common sentence of perdition has been for all the wrong-doers, ancient and modern, past and present.

346. (to one another in their intense hatred of the preaching of Islam).

347. (when it is being recited by the Prophet).

348. (so that its hearing may be drowned by your scoffs and laughter).

29. (وقال . . . الاسفلين) And those who disbelieve will say[349]: our Lord! show us those of jinn[350] and mankind who led us astray and we[351] will place them under our feet that they may be of the nethermost.

30. (ان الذين . . . توعدون) Verily those who said: our Lord is Allah, and have thereafter stood by it —— on them will descend the angels[352] saying: fear not. nor grieve, and rejoice at the glad-tidings of the Garden which you have been promised.

31. (نحن . . . تدعون) We[353] have been your friends in the life of the world[354], and are such in the Hereafter; herein[355] whatsoever you desire shall be yours and whatsoever you call for shall be yours.

32. (نزلا . . . رحيم) An entertainment[356] for you from your Lord, the Forgiving, the Merciful.

SECTION 5

33. (ومن . . . المسلمين) And who is better in speech than he who summons unto Allah and works righteously, and says: verily I am of the Muslims.

34. (ولا . . . حميم) Good and evil cannot be equal[357]. Repel thou[358] evil with what is goodly, then behold! he, between whom and thee was enmity, will be as though he was a warm friend.

35. (وما . . . عظيم) And none attains that[359] except those who are patient[360]; and none attains that except the owner of mighty good fortune.

364. All of which are mere created objects, and not deities to be worshipped.

365. One of the most popular of all 'natural' deities. 'Rivalling in power and glory the all-encompassing Heaven, the Sun moves eminent among the deities of nature . . . It is no exaggeration to say, with Sir William James, that one great fountain of all idolatry in the four quarters of the globe was the veneration paid by men to the sun.' (PC. II. pp. 285-86.) 'To men who could thus look on the sky, earth, and sea as animated, intelligent beings, the Sun, giver of light and life to the world, rising and crossing the sky and descending at night into the under-world whence he arose, has the clearest divine personality, . . . As far back as ancient history reaches, the Sun-god appears . . .' (Tylor, Anthropology, Vol, II, p. 360) According to a modern writer, if one were to merely list the peoples who have been votaries of the Sun the list would include almost all nations, old and new, from Akkadians and Aztecs to Lapps and Zulus. 'As one of the most conspicuous and powerful objects in the physical world the sun has naturally attracted the attention and obtained the homage of many races, who have personified and worshipped it as a god . . . Whatever the reason may be, a solar religion appears to flourish best among nations which have attained to a certain degree of civilization, such as the ancient Egyptians and the Indians of Mexico ahd Peru at the time when they were discovered by the Spaniards.' (FWN. pp. 441-442) Proceeding further. Frazer gives accurate and minute details of Sun-worship in India (both ancient and modern), Persia, Greece, Rome, Egypt, Babylonia, Arabia, Japan, and other countries.

366. 'Nearly every place in early times would have a sun god or a moon god or both, and in the political development of the country the moon god of the conquering city displaced or absorbed the moon god of the conquered. (Roger, Religion of Babylonia, p. 79) 'Moon-worship, naturally ranking below Sun-worship in importance, ranges through nearly the same district of culture. There are remarkable cases in which the Moon is recognised as a great deity by tribes who take less account, or none at all, of the Sun.' (PC. II. p. 299) 'The Moon-god or goddess marks the festivals of rude forest tribes who dance by the light of the full moon. It is not uncommon for the Moon to rank above the Sun, as perhaps for the astronomical reasons was the case in ancient Babylonia ; but more usually the Sun stands first, as seems to us more natural ; and commonly Sun and Moon are looked on as a pair, brother and sister, or husband and wife.' (Tylor, Anthropology, Vol. II. p. 361).

372. (either by corrupting them or ignoring altogether).

373. (as every infidel is bound to be).

374. (and the final Judge and Arbiter).

41. (ان . . . عزيز) Verily those who disbelieve in the Admonition when it comes to them are themselves at fault[375]; verily it is a Book mighty[376].

42. (لايا تيه . . . حميد) Falsehood cannot come to it from before it or from behind it[377]. It is a Revelation from One Wise and Praise-worthy[378].

43. (ما . . . اليم) Naught[379] is said to thee[380] save what was said to the messengers before thee[381]. Thy Lord is Owner of forgiveness[382] and the Owner of afflictive chastisement[383].

44. (ولو . . . بعيد) And had We made it a Recital into a foreign tongue[384], they[385] would certainly have said: why are not the verses thereof explained to us[386]? A foreign tongue[387] and an Arab[388]! Say thou[389] to those who believe in it[390], it is a guidance[391] and a healing[392]; and those who do not believe[393], in their ears is a heaviness and to them it is blindness[491]. These are they who are[395] cried unto from a place far-off[396].

SECTION 6

45 (ولقد . . . مريب) And assuredly We vouchsafed the Book to Mūsā and there arose difference concerning it. And had not a word gone forth from thy Lord[397] the affair would have been decreed[398] between them[399]. And verily they are in regard thereto in doubt and dubitating.

46. (من . . . للعبيد) Whosoever works righteously it is for his own soul, and whosoever works evil it is against it. And thy Lord is not[400] an oppressor to His bondmen[401].

375. (for this denial and infidelity).

376. (and powerful in evidences and arguments), i. e., those who reject the Qurān do so for their own want of proper understanding and not on account of any defect or deficiency in the Qurān itself.

377. i e., error cannot enter it from any side and in any respect whatever.

378. Hence its superhuman perfection and miraculous excellence.
379. (of ridicule and contumacy).
380. (by the infidels, O Prophet !).
381. (by the infidels of the past).
382. (so they can still save themselves by repentance).
383. (to which they are doomed if they remain unrepentant).
384. (and still addressed it in the first instance to the Arabs).
385. i. e., the Arab pagans.
386. (and made intelligible to us in our own tongue). The Arabic language. —in which the Arabs themselves took particular delight, for its copious vocabulary, its wealth of forms and its inherent capability of cultivation,—was peculiarly fitted to take a leading position in the world. If it is compared, for example, with the unwieldy Latin, or even with the turgid Persian, it is found to be specially distinguished by the possession of short Abstract forms——a property of great service in scientific expression. It is capable of indicating the finest shades of meaning . . .' (De Boes, History of Philosophy in Islam, pp. 31-32). Classical Arabic is characterized by an extraodinary richness of vocabulary and the logical, systematic character of its grammatical structure. (EBr. II. p. 192). See also P. XIV. n. 342.

395. (as though).
396. i. e., they are so far off that they neither hear nor understand the voice of him who calls to them.

399. i. e., between the believers and the rejectors.
400. (at all).
401. The God of Islam, as contradistinguished from tribal or national gods of other communities, is perfectly Just and absolutely Benevolent; not vindictive or malevolent.

PART XXV

47. (اليه . . . شهيد) To Him[1] alone is referred the knowledge of the Hour[2]. And not a fruit comes forth from its knops, nor does a female conceive[3] or bring forth but with His knowledge. And on the Day when He will call unto them[4]: where are My associates[5]? they will say: we assure Thee, none of us is a witness thereof[6].

48. (وضل . . . محيص) And those whom they had been calling upon before will fail them, and they will perceive[7] that there is no refuge for them.

49. (لا . . . قنوط) Man is never wearied of[8] praying for his worldly good, and if an evil visits him, he is despondent, despairing[9].

50. (ولئن . . . غليظ) And if, after an affliction has visited him, We cause him to taste of Our mercy, he is sure to say: this is my own[10], and I do not think that the Hour will ever arise, and were I to be brought back to my Lord, surely there will be for me an excellent reward from Him. But[11] We shall surely declare to those who disbelieve what they have worked, and make them taste a rough torment.

51. (اذا . . . عريض) And when We show favour to man, he turns aside and withdraws[12] on his sides, and when evil touches him he is full of prolonged prayer[13].

52. (قل . . . بعيد) Say thou : think ! if it[14] is really from Allah and you reject it, who is further astray than one who is in schism far-off ?

53. (سنريهم . . . شهيد) Soon[15] We shall show them[16] Our signs[17] in the universe[18] and in their own selves[19] until it becomes manifest to them[20] that it is the truth. Does it not suffice in regard to thy Lord[21], that He is Witness over everything ?

54. (الا . . . محيط) Lo ! they are in doubt concerning their meeting with their Lord[22]. Lo ! He is the Encompasser of everything.

(Makkan, 5 Sections and 53 Verses)

In the nama of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (حم) Hā. Mīm.

2. (عسق) 'Ain. Sīn. Qāf.[23]

3. (كذالك . . . الحكيم) Thus[24] reveals to thee[25] and to those before thee[26] Allah, the Mighty, the Wise.

4. (له . . . العظيم) His is whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth, and He is the Exalted, the Grand.

5. (تكاد . . . الرحيم) Well-nigh might be rent the heavens from above them[27]. And the angels hallow the praise of their Lord and ask His forgiveness for those on the earth. Lo ! verily Allah ; He is the Forgiver, the Merciful.

---

23. (by His knowledge, and so, He is sure to requite them for their deeds).
24. i.e., as He has revealed this chapter.
25. (other chapters, O Prophet !).
26. (other Books).
27. (by the awfulness of His glory and majesty).

وَمِنَ الْأَنْعَامِ أَزْوَاجًا ۖ

6. (والذين . . . بوكيل) And those who take patrons besides Him——Allah is Warden over them[28], and thou art not guardian over them[29].

7. (وكذالك . في السعير) And thus We have revealed to thee a Qurān in Arabic, that thou mayest warn thereby the mother-town[30] and those around it[31], and that thou mayest warn them of a Day of Assembling whereof there is no doubt. And of mankind a party will be in the Garden, and a party in the Blaze.

8. (ولو . . . نصير) And had Allah willed, He would have made them[32] all a single community[33]. But[34] He causes whom He will to enter into His mercy[35]. And the ungodly! for them there shall be no patron or helper.

9. (ام . . . قدير) Have they[36] taken patrons besides Him? But Allah! He is the Patron. He quickens the dead, and He is Potent over everything.

SECTION 2

10. (وما . . . انيب) And whatsoever it be in which you differ[37], the decision thereof is with Allah; such is Allah, my[38] Lord. In Him I put my trust, and to Him I turn in penitence[39].

---

28. Sufficient to requite them for their deeds.

29. (so do not be grieved over their fate, O Prophet!).

30. (primarily, and in the first instance). The 'mother of towns' is the city of Makka, so called because it is the greatest of towns in dignity, whither all the believing peoples on the earth repair, and also because it was held by ancient geographers to be in the middle of earth. The inter-continental location of Arabia, and its central position in the midst of the three continents of the Old World are facts of very great significance. 'The wide diffusion of Islam is an instance in point. This religion has been singularly fortunate in the land of its birth......The central position of its birth-place has been a powerful geographical factor in its wide dissemination to the remotest corners of the world, the importance of which factor has rarely been recognized, much less emphasized, by investigators.' (Inayatullah, op. cit. p. 37). See also P. VII. n. 598.

31. i. e., dwellers of other places.

32. i. e., mankind.

33. i. e., followers of the one and true religion.

34. (in His universal scheme).

35. (by predisposing him to faith and belief).

36. i. e., the infidels.

37. (regarding matters of faith, O infidels !). The Prophet is commanded to address the infidels thus.

38. The speaker in the sentence is the Prophet.

39. (and so am unafraid of you).

يذرؤكم فيه ليس كمثله شيء وهو السميع البصير ﴿١١﴾ له مقاليد السموت والأرض يبسط الرزق

11. (فاطر . . . البصير) The Originator of the heavens and the earth. He has made for you mates of yourselves[40], and for the cattle also mates, whereby He diffuses you. Not like Him[41] is aught[42], and He is the Hearer, the Beholder.

12. (له . . . عليم) His are the keys of the heavens and the earth, He expands the provision for whomsoever He will and also straitens[43]. He is the Knower of everything.

13. (شرع . . . ينيب) He has ordained for you[44] in the faith what He had enjoined upon Nūh[45] and what We have revealed to thee[46], and what We had enjoined upon Ibrāhīm and Mūsā and Īsā, saying : establish the faith, and be not divided in it[47]. Grievous unto the polytheists is that[48] to which thou callest them[49]. Allah choses for Himself whom He will[50], and Allah guides to Himself him who turns in penitence.

40. i. e., of your own kind, O mankind !

41. ——far from having any affinity with Him——. The God of Islam, though intimately concerned in all things that are, is Himself absolutely distinct from them as their Creator.

42. (in person, nature or attributes) i. e., He is the Unique, the Absolute, the Incomparable. This strikes at the root of anthropomorphism and all forms of polytheism, overt or covert. It accounts of deep admiration and wonder. Gibbon speaks of the Islamic conception of Godhead :—'A creed too sublime perhaps for our present faculties. What object remains for the fancy, or even the understanding, when we have abstracted from the unknown substance all ideas of time and space, of motion and matter, of sensation and reflection ?, (GRE. V. p. 339)

43. (it for whomsoever He will).

44. (O Muslims !).

45. i. e., the one true religion revealed from the beginning to all true prophets,——the religion of monotheism, the oldest religion known to humanity.

'Ethnological investigation into cultural history shows that the first religion of mankind was monotheistic, and that the ethical and moral level of the oldest jungle-tribe-civilizations (though very poor materially) has been an extremely high one.' (Ehrenfels in the Islamic Culture, Oct. 1940, p. 446). See also P. II nn. 384, 385 ; IX. n. 280.

46. (O Prophet !).

47. There is nothing to dispute about in the fundamentals of religion.

48. i. e., the doctrine of the unity of God.

49. (O Prophet !) i. e., the doctrine of the unity of God.

50. So that in the language of a modern psychologist, 'there are forces seemingly outside of the conscious individual that bring redemption to his life.' (James, Varieties of Religious Experience, p. 211).

69. (by a large number of persons)
70. 'by which we can weigh all moral issues, all questions of right and wrong in conduct.' (AYA) The balance here may refer, according to the best commentators, either to sense of justice innate in human nature, by which we can weigh all moral issues, or to the 'Law of Islam' (Shari'at) as a whole which is the ultimate criterion in our hand of all questions of right and wrong.

الْحَقُّ ۗ أَلَا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُمَارُونَ فِي السَّاعَةِ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿١٨﴾ اللَّهُ لَطِيفٌ بِعِبَادِهِ يَرْزُقُ مَن يَشَاءُ ۖ وَهُوَ

الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٢٢﴾ ذَٰلِكَ الَّذِي

18. (يستعجل . . . بعيد) It is only those who do not believe therein seek to hasten it[72], and those who believe therein are fearful thereof, and know that it is the truth. Lo! verily those who debate concerning the Hour are in error far-off.

19. (الله . . . العزيز) Allah is Gentle[73] to His bondmen[74]. He provides for whomsoever He will, and He is the Strong, the Mighty.

SECTION 3

20. (من . . . نصيب) Whosoever seeks the tillage of the Hereafter[75], to him We shall give increase in his tillage; and whosoever seeks the tillage of this world[76], We shall give him somewhat thereof. and in the Hereafter his shall be no portion[77].

21. (ام . . . اليم) Have they associate-gods who have instituted for them a religion which Allah has not approved? And had there not been a decisive word[78], the affair would have been judged between them[79]. And verily the ungodly! theirs shall be afflictive torment.

22. (ترے . . . الكبير) Thou shalt see[80] the ungodly fearful on account of what they have earned, and it[81] is sure to befall them. And those who believe and work righteous deeds will be in meadows of the Gardens. Theirs will be whatsoever they desire with their Lord. That! that is the supreme grace.

71. (O Prophet!) The reference is to the constant questionings of the pagans regarding the exact time and date of Resurrection.

72. (by way of mockery and ridicule).

73. (in this world).

74. (whether they are obedient or otherwise).

75. (by labouring here to obtain a reward in the hereafter).

76. (by confirming all his efforts to the material side of life).

77. Cf. the NT :—'For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption ; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.' (Ga. 6 : 8)

78. (from God respiting their punishment to the Day of Judgment).

79. (immediately, and in this very world).

80. (on that Day).

81. i. e., the penalty thereof.

يُبَشِّرُ اللّٰهُ عِبَادَهُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ ۗ قُلْ لَّآ اَسْـَٔلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ اَجْرًا اِلَّا الْمَوَدَّةَ فِى الْقُرْبٰى ۗ وَمَنْ

اللّٰهُ يَخْتِمْ عَلٰى قَلْبِكَ ۗ وَيَمْحُ اللّٰهُ الْبَاطِلَ وَيُحِقُّ الْحَقَّ بِكَلِمٰتِهٖ ۗ اِنَّهٗ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُوْرِ ۝ وَهُوَ الَّذِيْ

الْاَرْضِ وَلٰكِنْ يُّنَزِّلُ بِقَدَرٍ مَّا يَشَاۤءُ ۗ

23. (ذالك . . . شكور) That[82] is the glad tidings Allah gives to His bondmen who believe and work righteous deeds[83]. Say thou :[84] I ask of you no wage for that[85] save affection in respect of kinship[86]. And whosoever does a good deed We shall increase to him good in respect thereof[87]; verily Allah is Forgiving[88], Appreciative[89].

24. (ام . . . الصدور) So they say[90]: he[91] has fabricated a lie concerning Allah? Now if Allah willed He could seal thy heart[92]; and Allah[93] abolishes falsehood[94] and establishes truth[95] by His words[96]. Verily He is the Knower of what is in the breasts.

25. (وهو . . . تفعلون) And He it is Who accepts repentence from His bondmen[97], and pardons evil deeds and knows what you do.

26. (ويستجيب . . شديد) He answers those who believe and work righteous deeds and increases to them of His grace. And the infidels! theirs shall be a severe torment.

82. i. e., the above-mentioned great felicity.

83. Note once again that it is the delights of the Hereafter that are the real reward to the faithful.

84. (to the Arab pagans, O Prophet !).

85. i.e., for my preaching.

86. (so universally displayed, and on that account give me at least a patient and tolerant hearing). Remember that the holy Prophet is here appealing to those who, though alienated from him in religion and theology, were united to him with the closest ties of blood relationship. That this was the strongest appeal that could possibly be made to the Arabs is a fact well-known to the Arab history.

87. i.e., We shall add there to the merit of other good actions.

88. i.e., One who overlooks and forgives the signs and short-comings of the faithful.

89. i.e., One who gracefully accepts and appreciates even small services of the faithful. See P. XXII. n. 384.

90. i. e., the Arab pagans.

91. Pointing to the Prophet.

92. (like a false man's heart, O Prophet ! and would strike all the revelations out of thy heart). But it is clear that He did nothing of the kind ; so it is also clear that the holy Prophet never merited any such penalty.

93. (in accordance with His immutable law).

94. i. e., false claims of Messengership.

95. i. e., the claims of a true Messenger of God.

96. i. e., by arguments as well as miracles.

97. See P. XXIV. nn. 62, 123.

27. (ولو . . . بصير) And had Allah expanded the provision for His bondmen[98] they surely would have rebelled in the earth, but He sends down[99] by measure as He wills[100]. Verily He is in respect of His bondmen, the Aware[101], the Beholder[102].

28. (وهو . . . الحميد) And He it is[103] Who sends down the rain after men have despaired, and spreads abroad His mercy[104] and He is the Patron, the Praiseworthy.

29. (ومن . . . قدير) And of His signs[105] is the creation of the heavens and the earth and of the moving creatures which He has dispersed in both[106]. And He is Potent over their assembling whenever He will.

SECTION 4

30. (وما . . . كثير) And whatever of affliction befalls you is owing to what your hands have earned ; and He pardons[107] much[108].

31. (وما . . . نصير) And you can not frustrate Him in the earth[109] ; and you have, besides Allah, neither a protector nor a helper.

32. (ومن . . . كالاعلام) And of His signs are ships in the sea like high mountains[110].

33. (ان . . . شكور) If He wills He causes the wind to cease, so that they stand still on the back thereof[111] ; verily therein are signs for every one patient and grateful.

34. (او . . . كثير) Or He may destroy them[112] for what the people have earned ; and He pardons many of them[113].

98. (more than their deserts and much more than at present).
99. (to every one).
100. (in accordance with His infinite wisdom).
101. i. e., well-acquainted with the needs and requirements of His creatures.
102. i. e., watchful of their actions.

103. Not any separate rain-god.

104. i. e., in the form of vegetation and plant life. See also P. VIII. n. 502.

105. i. e., the signs of His might and majesty.

106. Not necessarily in each of the two but possibly in them collectively. For the literal meaning of دابة see P. XII. n. 1. The word may also include angels. Nor is there anything to preclude the possibility of animal life in the heavens.

107. (and allows to go unpunished).

108. i. e., many of the sins.

109. (by fleeing to some place or other).

110. (in the desert). Or, 'high mountains.'

111. i. e., on the back of water.

114. (by shipwreck).

113. (by not drowning them).

لَهُمْ مِّنْ مَّحِيْصٍ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَمَآ اُوْتِيْتُمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَتَاعُ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۚ وَمَا عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ خَيْرٌ وَّاَبْقٰى لِلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا

وَالَّذِيْنَ اسْتَجَابُوْا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَاَقَامُوا الصَّلٰوةَ ۪ وَاَمْرُهُمْ شُوْرٰى بَيْنَهُمْ ۪ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنٰهُمْ يُنْفِقُوْنَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَ
الَّذِيْنَ اِذَآ اَصَابَهُمُ الْبَغْيُ هُمْ يَنْتَصِرُوْنَ ﴿٣٩﴾ وَجَزٰٓؤُا سَيِّئَةٍ سَيِّئَةٌ مِّثْلُهَا ۚ فَمَنْ عَفَا وَاَصْلَحَ فَاَجْرُهٗ عَلَى
اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُحِبُّ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَلَمَنِ انْتَصَرَ بَعْدَ ظُلْمِهٖ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ مَا عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ سَبِيْلٍ ﴿٤١﴾ اِنَّمَا السَّبِيْلُ عَلَى

35. (ويعلم . . . محيص) And those who dispute in respect of Our revelations may know[114] that there is for them no place of shelter.

36. (فما . . . يتوكلون) So whatsoever things are vouchsafed to you[115] are but a passing enjoyment for the life of this world; and what is with Allah, better[116] and more lasting[117] is for those who believe and put their trust in Allah;

37. (والذين . . . يغفرون) and those who avoid heinous sins and indecencies[118] and forgive when they are wrathful[119];

38. (والذين . . . ينفقون) and those who answer the call of their Lord and establish prayer and whose affairs being matter of counsel among themselves and who spend of that wherewith We have provided them;

39. (والذين . . ينتصرون) and those who vindicate themselves when they are oppressed[120].

40. (وجزاؤ . . الظلمين) The meed of an ill-deed is an ill like thereunto, but whosoever pardons and is reconciled[121], his wage is on Allah: verily He does not approve the wrong-doers.

41. (ولمن . . . سبيل) And whosoever vindicates himself[122] after wrong done to him; these! against them there is no way of blame.

42. (انما . . . . اليم) The way of blame is only against those who wrong mankind, and rebel on the earth without justification; these for them is an afflictive torment.

114. (at the time of shipwreck).

115. (in this world).

116. i. e., much preferable as regards quality.

117. i. e., much preferable as regards duration.

118. (in particular).

119. Inculcation of virtues like those of kindliness and forgiveness meant ever so much to a nation given to haughtiness and revenge.

120. Valour and courage being not inconsistent with clemency, they make use of the means which God has put into their hands for their own defence.

121. i. e., is reconciled to his enemy.

122. (without infringing the proper limits). This negatives self-sufficiency of the doctrine of non-violence. Non-resistance may not necessarily prove a protection and melt the heart of the aggressor. Consider the classical example of the attempted, and almost accomplished, crucification of Jesus Christ——perfect non-violence on one side and wanton aggressiveness on the other.

وَغَفَرَ إِنَّ ذٰلِكَ لَمِنْ عَزْمِ الْأُمُورِ ۝ وَمَنْ يُضْلِلِ اللّٰهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ ۗ وَتَرَى الظّٰلِمِينَ

43. (و ان . . . الامور) And whosoeverfo rgives[123] and forbears[124]——that[125] verily is of the firmness of affairs[126].

SECTION 5

44. (ومن . . . سبيل) And whomsoever Allah sends astray[127] for him there will no protecting friend to take His place. And thou will see[128] the ungodly when they will face the torment[129], saying : is there any way to return ?

45. (وتراهم . . . مقيم) And thou wilt see them set up before it[129]-A down-cast with ignominy, looking with stealthy glance[130]. And those who believe will say[131]: surely the losers are those who have lost themselves[132] and their housefolk[133] on the Day of Resurrection. Lo ! the ungodly will be in a lasting torment.

46. (وماكان . . . سبيل) And they will have no patrons succouring them besides Allah. Whosoever Allah sends astray, there will be for him no way.

47. (استجيبوا . . . نكير) Answer the call of your Lord[134] before there comes to you a Day on which there is no averting from Allah. You will have no place of refuge on that Day, nor will be there for you any denying of your guilt.

123. (the wrong done to him).

124. (the wrong-doer).

125. i. e., that voluntary forbearance and forgiveness.

126. In this physical world where resistance and non-resistance both are needful. Islam gives preference to the saint's type of character rather than to the strong-man's.

127. (as a sequel to his own deliberate choice of the worng path).

128. (O Prophet !).

129. (in the hereafter).

129-A. (i. e., the torment).

130. (as one in abject fear).

131. By way of self-satisfaction and by way of reproaching the infidels.

132. (by their own errors).

133. (by their causing them to err).

134. (O mankind !).

فرح بها ۚ وان تصبهم سيئة بما قدمت ايديهم فان الانسان كفور ۝ لله ملك السموت والارض يخلق

السموت وما فى الارض ۗ الا الى الله تصير الامور ۝

48. (فان . . . كفور) If they turn away[135], then We have not sent thee[136] as a warden over them[137]; on thee is naught but preaching. And verily We ! when We cause man to taste of mercy from Us, he exults at it; and if an ill befalls them[137-A] for what their hands have sent on, then man becomes ingrate.

49. (لله . . . الذكور) Allah's is the dominion of the heavens and the earth. He creates whatsoever He will. He bestows females on whomsoever He will[138], and bestows males on whomsoever He will[139].

50. (او يزوجهم . . قدير) Or, He conjoins them males and females[140]; and He makes barren whomsoever He will[141]. Verily He is the Knower[142], the Potent[143].

51. (وما كان . . . حكيم) And it is not possible for any human being[144] that Allah should speak to him otherwise than by revelation[145] or from behind a veil[146], or that He sends a messenger[147]. so that the messenger[148] may reveal, by His command whatsoever He will. Verily He is Exalted[149], Wise[150].

52. (وكذالك . . . مستقيم) In this manner[151] We have revealed unto thee[152] a spirit of Our command; thou knowest not[153] what the Book was, nor what the faith[154]. Yet We have made it[155] a light[156] wherewith We guide whomsoever We will of Our bondmen. And verily thou guidest to a straight path——

53. (صراط الله . . الامور) the path of Allah, Whose is whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth. Lo! to Allah tend all affairs[157].

135. (instead of hearkening to thy Massege).

136. (O Prophet !).

137. i. e., thou art in no way responsible for their deeds.

137-A. Intercharge of singular and plural number of pronoun is quite frequent in Arabic.

138, (without any restriction on His will).

139. (according to His universal scheme).

140. (for whomsoever He will).

141. (according to His universal scheme).

142. (of all conditions and circumstances).

143. i. e. Able to effect His will in every circumstance.

147. Which here means an angel.

148. i. e., the messenger-angel.

149. (so that no one is fitted in himself to receive His message).

150. (so that He in His infinite wisdom laid down certain ways of communication).

151. i.e., in accordance with this law of Divine communication.

152. (O Prophet !).

153. (before thou wast charged with the prophetic mission).

154. (in its highest, perfected form). It is a mistake, almost vulgar, to suppose that the holy Prophet in championing the cause of Allah only emphasised an idea that was already present in the consciousness of the Arab race. In fact he as innocent of the grandeur of his faith until aided by the revelation.

155. i: e. the Holy Qurân.

156. i. e. illuminating the Way.

157. (finally and inevitably).

9. (ولئن . . . العليم) And if thou questions them[168]: who has created the heavens and the earth? they will surely say: created them the Mighty, the Knower.

12. (والذی . . . ترکبون) And Who has created the pairs, all of them[173], and appointed for you from ships and cattle on which you ride,

13. (لتستوا . . . مقرنین) that you may mount firmly on their backs, and then may remember the favour of your Lord when you mount thereon, and may say: hallowed be He Who has subjected this to us, and we[174] could have it not.

14. (وانا . . . لمنقلبون) And verily to Our Lord we are to return.

15. (وجعلوا . . . مبین) And they[175] assign out of His bondmen co-patners[176]. Verily man is a manifest ingrate.

SECTION 2

16. (ام . . . بالبنین) Has He taken, from His creatures, daughters for Himself, and has honoured you with sons[177] ?

17. (واذا . . . کظیم) And when there is announced to any of them the birth of what he likens to the Compassionate[178], his countenance remains darkened the whole day, and he is indignant inwardly[179].

20. (وقالوا . . . يخرصون) And they[184] say[185]: had the Compassionate willed we should not have worshipped them[186]. No knowledge they have of it[187], they are only guessing[188].

21. (ام . . . مستمسكون) Have We vouchsafed them any Book before this, so that they are clinging to it[189] ?

24. (قال . . . كفرون) The warner therefore said : what ! even if I bring you a better guidance than what you found your fathers upon[194]. They said : we deny that wherewith you are sent[195].

180. This refers to the almost universal customs of the 'softer sex' being brought up among jewellery and ornaments and to her innate love of display. 'A woman's skeleton dating from the 4th cent. B. C., unearthed in Persia, had heaped upon the breast, necklace of pearls, lapis lazulis, turquoise, emerald and jasper.' (CE. IV. p. 1150)

181. Compare the findings of a modern psychologist :—'Woman is admittedly weaker in logic than the male, and, because her "opinion" is partly instinctive feeling and partly immediate reaction to the momentary situation, she cannot equal man in enumerating arguments and proofs in support of her views. Her way of thinking is what we describe as intuitive.'

189. They have neither rational nor scriptural ground to support them.

190. i. e., this is their sole argument.

191. (of life) i. e., we have found our ancestors following a particular set of beliefs and practices. ملة is primarily 'A way, course, mode, or manner, of acting, or conduct, or the like ; a way, course, or rule, of life or conduct.' (LL) The use of the word ملة here instead of دين is very significant. The pagan Arabs had, strictly speaking, no creed at all. They simply and blindly followed certain ancestral customs and ceremonial usages.

192. In the pre-Islamic society of Arabia, as in most primitive societies, 'a man did not choose his religion or frame it for himself; it came to him as part of the general scheme of social obligations and ordinances laid upon him, as a matter of course, by his position in the family and in the nation...Religion did not exist for the saving of souls but for the preservation and welfare of society and all that was necessary to this end every man had to take his part, or break with the domestic and political community to which he belonged.... Thus a man was born with a fixed relation to certain gods as surely as he was born into relation to his fellow-men ; and his religion, that is, the part of conduct which was determined by his relation to the gods, was simply one side of the general scheme of conduct prescribed for him by his position as a member of society.' (Robertson Smith, Religion of the Semites, pp. 28-30)

193. (O Prophet !)

194. i. e., are you still going to follow blindly and slavishly your ancestral customs, when I have brought to you a teaching far better and in every way superior ?

195. (to us as you profess) i. e., we deny your mission altogether and reject the very basis of your claims.

It is We Who have apportioned among them their livelihood in the life of the world[215], and have raised some of them[216] over others in degrees[217], so that one of them may take another as a serf, and the mercy of thy Lord[218] is better[219] than what they amass[220].

49. (و قالوا . . لمهتدون) And they said[260]: magician[261]! supplicate thy Lord for us for what He has covenanted with thee, verily we shall let ourselves be directed[262].

50. (فلما . . ينكثون) Then[263] when We had removed from them the chastisement, lo! they were breaking their promise[264].

247. (in thy life-time as an accomplished fact).
248. (then that also is easy for Us).
249. (confidently and unwaveringly).
250. (O Prophet !).

251. 'Mohammad thus holding his people at bay; waiting in the still expectation of victory; to outward appearance defenceless, and with his little band as it were in the lion's mouth; yet trusting in His almighty power whose Messenger he believed himself to be, resolute and unmoved; presents a spectacle of sublimity paralleled only by such scenes in the Sacred Records as that of the Prophet of Israel when he complained to his Master, "I, even I only, am left." Nay, the spectacle, is in one point of view even more amazing... It is this which brings if possible into still bolder prominence the marvellous self-possession and enthusiasm which sustained Mohammad on his course.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 126).

252. i. e., the Holy Qurān.

253. (regarding your duties and obligations, O mankind !).

254. (through their Books and Scriptures and the learned among their true followers, O Prophet !).

255. Monotheism, pure, absolute and unalloyed has ever been the theme of all the prophets and apostles.

256. i. e., evidences and arguments.

257. i.e., each sign was great in its own way. Cf. the OT :—'And the Lord said unto Moses... Multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.' (Ex. 7 : 1-3). And Josephus :—'When the king despised the words of Moses, and had no regard at all to them, grievous plagues seized the Egyptians ... No such plagues did ever happen to any other nation as the Egyptians now felt.' ("Ant." II. 14 : 1) اختها literally is 'its sister.'

258. i. e., successive plagues previous to their final destruction.

259. (to Us).

260. (to Moses).

261. 'But when the king derided Moses, he made him in earnest see the signs that were done at Mount Sinai. Yet was the king very angry with him, and called him an ill man, who had formerly run away from his Egyptian slavery, and came now back with deceitful tricks and wonders and magical arts to astonish him.' ("Ant." II. 13 : 3)

262. 'Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Entreat the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto Lord.' (Ex. 8 : 8) 'And Pharaoch said . . . . entreat for me.' (Ex. 8 : 28) 'And Pharaoch sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them . . . . Entreat the Lord (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail.' (Ex. 9 :27-28)

263. (each time)

264. 'But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and he hearkened not unto them.' (Ex. 8 : 15) And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.' (Ex. 9 : 34)

52. (ام . . . يبين) Aye! I am better than this one who is contemptible[267], and unable even to make his speech plain[268].

53. (فلولا . . . مقترنين) Why, then[269], have the bracelets of gold not been set[270] upon him[271], and why have the angels not come with him accompanying[272]?

signifies both a river and a canal. The waters of the Nile . . . were conveyed to a distance by a network of larger and smaller canals.' (DB II. p. 482) 'This desert-valley, which was formerly reached only very irregularly by the Nile, he (Rameses II) rendered fruitful by a canal, colonised it, and built several cities in it.' 270. (as is the wont of the Egyptian kings when raising a person to the dignity of a prince). See an account of Joseph's elevation to viceroyalty in the OT. 'And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck' (Ge. 41 : 41, 42) 'The golden collar put round Joseph's neck was a peculiarly Egyptian form of decoration; it was called "receiving gold"; Ahnas, the captain-general of the marines, who freed Egypt from the Hyksos. "received gold", on seven different occasions, for various acts of valour.' (DB. II. p. 773).

271. i. e., Moses. Judging the prophethood of Moses by his own low and materialistic standard, Pharaoh asks in effect : where is his insignia of royalty if he is really, as he affects to be, a favourite of God ?

272. (to show that he is the chosen and favoured of God).

273. (by such sophistries).

274. (by their persistent acts of aggression and rebellion).

275. Western writers in their dread of anthropomorphism have often gone to the other extreme of conceiving Almighty God as a Buddha on a grand scale——a Being of purely passionless repose, able to punish none, to forgive none and to reward none, unmoved at the sight of unspeakable enormities. The God of Islam is Just, Powerful and Holy——Able to execute His laws to vindicate His majesty and to punish the culprit.

283. 'In addressing the idolaters of Mecca, Mohammmed appealed to the ministry and preaching of Jesus and His rejection by His people, as he was wont to appeal to the history of other prophets, in support of his mission. His adversaries retorted that, if Jesus, who appeared in human form, was worshipped by his followers, there could be nothing absurd in their praying through images, the representatives of heavenly powers to God.' (Muir, op. cit. p. 147) The pre-Islamic Arabic Christianity itself was a fusion of Christianity and paganism. A modern scholar, F.V. Winnett, of the University College, Toronto, after examining a number of old inscriptions has come to the following conclusion in regard to the ancient Arabic Christianity :—'Jesus has not displaced the old gods. He has simply been added to the pantheon. In Syria he seems to have occupied a more unique position...In the South, he has sunk even lower...Attention has been drawn above, too, to the indications that animal sacrifices were offered to Jesus. The petitions addressed to him are the same as those addressed to all the other gods.' (The Moslem World, New York, Oct. 1941, p. 353).

63. (ولما . . . اطيعون) And when 'Isā came with evidences[296], he said: surely I have come to you with wisdom[297], to expound to you some of that wherein you differ[298], so fear Allah and obey me.

64. (ان الله . . . مستقيم) And verily Allah ! He is my Lord and your Lord ;[299] so worship Him ; this is the straight path[300].

65. (فاختلف . . . اليم) Then the sects differed among themselves[301], Woe to those who do wrong[302], because of the torment of the afflictive Day.

66. (هل . . . يشعرون) They[303] await but the Hour: that it should come upon them of a sudden, while they perceive not.

67. (الاخلاء . . الا المتقين) The intimate friends will be on that Day[304] hostile one to another save the God-fearing.

291. (of the approach). Or, 'condition precedent'. Another reading is وانه لَعَلَمٌ للساعة (عَلَمٌ) instead of عِلْمٌ، (عِلْمٌ) being synonymous with مَعْلَمٌ or symbol.

292. It shall be known by his descending. The reference is to 'the second coming of Jesus in the Last Days just before the Resurrection, when he will destroy the false doctrines that pass under his name, and prepare the way for the universal acceptance of Islam, the Gospel of Unity and Peace, the Straight Way of the Qurān.' (AYA).

298. (O Children of Israel !) The reference is to the perverted doctrines and corrupt practices of the Jews at the time of Jesus.

299. This emphatically repudiates the teaching of the Gospels :—'I and my Father are one.' (Jn. 10 ; 30), and the teaching of the Christian Church :—'The Son is as Divine as the Father and therefore can be worshipped without idolatry and bestow Divine life, because it is His to bestow.' (EBr. II. p. 599)

300. See P. III. nn. 453, 454.

301. (and the pure religion of Jesus degenerated into gross idolatry) 'During the fifth century the practice of introducing images into churches increased and in the sixth it had become prevalent. The common people, who had never been able to comprehend doctrinal mysteries, found their religious wants satisfied in turning to these effigies. With singular obtuseness, they believed that the saint is present in his image, though hundreds of the same kind were in existence, each having an equal and exclusive right to the spiritual presence. The doctrine of invocatian of departed saints, which assumed prominence in the fifth century, was greatly strengthened by these graphic forms. Pagan idolatry had reappeared.' (Draper, Intellectual Development of Europe, I. p. 413).

302. (to themselves in respect of humanity of Jesus). 'When, therefore, in the midst of the wrangling of sects, in the incomprehensible jargon of Arians, Nestorians, Eutychians, Monothelites, Monophysites, Mariolatrists, and an anarchy of countless disputants, there sounded through the world, not the miserable voice of the intriguing majority of a council but the dreaded battle-cry. "There is but one God". . . is it surprising that the hubbub was hushed ? Is it surprising that all Asia and Africa fell away ?' (Draper, op. cit. I. p. 333). 'From its most glorious seats Christianity was for ever expelled, from Palestine, the scene of its most sacred recollections ; from Asia Minor, that of its first churches ; from Egypt, whence issued the great doctrine of Trinitarian orthodoxy ; from Carthage, who imposed her belief on Europe.' (Draper, op. cit., I, p. 332)

328. (in their vanities and puerilities). See P. VII n. 503.

329. This repudiates the religion of many a polytheistic people who believe the heaven and the earth to be ruled over by separate deities. In the religion of Babylonia Anu rules in heaven, Enlil in earth and air, and Ea in the waters. The Vedic gods are divided into there classes also——gods of the sky, gods of the air, and gods of earth.' (ERE. X. p. 114) 'The Vedic gods may most conveniently be classified as deities of heaven, air, and earth, according to the threefold divisions the earth in drought, and the rising of the dust, which is likened to دخان properly so termed.' (LL).

353. (Of Makka). A famine of very great severity visited the pagans of Makka after the Prophet's emigration from that city. The whole population was surrounded by dust at the time of the drought. The 'smoke' here predicts the haze of this dust. Abu Sufyan, on behalf of the Makkans, approached the holy Prophet to pray for the removal of the famine.

355. i. e., how can this penalty serve as an admonition to them.

356. i. e., an apostle with evident signs and credentials. The 'smoke' referred to in verse 10 may well hint at the torment of modern warfare the chief ingredients of which are the gas, the gunpowder and the dynamite (all of them smoke-like substances) to be let loose in the 20th century of the Christian era on nations by those priding themselves on their learning, civilisation and culture, and accusing the true apostle of God of being a 'tutored one', a 'distracted one'.

423. (to His laws).

424. There being no associate-god or sub-Deity whatsoever.

425. (of His unique authority).

426. (O Prophet !).

427. (and bear patiently with).

428. i.e., who have no faith in His law of requital and in His victories. Says Sale :—'Some are of opinion that this verse is abrogated by that of War.' But the two verses are not at all in conflict, and hence there arises no question of abrogation. What the Muslims are asked to refrain from is the infliction of punishment as a measure of personal vengeance or retaliation : whereas Jihād or holy war is prescribed to exalt and glorify God's religion, irrespective of personal like or dislike. (Th.)

Cf. the OT :—'To me belongeth vengeance, and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time; for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.' (Dt. 32 : 35)

429. (justly and equitably).
430. i. e., for his own benefit.
431. (O mankind !).

434. See P. I. nn. 198, 199.
435. i. e., evidences and arguments.
436. i. e., of the true religion.
437. (and not through any ambiguity or obscurity in the Divine messages).
438. (by Revelation).

18. (ثم . . . يعلمون) And thereafter[439] We have placed thee[440] upon the law of the religion[441]; so follow it thou[442], and follow not the vain desires of those who do not know[443].

19. (انهم . . . المتقين) Verily they cannot avail thee[444] at all against Allah. And the wicked ! friends are they one to another[445], and Allah is the friend of the God-fearing.

20. (هذا . . . يوقنون) This Book is an enlightenment and a guidance to mankind, and a mercy to people who are convinced.

21. (ام . . . يحكمون) Do those who commit ill-deeds[446] imagine that We shall place them[447] as those who believed and worked righteous works[448] ? Equal is their life and death[449] ! How ill they judge !

SECTION 3

22. (وخلق . . . يظلمون) Allah has created the heavens and the earth with purpose[450], and that every soul may be recompensed for what it has earned[451]. And they will not be wronged.

---

439. i. e., after Israel have fallen from grace.

440. ——an Ismailite——

441. شريعت is not only 'a law or ordinance' but also a religion, or way of belief and practice in respect of religion.' (LL.)

442. (both in regard to practice and preaching).

443. i. e., the ungodly pagans who urged on the Prophet a return to the religion of his forefathers.

444. (or anybody else).

445. Witness, for intance, to-day the Christian's enthusiasm for Jewish Zionism.

446. i. e., their acts of infidelity and impiety.

447. (ia the Hereafter).

448. Who, though in suffering here, are sure to receive their full reward.

449. Denial of Resurrection amounts to this belief.

450. (and this implies meeting out to every one his due).

451. (and a fulfilment of these ends of justice necessitates general Resurrection).

23. (افرءيت . . . تذكرون) Hast thou seen him who takes for his god[452] his own vain desire, and Allah has sent him astary despite his knowledge[453], and has sealed up his hearing and his heart[454] and has set up a covering on his sight ? Who will guide him after Allah[455] ? Will you not then be admonished ?

24. (وقالوا . . يظنون) And they[456] say: naught is there but the life of this world[457], we die and we live[458]; and none kills us save Time[459]. And they have no true knowledge of it[460], they only conjecture.

25. (واذا . . . صدقين) And when Our manifest revelations[461] are rehearsed to them, their argument is no other than that they say[462]: bring back our fathers[463] if you say sooth[464].

26. (قل . . . يعلمون) Say thou[465]: Allah keeps you alive[466], then He will cause you to die[467]; then He will assemble you on the Day of Resurrection, of which there is no doubt; but most of mankind do not know.

SECTION 4

27. (ولله . . . المبطلون) Allah's is the dominion of the heavens and the earth; and on the Day when the Hour arrives, the followers of falsehood shall lose.

---

452. i. e., who follows the dictates of his own lust and lower self.

453. (so that he has knowingly and deliberately chosen the path of error).

454. (in consequence of his own contumacy). See P. I. n. 47 ff.

455. i. e., after God has withdrawn His grace and left him to wander perplexedly.

456. i. e., the deniers of Resurrection, disbelievers in Final Judgment and consequently in man's accountability to the Almighty for his deeds and misdeeds.

457. i. e., no other life. 'The South Arabians believed as little in a life after death as in spiritual blessings.' (Hell, The Arab civilization, p. 7).

458. (of ourselves; with no reference to a Creator). The Arab pagan, carefree materialistic and indifferent to spiritual impulses, had little if any religion at all. To him, it was the immediate present which was full of meaning and of real consequence. He cared little for the past and showed even less interest in the future. Undisturbed by any serious thought or care for the morrow, his life was one emotional orgy, like most of the modern Europeans. 'The hedonistic Arabian character was too much absorbed in the immediate issues of life to devote much thought to the hereafter. In the words of an old bard ;

> We spin about and whirl our way through life.
> Then, rich and poor alike, at last seek rest
> Below the ground in hollow pits slate-covered ;
> And there we do abide.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 102)

459. Or 'Fortune.' دهر is, literally, 'Time from the beginning of the world to its end . . . Hence because, in one sense, time brings to pass events, good and evil, الدهر was applied by the Arabs to Fortune, or fate ; and they used to blame or revile it.' (LL) 'Time' as an abstract deity was personified by the Arabs, and formed perhaps a regular part of their pantheon. 'Time in the abstract was popularly imagined to be the cause of all earthly happiness and especially of all earthly misery . . . The poets are continually alluding to the action of Time (dahr, Zaman), for which they often substitute 'the days,' or the nights.' Time is represented as bringing misfortune, causing perpetual change, as biting, wearing down, shooting arrows that never miss the mark, hurling stones, and so forth. In such cases we are often obliged to render 'time' by 'fate' which is not quite correct, since time is here conceived as the determining factor, not as being itself determined by some other power, least of all by a conscious agent.' (ERE. I. pp. 661, 662). 'The people of Central Arabia, to judge from the poetical and other remains, were indifferent to religious ideas. The utmost they could attain to was a vague deism or belief in Fate.' (EI. I. p. 999).

460. i. e., no real true, knowledge ; no proof, either in reason or of fact, to support them ; their denial of Resurrection and Final Judgment is based on sheer ignorance and superstition, and not on any canons of reason, logic or knowledge. The idea of responsibility to his Creator is perhaps, next to Monotheism, the greatest gift that Islam has bestowed on a negligent and forgetful humanity. Its importance in the history of human beliefs and morals cannot be overrated.

461. (affirming, inter alia, Resurrection).

462. (to the believers).

463. (back to life).

464. As if any Muslim had ever asserted that he could raise the dead when and where he pleased !

465. (O Prophet !).

466. (so long as He will).

467. (when He will).

إِلَىٰ كِتَابِهَا الْيَوْمَ تُجْزَوْنَ مَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ هَٰذَا كِتَابُنَا يَنطِقُ عَلَيْكُم بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّا كُنَّا نَسْتَنسِخُ مَا كُنتُمْ
تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَيُدْخِلُهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ ذَٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَأَمَّا
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَفَلَمْ تَكُنْ آيَاتِي تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْكُمْ فَاسْتَكْبَرْتُمْ وَكُنتُمْ قَوْمًا مُّجْرِمِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ

28. (وترى ... تعملون) And thou shalt behold[468] every community kneeling[469]; every community shall be summoned to its Book[470]. This Day[471] you shall be recompensed for what you had been working.

29. (هذا ... تعملون) This Book of Ours speaks against you with truth[472]; verily We have been setting down[473] whatsoever you had been working.

30. (فاما ... المبين) Then, as for those who believed and worked righteous deeds, their Lord will cause them to enter into His mercy; that is a manifest achievement.

31. (واما ... مجرمين) And as for those who disbelieved[474]: were not My revelations rehearsed to you? but you were stiff-necked and you were a people guilty.

32. (واذا ... بمستيقنين) And when it was said[475]: verily Allah's promise[476] is true, and no doubt is there about the Hour, you said[477]: we do not know what the Hour is; we do not imagine it but as a conjecture[478], and we have no faith therein[479].

468. (on that Day, O Prophet !).
469. (with fear).
470. (of record, for the purpose of reckoning).
471. This shall be said.
472. i. e., is an exact record of your doings.
473. (through Our angels recording in this Book of records).
474. To them it shall be said.
475. (to you by men of God in the world).
476. (of requital and final judgment).
477. (in scornful rejection of the doctrine).
478. i. e., only a matter of hearsay.
479. (of its coming at all).

وَبَدَا لَهُمْ سَيِّاٰتُ مَا عَمِلُوْا وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَّا كَانُوْا بِهٖ يَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ۝ وَقِيْلَ الْيَوْمَ نَنْسٰكُمْ كَمَا نَسِيْتُمْ لِقَآءَ يَوْمِكُمْ
هٰذَا وَمَاْوٰكُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ نّٰصِرِيْنَ ۝ ذٰلِكُمْ بِاَنَّكُمُ اتَّخَذْتُمْ اٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ هُزُوًا وَّغَرَّتْكُمُ الْحَيٰوةُ الدُّنْيَا ۚ فَالْيَوْمَ
لَا يُخْرَجُوْنَ مِنْهَا وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُوْنَ ۝ فَلِلّٰهِ الْحَمْدُ رَبِّ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَرَبِّ الْاَرْضِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝ وَ
لَهُ الْكِبْرِيَآءُ فِى السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ۖ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الْحَكِيْمُ ۝

33. (وبدالهم . . يستهزءون) And the evils[480] of what they had worked shall become apparent to them, and there will surround them that at which they had been mocking.

34. (وقيل . . . نصرين) And it will be said: This Day We shall ignore you[481] as you ignored the meeting of this Day; your abode will be the Fire, and none you will have as helpers.

35. (ذالكم . . . يستعتبون) That is because you took the revelations of Allah in mockery, and there deluded you the life of this world. To-day therefore they will not be taken forth therefrom, and nor will they be allowed to please Allah[482].

36. (فلله . . . العلمين) All praise, then, to Allah, the Lord of the heavens[483], and the Lord of the earth[484], the Lord of the worlds.

37. (وله . . . الحكيم) And His alone is the Majesty in the heavers and the earth, and He is the Mighty, the Wise[485].

480. (on that Day in their stark nakedness).

481. i. e., ignore you deliberately and deprive you of Our mercy.

482. See P. XIV. n. 291.

483. i. e., their Creator and Preserver.

484. i. e., its Creator and Preserver. Even so simple a truth as that the earth is a created being stood in need of special emphasis in view of the widely-spread worship of the 'Mother-World.' The significant fact, says a distinguished archaeologist. about the ancient Indus civilization is that 'it was based on a religion precisely characteristic of present-day Hinduism. Numerous effigies of the great Mother-goddess have been found...That same devotion which Indians are now showing to Mother India they have for at least 5000 years shown to the Mother-World——the Mother Universe——which has brought both Mother India and themselves into existence and sustained and inspired them through life. This Mother-World they personified in the time of the ancient Indus civilization as the Mother-Goddess, and in more recent times as Kali.'

485. This unqualified and unreserved assertion of God's sole sovereignty in Islam has been noted and admiringly commented upon by many a non-Muslim observer. Contrast with God's absolute sovereignty and majesty the helplessness of man. From the very beginning the slave of nature and fighting for his own preservation, he finds himself still, after his creation of 'culture', 'nations', 'states' and 'sciences', enslaved by his own creations.

3. (ما . . . معرضون) We created not the heavens and the earth and what is in-between save with a purpose[2] and for a term determined[3]. And those who disbelieve backslide from what they are warned of.

4. (قل . . . صدقين) Say thou[4]: think ! whatsoever you call upon besides Allah[5]——show me whatsoever they have created of the earth ? Or, have they any share in the creation of the heavens[6] ? Bring me a Book before this[7] or some trace of knowledge[8], if you say sooth.

6. (واذا . . . كفرين) And when mankind are gathered they[11] will become enemies unto them[12], and will become deniers of their worship.

7. (و اذا . . . مبين) And when Our manifest revelations are rehearsed to them, those who disbelieve say of the truth when it is come to them: this is magic manifest[13].

8. (ام . . . الرحيم) Do they say[14]: he has fabricated it[15]? Say thou: if I have fabricated it, you cannot avail me against Allah in aught[16]. He is the Knower of what you utter[17] respecting it[18]. He suffices as witness[19] between me and you and He is Forgiving, Merciful[20].

9. (قل . . . مبين) Say thou[21]: I am not an innovator among the messengers[22] nor I know what would be done with me or with you[23]; I only follow[24] what is revealed to me, and I am but a manifest warner.

12. (و من . . . للمحسنين) And prior to it there has been the Book of Mūsā——a guidance[11] and a mercy. And this is a Book confirming it in Arabic speech, that it may warn those who have done wrong and as glad tidings to the well-doers.

13. (ان الذين . . يحزنون) Verily those who say[12] : our Lord is Allah, and then stand fast to it, no fear shall come upon them, nor shall they grieve[13].

46. 'Nature establishes in her body a pitiless dictatorship of the ripening foetus, concentrates all her forces for the protection of this tiny lump of new living matter, and mercilessly demands for the latter the most complete self-abnegation on the part of all the organs and tissues of the mother. Everything for the foetus, all for the "genius of the race", and for the mother nothing but nausea, toothache, and physiological discomforts of every kind.' (Nemilov, op. cit., p. 72) 'In case of the fertilization of her gamete by the male sex cell, woman is robbed of entire periods of her own individual life in which the biological processes are absorbed by the "physiological altruism," ' (p. 86). 'Even during an "easy" pregnancy the woman never feels entirely well. At best an observing woman will discover many unexpected ailings and symptoms of that complicated physiological process which is going on in her body tissues......All energy of maternal organism is directed to the creation of a favourable environment for the growing embryo......Even more than during menstruation, the organism of a pregnant woman is constantly on the borderline between the normal and the pathological. Here we find such functional irregularities which, if they occurred apart from pregnancy or in a man, would be considered absolutely pathological.' (pp. 154-156) 'Though a physiological state, pregnancy imposes a strain on the efficient working of every system of the body......Apart from those who have some organic weakness and may break down as under the strain, there are disorders of function that may develop in those previously of sound physique.' (EBr. XVI. p. 677) See also p. XXI n. 270 ff.

47. 'In no other living creature is the birth of a new individual accompanied by so much suffering as in the human race.' (Nemilov, op. cit., p. 164) 'Birth-giving pains are the most unbearable and owing to the construction of woman's body, are absolutely unavoidable. Every woman who has permitted conception to take place has doomed herself to suffer after nine months an overwhelming physical disturbance from which there is no way of escape. This is the inexorable biological decree. Every child-birth also carries with it a certain amount of hazard. Aside from the possibility of fatal hemorrhage which at times can neither be foreseen nor checked, the birth wounds, like any other wound, are liable to become infected and lead to fatal poisoning.' Its western part is sometimes, distinguished as al-Ahqāf (dune land.) (Hitti, op. cit., p. 15). This "red land' is a comparatively hard plain, covered at intervals with long and winding sand-belts.' (Inayatullah, op. cit., p. 16).

24. (فلما . . . اليم) And when they saw it[72] as an overpeering cloud tending towards their valleys they said : that is an overpeering cloud bringing us rain. Nay[73] ! it is what you sought to be hastened : a wind wherein is an afflictive torment,

25. (تدمر . . المجرمين) it shall annihilate everything by the command of its Lord. Therefore[74] they became such that nothing could be seen[75] of them save their dwellings[76]. We thus requite a nation of the guilty.

26. 32. (ومن . . . مبين) And whoso does not answer Allah's summoner, he cannot frustrate His vengeance on the earth, and there will be no patrons for him[93], beside Him. Those are in manifest error.

33. (اولم . . . قدير) Bethink they[94] not that Allah Who created the heavens and the earth and was not fatigued with the creation thereof[95], is able to quicken the dead ? Aye ! verily He is Potent over everything.

34. (ويوم . . . تكفرون) And on the Day when those who disbelieve will be placed before the Fire : is[96] this not real[97] ? They will say : Yes ! by our Lord[98] ! He will say : taste therefore the torment for you have been disbelieving.

35. (فاصبر . . . الفسقون) Bear thou then with patience[99], as the messengers[100], endued with resolution bear with patience[101] and seek not to hasten on[102] for them. On the Day when they will behold that with which they are threatened, it will seem to them[103] as though they had tarried[104] but for an hour of a day. A proclamation this ; so[105] none will be destroyed but the nation of transgressors.

93. (in the Hereafter to protect him).

94. i. e., the Makkan pagans who rejected the doctrine of Resurrection.

95. This is to emphatically deny the idea of fatigue and weariness to God implied in the Bible. Cf. the OT :—'And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made ; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it : because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. (Ge. 2 : 2, 3) 'For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.' (Ex. 31 : 17) 'For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day.' (Ex. 20 : 11) And the NT :— 'And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.' (He. 4 : 4) The idea of God needing rest at the end of His creative activity, as if the Creator was also worn out with worrying toils and struggled under burdens too heavy for Him, is preposterous to the Muslim mind, but the fact is there that the Bible clearly inculcates so curious a doctrine.

96. (Thus they will be asked).

97. (of which reality you persistently denied while you were in the world).

98. (it is terribly real).

99. (the persecution and the insults of the believers at the hands of the pagans, O Prophet !).

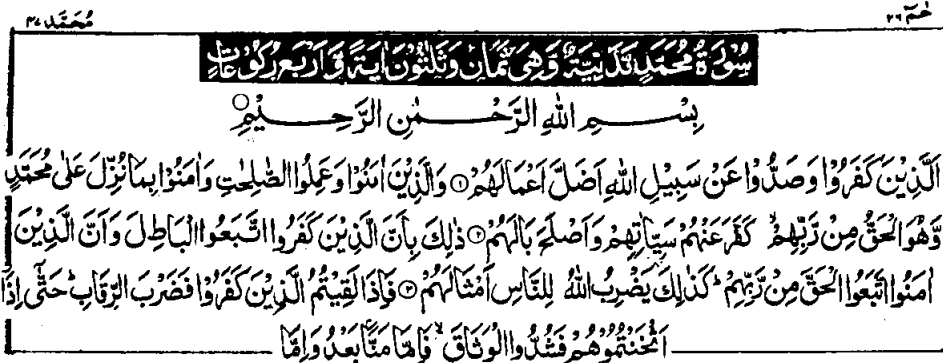
100. (of old).

101. (the injuries of their peoples).

102. (Divine vengeance).

103. (in extreme constraint and bewilderment).

104. (in the world).

105. (after this plain warning from God).


Sūrah Muhammad

Muhammad. XLVII

(Madinian, 4 Sections and 38 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (اعمالهم . . . الذين) Those who disbelieve and hinder others from the path of Allah——their works He shall send astray[106].

2. (بالهم . . . والذين) And those who believe and work righteous deeds and believe in what has been revealed to Muhammad[107]——and it is the truth from their Lord——their misdeeds[108] He shall expiate from them and shall make good their state[109].

3. (امثالهم . . . ذالك) That is because those who disbelieve follow falsehood[110] and those who believe follow the truth from their Lord[111]. And thus does Allah propound to the mankind their similitudes[112].

106. i. e., deeds which seemed highly righteous in their own eyes will be found void of all merit in the Hereafter.

107. 'That most successful of all prophets and religious personalities.' (EBr. XV. p. 898 11th Ed). 'The only man mentioned by history, who was at once legislator and poet, the founder of a religion and of an empire.' (Gilman, The Saracens, p. 207) See also P. IV. n. 212, and n. 333 below.

108. (and shall forgive them).

109. (both in this world and the Next).

110. (which inevitably leads to perdition).

111. (which inevitably leads to peace and prosperity).

112. i. e., their states and conditions by similitudes.

4. (فاذا . . . اعمالهم) Now when you meet[113] those who disbelieve, smite their necks until when you have slain them greatly[114], then make fast the bonds[115], then[116] thereafter[117] let them off freely or by ransom[118], until[119] the war lays off its burden[120]. That you shall do[121]. And had Allah[122] willed, He would have vindicated Himself against them[123]; but He ordained fighting in order that He may test you one by the other[124]. And those who are slain in the cause of Allah, He shall not let their works go astray[125].

5. (سیهدیهم . . بالهم) Soon He will guide them[126] and make good their state[127].

6. (ویدخلهم . . . لهم) And He will make them enter the Garden and will make it known to them[128].

7. (یا یها الذین . . . اقدامکم) O you who believe! if you succour Allah[129], He will succour you[130] and make your feet firm[131].

8. (والذین . . اعمالهم) And those who disbelieve[132], theirs shall be the downfall[133], and their work He will send astray[134].

9. (ذلك . . . اعمالهم) That is because they detest what Allah has sent down, and so He will make their works of non-effect.

10. (افلم . . . امثالها) Have they not journeyed on the earth so that they might see[135] how has been the end of those before them? Allah annihilated them; and for the infidels[136], theirs shall be the like fate therefor.

11. (ذلك . . . لهم) That is because Allah is the Patron of those who believe, and the infidels! no patron is theirs!

113. (in fight, O Muslims!).

114. (so that they are entirely subdued and thoroughly crushed, and their power for mischief completely curbed).

115. (on them) i. e., make them prisoners of war.

116. (according to the discretion of your leader and exigencies of the situation).

117. (after you have taken them prisoner).

118. i. e., liberate them out of kindness or in return for ransom. منا is here synonymous with تمنون منا, and فداء with تفدون فداء (WGAL. II. p. 73).

119. i. e., this injunction holds good until—

120. (and terminates).

121. ذالك is here synonymous with افعلوا ذالك

122. (in consonance with His universal Scheme).

123. (without your participation in the struggle at all).

124. i. e., in order that He may test the believers by the amount of their willing sacrifices and the infidels by the lengths to which they would go in rebellion.

125. (and shall not let their service and sacrifices go in vain).

126. (to the goal of Eternal happiness and bliss).

127. (at the hour of their death, in Burzakhish life and on the Day of judgement).

128. (so that they will know the places assigned to them beforehand). This knowledge will come either intuitively or through the attending angels.

129. (by fighting for His religion).

130. (against your enemy).

131. As was demonstrated at the battle of Badr and later on many other occasions. 'The army of the Faithful was borne forward by an enthusiasm which the half-hearted warriors opposite were unable to withstand.' (Muir, op. cit., pp. 225-26). 'The first companions of Mahomet advanced to battle with a fearless confidence; there is no danger where there is no chance; they were ordained to perish in their beds; or they were safe and invulnerable amidst the darts of the enemy.' (GRE. V. p. 361) 'A new spirit was now infused into the Arabian armies; and the implicit obedience which the troops of the Prophet paid to his commands, rendered their discipline as superior to that of the imperial forces, as their tactics and their arms were inferior.' (Finlay, Greece under the Romans (p. 450).

132. (and array themselves against the ordinances of God).

133. (in this world also).

134. (in the Hereafter) i. e., render them void of merit.

135. (by observing the ruins of powerful ancient infidels).

136. (of the present-day).

SECTION 2

12. (ان الله . . . لهم) Verily Allah will cause those who believe and work righteous deeds to enter the Garden whereunder rivers flow. And those who disbelieve enjoy themselves[137] and eat even as the cattle eat[138], and the Fire shall be the abode for them.

13. (وكاين . . . لهم) And many a city, mightier in strength than the city which drove thee forth[139] !——We destroyed, and there was no helper of theirs[140].

14. (افمن . . اهواء هم) Is he then who stands on an evidence from his Lord like him whose evil of work is bedecked to him[141], and those who follow their lusts[142] ?

15. (مثل . . امعاء هم) A likeness of the Garden which has been promised to the God-fearing is this, therein are rivers of water incorruptible, rivers of milk of unchangeable flavour[143], rivers of wine, a joy to the drinkers[144] ; and rivers of honey clarified[145] ; therein theirs shall be every manner of fruit, and forgiveness from their Lord. Shall persons enjoying such bliss be like those who are abiders in the Fire, and are given to drink boiling water so that it mangles their entrails[146] ?

137. (in this world exclusively).
138. (heedless of the future).
139. (O Prophet !) i. e., the city-state of Makka.
140. This conveyed to the idolatrous Makkans clear prediction of their utter rout and annihilation.
141. (by the devil).
142. i. e., is the final end of the godly ones to be ever similar to that of the ungodly ones ?
143. Quite unlike the earthly milk.
144. (and free of all intoxicating and injurious proportions).
145. i. e., free of all foreign substances.
146. Which punishment is suggestive of the unspeakable agony of the damned ones.

يَسْتَمِعُ إِلَيْكَ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا خَرَجُوا مِنْ عِندِكَ قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ مَاذَا قَالَ آنِفًا ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ طَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ

16. (ومنهم . . اهواءهم) Of them[147] are some who listen to thee[148], until, when they go forth from before thee, they say[149] to those who are vouchsafed knowledge[150]: what is that he said just now? Those are they whose hearts Allah has sealed up, and they follow their lusts.

17. (والذين . . . تقواهم) And those[151] who are guided, He adds their guidance[152], and gives them protection against evil[153].

18. (فهل . . . ذكراهم) Do they only await[154] the Hour, that it should come upon them of a sudden[155]? Portents thereof[156] are already come, so how will it be with them when there comes to them their admonition?

19. (فاعلم . . . ومثواكم) So know thou[157] that there is no God save Allah, and ask forgiveness for thy fault[158] and for faithful men and women. And Allah knows well your moving about and your place of rest[159].

147. 'Them' refers to the hypocrites.
148. (to all appearance, but really pay no heed to them, O Prophet!).
149. (out of mischief).
150. i. e., to the learned companions of the Prophet.
151. (of their own race and people) i. e., the true believers.
152. (by each fresh Revelation).
153. i. e., helps them to practise piety or giveth them its recompense.
154. i. e., the hypocrites.
155. (when repentance will be futile).
156. Such as the very advent of the Final Prophet).
157. (and remain perfectly sure of it).
158. (and thus setting an example to thy followers). See P. XXIV. n. 223.
159. (O mankind!). So that nothing is ever hidden from Him.

SECTION 3

20. (ويقول . . . لهم) And those who believe say[160]: why has a Surah not been revealed? Then when there is revealed a Surah firmly-constructed[161] and fighting is prescribed therein, thou seest those in whose heart is a disease[162] looking at thee with a look of one who is fainting unto death[163]: so alas for them[164]!

21. (طاعة . . . لهم) The hypocrites' obedience and speech are known[165]. Then when the affair is resolved[166], if even then they gave credence to Allah[167], it would have been better for them.

22. (فهل . . . ارحامكم) Then if you turn away[168], you are likely to cause corruption on the earth and to sever your kinship[169].

23. (أولئك . . ابصارهم) Those are they whom Allah has cursed[170] and then has deafened them and blinded their sights.

24. (افلا . . . اقفالها) Do they not ponder the Qurān[171], or are there locks upon their hearts[172]?

25. (ان الذين . . . لهم) Verily those who have apostated on their backs after the guidance had become manifest to them, Satan has embellished this apostasy to them, and has given them false hopes.

26. (ذلك . . اسرارهم) That is because[173] they[174] said[175] to those who abhor[176] what Allah has revealed[177]; we shall obey you in part of the affair[178]; and Allah knows their talking in secret[179].

27. (فكيف . . . ادبارهم) How then shall it be, when the angels shall take them away at death, smiting their faces and their backs!

160. (in their eagerness to receive fresh Revelations).
161. See P. III. n. 231.
162. (of hypocrisy).
163. (owing to their extreme fright at the prospect of the hollowness of their pretensions being exposed).

164. Pitiable will be their plight.

165. God and His messenger will know the magnitude of the hypocrites' pretensions.

166. i. e., when after the ordinance of the holy war, preparations for actual fighting have already started.

167. i. e., if they gave proof of their loyalty to God and His messenger.

168. (from observing such a salutary ordinance as Jihad, O coward and timorous people !).

169. The meaning is : if the evil is not stifled, it is sure to spread all over the world and prevalence of violence is sure to respect no ties of blood.

170. (by depriving them of His special mercy).

171. (whose teachings are so clear).

172. (so that they have become impervious to every argument and evidence).

173. i. e., this catastrophe of apostacy has befallen them because——

174. i. e., the hypocrites.

175. (in confidence).

176. (out of envy).

177. The reference is to the leaders of Israel in Hejāz——the arch-enemies of Islam.

178. i. e., We shall follow you in part of what you desire of us, by staying at home and by not joining the believers in their wars, and by secretly combining against them.

179. (so their plots shall not succeed).

الله وكرهوا رضوانه فأحبط أعمالهم ۝ أم حسب الذين في قلوبهم مرض أن لن يخرج الله أضغانهم ۝ ولو نشاء

28. (ذالك . . . اعمالهم) That is[180] because they followed what incensed Allah and abhored His good-will[181]. So He made their works of non-effect.

SECTION 4

29. (ام . . . اضغانهم) Do then in whose hearts is a disease[182] imagine that Allah[183] will never bring to light their rancour ?

30. (ولو نشا . . اعمالكم) And if We willed, We would surely show them to thee[184], so that thou shouldst know them by their marks. And thou shalt surely know them[185] by the mode af their speech[186]. And Allah knows your works[187].

31. (ولنبلونكم . . اخباركم) And of a surety We shall put you to the proof till We know the valiant among you and the steadfast[188], and We shall know your different states[189].

32. (ان الذين . . اعمالهم) Verily those who have disbelieved and have hindered others from the path of Allah and have opposed the messengers after the guidance has become manifest to them[190] shall not hurt Allah at all, and soon He shall make their works fruitless.

33. (يايها الذين . . اعمالكم) O you who believe ! obey Allah and obey the messenger, and do not render your works vain[191].

180. i. e., they shall suffer this because——

181. i. e., acts leading to His pleasure.

182. (of hyprocrisy).

183. (the Omniscient).

184. (O Prophet !).

185. (even now when We have not disclosed to thee their identity).

186. لحن is 'The meaning of speech ; its intended sense or import ; its intent ; and indication thereof whereby the person addressed is made to understand one's intent; . . .an oblique, or ambiguous, mode of speech; an inclining of speech to obliqueness, or ambiguity, and equivocal allusion.' (LL).

187. (O believers and hypocrites!).

188. (in the fighting).

189. (other than those of Jihād).

190. (through arguments and evidences).

191. (by infringing the ordinances of either).

34. (ان الذين . . . لهم) Verily those who disbelieve and hinder others from the path of Allah and die as infidels; Allah shall by no means forgive them.

35. (فلا . . . اعمالكم) So do not faint[192], nor cry out for peace; and you shall be triumphant. And Allah is with you, and He will not defraud you of your works.

36. (انما . . . اموا لكم) The life of this world[193] is but a sport and a pastime. And if you believe and shun evils[194], He will give you your wage[195] and will not require of you your substance[196].

37. (ان . . . اضغانكم) If He required it of you[197] and importuned you[198], you[199] would be niggardly, and He will bring to light your secret malevolence.

38. (ها نتم . . امثالكم) Look here! you are those who are called to expend[200] in the cause of Allah[201]; then of you there are some who are niggardly. And whosoever is niggardly[202] is only niggardly to his soul[203]. Allah is Self-sufficient[204], and you are the needy[205]. And if you turn away[206], He will substitute for you another people[207], and then they will not be your likes[208].

192. (O Muslims!).
193. Which is the sole end sought after by the infidels.
194. (O mankind!).
195. (from His own presence).
196. (for His benefit).
197. (for your own benefit).
198. (for the whole of it).
199. i. e., most of the mankind.
200. (a part of your substance).
201. (for your own benefit).

202. (on such occasions).

203. i. e., he deprives himself of His grace.

204. i. e., free of all wants.

205. God is the real owner of everything; man is only dispenser, who will have to render account of every gift. Wealth is but a trust and a test.

206. (and are lukewarm in the propagation of the true faith).

207. (to work out His Design).

208. (in timidity and want of faith).

The Victory. XLVIII

(Madinian, 4 Sections and 29 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (انا ... مبينا) Verily We! a victory[209] We have given thee[210], a manifest victory[211],

2. (ليغفر .. مستقيما) that He may forgive thee of thy sins, past[212] and future[213], and may accomplish the more His favour[214] on thee[215], and may keep thee guided on the straight path[216];

3. (وينصرك .. عزيزا) and that Allah may succour thee with a mighty succour[217].

4. (هو الذى ... حكيما) He it is Who has sent down tranquillity[218] into the hearts of the believers[219] that they might increase belief to their belief[220]. And Allah's are the hosts of the heavens and the earth[221], and Allah is ever Knowing, Wise[222].

---

209. (moral as well as political)

210. (O Prophet!)

211. The reference is to the truce of Hudaibiya, 'which, though at the time it seemed a set-back to the Muslims, proved in fact the greatest victory for Al-Islam. In the sixth year of the Hijra, the Prophet set-out with some 1400 Muslims from Al-Madinah and the country round, in the garb of piligrims, not for war but to visit the Ka'bah. When they drew near to Mecca, they were warned that Qureysh had gathered their allies against them, and that their cavalry under Khalid ibn Al-Walīd was on the road before them. Making a detour through gullies of the hills, they escaped the cavalry and coming into the valley of Mecca, encamped at Al-Hudeybiyeh below the city. The Prophet resolutely refused to give battle and persisted in attempts to parley with Qureysh who had sworn not to let him reach the Ka'bah...Qureysh at length agreed to a truce of which the terms were favourable to them. The Prophet and his multitude were to give up the project of visiting the sanctuary for that year, but were to make the piligrimage the following year when the idolaters undertook to evacuate Mecca for three days to allow them to do so. Fugitives from Qureysh to the Muslims were to be returned, but not fugitives from the Muslims to Qureysh ; and there was not to be hostility between the parties for ten years' (Pickthal). The people, led by vision to anticipate an unopposed visit to the Ka'ba, were crestfallen at the abortive result of their long journey. But, in truth, a great step had been gained by Mohammad. His political status, as an equal and independent Power, was acknowledged by the treaty: the ten year's truce would afford opportunity and time for the new religion to expand, and to force its claims upon the conviction of Koreish ; while conquest, material as well spiritual, might be pursued on every other side...Above all, it was a great and manifest success that free permission was conceded to visit Mecca in the following year, and for three days to occupy the city undisturbed.' (Muir' op. cit., p. 360). This was for the first time that the Muslims were treated on equal terms by the Makkans, and the treaty practically ended the Makkan wars.

212. For ذنب faults as distinct from sin, see P. XXIV. n. 223.

213. See P. XXIV. n. 223. 'The privilege of unconditional pardon for his sins refers to mistakes which he might have committed or would commit in future, and not to intentional omission of duties imposed on all the Faithful...Erring is human, and none is above error except God. But the mistakes of the Prophet were always, and immediately, corrected by Divine Revelation : and this is the difference between the Prophets and other mortals.' (ASB. I. p. 47)

214. (which is already great).

215. (by affording thee still great opportunities of serving the religion of God).

216. (untrammelled by the wiles of infidels).

217. (by making thee powerful and thy cause triumphant).

218. i. e., Divine calm overshadowing the heart.'

219. (when it was natural for them to be discontented and agitated at the apparent inequality of the peace terms).

220. (by seeing their faith justified and fulfiled).

221. (so why be afraid of the pagan hosts ?).

222. (so He prescribes war only when it becomes beneficial).

عَنْهُمْ سَيِّاٰتِهِمْ ۚ وَكَانَ ذٰلِكَ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ فَوْزًا عَظِيْمًا ۙ وَّيُعَذِّبَ الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ وَالْمُنٰفِقٰتِ وَالْمُشْرِكِيْنَ وَالْمُشْرِكٰتِ

وَلِلّٰهِ جُنُوْدُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ۚ وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ عَزِيْزًا حَكِيْمًا ۞ اِنَّآ اَرْسَلْنٰكَ شَاهِدًا وَّمُبَشِّرًا وَّنَذِيْرًا ۞ لِّتُؤْمِنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ
وَرَسُوْلِهٖ وَتُعَزِّرُوْهُ وَتُوَقِّرُوْهُ ۚ وَتُسَبِّحُوْهُ بُكْرَةً وَّاَصِيْلًا ۞ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يُبَايِعُوْنَكَ اِنَّمَا يُبَايِعُوْنَ اللّٰهَ ۚ يَدُ اللّٰهِ فَوْقَ اَيْدِيْهِمْ ۚ
فَمَنْ نَّكَثَ فَاِنَّمَا يَنْكُثُ عَلٰى نَفْسِهٖ ۚ وَمَنْ اَوْفٰى بِمَا عٰهَدَ

5. (ليدخل . . . عظيما) He has prescribed war in order that He may admit the believing men[223] and women into Gardens, whereunder rivers flow as abiders therein, and that He may expiate from them their misdeeds[224]. And that[225] is with Allah ever a mighty achievement.

6. (ويعذب . . . مصيرا) and that[226] He may chastise the hypocritical men and women and the polythiest men and women, and the thinkers of evil thought concerning Allah. To them shall befall the evil turn of fortune[227], and Allah shall be indignant with them[228], and shall curse them[229], and He has prepared for them Hell, an ill-destination !

7. (ولله . . . حكيما) And Allah's are the legions of the heavens and the earth. And Allah is ever Mighty[230], Wise[231].

8. (انا . . نذيرا) Verily We ! We have sent thee as a witness[232] and a bearer of glad tidings[233] and a warner[234],

9. (لترمنوا . . أصيلا) that you people[235] may believe in Allah and His messenger, and may assist Him[236] and honour Him, and may hallow Him morning and evening.

---

223. (by their observing the ordinances of war).

224. (by the preponderance of good over evil).

225. i. e., the expiation of sins).

226. (He has deprived the infidels of the tranquillity of mind in order——).

227. (in this world).

228. (in the Hereafter).

229. i. e., shall deprive of His grace and mercy.

230. i. e., Able to inflict destruction on them without human intervention.

231. i. e., using human agency in His wisdom.

232. (against mankind on the Day of the Judgement).

233. (unto the righteous believers).

234. (unto the ungodly sinners).

235. (O mankind !).

236. i. e., His religion.

عليه الله فسيؤتيه اجرا عظيما ۝ سيقول لك المخلفون من الاعراب شغلتنا اموالنا واهلونا فاستغفر
لنا يقولون بالسنتهم ما ليس في قلوبهم قل فمن يملك لكم من الله شيئا ان اراد بكم ضرا او اراد بكم نفعا
بل كان الله بما تعملون خبيرا ۝ بل ظننتم ان لن ينقلب الرسول والمؤمنون الى اهليهم ابدا وزين
ذلك في قلوبكم وظننتم ظن السوء وكنتم قوما بورا ۝ ومن لم يؤمن بالله ورسوله فانا اعتدنا للكافرين
سعيرا ۝ ولله ملك السموت والارض يغفر لمن يشاء ويعذب من يشاء وكان الله

10. (ان الذين . . عظيما) Verily those who swear fealty to thee[237] indeed swear fealty to Allah[238]; the hand of Allah is over their hands[239]. So whosoever breaks his oath breaks it only to his soul's hurt; and whosoever fulfils his covenant with Allah[240], him He shall soon give a great wage.

SECTION 2

11. (سيقول . . خبيرا) Those of the desert Arabs[241] who lagged behind[242] will presently say[243] to thee[244]: our properties and our families[245] kept us occupied[246], so ask thou forgiveness for us[247]. They say with their tongues what is not in their hearts[248]. Say thou: who can avail you in aught against Allah, if He intended you hurt or intended you benefit[249]? Yea! Allah is ever Aware of what you do[250].

12. (بل . . . بورا) Yea! you imagined[251] that the messenger and the believers would never return to their families[252], and that[253] became bedecked in your hearts[254], and you bethought an evil thought[255], and you became a people doomed[256].

13. (ومن . . . سعيرا) And whosoever does not believe in Allah and His messenger——then verily We have prepared a Blaze for the infidels.

237. (that they would hold together and fight to death).

238. i. e., it was the hand of God Himself, not the hand of His apostle merely, which then was struck. He beheld them from above, and was witness to the solemnity of their giving their faith to His apostle. The holy Prophet was the vicegerent of God, par excellence. 'Without a standing army, without a bodyguard, without a palace, without a fixed revenue, if ever any man had the right to say that he ruled by a right Divine, it was Mohammad; for he had all the power without its instruments and without its supports.' (Bosworth Smith, op. cit., p. 341).

239. The believers, according to the Arab custom, placed hand on hand when solemnly affirming fidelity.

240. (by giving his word to His prophet).

241. (because of their want of firmness in the faith).

242. (during this holy journey which turned out to be Hudaibiya expedition).

243. ——now that thou hast triumphantly returned to Madina——.

244. (O Prophet !).

245. (and not any deliberate revolt on our part).

246. (so that we could not accompany thee).

247. (for this apparent dereliction of duty).

248. i. e., they are affecting regret and remorse, with only lukewarm belief in the Prophet's mission.

249. (in your possessions and families) i. e,, He is the absolute Author of your fates, so why be remiss in your duty towards Him, putting as an excuse the fear of loss to life and property ? (TH).

250. (and He has apprised His prophet of your real and secret motives).

251. (prompted as you were by your wavering faith).

252. (and would be overpowered and annihilated by the Makkan pagans).

253. i. e., the thought of the Muslims being wiped out.

254. i. e., the thought corresponded with your desire.

255. See n. 251 above.

256. (to perdition on account of your malice towards the Prophet and Islam).

غفورا رحيما ۞ سيقول المخلفون اذا انطلقتم الى مغانم لتاخذوها ذرونا نتبعكم يريدون ان يبدلوا
كلم الله قل لن تتبعونا كذلكم قال الله من قبل فسيقولون بل تحسدوننا بل كانوا لا يفقهون الا قليلا ۞
قل للمخلفين من الاعراب ستدعون الى قوم اولي باس شديد تقاتلونهم او يسلمون فان تطيعوا يؤتكم
الله اجرا حسنا وان تتولوا كما توليتم من قبل يعذبكم عذابا اليما ۞ ليس على الاعمى حرج ولا على
الاعرج حرج ولا على المريض حرج ومن يطع الله ورسوله يدخله جنت تجري من تحتها

14. (رحيما . . . ولله) And Allah's is the dominion of the heavens and the earth. He forgives whomsoever He will[257], and chastise whomsoever He will[258]; and Allah is ever Forgiving, Merciful[259].

15. (قليلا . . . سيقول) Those who lagged behind will[260] when you[261] march forth to take the spoils[262] presently say[263]: leave us, we shall follow you. They were to change the word of Allah[264]. Say thou: you shall by no means follow us[265]; thus has Allah said[266] before. Then they will say[267]: Aye! you envy us[268]. Aye! little it is you are wont to understand[269].

16. (اليما . . . قل) Say thou to those of the desert Arabs who lagged behind: surely you shall be summoned[270] to fight against a people endued with exceeding violence[271], then you will fight them or they will surrender[272]. Then if you obey[273], Allah will give you a goodly wage[274]; but if you turn away, as you turned away before[275], He will chastise you with an afflictive chastisement.

257. (and He has willed forgiveness for the believers).

258. (and He has willed torment for the infidels).

259. So He shall forgive also the infidels provided they turn back and repent.

260. i. e., in a few weeks' time.

261. (O Muslims!).

262. (in the expedition of Khaiber). The Prophet soon after his return from Hudaibiya was to proceed against the Jews of Khaiber, and he was to take with him only those who had accompanied him to Hudaibiya.

263. (out of their fondness for booty).

264. i. e. the Divine decree to the effect that none should accompany the Prophet except those who had been with him in the expedition to Hudaibiya.

265. (in the Khaiber expedition). As the penalty for malingering, the Bedouins were forbidden to join, or partake in the booty of any excursion for some time——a penalty so hateful to them.

266. (and ordained on us). 'Many of the citizens and the Bedouin who had neglected the former summons, would gladly now have joined the tempting expedition; but, according to the divine injunction, they were not permitted, and their mortification was great at being left behind.' (Muir. op. cit., p. 374).

267. (to the believers).

268. (share of booty).

269. 'The desert Arabs loved fighting and plunder, and uuderstood such motives for war. The higher motives seemed to be beyond them. Like ignorant men they attributed petty motives of jealousy if they were kept out of the vulgar circle of fighting from plunder.' (AYA).

270. (to fight, after some little time when you will have learnt the lessons of discipline and self-sacrifice, and when your brave words will be tested).

271. The reference is to formidable and will-equipped Persian and Byzantine armies.

272. (to Islam in the meantime).

273. (at that time, and respond to the call to arms).

274. (in the Hereafter).

275. i. e., as at the time of the Hudaibiya expedition.

17. (ليس . . . اليا)No blame there is upon the blind and no blame upon the lame and no blame upon the sick[276]. And whosoever obeys Allah and his messenger he will admit him into Garden whereunder rivers flow; and whosoever turns away, him He shall torment with an afflictive torment.

SECTION 3

18. (لقد . . . قريبا) Assuredly well-pleased was Allah with the faithful[277] when they sworn fealty to thee[278] under the tree[279], and He knew what was in their hearts[280]; so He sent down on them tranquillity[281], and rewarded them with a victory near at hand[282].

19. (و مغانم . . . . حكيما) and abundant spoils that they are taking[283]. And Allah is ever Mighty[284], Wise[285].

20. (وعدكم . . . مستقيما) Allah has promised you abundant spoils[286] that you shall take[287], and these[288] He has hastened to you[289] and has restrained the hands of the people from you[290], that it may be a sign to the believers[291], and that He may guide you to[292] a straight path.

21. (وأخرى . . . قديرا) And another victory[293] He promised, over which as yet you have no power; Allah has surely encompassed it[294], and Allah is ever Potent over everything.

22. (ولو . . . نصيرا) And[295] had those who disbelieve[296] fought against you[297], surely they would have turned their backs and then they would have found no patron nor helper[298].

---

276. (if such persons do not go forth to the war).

277. (who had accompanied the Prophet to Hudaibiya).

278. The Prophet had despatched 'Uthmân as an envoy to the Quraish. 'Some considerable delay having occurred, a report gained currency that he had been murdered at Mecca. Anxiety and alarm overspread the camp. Moḥammed himself began to suspect teachery: taking his stand under the thick shade of an acacia tree, and surrounded by the whole body of the piligrims, he required a pledge from them of faithful service, and that they would stand by 'Othmān to the death...Their fears were suddenly relieved by the reappearance of 'Othmān. But the Pledge of the Tree is a scene to which the Prophet ever after loved to revert; for here the strong feelings of devotion and sympathy between him and his followers had found fitting and ardent expression. Their martial spirit and religious fervour had been excited to the highest pitch; and they were prepared at once to rush upon the enemy with resistless onset.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 358)

279. (under which the holy Prophet set when he took an oath from them to be faithful to him unto death). 'According to Sprenger, the tree having been mentioned in the Korān, Omar had it cut down, lest it should become an object of worship.' (Muir, op; cit., p. 361).

280. (of devotion and sincerity).

281. Which made them firm and resolute.

282. (at Khaiber). 'The victory was decisive, for the Jews lost 93 men; while of the Muslims, only 19 were killed throughout the whole campaign.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 376)

283. 'The plunder of Khaiber was rich beyond experience. Besides vast stores of dates, oil, honey and barley, flocks of sheep and herds of camels, the spoil in treasure and jewels was very large.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 380) 'A large and permanent reward was thus secured for all who had given proof of their faith and loyalty by accompanying Mohammed to Al-Hudaibiya, and the promise made on that expedition thus amply redeemed.' (ib) The loss of so enormous a booty must have particularly aggravated the chagrin of the Bedouin.

284. i. e., Able to reward anyone and everyone.

285. i. e., Rewarding only in accordance with His infinite Wisdom.

286. (elsewhere, O Muslims!)

287. (in the course of time).

288. i. e., the spoils of Khaibar.

289. (by way of earnest).

290. The Jews could offer but feeble resistance. 'The rapidity of the approach cut off all hope of timely aid from the Bani-Ghatafān. The rich vale of Khaiber was studded with villages and fortresses rudely built...One by one, before any opposition could be organised, these forts were attacked and carried...From the villages first attacked, which were gained with little loss, Mohammed proceeded to the strong fortress of Al-Kamus...The citadel of Al-Kamus surrendered, on condition that the inhabitants were free to leave the country, but that they should give up all their property to the conqueror...After the victory of Al-Kamus the only remaining strongholds, Al-Watib and Sulalim, were invested, and seeing no prospect of relief, capitulated... Fedak, a Jewish town, not far from Khaibar, profited by the example, and, having tendered a timely submission, was admitted on the same terms.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 374-376, 380).

291. (comfirming their faith still more in the promises of God).

292. ——with such happenings serving as signposts——

293, (of yet greater significance). The reference is to the conquest of Makka. "Two years later, towards the end of January 630 (A.H. 8), the conquest of Makka was complete. Entering its great sanctuary, Mohammad smashed the many idols, said to have numbered three hundred and sixty, exclaiming: "Truth hath come, and falsehood hath vanished!" The people themselves, however, were treated with special magnanimity. Hardly a triumphal entry in ancient annals is comparable to this.' (Hitti. op. cit., p. 118)

294. (in His power; letting it to you at its proper time).

295. ——to revert to the Hudaibiya episode——

296. i. e., the Makkan pagans.

297. i. e., offered you a battle instead of making truce with you.

298. i. e., the infidels were sure to have met with a crushing and ignominious defeat

الفتح ٤٨ حٰمٓ ٢٦

قبل ۚ ولن تجد لسنة الله تبديلا ﴿٢٣﴾ وهو الذي كف أيديهم عنكم وأيديكم عنهم ببطن مكة من بعد أن
أظفركم عليهم ۚ وكان الله بما تعملون بصيرا ﴿٢٤﴾ هم الذين كفروا وصدوكم عن المسجد الحرام والهدي معكوفا أن

الذين كفروا في قلوبهم الحمية حمية الجاهلية فأنزل الله سكينته على رسوله

23. (سنة الله . . . تبديلا) That has been[299] the dispensation of Allah with those who passed away before; and thou shalt not find any change[300] in the dispensation of Allah[301].

24. (وهو الذى . . . بصيرا) And He it is Who restrained their hands from you and restrained your hands from them[302], in the vale of Makka[303] after He had made you victorious over them, and Allah is ever a Beholder of what you do.

25. (هم الذين . . . اليما) They were those who disbelieved and debarred you from the Sacred Mosque[304], and prevented the detained offering[305], that it should arrive at its goal[306]. And had it not been for the believing men and women you know not[307] and that you might have trampled on them and thus might have been guilty on their account unwittingly[308]. This He did[309] that He might abide with His mercy whomsoever He will[310]. Had they[311] been distinguished one from another[312], surely We had chastised those who disbelieved among them with a painful chastisement[313].

299. i. e., the vanquishing of the opponents of the prophets at the hands of the believers.

300. (O reader !).

301. (that His will and decree could be successfully opposed by any of His creatures).

302. (during the course of events at Hudaibiya, so that both sides refrained from bloodshed).

303. i. e., at Hudaibiya; a place so close to Makka. 'The name Makka, the Macoraba of Ptolemy, comes from Sabaean Makuraba, meaning sanctuary, which indicates that it owes its foundation to some religious association long before Muhammed was born.' (Hitti. op. cit., p. 103). See also P. IV. n. 19.

304. The intent of the holy Prophet in his projected visit to Makka was entirely peaceful——to circumambulate the Ka'ba and to offer a sacrifice in Mina.

305. i. e. the animals for sacrifice that the Muslims, in accord with their well-established practice, had brought with them from Madina.

306. i. e., at Mina.

307. i. e., the believers, unknown to you, were intermingled with the pagan population in Makka at the time.

308. i. e., the Madina Muslims would thus have been unconsciously guilty of sheddding Muslim blood.

309. It was with a view to prevent the Madina Muslims from shedding Muslim blood, unconsciuosly though, that God held back the Prophet from attacking Makka at the time.

310. So that He preserved the lives of the Makkan Muslims and the virtue of the Madina Muslims.

311. i. e., the population of Makka.

312. i. e., the believers from the infidels.

313. i. e., in that case We would have caused the destruction of the pagans by the Muslim hands.

وَعَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَأَلْزَمَهُمْ كَلِمَةَ التَّقْوَىٰ وَكَانُوا أَحَقَّ بِهَا وَأَهْلَهَا ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا (٢٦) لَقَدْ صَدَقَ
اللَّهُ رَسُولَهُ الرُّؤْيَا بِالْحَقِّ ۖ لَتَدْخُلُنَّ الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ آمِنِينَ مُحَلِّقِينَ رُءُوسَكُمْ وَمُقَصِّرِينَ لَا تَخَافُونَ ۖ فَعَلِمَ مَا
لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا فَجَعَلَ مِنْ دُونِ ذَٰلِكَ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا (٢٧) هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَىٰ وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ ۚ
وَكَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا (٢٨) مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ۚ وَالَّذِينَ مَعَهُ أَشِدَّاءُ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ رُحَمَاءُ بَيْنَهُمْ ۖ تَرَاهُمْ رُكَّعًا سُجَّدًا
يَبْتَغُونَ

26. (اذ جعل . . عليما) When[314] those who disbelieve[315] had put in their hearts a zeal, the goal of paganism[316] then Allah sent down a tranquillity upon His messenger and the faithful[317] and kept them fixed on the way of piety[318], and they[319] were worthy of it[320] and meet for it[321]; and Allah is ever the Knower of everything.

SECTION 4

27. (لقد . . . قريبا) Assuredly did Allah show a true vision to His messenger[322] in very truth[323]; Allah willing, you shall surely enter the Sacred Mosque[324], secure, with your head shaven and your hair cropped[325], and you shall have no fear. He[326] knows what you do not know[327]. So He has assigned, besides that, a victory nigh[328].

28. (هوالذى . . شهيدا) He it is Who has sent his messenger[329] with guidance and true faith that He may make it prevail[330] over all faiths[331], and Allah suffices as Witness[332].

---

314. (at the time of drafting the treaty at Hudaibiya)

315. i. e., the representatives of the Quraish.

316. (by their objecting to the words 'The Compassionate'. and 'the apostle of God', and over which it was quite natural for the Muslims to be excited and infuriated). 'Koreish deputed Suheil and other representatives, with power to conclude a treaty of peace...At last the terms were settled...Moḥammed summoned Ali to write from his dictation. And thus he began, "In the name of God, most Gracious and Merciful." "Stop", said Suheil. "As for God, we know Him; but this new name, we know it not. Say as we have always said, In Thy name, O God!" Moḥammed yielded. "Write" he said, "In Thy name, O God! These are the conditions of peace between Moḥammed the Prophet of God and——." "Stop again!" interposed Suheil, "If thou wert what thou sayest, I had not taken up arms against thee. Write, as the custom is, thine own name, and thy father's name." "Write, Then," continued Moḥammed calmly, "between Moḥammed son of 'Abdullah, and Suheil son of 'Amer" (Muir, op. cit., p. 359). This haughty spirit of Paganism حمية الجاهلية refers to 'the tribal pride and the endless tribal feuds, the cult of revenge, the implacability and all the other pagan characterstics which Islam was destined to overcome.' (Goldziher's Muhammadanische Studien I, p. 225). For الجاهلية see P. IV. n. 264.

317. i. e., God specially appeased and calmed the believers when they were on the point of breaking off the negotiations and falling on the pagans.

318. Which consisted, on this occasion, in implicit obedience to the Prophet's dictation, however great the provocation might be.

319. i. e., the true believers.

320. (in the world) i. e., they deserved to stick to the dictates of piety.

321. (in the Hereafter i. e., they shall surely get its recompense in the Hereafter).

322. Wherein he dreamt that he and his companions entered Makka peacefully for Haj. 'Followed by his people, he dreamed that he entered Mecca in security, and having made the circuit of the Ka'ba, and slain the victims, completed thus the ceremonies of the pilgrimage.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 354) The believers were, naturally, led by this vision to anticipate an immediate unopposed visit to the Ka'ba.

323. The passage confirms the vision positively, consoles the believers and asks them not to be perturbed at all if the dream is not fulfilled immediately.

324. (the next year, O Muslims)!

325. Both of which rites are symbolic of Haj and 'Umra (Greater and Lesser Pilgrimage).

326. (the Omniscient).

327. (so in accordance with His perfect Wisdom He delayed the fulfilment of the vision by one year).

328. i. e., the taking of Khaibar.

329. (unto the mankind).

330. (by powerful arguments and evidences). The obvious allusion is to the religion 'which still claims the adherence of no less than four hundred and thirty millions of people, representing nearly all the races and many different climes. Every eighth person in our world today is a follower of Muhammad, and the Moslem call to prayer rings out through most of the twenty-four hours of the day, encircling the large portion of the globe in its warm belt.' (Hitti, op cit., p. 3). (The Muslims now number one thousand million).

331. (and make it the universal religion for all mankind)

332. (thereof). So be not dejected and downhearted at the rejection of thy mission by the pagans which is due to their malice, perversity, or 'Zeal of Paganism.'

فَضْلًا مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانًا سِيمَاهُمْ فِي وُجُوهِهِم مِّنْ أَثَرِ السُّجُودِ ذَٰلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي التَّوْرَاةِ وَمَثَلُهُمْ فِي
الْإِنجِيلِ كَزَرْعٍ أَخْرَجَ شَطْأَهُ فَآزَرَهُ فَاسْتَغْلَظَ فَاسْتَوَىٰ عَلَىٰ سُوقِهِ يُعْجِبُ الزُّرَّاعَ لِيَغِيظَ بِهِمُ الْكُفَّارَ وَعَدَ
اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ مِنْهُم مَّغْفِرَةً وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا

29. (محمد رسول الله . . عظيما) Mohammad[333] is the messenger of Allah[334]. And those who are with him[335] are stern[336] against the infidels and merciful[337] among themselves[338]. Thou seest them[339] bowing down and falling prostrate, and seeking grace from Allah and His goodwill[340]. This mark is on their faces, a trace of prostration[341], such is their description in the Taurāt[342]. And their description in the Injīl[343]: like a seed that puts forth its shoot and strengthens it, and grows and rises straight upon its stalk delighting the sowers[344]. Such are the early Muslims described that He may enrage the infidels with them. To those among them who believe and work righteous deeds, Allah has promised forgiveness and a splendid wage.

333. Subject for many centuries to vilification, vituperation and ridicule by so-called 'scholars' of the West, it is only now that light has begun slowly and gradually to dawn upon Europe and America. 'Shall we speak of this man with disrespect? His precepts are, at this day, the religious guide of one-third of the human race.' (Draper, Conflict between Religion and Science, p. 84). 'It ts only in recent years that we have come to think differently of Muhammed and his religion of Islam. It is acknowledged now that he was an inspired man, and that his religion rescued many millions of men from a shameful idolatry, and gave them a noble idea of One God.' (Bk. IV. p. 2282) see also P. IV. n. 212; n. 107 above, P. XXX. nn. 425, 429, 580.

334. (and the Book of God shall ever testify to this truth; so why worry over the trifling fact that the pagans at Hudaibiya objected to append the words 'apostle of God' to his name). Surely no other prophet's personal habits...have been so faithfully recorded and followed by his followers or his decrees invested with such divine authority.' (Bhattacharya, Foundations of Living Faith, p. 45). 'The profession of faith, shahadah, the first pillar, is summed up in the Kuranic double formula la ilāh illa-l-lāh : Muhammadun rasulul-lāh (no god whatever but Allah: Muhammad is the messenger of Allah). These are the first words to strike the ear of the new-born Moslem babe: they are the last to be uttered at the grave. Between these two episodes no other words are more often repeated.' (Hitti, op. cit.. p. 130).

335. i. e., his companions in general, and those who accompanied him in the Hudaibiya expedition in particular.

336. i. e., unyielding ; unbending ; firm of heart.

337. i. e., kind, mild and considerate.

338. i. e., towards each other ; to their brethren in faith. Formidable to the enemies of God they were meekness itself to His friends.

339. (O readers) !

340. 'These men were the true moral heirs of the Prophet, the future apostles of Islam, the faithful trustees of all that Muhammad revealed unto the men of God...They had really changed for the better from every point of view, and later on as statesmen and generals, in the most difficult moments of the war of conquest they gave magnificent and undeniable proof that the ideas and the doctrines of Muhammad had been seed cast on fruitful soil, and had produced a body of men of the very highest worth. They were the depositories of the sacred test of the Qurān, which they alone knew by heart; they were the jealous guardians of the memory of every word and bidding of the Prophet, the trustees of the moral heritage of Muhammad.' (Caetani, quoted in Arnold's Preaching of Islam, pp. 41-42)

341, (and frequency of worship. The purport is; the saintliness of these devotees of God is evident from their faces).

342. Even in the modern corrupt version of the Book of Moses one of finds something tallying with this description. 'He came with ten thousands of saints.' (Dt. 33 : 2). The apostle of God did in fact enter Makka with ten thousand men. 'Muhammad now found himself at the head of between eight and ten thousand men' (Muir, op. cit., p. 403). ['From his right hand went a fiery law for them.' (Dt. 33 : 2). 'Stern against the infidels' (The Holy Qurān). 'Yea : he loved the people'. (Dt. 33 : 2). 'Merciful among themselves.' (The Holy Qurān). 'All his saints are in thy hand : and they sat down at thy feet ; every one shall receive of thy words' (Dt. 33 : 3). 'Mark of them is on their faces from the effect of prostration.' (The Holy Qurān)].

343. 'The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field ; which indeed is the least of all seeds ; but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.' (Mt. 13 : 31, 32) 'Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God ? or with what comparison shall we compare it ? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth is less than all the seeds that be in the earth : But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches ; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.' (Mk. 4 : 31, 32) Cf. also Lk. 13 : 18, 19.

344. The seed in the parable is, of course, the religion of Islam, the growth of which, both in strength and numbers, simply amazed the onlookers ; and by 'sowers' are meant the holy Prophet and his companions.

The Apartments. XLIX

(Madinian, 2 Sections and 18 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (یایها الذین . . علیم) O you who believe[345] ! do not be forward[346] in the presence of Allah and His messenger, and fear Allah[347]. Verily Allah is Hearing[348], Knowing[349].

2. (یایها الذین . . تشعرون) O you who believe[350] ! do not raise your voice above the voice of the prophet[351], nor shout loud to him in discourse[352], as you do to one another, lest your works may be rendered fruitless[353], while you perceive not[354].

3. (ان الذین . . عظیم) Verily those who lower their voices in the presence of the messenger of Allah[355] !——those are they whose hearts Allah has disposed towards piety; theirs will be forgiveness and splendid wage.

345. (who love to be mannerly and decorous in the presence of the holy Prophet).

346. (in word or deed) i. e., do not presume to give your advice in any matter before the Prophet asks you to do so.

347. (in every matter, great or small; in the whole conduct of your life).

348. (in reference to your words).

349. (in reference to your deeds).

350. (who love to shed off every trace of bad manners).

351. (while addressing one another in his presence).

352. (while addressing him direct).

353. (by your offending the Prophet of God).

354. (that you are doing anything wrong).

355. Which is mark of sound breeding and good manners.

4. (ان الذين . . . يعقلون) Verily these who call aloud to thee[356] from without the inner apartments[357], most of them are foolish[358].

5. (ولو . . . رحيم) And had they waited till thou comest out unto them, it had surely been better for them[359]; and Allah is Forgiving, Merciful[360].

6. (يايها الذين . . ندمين) O you who believe! if a mischief-maker came to you with a report[361], then[362] make a strict inquiry[363], lest you may hurt a people unwittingly and thereafter repent of what you have done.

7. (واعلموا . . . الراشدون) And know that verily among you[364] there is the messenger of Allah[365]. If he were to obey you[366], you would surely be in trouble[367], but Allah has endeared faith to you and has bedecked it in your hearts and has made infidelity and wickedness and disobedience[368] abhorrent to you. These! they are the men of rectitude,

8. (فضلا . . . حكيم) through grace from Allah and His favour. And Allah is Knowing[369], Wise[370].

---

356. (O Prophet!).

357. (in disregard of the respect due to thee).

358. (that they are by their unseemly behaviour showing positive disrespect to the holy Prophet).

359. Certain ill-mannered persons had at noon-time the rudeness to knock at the door of the Prophet's private apartments and to shout out: 'Muhammad, come forth to us.'

360. (to the repentant). So they can easily make amends.

361. i. e., evil report about someone, a tale damaging somebody's reputation.

362. (instead of giving immediate credence to it).

363. (unto the truth thereof). تبين الامر is 'He sought, or sought leisurely repeatedly, to obtain knowledge of the thing, until he knew it, he examined, scrutinized, or investigated. (LL)

364. (O Muslims of the Prophet's time !)

365. i. e., you are fortunate indeed in having the living Prophet of God in your midst.

366. (instead of your obeying him).

367. i. e., if the Prophet followed you in your wishes, instead of your following his advice implicitly, the result would be simply disastrous.

368. (so that by the grace of God you yourselves love to follow the Prophet's precepts implicity instead of thrusting your counsel upon him).

369. i. e., Aware of your needs and requirements.

370. i. e., Enacter of wise ordinances.

9. (وان . . . المقسطين) And if two parties of the faithful fall to mutual fighting[371], then affect reconciliation between them[372]. But if one of them rebels against the other[373], then fight the party which rebels till it reverts to the commandment of Allah[374]. Then if it reverts[375], affect reconciliation between them justly[376] and be equitable,[377], Allah loves the equitable.

10. (انما . . . ترحمون) The faithful[378] are but brethren[379]; so affect reconciliation between your brethren[380] and fear Allah[381] that haply mercy may be shown to you[382].

SECTION 2

11. (يايها الذين . . . الظلمون) O you who believe! let not one group scoff at another group; perchance they[383] may be better[384] than they are, nor let some women scoff at other women, perchance the latter may be better than they are. And do not traduce one another, nor revile one another by odious appellations[385]; ill is the name of sin after belief[386]. And whosoever will not repent[387], then those are the wicked.

---

371. Which, in ordinary circumstances, is itself a heinous crime. Observe a saying of the holy Prophet: 'If two Muslims meet with their swords, then the slayer and the slayed (both of them) will go into the Fire.' (Bu. 2 : 22).

372. The address is to the collective community of the Muslims.

373. (and your efforts at composing their differences have failed).

374. (and desists from fighting).

375. (to cessation of fighting).

376. i. e., have their differences composed permanently and on the basis of Divine ordinances.

377. i. e., do not allow your self-interest to come in.

378. i. e., all those who have the faith of Islam in common.

379. (however different they may be from one another in other respects). This is neither nationalization nor Arabicization but humanization in the true sense of the word. It means that community of faith as a bond of union is superior to, and more fundamental than, any other bond at all, merging all colours, ranks and races in consciousness of a common brotherhood. 'This was the first attempt in the history of Arabia at a social organisation with religion, rather than blood, as its basis... Thus by one stroke the most vital bond of Arab relationship, that of tribal kinship, was replaced by a new bond, that of faith; a sort of Pan-Islamica was instituted for Arabia.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. p. 120-121). 'It must be admitted that Moḥammedans have, from whatever causes, acted up to their creed in this respect more fully than have Christians' (Bosworth Smith, op. cit., p. 246). "A Musalman is first and a Turk, an Afghan, or an Arab afterwards", is no mere formula or figure of speech with that vast assemblage of peoples and of tongues to whom the Prophet of Arabia, by teaching them to worship the one true God, has given a bond of union stronger than any tie of blood or nation.' (P. 306) 'A religious theory that is very strikingly realised in Muhammadan society and seldom fails to express itself in acts of kindness towards the new convert. Whatever be his race, colour or antecedents he is received into the brotherhood of believers and takes his place as an equal among equals.' (Arnold, Preaching of Islam, p. 416)

380. The Prophet has said: 'None of you hath faith until he desireth for his brother what he desireth for himself (Bu, 2 : 6). 'To abuse a Muslim is an evil deed, and to fight him, an act of unbelief.' (2 : 36)

381. i. e., be observant of the Divine injunctions in effecting this reconciliation.

382. 'The equality in Islam of all believers and the common brotherhood of all Muslims, which suffered no distinctions between Arab and non-Arab, between free and slave, to exist among the faithful, was an idea that ran directly counter to the proud clan-feeling of the Arab, who grounded his claims to personal consideration on the fame of his ancestors, and in the strength of the same carried on the endless blood-feuds in which his soul delighted.' (Arnold, Preaching of Islam, pp. 42-43) 'In India .... Mohammedans make converts by hundreds from among the Hindus, while Christians with difficulty make ten, and this partly at least because they receive their converts on terms of entire social equality, while Europeans, in spite of all the efforts of missionaries to the contrary, seem either unwilling or unable to treat their converts as other than inferiors' (Bosworth Smith, op. cit., p. 247). In the words of Rev. Canon Issac Taylor uttered at a meeting of the Church congress (England), 'Islam preaches a practical brotherhood——the social equality of all Muslims.... The convert is admitted at once to an exclusive social caste : he becomes a member of a vast confraternity of 105,000,000. A Christian convert is not regarded as a social equal, but the Muslims brotherhood is a reality.

383. i. e., the latter.

384. (in the sight of God).

385. (all these acts are as many deviations from the Muslim's prescribed life-chart, and are therefore to be counted as sins).

386. i. e., it ill becomes a Muslim even to be associated with such sins.

387. (and desist from these sins).

بعض الظن إثم ولا تجسسوا ولا يغتب بعضكم بعضا أيحب أحدكم أن يأكل لحم أخيه ميتا فكرهتموه
واتقوا الله إن الله تواب رحيم ۝ يا أيها الناس إنا خلقناكم من ذكر وأنثى وجعلناكم شعوبا وقبائل
لتعارفوا إن أكرمكم عند الله أتقاكم إن الله عليم خبير ۝ قالت الأعراب آمنا قل لم تؤمنوا ولكن قولوا

غفور رحيم ۝ إنما المؤمنون الذين آمنوا بالله ورسوله ثم لم يرتابوا وجاهدوا

12. (يا يها الذين . . . رحيم) O you who believe ! avoid much suspicion ; indeed some suspicion[388] is a sin. And spy not[389], nor backbite one another[390]. Would any of you relish to eat the flesh of his dead brother[391] ? You detest that[392]. And fear Allah[393] ; verily Allah is Relenting, Merciful[394].

13. (يا يها الناس . . خبير) Mankind[395] ! verily We ! We have created you[396] of a male[397] and a female[398], and We have made you nations and tribes[399] that you might know[400] one another[401]. Verily the noblest of you with Allah[402] is the most pious of you[403]. Verily Allah is Knowing, Wise[404].

14. (قالت . . . رحيم) The desert Arabs[405] say : we have believed[406]. Say thou[407] : you have not believed[408], rather say : we have submitted to Islam[409]; while faithh as not yet entered into your hearts[410]. And if you obey Allah and His messenger[411], He shall not diminish aught[412] of your works; verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

388. (involving as it does cruel injustice to innocent men and women).

389. (into other man's failings or their private circumstances to find fault with).

390. (even if the imputations made be true). The essence of غيبة is to speak of a person what would grieve him. When it is false, it is termed بہتان. It is this great social vice, the habit of slandering an absent person that has caused untold misery in the world and has poisoned the atmosphere of almost every household.

391. Backbiting is here compared to feasting upon the corpse of a dead brother

392. Likewise is backbiting loathsome.

393. (and desist from all these sins).

394. (to the repentant)

395. (consisting of various races and nations and peoples of different cultures).

396. i. e., all of you; entire mankind. Which means, in plain speech, that all races of men, Europeans, Asiatics and Africans, white, brown and black are equally His creations. He has made them to vary in colour, language and mode of life, and has placed them in different lands, but he takes thought for all alike.

397. (and not begotten by different ancestors). Thus the Holy Book of Islam directly preaches specific unity of mankind, and favours what in the language of Anthropology is called 'monogenism'——man being one genus with one species—— as opposed to the rival theory of 'polygenism' which affirms different groups as originating independently in different geographical areas as separate units. 'Although the existing races of man differ in many respects, ... yet if their whole structure be taken into consideration they are found to resemble each other closely in a multitude of points . . . . Now when naturalists observe a close agreement in numerous small details of habits, tastes, and dispositions between two or more domestic races or between nearly-allied natural forms, they use this fact as an argument that they are descended from a common progenitor who has thus endowed; and consequently that all should be classed under the same species. The same argument may be applied with much force to the races of man.' (Darwin, Descent of Man, pp. 276-278)

398. Referring to the Christian habit of attributing the inferior status of woman to the religion of Islam or to the holy Prophet says a modern Christian writer:—'Moḥammed is supposed to have inspired her docile acquiescence to faith, to have denied her self expression in competition with men. and to have closed to her all doors which made spiritual and mental development possible. But this idea is conttrary to fact . . . . On the advent of Moḥammad the position of woman was not enviable. He found her to be little more than a chattel——a condition which was due in large part to the teaching of the Hebrew rabbis. The Hebrew religion, which was practised throughout the area into which Moḥammed carried his teaching, had placed a decided stamp of inferiority upon her. She was inherited like any piece of furniture, and the heir could do with her as he pleased. She had no protection, no recourse to law, no right of inheritance. That to the Prophet was a state of affairs no longer to be tolerated. He believed woman to be the "equal sister of man" and determined to strengthen the Moslem State by forcing a recognition of her equality... He limited polygamy and abolished infanticide. He instituted the marriage contract, inheritance right, and the privilege of divorce for woman, while he discouraged divorce at the behest of one or the other where differences could reasonably be dissolved. He established the principle of dowry and provided for the inviolable maintenance of part of it for the woman's protection. He safeguarded her further by decreeing religious favour to those who would assist in the support of widows and orphans. He recognized woman's earlier as well as contemporary contribution to civilization, and urged her highest development spiritually and morally as an asset to the State. This was indeed a single advance in the thinking of that period, and a transformation in social custom which would be remarkable in any age.' (Miss Flory in the Moslem World, New York, January 1940, pp. 16-17).

399. This strikes at the root of the caste system which maintains that mankind are not born equal, but in different stages of spiritual development. 'The orthodox Hindu holds that his gods have ordained a social state at whose top everlasting sits the Brahmin, endowed with all privilege; below the Brahmin descend by steps some three to four thousand inferior castes and sub-castes, each inescapably fettered as to every concern in life, within its own compartment; whilst beneath them all wallow helpless and hopeless millions of outcasts——humanly born so low that they possess no rights of any sort and their very shadow defiles whatever it falls upon.' In the words of a modern non-Muslim philosopher, 'the colour of the skin is of no consequence; the quality of the heart is of every consequence. The racial or national label matters nothing; the character matters everything.' See P. IV. n. 477; IX. n. 346.

The verse equally well demolishes the myth of a Master Race, and completely supports the scientific finding that racial discrimination has no foundation in biological fact.

400. (and not despise or dominate).

401. So the doctrine of a biologically chosen people, as a race apart, designed by Nature to rule the world is not only positively mischievous but also mythical. And this puts an end to the vast pseudo-science of "racial biology" seeking to justify political ambitions, economic ends and class prejudices.

402. i. e., the most honourable among you in the sight of God.

403. (in the conduct of his daily affair, and not the high-born of you). Here indeed is a re-classification of humanity——promulgation of a new order of nobility—the division of mankind not between the princes and the peasants, nor between the touchables and the untouchables, but between the more moral and the less moral. 'It is this absence of class prejudices which constitutes the real strength of Islam in India and enables it to win so many converts from Hinduism.' (Arnold, Preaching of Islam, p. 291). 'The equality of all men before God was a principle which Moḥammad everywhere maintained, and which, taking, as it did, all caste feeling from slavery, took away also its chief sting.' (Bosworth Smith, op. cit., p. 246). 'No considerations of birth, or race, or colour, or money, have prevented a man rising to the post for which it had been recognised that he was best fitted. Zaid, the Prophet's freedman led his armies in war . . . . A dynasty of Circassian slaves ruled Egypt for a century before its conquest by the Othoman Turks, and it is said that Christians from the Caucasus were glad to be carried off as slaves to Egypt because each one felt that he might rise to be sultan.' (p. 250).

404. i. e., well acquainted with the degree of piety everyone possesses.

405. The reference is to certain Arabs of the tribe of Asad, who in a year of scarcity came to Madina to obtain a part of the alms, and without being sincere beliefs. surrendered themselves to the Islamic State.

406. (and like other Muslims are entitled to get relief).

407. (O Prophet!).

408. Belief or faith is not synonymous with lip-profession. It is something deep. inward, a living assurance of the heart.

409. (to the outward dominance of Islam).

410. Mere conformity with, and obediance to, certain formal rules is not faith, or imān, It is only when sincerity (tasdīq) is joined to it, that a man becomes a true believer.

411. (sincerely and with all your heart).

412. (of the reward).

بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنفُسِهِمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الصَّادِقُونَ ۝ قُلْ أَتُعَلِّمُونَ اللَّهَ بِدِينِكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ ۚ وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ۝ يَمُنُّونَ عَلَيْكَ أَنْ أَسْلَمُوا ۖ قُل لَّا تَمُنُّوا عَلَيَّ إِسْلَامَكُم ۖ بَلِ اللَّهُ يَمُنُّ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ هَدَاكُمْ لِلْإِيمَانِ إِن كُنتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۝ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ غَيْبَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۚ وَاللَّهُ بَصِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

15. (انما . . . الصدقون) The faithful are those only who have faith in Allah and His messenger, and have not doubted thereafter, and have striven hard with their riches and their lives in the cause of Allah. Those: they are the truthful[413].

16. (قل . . . عليم) Say thou[414]: what! will you instruct Allah about your religion[415]? Whereas Allah knows whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth, and Allah is Aware of everything[416].

17. (يمنون . . . صدقين) They[417], regard it as a favour to thee that they have embraced Islam[418]. Say thou: deem not your surrender[418-A] a favour to me; nay! Allah has conferred a favour upon you as He has guided you to the faith[419], if you are sincere[420].

18. (ان الله . . . تعملون) Allah knows the Hidden in the heavens and the earth, and Allah is the Beholder of what you do[421].

413. i, e. the sincere believers.

414. (to these wandering Arabs of lukewarm faith, O Prophet!).

415. (as if He depended for His knowledge on your verbal assertions).

416. (including the secrets of your heart and your innermost motives).

417. (in their ignorance)

418. (without offering opposition, O Prophet!). See n. 405 above.

418-A. 'Islam' here is not in its technical sense, meaning the faith of Islam, but only in a literal sense, signifying surrender or submission.

419. (and has made you the possessors of so proud a privilege).

420. (in your profession of faith). The purport is: if you are real converts to Islam, as you imply, then remember that it is Allah who has conferred this great boon and benefit upon you.

421. (and shall requite you accordingly).

The Qaf. L

(Makkan, 3 Sections and 45 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (ق . . . المجيد) Qāf. By the glorious Qurān, We have sent thee as a warner.

2. (بل . . . عجيب) Aye! they[422] marvel that a warner has come to them from among themselves[423], and so the infidels[424] say: this[425] is a thing wonderful[426];

3. (ءاذا . . . بعيد) shall we be brought back when we are dead and have become dust? That is a return remote[427]!

4. (قد . . . حفيظ) Surely We know[428] what the earth consumes of them[429], and with Us is[430] a Book preserved[431].

5. (بل . . . مريج) Aye! they denied the truth[432] when it came to them; so they are confused in the matter[433].

6. (افلم . . . فروج) Have they not looked up to the sky above them; how We have constructed it[434], and adorned it[435] and that there is no rift therein[436].

---

422. i. e., the Makkan pagans.

423. i. e., a mere man; a mortal like themselves.

424. Who denied Resurrection as well as Revelation.

425. (conception of Resurrection and Revelation).

426. i. e., unheard of and therefore unbelievable.

427. i. e., far removed from the range of possibility. The Resurrection of the body was derided by his fellow-citizens as an idle imagination. When Moḥammed sought to illustrate the raising of the dead by the analogies of Nature, and the power of God in creation, he was scouted as a sorcerer or magician, who would pretend that a living body could be reproduced from dust and dead men's bones.' (Muir, op. cit,, p. 78).

428. (in Our all-pervading knowledge).

429. i. e., how much of the body moulders away in the grave.

430. (from all eternity).

431. (containing a full account of everything). The reference is to the Preserved Tablet.

432. (announcing the fact of Resurrection).

433. At times doubting and at times denying altogether.

434. So lofty and so grand !

435. (with stars). So beautiful !

436. So strong !

7. (والارض . . . بهيج) And the earth! We have spread it forth, and have cast upon it firm mountains, and have caused to grow in it every manner of beautiful plant——

8. (تبصرة . . . منيب) an insight and admonition[437] for every penitent bondman.

9. (و نزلنا . . . الحصيد) And We have sent down water[438] from the heaven and blessed with it We have caused the gardens to grow, and the grain reaped,

10. (والنخل . . نضيد) and tall date-palms laden with ranged clusters[439],

11. (رزقا . . . الخروج) as a provision for Our bondmen; and with it We made the dead land alive. Such will be the coming forth[440].

12. (كذبت . . . ثمود) Denied before them[441] the people of Nūh[442] and the dwellers of Rass[443] and the Thamūd,

13. (وعاد . . . لوط) and the 'Aād, and Fir'awn and the brethren of Lūt,

14. (و اصحب . . . وعيد) and the dwellers of the wood[444], and the people of Tubba[445]. Each one belied the messengers, and so My judgement was fulfilled.

15. (افعيينا . . . جديد) Are We then wearied with the first creation[446]? Aye! they are[447] in doubt regarding a new creation[448].

SECTION 2

16. (ولقد . . . الوريد) Assuredly we have created man, and We know[449] what his soul whispers within him[450], We are nearer to him than his jugular vein[451].

437. i. e., serving as an argument and evidence of Our might and uniqueness.

438. i. e., rain charged with blessing, full of benefit. 'Life of every kind is dependent upon water, and terrestrial life upon rain-water.' (HHW. I., 44).

439. 'The date-tree produces three or four large clusters, which rise from the summit of the tree, and hang round. They are formed of small branches, long and flexible, from which hang the dates.' (Savary, quoted by Sale).

440. (of the dead from their graves).
441. i. e., before the present-day pagans.
442. (their prophets).
443. See P. XIX. n. 31.
444. See P. XIV. n. 91.
445. See P. XXV. n. 388.
446. (and unable now to bring about Resurrection).
447. (out of sheer perversity).
448. i. e., about raising of the dead.
449. (even better than man knows himself).
450. (of evil suggestions). He is by virtue of His creatorship aware of man's inherent weaknesses.

451. i. e., are even more minutely conscious of his innermost feelings than is his own self. That is the exact relationship, in Islam, between God and man. Of course there is no identity between the two; we remain ourselves, and He the great Other. Yet His communion with us is of even more intimate nature than is that of ourselves with us. The verse also does away entirely with the idea of God being remote and unapproachable, and stresses His all-pervading character and His intimacy with His creatures.

25. (مریب . . . مناع) hinderer of good, trespasser, doubter ;

26. (الشدید . . . الذی) who set up with Allah another god, so cast him you twain in the severe torment.

27. (بعید . . . قال) His Companion[469] will say[470] : "Lord! I did not cause him to transgress[471], he was himself in error far-off[472].

28. (بالوعید . . . قال) Allah will say[473] : do not wrangle in My presence[474], and I had already proferred you the warning[475].

452. i. e., the two recording angels attending man every moment of his life.

453. i. e., take an account of man's behaviour.

454. (to note it). Every little word uttered by human mouth is noted by the recording angels. The angelic record must be full and complete.

455. Or "of necessity." حق, in addition to its other meanings, also means.

"A necessary, or requisite, thing. A thing, or an event, that is decreed, or destined." (LL). The stupor of death referred to means the loss of cosciousness immediately before the onset of death. Consciousness, according to the latest biological opinion, is the first function which the dying man loses.

456. (with fear, O man !).

457. (on the Judgement Day).

458. (the fulfilment of).

459. (before the Divine tribunal).

460. i. e., an angel, prepared, acting as a sergeant, to bring every person before the tribunal.

461. i. e., an angel, prepared as a witness, to testify either for or against him.

462. (ignoring this Day ; rejecting it, O infidel !).

463. (and thou art face to face with reality).

464. i. e., mental perception.

465. (and sharp, so that thou perceivest therewith what thou didst not know or what thou deemest improbable, in thy life on earth).

466. i. e., the recording angel.

467. (of thy full and complete record).

468. (O recording angels !).

469. i. e., the devil chained to an infidel in life.

470. (protesting his own innocence).

471. (by force) i. e., I did dot have power over him.

472. The devil possesses no power of compulsion at all. At most it suggests evil ways, but man adopts his suggestions owing to his own corrupt inclinations.

473. (to the sinners and the devil).

474. (as it is futile).

475. (that everybody who disobeys Me, whether of his own accord or as seduced by others shall meet with grievous punishment).

32. (هذا . . . حفيظ) This is what you were promised[482] : for every oft-returning heedful one,

33. (من . . . منيب) who fears the Compassionate, in the Unseen and comes to Him with a penitent heart;

34. (ادخلوها . . . الخلود) Enter it in peace. This is the Day of Abidence.

35. (لهم . . . مزيد) Theirs therein will be whatever they wish[483] and with Us will be yet more[484].

36. (وكم . . . محيص) And how many a generation[485] We destroyed before them[486] who were mightier in power than they, and they traversed the cities[487] ! And no place of refuge could they find.

37. (ان . . . شهيد) Verily herein[488] is an admonition to him who has a heart[489], or[490] gives ear while he is heedful[491].

38. (ولقد . . . لغوب) And assuredly We created the heavens and the earth and what is in-between in six days[492], and naught touched Us of weariness[493].

476. (of sentence) i. e., My Judgement.

477. (when the time for repentance is past).

478. i. e., all My creatures. This punishment will be only an inevitable outcome of sin. See also P. XXIV. n. 401.

479. i. e., sated to the full.

480. i. e., if there are yet any more condemned to this place; I am capacious enough to receive them.

481. (from them).

482. (by Our messengers in the world).

483. (of pleasure and happiness).

484. (of Bliss and Beatitude). 'The joys of the Mahometan paradise will not be confined to the indulgence of luxury and appetite: and the Prophet has expressly declared that all meaner happiness will be forgotten and despised by the saints and martyrs, who shall be admitted to the beatitude of the divine vision.' (GRE. V. p. 351)

485. (of rejecters).

486. i. e., before the present-day pagans.

487. (in quest of wealth). As commercial people they journeved through the land frequently.

488. i. e., in such historical precedents.

40. (ومن . . . السجود) And hallow Him in the night-time[498], and also after the prescribed prostration[499].

41. (واستمع . . . قريب) And hearken thou[500] : the Day when the caller[501] will call[502] from a place quite near[503]——

42. (يوم ... الخروج) the Day, when they will surely hear the Shout[504]—— that is the Day of coming forth[505].

43. (انا . . . المصير) Verily We! it is We Who give life and cause death[506], and to Us[507] is the journeying[508].

44. (يوم . . . يسير) That shall be the Day when the earth shall be cleft from off them[509], as they hasten forth[510]. That shall be a gathering unto Us easy.

45. (نحن . . . وعيد) We are the best Knower of what they[511] say; and thou art not a tyrant over them[512]. So admonish thou by the Qurān him who fears My warning[513].

494. (in rejecting thee and the doctrine of Resurrection, O Prophet !). 'His message and his warnings received from them nothing but scoffing and contempt.... They adopted all possible means, threats and promises, insults and offers of worldy honour and aggrandisement, to induce Muhammad to abandon the post he had taken up.' (Arnold, Preaching of Islam, p. 13-14)

495. (at all times in general, and particularly——)

He occupies the same place in the great systems of Asia and semi-civilized religions of pre-Columban America.' (ERE. XI. p. 591).

28. The reference is to the pagans' calling the holy Prophet a madman or a wizard.
29. i. e. the present-day pagans.
30. i. e., the ancient infidels.
31. i. e., (of their prophet).
32. i. e., this traditional obstinate opposition to God's messenger.
33. i. e., the infidels of different of ages.
34. i. e., the real reason for their common enmity to their prophets is their common contumacy.
35. (and be not disheartened, O Prophet !)
36. (in any way).
37. (for their behaviour).
38. (and serves as a warning to the unbelievers).

39. 'In these days of scientific enlight nment, very little is said of the reason why we do pray, which is simply that we cannot help praying. It seems probable that, in spite of all that "science" may do to the contrary, men will continue to pray to the end of the time...The impulse to pray is a necessary consequence of the fact that whilest the innermost of the empirical self of a man is a self of the social sort, it yet can find its only adequate socius in an ideal world.' (James, Principles of Psychology, I. p. 316). But the conception of worship in Islam is far more comprehensive. Here it is not restricted to the purely devotional practices but extends over the whole of man's practical life, individual and social. If the object of our life on the whole is the worship of God, then we necessarily must regard this life, in the totality of its aspects, as one complex moral responsibility. Thus all our actions, even the seemingly trivial ones, must be performed as acts of worship, that is, performed consciously as constituting a part in God's universal plan.' (ASB. I. p. 39).

40. i. e., My creatures. The allusion is to the food offerings presented by the polytheistic peoples to their various gods. The gods of the Vedas, for instance, are not only anthropomorphic in appearance but also require food. Their favourite food consists of 'milk, butter, grain, and the flesh of sheep, goats and cattle. It is offered to them in the sacrifice; this is either conveyed to them in heaven by the god or fire, or they come in their cars to partake of it on the litter of grass prepared for their reception. Their favourite beverage is the exhilarating juice of the soma plant.' (ERE. XII p. 603). 'The worshipper refreshes his gods with the food and drink of which he himself partakes, in order thereby to make them strong and willing to carry out his ends.' (II. p. 41). 'In the grossest sense, sacrifice is a mere bargain. Man needs things which the god possesses such as rain, light, warmth, and health, while the god is hungry and seek offerings from men : there is giving and receiving on both sides'. (Barth, op. cit., pp.35-36). In the pre-Islamic Semitic sacrifices also 'the God and his worshippers partake of a common meal...The deity is periodically fed by the gifts of his children and thus is kept continually favourable towards them.' (ERE. XI. p. 33). See also P. VII. n. 277.

41. (being myself the supplier of the means of subsistence to all). In Egypt, as in many other polytheistic countries, 'the relation between Divinity and humanity was thought of...as reciprocally conditioned. Man dedicates to the Deity food, drink, clothing, a dwelling-place——the things which the Deity shares in all earthly qualities and needs, requires for comfort.' (DB. V. p. 177).

42. (of food to all creatures).

43. (and Independent of all needs).

44. (and requiring nothing for His support and subsistence).

45. (in the past).

46. (the judgement).

104. (with Him). 'With this hard doctrine of the unity of Allah, intermediaries were swept away. The whole polydaemonistic scheme with one God somewhere in the background, to which the Arabs seem to have attained, vanished. There was left no interceder with the one God ; no beings from whom revelations might come. When an angel spoke with him——Gabriel or the Holy Spirit, or whatever the term might be——there was no semi-divine personality there. On the one hand, there was Allah, on the other, His creation, including angels, Jinn, devils, men. Not even such a conception of a unity of nature with God as we find among the Hebrews in the Beni Elohim——that is their only distinction. Allah is throned alone——the Creator, Ruler, Destroyer——unto Him there is none like.' (Macdonald, Religious Attitude and Life in Islam, p. 38).

105. i. e., the idolatrous Makkans.

118. (in the life-time).

119. (while uttering God's truth) i. e., he only speaks when God commands him to do so ; and therefore both the Qurān and the Prophet's Sunnah are to be implicitly followed.

120. Revelation as distinguished from mere inspiration, always comes from outside, and is never envolved from within——an outcome of the seer's own spiritual awakening. And in order to receive a 'revelation,' the prophet must be a purely passive, receptive, instrument of God, eliminating his own personality altogether.

121. i. e., the revealing angel Garbiel.

122. (direct from God).

123. i. e., whom God has created and endowed with great strength ; powerful.

134. (through that angel).

135. i. e., the Prophet Muḥammad (on him be peace !) See P. I. n. 98 ; P. XV. n. 2.

136. Note that the nature of the prophetic experience (the consciousness of Revelation) is incommunicable and utterly incomprehensible to one who is not himself a prophet.

137. (of the Prophet).

138. i. e., do not be incredulous of his prophetic experience ; he was not the subject of any illusion ; he saw the whole thing in reality, without any possibility of doubt or mistake.

139. (in your ignorance, O infidels !).

140. i. e., concerning a thing which to him is a thing of direct and positive sense-experience and of which you have but the faintest and vaguest idea.

141. i. e., the holy Prophet.

142. i. e., the angel Gabriel in his natural shape.

143. (on the occasion of the Prophet's ascension to the heavens, just before his migration to Madina). 'He was swiftly carried by Gabriel on a winged steed past Madina to the temple at Jerusalem, where a conclave of the ancient prophets met to welcome him . . . . From Jerusalem he mounted upwards, ascending from one heaven to another, till at last, reaching the seventh, he found himself in the awful presence of his Maker, and was dismissed with the behest that his people were to prostrate themselves in prayer five times in the day.' (Muir, op. cit.. p. 121)

144. Beyond which neither angels nor prophets can pass, and which is the ultimate point of access for created beings.

145. i. e., hosts of adoring angels. 'A peculiar manner of expressing the general terms somebody, something, certain ones, etc., is to use the relative pronouns من and ما with repetition of the verb . . . . according to circumstances. 22. (تلك . . . ضيزى) That[159] indeed is an unfair division[160] !

23. (ان . . . الهدى) They are but names which you have named[161], you and your fathers, for which Allah has sent down no authority[162]. They follow but their fancy[163] and what pleases their souls[164], whereas there has come to them assuredly the guidance from their Lord.

26 (وكم . . . يرضى) And many an angel there is in the heavens[167], whose intercession will not avail at all save[168] after Allah's leave[169] for whomsoever He wills[170] and is well-pleased[171]

27. (ان . . . الانثى) Verily those who believe not in the Hereafter[172] name the angels with female names[173].

146. (of the holy Prophet).

147. (even in this unique experience). i. e., he remained firm and self-possessed; was neither dazzled nor confounded, understanding his own position perfectly.

148. (the proper limits) i. e., he retained full and complete self-possession even at the climax of Divine illumination and when in direct contact with the All-High.

149. (in his night journey).

150. i. e., wonders both of sensible and the intellectual worlds).

151. (O idolaters !).

152. i. e., after the truthfulness of the Prophet is established.

153. 'As oath by al-Lat is frequently found in the poets .... She is frequently mentioned along with al-'Uzza .... and among the Kuraish. she. along with this goddess and Manat, was held in such high esteem .... ' (EI. III. p 18) 'References to Al-lat are found in several Nabataean inscriptions ; in one of them she is called "the Mother of the gods"...Among the later Arabs this goddess was no less venerated" (ERE. I. p. 661). 'The Arabian Lat was worshipped by the Nabataeans as mother of the gods, and must be identified with the virgin-mother, whose worship at Petra is described by Epiphanius.' (Robertson Smith, Religion of the Semites, p. 56) Among the great "mothers" is Lat or rather Allat. Apparently a sun-goddess, in Palmyra she is found coupled with the Shamash.' (p. 520) 'Al-Lat had her sacred tracts (hima and haram) near al-Taif, whither the Makkans and others flocked for pilgrimage and sacrifice. Within such an enclosure no trees could be felled, no game hunted and no human blood shed.... Herodotus mentions this goddess under the name Alilat among the Nabataean deities.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 99).

154. 'Far more important, at least in historical times was the cult of the planet Venus, revered as a great goddess under the name of the al-Uzza, which may be rendered "the Most Mighty." The Syriac poet Isaac of the Antioch, who lived in the first half of the 5th century, bears witness to the worship of 'Ozza by the Arabs of that period ; in other passage he identifies 'Ozza with the planet Venus.' (ERE. I. p. 660). 'The goddess Al-'Uzza was believed to reside 'in the sacred acacia at Nakhla'. (Robertson Smith, Religion of the Semites, p. 185) 'Al-Ozza with Allat and Manat, the three daughters of Allah, in the Coran, is the "lady 'Ozza" to whom a man in a South Arabian inscription offers a golden image on behalf of his sick daughter Amat-al-Uzzai. Human sacrifice and licentious practices distinguish her cult Isaac of Antioch identified her with Beltis. and calls her the "Star" (p. 521). 'Al-'Uzza (the most mighty, Venus, the morning star) had her cult in Nakhlah. east of Makkah...Her sanctuary consisted of three trees. Human sacrifice characterized her cult...Abd-al-'Uzza was a favourite proper name at the rise of Islam' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 99). An officer was commissioned by the prophet to destroy the sanctuary of this goddess in Nakhlah. (Hitti. op cit., p. 33).

155. 'An old Arabian goddess .... a goddess of fate. especially of death. Her main sanctuary was a black stone among the Hudhailis in Kudaid ..... She was however worshipped by many Arab tribes .... In Mecca she was very popular along with the goddesses al-Lat and al-'Uzza.' (EI. III. p. 231) 'A number of proper names compounded with Manat prove that her cult extended over a great part of Arabia.' (ERE. I. p. 662) 'Manat (from Maniyah, allotted fate) was the goddess of destiny and as such represented an earlier phase of religious life. Her main sanctuary consisted of a black stone in Qudayd on the road between Makkah and Yathrib (laler al-Madinah) and she was especially popular with the Aws and the Khazraj.' (Hitti, op. cit. p. 99).

156. (whether these inanimate created beings could at all be goddesses of worship).

157. (as sons).

158. (as daughters). This refers to the Arabian belief in goddesses as daughters of Allah. See P. XXIII. n. 299.

159. i. e., this attribution, according to the pagan notions, of the inferior sex to God See P. XIV. n. 223.

160. (in addition to its being absurd in itself).

161. (regardless of truth and reality). Empty, meaningless and unreal names, only creations of your fancy. Cf. a poem by Zaid, one of the Hanifs who dissatisfied with the prevailing idolatory, were trying to find out the true, monotheistic religion :—

1. Should I worship One God or thousands when even the duties of religion have been divided by the people ?
2. I have forsaken One God 'Uzza', and such is always done by a keen and partial man.
3. And I do not worship Ghanan though I regarded him as my Lord when I had little wisdom.
4. With Thee, O God. I am contented and I do not see, save Thee, any one whose religion I should adopt.

162. (either in reason or in revelation).

163. (deprived of all reason).

164. (with no reference to facts and realities).

165. (and his wishes are dedicated by his whims and fancies). So shall man dictate to God, and name whom he pleases for his intercessors or for his prophet ?

166. Shall man, then choose a religion according to his own fancy, and prescribe the terms on which he may claim the reward of this life and the next ? الاولى and الآخرة refer to the periods of after-life and life.

167. The expression 'in the heavens' hints at the high rank and dignity of such angels. (TH).

168. See P. XVII. nn. 56, 59 ; and nn. 161 above.

169. (that there may be intercession on their behalf).

170. (in accordance with His universal Scheme).

171. (out of His own free choice, not due to any pressure from outside).

173. In the religious imagination and devotion of the Arabs the angels were females, and daughters of God. See P. XXV. n. 177.

28. (وما لهم . . . شيئاً) Verily they have no true knowledge[174] thereof; they follow but a conjecture[175] and conjecture is no substitute for the truth.

29. (فاعرض . . الدنيا) So withdraw thou from him who turns away[176] from Our admonition and seeks only the life of the world.

30. (ذلك . . اهتدى) That[177] is their highest point of knowledge. Verily thy Lord! It is He Who is the Best Knower of him who strays from His way, and He is the Best Knower of him who lets himself be guided[178].

31. (ولله . . . بالحسنى) And Allah's whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth, that He[179] may recompense the evil-doers for what they worked and reward those who do good with goodness.

32. (الذين . . اتقى) They are those who shun heinous sins and indecencies save the minor offences[180]. Verily thy Lord is of vast forgiveness[181]; He is the Best Knower of you when He produced you [182] out of the earth, and when you[183] were embroys in the belies of your mothers[184]. So do not ascribe purity to yourselves[185]. He is the Best Knower of Him who fear Him[186].

SECTION 3

33. (افرءيت . . تولى) Didst thou observe him who turned away[187].

34. (واعطى . . . اكدى) and gave a little, and then stopped[188] ?

35. (اعنده . . . يرى) Is with him the knowledge of the Unseen so that he sees[189] ?

185. (Before Him). زكيت signifies 'I attributed to Him, زكاء i. e., purity, or goodness, or righteousness . . . . And زكى نفسه He praised himself.' (LL).

186. So He alone is the true Judge of men's merits and demerits——even better than man himself. This curbs the morbid appetite for fame, honour, and self-laudation.

187. (from following the truth, O Prophet !)

188. (his hand). The allusion is to Walīd ibn Mughīra, one of the chief opponents of Islam. Perceiving his inclination, for the time being, to Islam another pagan offered, in consideration of a certain sum, to take upon himself his guilt. The bargain being made, Walīd paid the man only a small part of what had been promised, and kept back the remainder.

203. (whom you consider a Deity, O pagans !). Dhu-Shara was represented in Petra 'by a quadrangular block of unhewn black stone four feet high and two feet wide.' (Hitti. op. cit., p. 98.) Her name associated with dhu-al-Shara 'appears in the Nabataean inscriptions of al-Hijr'. (ib. p. 99) Sirius was also worshipped among the Egyptians, the Greeks and the Romans. In astronomy, Sirius is the highest in all the sky. Also called Day Star, it is one of our nearest stellar neighbours, and is really a double star, or binary, consisting of a very bright member and a very fine companion.

The Moon. LIV

(Makkan, 3 Sections and 55 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (اقتربت . . القمر) The Hour[217] has drawn nigh, and the moon has been rent in sunder[218].

2. (وان . . . مستمر) And if they[219] behold a sign, they turn away, and say[220]: magic continuous[221].

3. (وكذبوا . . . مستقر) And they belied[222], and they followed their lusts[223], and every affair comes to a final goal[224].

4. (ولقد . . . مزدجر) And assuredly there has come to them tidings[225] wherein is a deterrent[226],

5. (حكمة . . . النذر) Wisdom consummate. But warnings avail not[227].

6. (فتول . . . نكر) So withdraw thou from them[228]. The Day when the summoner[229] will summon mankind to a thing unpleasant[230].

7. (خشعا . . . منتشر) they[231] will come forth with the downcast looks[232] from the tomb as if they were locusts[233] scattered

8. (مهطعين . . . عسر) Hastening[234] towards the summoner. The infidels will say: a hard Day this!

---

217. Which the Arab pagans were denying.

218. (as a sign of the Hour's approach). The allusion is a famous miracle of the Prophet recorded in several authentic traditions of the Companions performed at the insistent demand of the pagans for a sign in the early days of his ministry.

The moon in the sky appeared cloven in two, one part vanishing and other remaining : at which the Makkans were greatly astonished. The passage may also be expounded in another way. Many commentators think that the past tense is here used, as so often in the Qurān, for the future. So the phrase should be rendered 'the moon shall be rent in the sunder,' signifying that this sign will happen at the approach of the Resurrection.

219. i. e., the Makkan pagans ; the inveterate enemies of Islam.

220. (disdainfully of that miracle).

221. i. e., one bit of magic after another. مستمر may also mean 'passing away, and vain or ineffectual.' (LL)

222. (this very miracle conforming to their usaul practice).

223. (to the exclusion of truth).

224. So the effects of an illusion or magic are but transient and momentary, while those of a miracle are permanent and lasting.

225. (of the ruin and chastisement of ancient rebellious nations).

226. i. e., lessons that should sufficiently deter the present-day pagans from obstinate infidelity.

227. (a people so obdurate).

228. (and grieve not over their fate, O Prophet !).

229. i. e., the angel Isrāfīl.

230. i. e., to the Reckoning of account.

231. (through terror).

232. i. e., the infidels.

233. (in sheer numbers). Perhaps no living creature is comparable to the locust in largeness of its numbers. 'Locust' breeding-grounds are estimated to contain millions upon millions of the insects and on one occasion in flight in East Africa measured sixty miles by three miles and it was reckoned by experts that it consisted of a million million locusts, and even larger swarms have been observed and recorded.

234. (with fear).

9. (كذبت . . . وازدجر) There belied before them[235] the people of Nūḥ. So they belied Our bondman Nūḥ, and said[236]: a madman; and he was reproved[237].

10. (فدعا . . . فانتصر) Thereupon he prayed to his Lord: verily I am overcome, so vindicate me.

11. (ففتحنا . . . منهمر) Then We opened the portals of heaven with water poured out.

12. (وفجرنا . . . قدر) And We made the earth break forth with springs[238], that the water[239] met after an affair already decreed[240].

13. (وحملنه . . ودسر) And We borne him[241] on a thing of planks and nails.

14. (تجرى . . . كفر) Moving forward under Our eyes[242]: a vindication of him who had been rejected.

15. (ولقد . . مدكر) And assuredly We left it[243] for a sign[244]. Is there, then, any one who would be admonished ?

16. (فكيف . . ونذر) So how dreadful have been My chastisement and My warnings ;

17. (ولقد . . . مدكر) And assuredly We have made the Quārn[245] easy for admonition[246]; is there, then, any one who would be admonished ?

18. (كذبت . . . ونذر) And there belied the 'Ād[247]; so how dreadful have been My chastisement and My warnings !

19. (انا . . . مستمر) Verily We ! We sent against them a raging wind[248] on a day of continuous calamity.

20. (تنزع . . . منقعر) Carrying men away[249], as if they were trunks of uprooted palm trees[250].

21. (فكيف . . . ونذر) So how dreadful has been My chastisement and My warnings.

243. i. e., this story, in human memory and documents.

244. (to the succeeding generations).

245. Which is replete with such discourses and historical allusions.

246. Note the qualifying words 'for admonition,' Not 'easy' in the absolute sense ; not easy in the sense that it contains no profundities of thought or subtleties of meaning ; but only easy in so far as lessons of meekness, humility and willing surrender to God can be deduced from it.

247. (their prophet).

248. Which lasted seven nights and eight days.

249. i. e., tearing them away violently and throwing them down dead.

250. 'How graphic is the description of the tornado that uprooted them ! It must indeed be a dreadful tornado that plucks up the palm-trees by their deep tap-roots. The "Day" is an indefinite period of time.' (AYA).

24. (فقالوا . . سعر) And they said[252]: a mere human being from[253] amongst us, and alone[254]——shall we follow him? Then indeed we should be in error and madness.

25. (ءالقی . . اشر) Has the Admonition been laid upon him[255] from amongst us? Aye: he is an insolent liar!

313. i. e., every moment of the time.

314. (creating and re-creating the world and ever renewing His activities). God is thus not only the Creator of the universe but also its Sustainer at every moment of its existence. The entire cosmic order is ever dependent on His will, incapable of sustaining and developing itself and performing its work, without His aid, in virtue of its own inherent energies, and creation is not an act of the past combining automatically ; His creative activity is incessant. This refutes the Hindu doctrine that Brahma, having performed his legitimate part in the mundane evolution by his original creation of the universe, has retired into the background ' (EBr. XI. p. 577). This also repudiates the mechanistic conception of the deism, which limits the divine activity to creation of the world and denies to Him any direct contact with His creation and also the Greek idea that God is static, and aloof from the world. A Christian scholar sums up the position of the orthodox Muslim theologian thus :— He regards the world and all the events in the world as a perpetual miracle——always and constantly going on. It is not only that, by a creative miracle, the world was brought into existence ; . . . . but all through the existence of the world——from moment to moment——there is this miraculous creation going on . . . . When fire burns or when a knife cuts, that is not by any nature in the fire or quality in the knife. The cutting and the being cut, the burning and the being burned are all by Allah.' (Macdonald, Aspects of Islam, pp. 137-139).

337. i. e., before their destined espouses. Christian writers look askance, and almost in horror, at passages like this. And quite naturally. For in the system of Christian morals sex life is conceived as something inherently evil, at best only to be tolerated. This morbid attitude to life 'has appeared only with the advent of the black Christian era.' Islam has reversed this diseased outlook. It holds, freely and frankly, with modern scientific knowledge that sexual life is 'the source of the highest joys for which there is no substitute. It is the supreme and incomparable physiological happiness, which should be nursed and treasured, and not persecuted... Sex life is not at all a tolerated evil, difficult to escape, but... a great blessing, without which life is colourless. The sexual element in human existence must be valued and treasured.' 349. This description of physical pleasures in paradise, says Gibbon, 'has provoked the indignation, perhaps the envy, of the monks: they declaim against the impure religion of Mahomet; and his modest apologists are driven to the poor excuse of figures and allegories. But the sounder and more consistent party adhere, without shame, to the literal interpretation of the Koran; useless would be the resurrection of the body, unless it were restored to the possession and exercise of its worthiest faculties; and the union of sensual and intellectual enjoyment is requisite to complete the happiness of the double animal, the perfect man.' (GRE. VI. p. 231). See also n. 337 above.

349-A. Cf. the Bible:—'Behold thou art fair, my beloved, Yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.' (So. 1 : 16). 'Green is a colour pleasant to most people; but it is particular by welcome and refreshing to the parched eyes of the sun-burnt Arabians for whom it possesses a special appeal, probably because of its association with grass and vegetation in general, which are the basis of pastoral life Hence the dominant role it plays in the colour 'scheme of the Quranic Paradise.' (Inayatullah, p. 122).

384. i. e., on the top of it ; to fill their cup of misery.

385. (for the first time, as you admit, out of nothing).

386. (the truth of resurrection).

387. i. e., the seed.

388. (out of it).

389. i. e., man.

390. (of man therefrom).

391. (and its appointed time). The purport of this passage and the preceding one is : We are the sole Creator, Preserver and Destroyer. On the universality and inevitability of death compare the observations of Seneca, the noted Roman philosopher —'To suffer death is but the law of nature, and it is a great comfort that it can be done but once. In the very convulsions of it we have this consolation, that our pain is near an end, and that it frees us from all miseries of life . . . . What Providence has made a necessity human prudence should comply with cheerfully. As there is a necessity of death, so that necessity is equal and invincible.'

392. (in Our Purpose). i. e., none can frustrate Divine decrees. Death is not in the nature of punishment ; it is not the result of some initial disobedience on the part of man. It is a cardinal condition of existence. This lends no support whatever to the Biblical conception of death, that it is the result of an act of disobedience. 'But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat of it : for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.' (Ge. 2 : 17). 'Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin ; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.' (Ro. 5 : 12). 'For the wages of sin is death.' (Ro. 6 : 23) 'And sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.' (Ja. 1 : 15). See also P. IV. n. 288.

393. i. e., We are able to replace you by other human beings and to transfigure you into something strange.

394. (by Our act of Creation).

395. (and conclude thereby that We are able to produce by resuscitation.)

396. i. e., the causer of its growth. It is God who is the Grower of all that grows on earth, and there are no goddesses of corns and harvests, such as Ceres, Damaetas, Parsephane or Proserpine.

397. (at what had befallen you in respect of your seed-produce ; and exclaiming——).

398. مغرم literally is 'shackled, or burdened with debt.'

399. (of the fruit of our labour and time bestowed on the cultivation). i. e., unfortunate wretches, devoid of good and prosperity.

70. (لو نشاء . . . تشكرون) If We willed, We would surely make it brackish. Why do you not give thanks?

71. (افرءيتم . . . تورون) Do you behold the fire you strike out[400]?

77. (انه . . . كريم) that it is an honoured Recitation[406],

78. (فى . . . مكنون) in a Book well-guarded[407],

79. (لا . . . المطهرون) Which none can touch except the purified[408].

80. (تنزيل . . . العلمين) It is a revelation from the Lord of the worlds.

81. (افبهذا . . مدهنون) Is this the discourse that you hold so lightly[409]?

82. (وتجعلون . . . تكذبون) And make it your provision[410] that you should deny it?

83. (فلولا . . . الحلقوم) Wherefore then, when the soul comes up to the wind-pipe——

84. (وانتم . . . تنظرون) and you are looking on[411],

400. The chief primitive methods of fire-making are frictional and percussive.

'Among barbarous people of to-day the frictional is the most used . . . . In Borneo, Sumatra, and part of Eastern Asia, fire is occassionally made by striking together two pieces of split bamboo.' (ERE. VI. pp. 26, 27). See also P. XXIII. n. 138.

401. (and is there any such thing as a fire-god or fire-deity ?) See also P. XXIII. n. 138.

402. (to put in the minds of men the fire of Hell, and also to point out that fire is not to be taken as an object of worship). 'In the ancient Jewish religion and many others fire is the means whereby offerings are transmitted to the deity or to departed souls as among the Greeks. In many cases fire itself is worshipped, and often the worship of the sun can scarcely be distinguished from that of fire. The ancient Mexicans had a fire-god Xinbenctli . . . . Among more civilized people the ancient Assyrians, Chaldeans, and Phoenicians practised fire-worship . . . . Among the anciant Aryans, if we use so indefinite a term, Agni (Latin ignnis) was the chief god. Even to-day fire-worship is a notable feature of Hinduism. . . . . and is the dominant factor in the religion of the Zoroastrians or Parsees.' (EBr. IX. p. 263). 'The god Agni is the most perfect instance of a divinized personification of fire. He is the giver of immortality, and purges from sin. After death he burns away the guilt of body and carries the immortal part to heaven . . . . Whereas the worship of Agni and the ancient ritual has degenerated in Hinduism, the modern Parsees practise a very conservative form of the ancient fire-ritual.' (ERE. VI. pp. 29, 30).

403. (and travellers in particular, and to mankind in general). 'A fire, or light, or beacon in many places directs a traveller on the way. Lighthouses at sea and beacons in modern aerodromes serve the same purpose for mariners and airmen.' (AYA).

404. (O Prophet !).

405. لاأقسم does not convey a negative meaning. 'In accordance with a curious idiom of the language, whereby an oath or execration seems to be regarded as a virtual negation, the negative particle may be omitted in denial by oath, and, on the contrary, be inserted in affirmation.' (WGAL. II. p. 305). An oath when uttered by God means His calling to witness some of the great and special objects of His creation.

406. 512. i. e., persons, The verb برا relates both to substances and accidents, The pronoun ها may therefore also refer instead of انفس to الأرض or مصيبة. In this case, the rendering would be 'it', not 'them.'

513. (the All-Knowing ; the Omniscient).

514. i. e., the pre-ordaining of every affair, great or small, in His fore-knowledge.

515. (excessively and immoderately).

516. (desiring honour for himself and refusing it to others).

517. (in the cause of God).

518. ——to add to their guilt——

519. (from the religion of God, and specially from spending in His cause).

520. i. e., needing the support of none.

521. i. e., Perfect in all attributes.

25. (لقد . . . عزيز) Assuredly We sent Our messengers[522] with evidences and We sent down with them the Book[523] and[524] the balance[525] that the people might observe equity[526]. And We sent down[527] iron[527-A] in which is great violence[528] and also advantages to mankind[529], and that Allah may know him who succoures Allah[530], unseen[531], and His messengers. Verily Allah is Strong, Mighty[532].

SECTION 4

26. (ولقد . . . فسقون) Assuredly We sent Nūḥ and Ibrāhīm, and placed in the posterity of the twain the prophethood and the Book.[533] Then of them are some guided ones, and many of them are ungodly.

---

522. (to different peoples).

523. i. e., Divine Books in general.

524. (therein). i. e., in the Book.

525. i. e., rule of justice; Divine injunction of justice and equity between man and man; well-balanced polity.

526. (and justice towards each other and towards God). Or 'social justice.'

527. i. e., taught the use of.

527-A. Sending down of iron may well allude the earliest form of the metal——its meteoric origin——before it could be obtained from its ores.

528. (war weapons, instruments and arms being generally made thereof). The all-important character of this metal in modern civilization is too obvious to need any comment. حديد is not only 'iron' but also 'like iron is hardness', so that the word may also connote political power and military supremacy.

529. So that peace and order could be enforced and maintained by means thereof.

530. (by fighting in His cause).

531. (out of pure conviction of heart).

532. (needing the support and succour of nobody). So it is not to do Him any good but for our own benefit that we are asked to take up arms in the cause of faith and religion.

533. Prophethood has been the special gift of the race of Noah and Abraham.

اٰمَنُوْا مِنْهُمْ اَجْرَهُمْ ۚ وَكَثِيْرٌ مِّنْهُمْ فٰسِقُوْنَ ۞ يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاٰمِنُوْا بِرَسُوْلِهٖ يُؤْتِكُمْ كِفْلَيْنِ مِنْ رَّحْمَتِهٖ وَيَجْعَلْ لَّكُمْ نُوْرًا تَمْشُوْنَ بِهٖ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ۗ وَاللّٰهُ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۞ لِّئَلَّا يَعْلَمَ اَهْلُ الْكِتٰبِ اَلَّا يَقْدِرُوْنَ عَلٰى شَيْءٍ مِّنْ فَضْلِ اللّٰهِ وَاَنَّ الْفَضْلَ بِيَدِ اللّٰهِ يُؤْتِيْهِ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ۗ وَاللّٰهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيْمِ ۞

27. (ثم . . . فسقون) And thereafter We caused Our messengers to follow in their footsteps, and We caused 'Isā[534], son of Maryam, to follow them, and We vouchsafed to him the Injīl[535], and We placed in the hearts of those who truly followed him[536], tenderness and compassion. And asceticism[537]. We did not prescribe it for them[538]; they[539] innovated it[540], only seeking Allah's goodwill[541], but they tended it not with the tendence due to it[542]. So We vouchsafed to such of them[543] as believed[544] their wage; and many of them are ungodly[545].

28. (يايها الذين . . . رحيم) O believers[546]! fear Allah[547] and believe in His messenger[548], He will vouchsafe to you twofold portions of His mercy[549] and will assign to you a light[550] with which you will walk[551], and He will forgive you[552]. And Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

29. (لئلا . . . العظيم) This He will award that the people of the Book[553] may know[554] that they control naught of the grace of Allah[555], and that the grace is in Allah's hand. He vouchsafes it to whom He will, and Allah is the Owner of mighty grace.

---

534. (the last of the prophets before Islam).

535. See P. III. n. 215.

536. (in the life-time). i. e., his real and true disciples, not the so-called Christians. Marks the implication of using the phrase الذين اتبعوه instead of the single word النصارى.

537. Or, monasticism 'or monkery.' الرهبانية غلو فى تحمل التعبد من فرط الرهبة (Rgh). The word includes all forms of detaching oneself from mankind, specially state of celibacy.

538. i. e., the early converts to Christianity. 'Nearly two thousand years ago Saint Paul formulated his ascetic sexual ideal. He glorified the emasculated asexual man and the anaesthetic woman. He unfurled a metaphoric banner for Christianity to march behind, on which the main emblazened and sanctified feature was the repression of all sexual desires or appetite.' (Scott, Sex Life of Man and Woman, p. 62). In a wider sense, the word 'they' may refer to all those who hold Brahmcharya Sannyās and other forms of celibate life holy and sacred.

539. (for their spiritual benefit under the influence of false doctrines). In the Christian Church there was from the earliest age a leaning to excessive asceticism .... One and all of the permanent institutions of society were condemned by the early enthusiasts.' (EBr. II. p. 720, 11th. Ed.). 'The ascetic principle early made way for itself in the development of the Christian Church ' (ERE p. 74). 'Almost from the very commencement of Christianity ascetics are mentioned' as persons 'pre-eminent in the Christian community for self-denial and sanctity.' (DCA. II. p. 1219).

540. Islam, unlike Christian and many pagan philosophies, does not base its system of religio-moral perfection on the conception of the wickedness and sinfulness of the human body ; and the law of Islam does not repudiate the earthly life in toto as intrinsically impure. It does not demand the suppression of fleshly impulses ; it only requires that they should be curbed and controlled in accordance with the norm supplied by itself. Celibacy on a large scale is designed to defeat the very aim and purpose of nature——the replenishment of the earth.

541. i. e., the primary motive of the first ascetics was to earn God's-will. 'It was prompted by a passionate longing to fly from the world to escape not merely the fury of the Decian or Diocletian persecutions but the contaminations of the surrounding heathenism.' (DCA. I. p. 770).

542. 'With the passing of concubine, the nuns in the convents provided the "holy men" with the means of satisfying their sexual cravings (Scott, History of Prostitution, p. 112). 'Asceticism gave to sex an extravagantly important position, and the unhappy twist which the cult of celibacy gave to European morals was the natural result. There grew up a new hypocrisy, such as the old world had not troubled to practise, and at the same time the extravagant licence of medieval literature, and the squalor and degradation which have since then surrounded and accompanied prostitution' (UHW. I. p. 381). The outstanding features of these monasteries were 'that they absorbed lands which would have been more useful in the hands of the private owners, that they withdrew men from a life of active usefulness, and too often made them lazy and worthless.' (IV. p. 2627). 'The rich endowments granted by kings had brought with them, as was inevitable, the seeds of luxury and self-indulgence, and the very popularity of the "religious" life often gave occasion to unreality in professing it.' (DCA. I. p. 191)

543. (living at the time of the advent of Islam).

544. (in the holy Prophet, and adopted the law of Islam as their own code of conduct).

545. i. e., wedded to false doctrines and unhealthy practices. 'This (ascetic) ideal has dominated the whole sexual outlook of Western civilization from that day to this .... The ethics, prejudices and taboos imposed by Saint Paul and his associates solidified and extended through the centuries of the Christian dispensation, have flourished.' (Scott,. Sex Life and Man and Woman, p. 62).

546. (in the Message of Jesus Christ).

547. (in seriously considering the claims of the Qurān, and do not allow yourselves to be led away by pride and prejudice).

548. i. e., the Prophet Muhammad.

549. (one as a recompense for your believing in Islam, and the other as a recompense for your believing in your own former prophets).

550. (as your constant companion),

551. (on the path of righteousness and piety in this world, and on the road to Paradise in the Hereafter).

552. (your past acts of impiety and infidelity).

553. Who presumed on their being the chosen of God.

554. (On the Judgement Day).

555. (and that without the true faith they counted for nothing).

PART XXVIII

Sūrat-ul-Mujādalah

She Who Pleaded. LVIII

(Madinian, 3 Sections and 22 verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (قد . . . بصير) Surely has Allah heard the saying of her who pleaded with thee[1] concerning her husband and made her plaint to Allah[2], and Allah has heard your mutual conversation. Verily Allah is Hearing[3], Beholding[4].

2. (الذين . . . غفور) As to those among you who put away their wives by pronouncing zihār[5] —— their mothers they are not[6]. Their mothers are only those who gave them birth; and they[7] utter a word disreputable and false[8]. Verily Allah is Pardoning, Forgiving[9].

---

1. (O Prophet!). The allusion is to Khūla, the wife of Aūs bin Sāmit. Her husband, in a fit of rage, divorced her by using an old formula of the pagan Arabs, viz. 'Thou art to me as the back of my mother.' She came to the holy Prophet asking his decision. He, in the absence of any revelation on the subject, ordered a separation. Thereupon she went away dissatified.

2. i. e., gave vent to her deep sense of grief and distress—she had small children—before God.

3. So He hears the cry of everyone.

4. So He notices the plight of everyone, and hastens to relieve him of the distress.

5. See P. XXI. n. 397. Zihār 'consists in the husband expressing his dissatisfaction by comparing his wife to the back of his mother or some other female relative within prohibited degrees of marriage.' Such imprecation, in Islam, 'has not the effect of a divorce, but only makes the husband liable to make atonement (Kaffārata, كفارة) for his improper behaviour.' (Abdul Rahim, op. cit., p. 338).

6. Neither in law nor in fact.

7. i. e., the Arab pagans.

8. (in attributing motherhood to such wives), i. e., they use words both iniquitous and untrue.

9. (to those who recant these superstitions).

يَّتَمَآسَّا ۭ ذٰلِكُمْ تُوْعَظُوْنَ بِهٖ ۭ وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ خَبِيْرٌ ۝ فَمَنْ لَّمْ يَجِدْ فَصِيَامُ شَهْرَيْنِ مُتَتَابِعَيْنِ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ يَّتَمَآسَّا ۚ فَمَنْ لَّمْ يَسْتَطِعْ فَاِطْعَامُ سِتِّيْنَ مِسْكِيْنًا ۭ ذٰلِكَ لِتُؤْمِنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ ۭ وَتِلْكَ حُدُوْدُ اللّٰهِ ۭ وَلِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ۝ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يُحَآدُّوْنَ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ كُبِتُوْا كَمَا كُبِتَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَقَدْ اَنْزَلْنَآ اٰيٰتٍ بَيِّنٰتٍ ۭ وَلِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ عَذَابٌ مُّهِيْنٌ ۝ يَوْمَ يَبْعَثُهُمُ اللّٰهُ جَمِيْعًا فَيُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوْا ۭ اَحْصٰىهُ اللّٰهُ وَنَسُوْهُ ۭ وَاللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيْدٌ ۝ اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِى السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِى الْاَرْضِ ۭ مَا يَكُوْنُ مِنْ نَّجْوٰى ثَلٰثَةٍ اِلَّا هُوَ رَابِعُهُمْ وَلَا خَمْسَةٍ اِلَّا هُوَ سَادِسُهُمْ وَلَآ اَدْنٰى مِنْ ذٰلِكَ وَلَآ اَكْثَرَ اِلَّا هُوَ

3. (والذين . . . خبير) Those who put away their wives by pronouncing zihār and thereafter would retract what they have said[10], then upon them[11] is the freeing of a slave[12] before they touch each other[13]. You are exhorted to that[14]; and Allah is Aware of whatsoever you do[15].

4. (فمن . . . اليم) And whoso does not find a slave to free, on him is the fasting for two months consecutively before they touch each other, and on him who is unable to do so is the feeding of sixty indigent ones. That is in order that[16] you may believe in Allah and His messenger[17]. These are the ordinances of Allah, and for the infidels[18] is an afflictive chastisement.

5. (ان الذين . . مهين) Verily those who oppose Allah and His messenger shall be abased[19] even as those before them were abased[20]; and surely We have sent down manifest signs[21]. And for the infidels is an ignominious chastisement.

6. (يوم . . . شهيد) On the Day when Allah will raise them all together and declare to them what they have worked[22]. Allah has taken count thereof, while they forget it. And Allah is a Witness over everything.

---

10. i. e., seek to undo the effect of their rash and unseemly pronouncement.

11. (for the expiation of their sin).

12. (male or female). Note that the husband is here penalised to safeguard the woman's rights.

13. (in the way of conjugal life).

14. i. e., you are sought to be cleansed by means of the penalty prescribed. The penalty is imposed in order that the husband may show his repentance and his repudiation of iniquity and untruth.

15. He knows well whether you act or not up to His commandments.

16. (—in addition to other reasons—).

17. i. e., may come to believe the more perfectly by discarding all pagan superstitions.

18. Who deny and defy these Divine ordinances.

19. (and punished, by their being overcome).

20. (and punished in this world for their opposing the former prophets).

21. (and clear commandments, defiance of which must naturally lead to severe chastisement).

22. (and when the true inwardness of conduct in life shall be apparent to us).

مَعَهُمْ اَيْنَ مَا كَانُوْا ۚ ثُمَّ يُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوْا يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ۭ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ۝ اَلَمْ تَرَ اِلَى

SECTION 2

7. (الم . . . عليم) Hast thou not seen that Allah knows whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth[23]? There is no whispering among three but He is their fourth, nor among five but He is their sixth, nor fewer nor more, but He[24] is with them wheresoever they may be. And thereafter He will declare to them, on the Day of Judgment what they have worked. Verily Allah is the Knower of everything.

8. (الم . . . المصير) Hast thou not seen those[25] who were forbidden whispering[26], and they returned afterwards to what they had been forbidden? And they whisper among themselves of sin, and transgression and disobedience to the messenger. And when they[27] come to thee, they do not greet thee with that with which Allah greets thee[28], and say[29] within themselves: why does Allah not punish[30] us for what we utter? Sufficient unto them is Hell, wherein they will roast, a hapless destination!

9. (ياايها الذين . . تحشرون) O believers! when you whisper together[31], do not whisper[32] of sin and transgression and disobedience to the messenger, but whisper for virtue and piety[33]. And fear Allah unto Whom you will be gathered.

10. (انما . . . المومنون) Whispering[34] is only from Satan[35] that he[36] may grieve the believers; and he cannot harm them at all save with the leave of Allah[37]. So in Allah let the faithful trust[38].

23. (O Prophet!). The allusion is to the Jews and Madinian hypocrites, who conspired together to talk in whispers among themselves when in the presence of the holy Prophet and at the sight of the believers.

24. The Omnipresent.

25. i. e., the Madinian Jews and hypocrites, O Prophet!

26. (among themselves in a way provocative to the Muslims).

27. i. e., the Jews with their characteristic malice.

28. i. e., they salute thee with mischievous and provocative forms of address. These enemies by twisting their words used polite forms of salutations only outwardly but really gave vent to their spite.

29. (in derisive enjoyment of their trick).

30. (here and now).

31. Which is usually done with the motives of fear and distrust.

32. (like the Jews and the hyprocrites).

33. i. e., with good and virtuous motives, such as modesty and self-renunciation.

34. (of the infidels).

35. i. e., proceeds only at his suggestion.

36. (merely from his devilish nature).

37. (in accordance with His universal scheme). The devil in Islam is not a sort of a second God, a God of evil; he is absolutely powerless, like the rest of His Creatures. God's Will alone is supreme.

38. Let the believers be consoled with this thought, and let them not be disturbed with the cavils of the devil.

إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ تَفَسَّحُوا فِي الْمَجٰلِسِ فَافْسَحُوا يَفْسَحِ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ ۚ وَإِذَا قِيلَ انْشُزُوا فَانْشُزُوا يَرْفَعِ اللّٰهُ
الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ ۙ وَالَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ دَرَجٰتٍ ۚ وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ﴿١١﴾ يٰٓأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا
نٰجَيْتُمُ الرَّسُولَ فَقَدِّمُوا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ نَجْوٰىكُمْ صَدَقَةً ۚ ذٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ وَأَطْهَرُ ۚ فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَجِدُوا
فَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٢﴾ ءَأَشْفَقْتُمْ أَنْ تُقَدِّمُوا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ نَجْوٰىكُمْ صَدَقٰتٍ ۚ فَإِذْ لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا
وَتَابَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْكُمْ فَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكٰوةَ وَأَطِيعُوا اللّٰهَ وَرَسُولَهُ ۚ وَاللّٰهُ خَبِيرٌۢ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾
أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ تَوَلَّوْا قَوْمًا غَضِبَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ مَا هُمْ مِّنْكُمْ وَلَا مِنْهُمْ ۙ وَيَحْلِفُونَ عَلَى الْكَذِبِ وَهُمْ

11. (يايها الذين . . خبير) O believers ! when it is said to you : make room in your assemblies[39], then make room[40] ; Allah will make room for you[41]. And when it is said[42] : rise up, then rise up. Allah will exalt[43], in degree[44], those of you who believe and those who are endowed with knowledge. Allah is Aware of whatsoever you work.

12. (يايها الذين . . رحيم) O believers ! when you come to the messenger[45] for private consultation, offer alms[46] before your whispering[47]. That is better for you and purer[48]. Then if you do not find the wherewithal[49], Allah is Forgiving, Merciful[50].

13. (ءاشفقتم . . . تعملون) Do you shrink at your spending something in charity before your whispering[51] ? Then, when you could not do it, and Allah relented towards you[52], establish prayer and pay the poor-rate, and obey Allah and His messenger[53]. And Allah is Aware of what you do.

SECTION 3

14. (الم . . . يعلمون) Dost thou not see[54] those who take for friends a people with whom Allah is angered[55] ? They are neither of you nor of them[56], and they swear to a lie while they know.[57]

---

39. i. e., in the assemblies of the Prophet.
40. (willingly so, and do not press and crowd upon the Prophet).
41. (in Paradise).
42. (to you by the Prophet).
43. (all the more).
44. (for acting on this ordinance).
45. (thinking that you have a special case for his private audience).
46. (to the poor).
47. (as a mark of your sincerity and your respect for him).
48. i. e., a good way expiating your sins.
49. (and yet are in need of having a private discourse with the prophet).

50. So in case of the destitute believers He does away with this prerequisite.

51. (with the Prophet, lest it should impoverish you).

52. (and abrogated the command altogether). The command remained in force for a very little while.

53. (as usual, in all other matters).

54. (O Prophet !).

55. i. e., the hypocrites.

56. The hypocrites could not be called wholly infidels, outwardly being Muslims ; nor could they be called Muslims, being unbelievers at heart.

57. i. e., they solemnly affirm and profess Islam while in their hearts they disbelieve.

أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا ۖ إِنَّهُمْ سَاءَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ اتَّخَذُوا أَيْمَانَهُمْ جُنَّةً فَصَدُّوا

15. (اعد الله . . . يعملون) Allah has prepared for them a grievous torment; verily vile is what they have been working[58].

16. (اتخذوا . . . مهين) They have taken their oaths[59] as a shield[60], and[61] they have hindered others from the way of Allah, and theirs shall be a debasing torment.

17. (لن . . . خالدون) Their riches or their progeny[62] will not avail them against Allah at all. They are the fellows of the Fire; there they shall abide.

18. (يوم . . . الكذبون) This will happen on a Day when Allah will raise all together; then[63] they will swear to Allah[64], as they swear to you today; imagining that they rest upon aught[65]. Lo! verily they are the liars.

19. (استحوذ . الخسرون) Satan has overpowered them and has caused them to forget the remembrance of Allah[66]. These are the band of Satan.[67] Lo! verily it is the band of Satan that shall be the losers.

20. (ان الذين . . الاذلين) Verily those who resist Allah and His messenger, they are[68] among the lowest.

58. i. e., their infidelity and hypocrisy.

59. (so perfidious in intention).

60. i. e., a screen for their misdeeds, trusting that no Muslim could harm them after their false affirmation of Islam.

61. (——to add to their sins——).

62. (of both of which they are so boastful).

63. (before they have fully realised the Truth).

64. (accustomed as they are by their life habit to putting forward false oaths and excuses).

65. i. e., imagining that they rest upon something substantial, which will save them.

66. (by disregarding His commandments).

67. (in the estimation of God).

68. (in His Book of Eternal Decrees).

21. (كتب . . . عزيز) Allah has prescribed: Surely I will overcome[69]: I and My messengers[70]. Verily Allah is Strong, Mighty[71].

22. (لا تجد . . . المفلحون) Thou shalt not find a people who believe[72] in Allah and the last Day befriending those who oppose Allah and His messenger, even though they be their fathers or their sons or their brethren or their kindred. These! He has inscribed faith on their hearts[73] and has strengthened them with a spirit from Him[74]; and[75] He shall make them enter Gardens whereunder rivers flow as abiders therein. Well pleased is Allah with them, and well-pleased are they with Him; these are Allah's band. Lo! verily it is Allah's band that are the blissful.

69. The Irresistible is to overpower all opposition and is not to be overpowered by any opposition, howsoever ingenuously engineered.

70. (and so also those who are the true followers of these apostles).

71. i. e., Able to effect His will.

72. (fully and unwaveringly, O Prophet!).

73. (in this world).

74. i. e., has fortified them with a special degree of fortitude.

The Gathering. LIX

(Madinian, 3 Sections and 24 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (سبح لله . . الحكيم) Whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth hallows Allah[76], and He is the Mighty[77], the Wise[78].

2. (هو الذی . . . الابصار) He it is Who drove forth[79] the people of the Book who disbelieved[80] from their homes[81] at the first meeting[82]. You did not imagine[83] that they would go forth[84]; and they imagined[85] that their strongholds would defend them against Allah[86]. Then Allah came upon them[87] from whence they reckoned not[88], cast terror in their hearts so that they made their houses desolate by their own hands[89] as well as hands of the faithful. Take warning[90], therefore, O you with eyes!

---

76. Whether consciously or unconsciously.
77. Who can enforce His Will in all circumstances.
78. Who can work His Scheme in a way wonderfully perfect.
79. (almost without a blow).
80. (and proved perfidious and treacherous). The reference is to the Jewish tribe of Banū Nadhīr, 'whose intrigues and treachery nearly undid the Muslim cause during the perilous days of the battle of Uhad in Shawwal A. H. 3. Four months after, in Rabi', A. H. 4, steps were taken against them. They were asked to leave the strategic position which they occupied about 3 miles south of Madina. endangering the very existence of the Ummat in Madina. At first they demurred. relying on their fortresses and on their secret alliances with the pagans cf Mecca and the hypocrites of Madina. But when the Muslim army was gathered to punish them and actually besieged them for some days, their allies stirred not a finger in their aid, and they were wise enough to leave......The Banu Nadhir richly deserved punishment, but their lives were spared, and they were allowed to carry away their goods and chattels'. (AYA).

81. (for their treason and projected murder of the holy Prophet).

82. This was their first experience of such a disaster. The word 'first' may also allude to their second exile when the Caliph 'Omar, several years later, banished the Jews from the Arabian peninsula.

83. (in view of the strong position of your opponents, O believers!)

84. (without severe hostilities). 'When the siege had lasted for two or three weeks, the unfortunate Jews, seeing no prospect of relief, sent word to say that they were now ready to lay down their arms and abandon the lands which had already lost to them their special value. Mohammad was glad to accede to the offer; for the siege might still have been indefinitely prolonged' (Muir, op. cit., p. 283).

85. (in the consciousness of their power).

86. 'Abdullah bin Obai, the powerful ring leader of the Madina hypocrites, and an ally of the Jews, 'promised himself to stand by them with his own people and with allies from Nejd. Reassured by this hope, and trusting to the strength of their fortress, they resolved to hold fast.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 282).

87. i. e., His wrath visited them.

88. i. e., the vengeance came at the hands of the Muslims, seemingly so weak.

89. To spite the Muslims and in order to leave no habitation and property for them, the Jews demolished their own houses.

90. i. e., take warning, and profit by their example.

3. (ولولا . . . النار) And had not Allah[91] ordained banishment for them[92], surely He would have chastised them in this world[93], and in the Hereafter theirs is a chastisement of the Fire.

4. (ذلك . . . العقاب) This[94], because they opposed Allah and His messenger[95], and whoso opposes Allah[96]. then, Allah is Stern in chastising.

5. (ما . . . الفسقين) Whatever fine palms you cut down[97] or left standing on their roots[98], it was by Allah's leave[99] and in order that He might abase the transgressors[100].

6. (وما . . . قدير) And as to what He restored to His messenger[101], you rushed neither horse nor camel upon it[102], but Allah gives mastery to His messenger over whomsoever He will[103]. And Allah is potent over everything[104].

7. (ما افاء الله . . . العقاب) Whatsoever Allah may restore[105] to His messenger from the people of the cities is due unto Allah[106] and the messenger[107] and his kinsmen[108], and the orphans and the indigent and the wayfarer, so that it[109] may not be confined[110] to the rich among you[111]. Take whatsoever[112] the messenger gives you, and refrain from[113] whatsoever he forbids you. And fear Allah ; verily Allah is Stern in chastising[114].

91. (in His fore-knowledge).

92. A comparatively light sentence. They escaped not only with their lives but also with their property. 'The Nadhir, having laden their property' even to their doors and lintels, upon camels, set out, with tabors and music, on the road to Syria.' (Muir op. cit., p. 283).

93. (by delivering them up to slaughter and captivity which they richly deserved). The sentence of exile passed upon this Jewish clan, says a Christian writer, 'was clement enough. They were a turbulent set, always setting the people of Medina by the ears', indulging in forming alliances with enemies, violating the original treaty, endeavouring in every way to bring the Prophet and his rligion to ridicule and destruction and even conspiring against his life. The only question is whether their punishment was not too light.' (LSK. p. LXIV).

94. i.e., the punishmet in this world and the Next.

95. (even more by their treachery than by their unbelief). Summing up the life-work of the holy Prophet says a German Christian :—When the Jews constituted a danger to his work, he fought them unto destruction : but when they onlyd iffered from him in matters religious he was generous and tolerent enough to leave them alone. He interfered as little with the Jewish as with the Christian faith, so long as they did not collide with his politics in Arabia. (Hell, op. cit., p. 34).

96. Which implies opposition to His apostle.

97. (round about the habitation of the Banū Nadhīr, to put pressure on the enemy, O Muslims !).

98. (perceiving on military necessity for the destruction of the enemy property).

99. (in either case and has had His sanction).

100. (and glorify the believers). فاسق is here in the sense of كافر.

101. (of the enemy property without fighting). After the lives of the Banū Nadhīr comes the question of their property. أفاء is rather difficult to translate ; literally, 'afternoon-shade,' is also such spoil or booty 'as is obtained without difficulty ; and therefore likened to shade.' In the language of the Islamic law. it means 'such of the possessions of the unbelievers as accrue to the Muslims without war ; ... or, such as God has restored, as though it were theirs of right, to the people of His religion, of the possessions of those who have opposed them, without fighting : ... such is termed فيء in the Kuran.' (LL).

102. i. e., you had to employ neither cavalry nor camelry against the enemy, nor had to undergo any other hardship in overcoming them.

103. Whenever it accords with His universal scheme.

104. i. e., He is perfectly Able to employ whatever means He may, either of war or of peace, to achieve His purpose.

105. (in future, of the enemy property).

106. (essentially and in principle, and none of the community have an inherent right to it).

107. (to whose judgment and discretion is left its distribution).

108. (to the opostle).

109. i. e., the property thus obtained.

110. (for ever or exclusively).

111. This serves as the basis for the socio-economic system of Islam.

112. (not only of the spoil or فيء, but of commandments in general).

113. The Prophet's 'wonderful life was a living illustration and explanation of the Kuran, and we can do no greater justice to the Holy Book than by following him who was the mouthpiece of its revelation. (Asad, Islam on the Cross-roads, p. 91). His life is to serve as the infallible model, in every little detail, to every true believer.

114. (for those who oppose Him and His apostle).

8. (الصدقون . . . للفقراء) And[115] it is due to the poor Muhājirīn[116] who have been driven forth[117] from their homes and their substance, seeking grace and goodwill from Allah and succouring Allah and His messenger. These! they are the sincere[118].

9. (المفلحون . . . والذين) And it is also due to those who are settled in the dwelling[119] and the faith[120] before them, loving those who have migrated to them and finding in their breasts no desire[121] for what has been given them[122], preferring them above themselves even though there was want among them[123]. And whosoever is preserved from the greed of his soul, then these! —— they are the blissful.

10. (رحيم . . والذين) And it is also due to those who came[124] after them[125], saying[126]! Lord! forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in faith and put not in our hearts any rancour toward those who have already believed[127], Lord! Thou art Tender, Merciful.

115. To revert to the division of فى

116. See P. XI. n. 31.

117. (by the infidels).

118. i.e., men of perfect faith, devotion and sincerity, actuated by no worldly motives.

119. i. e., the town of Madina. The reference is to the Ansār of Madina. See P. XI. n. 32

120. 'And they who have made their abode in the city of the Prophet and in the faith; the faith being likened to a place of abode; or the meaning may be مكان الايمان the place of the faith.' (LL).

121. Or 'feeling of need.'

122. (of the war spoil and فى). This shows the woundetful change that

Islam had brought about in the character of the Arabs.

123. Poor and indigent themselves, the Ansār were not poor in spirit. An exuberance of self-sacrifice made them ideal hosts. خصاصة also means 'thirst and hunger'.

124. (and will continue to come in the future).

125. i. e., after the Mahājirs and the Ansārs.

126. (out of their deep regard and affection for their predecessors-in-Islam).

127. (in the past or in the present) i. e. purify our hearts of any lurking tendency to grudge or belittle their work or worth.

SECTION 2

11. (الم . . . لكذبون) Seest thou not those who dissemble[128] saying to their brethren who disbelieve among the people of the Book[129]: if you are banished[130] we too will go forth with you and we will not listen to anyone in respect of you[131], and if you are attacked, we will succour you. Allah bears witness that liars they are certainly[132].

12. (لئن . . . ينصرون) To be sure, if they are banished, they[133] will not go forth with them, and if they are attacked, they will not succour them, and even if[134] they did succour them they would turn their backs[135], and then they should not be succoured[136].

13. (لانتم . . . يفقهون) Surely in their breasts you[137] are more awful than Allah[138]. That is[139] because they are a people who have no understanding[140].

14. (لا . . . يعقلون) They[141] shall not fight against you, not even together[142], except in fenced townships or from behind walls[143]. Their violence among themselves is great[144]; thou deemst them enjoined, while their hearts are diverse[145]. That is because they are a people who do not reflect.

15. (كمثل . . . اليم) They are[146] like those a little before them[147]; they tasted the ill-effect of their affairs[148], and theirs will be an afflictive torment[149].

128. (O Prophet !) 'When the Jewish doctors were filled with hatred and envy of Mohammad, because God had chosen a prophet from amongst the Arabs, there joined them certain men of the Aus and Khazraj, who were in reality little removed from heathenism and unbelief, only that Islam had by its prevalence overpowered them. So they took the faith outwardly as a shield unto them from death : but in secret they were traitors, and their hearts were with the Jews in their rejection of the Prophet.' (Ibn Is-hāq, quoted by Muir, op. cit., p. 182)

129. The reference is to the Madina hypocrites giving assurances of their help and support to the Nadhīr Jews.

130. (from your habitations).

131. i. e., we shall never submit to any one concerning you.

132. (never intending to help their Jewish allies involving the slightest risk to themselves).

133. i. e., their ypocrites.

134. (to keep up appearances).

135. (in the long run).

136. (from any other quarter). All this prophecies came only too true.

137. (with your manifest might and valour, O Muslims !)

138, (in whom they have no true faith).

139. i. e., fear of the believers instead of the fear of God.

140. (and have no regard and reverence for the greatness and majesty of God).

141. i. e., the Jews and the hypocrites.

142. ——far from each party of them fighting separately——

143. So utterly wanting are they in self-confidence !

144. (but not against the believers) i. e., they show strength and valour enough among themselves, but their courage fails them when they enter the lists against the armies of God and the Prophet.

145. i. e., divided according to their different religious opinions and political objectives.

146. i. e., the Jews of Banū Nadhīr.

147. The allusion is to the Jewish tribe of Banū Qainuqa who followed the goldsmith's craft in their stronghold outside the city. For their repeated breach › the treaty they were sent into exile, one month after the battle of Badr, long before the exile of Banū Nadhīr upon whom that lesson was lost.

148. (in this very world).

149. (in the Hereafter).

أَخَافُ اللّٰهَ رَبَّ الْعٰلَمِينَ ۝ فَكَانَ عَاقِبَتَهُمَآ أَنَّهُمَا فِي النَّارِ خَالِدَيْنِ فِيهَا ۚ وَذٰلِكَ جَزٰٓؤُا الظّٰلِمِينَ ۝ يٰٓأَيُّهَا

16. (كمثل . . . العالمين) They are[150] like Satan when he says to man[151]: disbelieve; and then when he disbelieves, says: I am quit of thee. I verily fear Allah, Lord of the worlds[152].

17. (فكان . . . الظلمين) The end of both[153], however, will be that they will be in the Fire, abiding therein; that is the meed of the ungodly.

SECTION 3

18. (يايها الذين . . تعملون) O you who believe! fear Allah[154], and let every soul look to what it sends forward[155] for the morrow[156]. And fear Allah; Allah is Aware of what you do[157].

19. (ولا . . . الفسقون) And be not as those who forgot Allah[158], so He caused them to forget their own souls[159]. These! —— they are the transgressors.

20. (لا . . . الفائزون) Not alike are the fellows of the Fire[160] and the fellows of the Garden[161]. Fellows of the Garden are the achievers.

---

150. i. e., the hypocrites who were allied with the Nadhīr Jews, and who ultimately deceived and deserted them.

151. (with an array of alluring promises).

152. (so in a like manner will the hypocrites deceive and desert the Jews).

153. i. e., the seducer and the seduced.

154. (and take lesson from the end of the rebels).

She Who Trise. LX

(Madinian, 2 Sections and 13 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (يا يها الذين . . السبيل) O you who believe ! do not make friends with those who are My enemies and yours showing affection towards them[175], while of a surety they deny what has come to you of the truth[176], and have driven forth the messenger and yourselves because you believe in Allah[177], your Lord, if you have come forth to strive in My cause, and to seek My goodwill[178]. You show them affection in secret, while I know very well what you conceal and what you disclose[179]. And whosoever of you does this, he has surely strayed from the straight path.

---

175. (for any reason whatsoever).

176. An amplification of 'mine enemy.'

177. An amplification of 'your enemy.'

178. (at all). The verse is primarily addressed to the Muslim community in Madina after the Hijrat, and it says in effect :—Seeking the goodwill of the infidels and cultivating their friendship are entirely at variance with your fidelity to God and loyalty to your community.

179. The immediate occasion for the revelation of this passage was a letter, secretly despatched from Madina, through a maid-servant, by Hātib, a Muhājir who had fought at Badr, addressed to the Makkans, giving them notice of the intended Muslim expedition to Makka, and asking them in return for this information to treat his family, which was still at Makka, with some kindness. Gabriel revealed the affair to the Prophet who immediately sent after her. The latter was intercepted, and Hātib, on being questioned, offered the excuse that it was solely due to his not unnatural desire to save his unprotected family at the hands of the Makkan pagans. The holy Prophet, in view of Hātib's past services, graciously accepted the plea.

وَأَلْسِنَتَهُم بِالسُّوءِ وَوَدُّوا لَوْ تَكْفُرُونَ ۝ لَن تَنفَعَكُمْ أَرْحَامُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ ۚ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ ۚ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَكُمْ ۚ
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ۝ قَدْ كَانَتْ لَكُمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ فِي إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَالَّذِينَ مَعَهُ إِذْ قَالُوا لِقَوْمِهِمْ
إِنَّا بُرَآءُ مِنكُمْ وَمِمَّا تَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ كَفَرْنَا بِكُمْ وَبَدَا بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمُ الْعَدَاوَةُ وَالْبَغْضَاءُ
أَبَدًا حَتَّىٰ تُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُ إِلَّا قَوْلَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ لِأَبِيهِ لَأَسْتَغْفِرَنَّ لَكَ وَمَا أَمْلِكُ لَكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِن
شَيْءٍ ۖ رَّبَّنَا عَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ أَنَبْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ ۝ رَبَّنَا لَا تَجْعَلْنَا فِتْنَةً لِّلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَاغْفِرْ لَنَا
رَبَّنَا ۖ إِنَّكَ أَنتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝ لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِيهِمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ

2. (ان . . . تكفرون) Should they come upon you, they will be your enemies[180] andw ill stretch out their hands against you[181] and also their tongues[182] with evil, and would like that you should disbelieve[183].

3. (لن . . . بصير) Neither your kindred nor your children will profit you on the Day of Judgment. He will decide between you[184]; and Allah is the Beholder of what you do.

4. (قد . . . المصير) Surely an excellent pattern has been for you[185] in Ibrāhīm and those with him[186], when they said[187] to their people: verily we are quit of you and what you worship beside Allah, and we renonce you[188]; and[189] there has appeared between us and you hostility and hatred for evermore until you believe in Allah alone, —— except the saying of Ibrāhīm to his father[190]: surely I shall seek forgiveness for thee[191], and surely I have no power for thee with Allah at all[192]. Our Lord! in Thee we put our trust and to Thee we turn[193], and to Thee is our journeying.

5. (ربنا . . . الحكيم) Our Lord! make us not a trial[194] for those who disbelieve, and forgive us our Lord. Verily Thou art Mighty, the Wise.

192. i. e., I cannot compel Him to grant what I beg.

193. (in repentance).

194. i. e., a target of persecution.

لِّمَن كَانَ يَرْجُوا اللَّهَ وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ ۚ وَمَن يَتَوَلَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ۝ عَسَى اللَّهُ أَن يَجْعَلَ
بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَ الَّذِينَ عَادَيْتُم مِّنْهُم مَّوَدَّةً ۚ وَاللَّهُ قَدِيرٌ ۚ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ۝ لَّا يَنْهَاكُمُ اللَّهُ عَنِ
الَّذِينَ لَمْ يُقَاتِلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَلَمْ يُخْرِجُوكُم مِّن دِيَارِكُمْ أَن تَبَرُّوهُمْ وَتُقْسِطُوا إِلَيْهِمْ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ
الْمُقْسِطِينَ ۝ إِنَّمَا يَنْهَاكُمُ اللَّهُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ قَاتَلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَأَخْرَجُوكُم مِّن دِيَارِكُمْ وَظَاهَرُوا عَلَىٰ إِخْرَاجِكُمْ
أَن تَوَلَّوْهُمْ ۚ وَمَن يَتَوَلَّهُمْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ۝ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا جَاءَكُمُ الْمُؤْمِنَاتُ مُهَاجِرَاتٍ
فَامْتَحِنُوهُنَّ ۖ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِإِيمَانِهِنَّ ۖ فَإِنْ عَلِمْتُمُوهُنَّ مُؤْمِنَاتٍ فَلَا تَرْجِعُوهُنَّ إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ ۖ لَا هُنَّ
حِلٌّ لَّهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحِلُّونَ لَهُنَّ ۖ وَآتُوهُم مَّا أَنفَقُوا

6. (لقد . . . الحميد) Assuredly there has been an excellent pattern for you in them[195] —— for him who hopes for Allah and the Last Day. And whosoever turns away[196], then verily Allah ! He is the Self-sufficient[197], the Laudable.

SECTION 2

7. (عسى الله . . رحيم) Allah may perhaps place affection between you and those whom you hold as enemies[198]. And Allah is Potent, and Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

8. (لا . . . المقسطين) Allah does not forbid you to deal benevolently and equitably[199] with those who did not fight against you on account of religion nor drove you out from homes[200]; verily Allah loves the equitable[201].

9. (انما . . . الظلمون) It is only concerning those who fought against you on account of religion and drove you out from your homes and helped in driving you out, that Allah forbids you to befriend them. And whosoever will befriend them, then these are the wrongdoers.

وَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ تَنْكِحُوهُنَّ إِذَا آتَيْتُمُوهُنَّ أُجُورَهُنَّ ۚ وَلَا تُمْسِكُوا بِعِصَمِ الْكَوَافِرِ وَسْـَٔلُوا مَا
أَنْفَقْتُمْ وَلْيَسْـَٔلُوا مَا أَنْفَقُوا ۚ ذٰلِكُمْ حُكْمُ اللّٰهِ ۖ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ ۚ وَاللّٰهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾ وَإِنْ فَاتَكُمْ شَيْءٌ
مِنْ أَزْوَاجِكُمْ إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ فَعَاقَبْتُمْ فَآتُوا الَّذِينَ ذَهَبَتْ أَزْوَاجُهُمْ مِثْلَ مَا أَنْفَقُوا ۚ وَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ الَّذِي
أَنْتُمْ بِهِ مُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١١﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُؤْمِنَاتُ يُبَايِعْنَكَ عَلَىٰ أَنْ لَا يُشْرِكْنَ بِاللّٰهِ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَسْرِقْنَ وَلَا
يَزْنِينَ وَلَا يَقْتُلْنَ أَوْلَادَهُنَّ وَلَا يَأْتِينَ بِبُهْتَانٍ يَفْتَرِينَهُ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِنَّ وَأَرْجُلِهِنَّ وَلَا يَعْصِينَكَ فِي
مَعْرُوفٍ ۙ فَبَايِعْهُنَّ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُنَّ اللّٰهَ ۖ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١٢﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَوَلَّوْا قَوْمًا غَضِبَ اللّٰهُ
عَلَيْهِمْ قَدْ يَئِسُوا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ كَمَا يَئِسَ الْكُفَّارُ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْقُبُورِ ﴿١٣﴾

10. (يايها الذين .. حكيم) O you who believe ! when believing women[202] come to you as emigrants[203], examine them[204]. Allah is the Best Knower of their faith[205]. Then if you ascertain[206] that they are believers, then do not send them back to the infidels; they are not lawful to them[207], nor are they[208] lawful to them, and give them[209] what they have spent[210]. Nor is it a crime if you wed them[211] when you have paid their wages[212]. And do not hold to the ties of the infidel women[213], and ask back[214] what you have spent[215], and let them[216] ask back[217] what they have spent[218]. That is the judgment of Allah[219], He judges between you. And Allah is Knowing, Wise[220].

11. (وان ... مؤمنون) And if any of your wives has been left with the infidels[221] and you have retaliated[222], then[223] give[224] to those[225] whose wives have gone away[226] the like of[227] what they[228] have expended[229], and fear Allah[230] in Whom you believe.

12. (يايها النبي .. رحيم) O prophet ! when believing women come to thee swearing fealty, that they shall not associate aught with Allah, nor they shall steal, nor they shall commit fornication, nor they shall slay their children[231], nor they shall produce any falsehood that they have fabricated between their hands and feet[232], nor they shall disobey thee in anything reputable, then accept thou their fealty, and pray to Allah for their forgiveness. Verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

13. (يايها الذين ... القبور) O you who believe ! do not make friends with a people who incurred the wrath of Allah[233]. Surely they have despaired of the Hereafter[234], as despaired are the infidels buried dead[235].

212. (in addition to what is returned to their former husbands).

The Ranks. LXI

(Madinian, 2 Sections and 14 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (سبح . . . الحكيم) Hallows Allah whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth. And He is the Mighty, the Wise.

2. (یایها الذین . . تفعلون) O faithful! why do you say what you do not act?

3. (کبر . . . تفعلون) Most odious it is to Allah that you should say what you do not act[236].

4. (ان الله . . مرصوص) Verily Allah loves those who fight in His cause drawn up in ranks[237], as though they were[238] a structure well-compacted.

5. (واذ . . . الفسقین) And re-call when Mūsā[239] said to his people: my people! why do you hurt me[240] when you know surely that I am Allah's messenger to you[241]? Then when they swerved[242], Allah made their hearts swerve[243]; and Allah does not guide a transgressing people[244].

236. These words, though of general application, are here specially directed to the faint-hearted Muslims who had talked much but shown little resolution and firmness at the battle of Ohud.

237. 'The recognized military formation,' in the early history of Islam, 'whether on parade, on the march, or in battle, was the ta-biya. In it the army was divided into five main divisions, namely centre, right and left wings, van (muqaddama) and rear-guard (sāqa)......The "five" formation was in use as early as the Prophet's own time, e. g., at the battles of Badr and Muta, and to its invention and introduction has been attributed much of his success against opponents who were still using the old irregular methods of attack.' (Levy, Sociology of Islam, II. pp. 296, 297).

'The ordinary method of fighting in vogue' till then was that of the raid, in which a sudden charge was followed by prompt retreat and a sudden return to the onslaught' (p. 297). The Prophet, the great military leader as he was, changed this, and at the battle of Badr 'introduced the new formation of the ta 'biya for the first time, with great success. He had very few more than three hundred men, of whom only one was mounted......He arranged them in straight, regular ranks, which he put in order himself, walking along the ranks with an arrow in order to push back any man who was out of line with the rest,' (p. 298).

238. (in the strength of their order, discipline and cohesion).

239. (vexed at the exhibition of constant rebellion and disobedience among his people).

240. For the constantly seditious and rebellious attitude of Israel to Moses see "Ant." pp. 59, 60, 82, 83, 84, 86, 87, 90 102.

241. The rebellion of Israel against the authority of Moses was deliberate and due to sheer perversity; not to ignorance.

242. (from the path of truth wilfully and repeatedly in the face of constant warnings and admonitions).

243. (all the more in conformity with His law of cause and effect).

244. And it is against such confirmed trangressors hopelessly addicted to sin and rebellion that warfare is prescribed.

قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ يٰبَنِيٓ إِسْرَآءِيلَ إِنِّي رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ إِلَيْكُم مُّصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ مِنَ التَّوْرٰىةِ وَ

ع

6. (واذ . . . مبين) And re-call when 'Isā, son of Maryam, said : O Children of Isrāil ! verily I am Allah's messenger to you[245], cofirming the Taurāt before me and conveying the glad news of a messenger coming after me[246] : his name will be Ahmad[247]. Then when he[248] came to them with evidence[249], they said : this is manifest magic[250]

7. (ومن . . . الظلمين) And who is a greater wrong-doer than he who, when he is summoned to Islam, fabricates a lie against Allah ? And Allah does not guide an ungodly people[251].

8. (يريدون . . الكفرون) They intend to extinguish the light of Allah[252] with their mouths[253], and Allah is going to accomplish His light[254], though the infidels may be averse.

9. (هو الذي . . . المشركون) He it is Who has sent His messenger with guidance[255] and true faith, that He may make it triumph[256] over every other faith, though the associaters may be averse.

SECTIONS 2

10. (يايها الذين . . . اليم) O you who believe ! shall I[257] direct you to a trade[258] which will deliver you[259] from an afflictive torment ?

245. Jesus commanded his disciples to address their appeal only to 'the lost sheep of the house of Israel'.

246. That the teaching of Jesus (on him be peace !), as a universal code of conduct, was singularly inadequate and incomplete, and necessitated the advent of another Teacher is admitted by the Christian apologists themselves, and accounted for in ways that are more amusing than convincing. 'The Saviour refrained from all attempt to guide His followers by rules, but gradually taught them......that their lives were to be quickened by the Holy Spirit whose indwelling was to them their strength and inspiration for all times. In view of this prospect, we can understand why His ethical teaching was so suggestive but so paradoxical, so figurative, and incomplete. It was designed, not to save us from the trouble of thinking but to turn our thoughts to the Comforter whom He promised to send.' (ERE. XII. p. 621).

247. Which word was employed as a translation of "The Periclytos" in old Arabic versions of the NT. See Muir, p. 5, and Sale, in Loco. 'Ahmad or Muhammad the Praised One. is almost a translation of the Greek word Periclytos. In the present Gospel of John, 14 : 16, 15 : 26, and 16 : 7, the word "Comforter" in the English version is for the Greek word Paracletos, which means "Advocate," "one called to the help of another, a kind friend," rather than "Comforter." Our doctors contend that Paracletos is a corrupt reading for Periclytos, and that in the original saying of Jesus there was a prophecy of our holy Prophet Ahmad by name. Even if we read Paraclete, it would apply to the holy Prophet, who is "a Mercy for all creatures" (xxi : 107) and "most kind and merciful to the believers, (ix : 128)" (AYA) References in the non-canonical Gospel of Barnabas are almost too numerous and too explicit to be passed over. See P. IX. n. 220 ff.

248. i. e., the Prophet Jesus.

249. i. e., wonders and miracles.

250. 'The accusation of magic is frequently brought against Jesus. Jerome mentions it, quoting the Jews......'There were even Christian heretics who looked upon the founder of their religion as a magician, and public opinion at Rome accused all Christians of magic. The apostles were regarded in the same light.' (JE. VII. p. 171). 'According to Celsus and to the Talmud, Jesus learned magic in Egypt and performed his miracles by means of it......Different in nature is the witchcraft attributed to Jesus in the Toledot.' (ib). 'The Talmud stories allow that he did indeed work signs and wonders, but by means of magic,' (Klaurmann, op. cit., p. 19). According to a Talmudic authority, 'Yeshu practised sorcery and beguiled and led Israel astray' (p. 25). 'The Talmudic authorities do not deny that Jesus worked signs and wonders, but they look upon them as notes of sorcery'. (p. 28) 'And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and, by the prince of the devils, he casteth out devils' (MK. 3 : 22). 'The Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils,' (Mt. 9 : 34) 'When the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils' (Mt. 12 : 24) See P. VII. n. 164.

251. (because of denying His true prophets).

252. i. e,, His religion.

253. i. e., by their vain bauble.

254. i. e., shall establish the truth of Islam.

255. i. e., the Holy Qurān.

256. (by clear and forceful arguments).

257. The interrogative particle هل is used to introduce a question of a lively nature.

258. i.e., the seeking of gain by buying and selling. It must be borne in mind that the Makkans understood the language of trade and barter as they understood no other language. Almost every one of them, old or young, was a born tradesman. 'According to Strabo, all Arabs are stock brokers and merchants. At Makka esteem was professed only for the merchants, من لم يكن تاجرا فليس عندهم بشي. This infatuation spread even to the women. They put their wealth into banks and commercial enterprises.' (Lammens, Islam : Beliefs and Institutions, p. 15).

259. (in the hereafter).

11. (تومنون . . . تعلمون) It is: believe in Allah and His messenger and strive[260] in the cause of Allah with your riches and lives. That is best for you if you only Know !

12. (يغفرلكم . . . العظيم) He will forgive you your sins, and make you enter the Gardens with running water, and happy abodes in the Everlasting Gardens. That is a great achievement[261].

13. (واخرى . . . المؤمنين) And also another bliss which you love[262]: succour from Allah and a swift victory. And bear thou the glad tidings[263] to the faithful.

14. (ياايها الذين . . . ظهرين) O you who believe ! be Allah's helpers[264], even as 'Isā, son of Maryam, said to the disciples[265]: who shall be my helpers for Allah[266]? The disciples said: we are Allah's helpers. Then[267] a party of the Children of Isrāil believed[268], and another party[269] disbelieved. Then We strengthened those who believed against their foe ; so they became triumphant[270].

---

260. (your best).

261. ——lest this supreme achievement may appear too remote——.

262. (and which shall be bestowed in this very world).

263. (of both the immediate and final rewards, O Prophet !).

264. by devoting yourselves to Him and His cause entirely).

265. See p. III. n. 457 ff.

266. i. e., for His cause : in the preaching of the true faith. Ch. the NT—'And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach.' (Mk. 3 ; 14). 'After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.' (Lk. 10 : 1).

267. i. e., through their instrumentality.

268. i. e., a portion of the Children of Israel came to believe in the prophethood of Jesus. 'Celsus says there were ten or eleven apostles. A passage of the Talmud ascribes five disciples to Jesus......The Twelve Apostles are mentioned in the other versions of the Toledot, while still other versions frequently mention a following of 300, 310, 320, 330 men.' (JE. VII. p. 171). The believers according to the NT numbered several thousands. 'Then they that gladly received his word were baptized : and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls., (Ac. 2 : 41). 'Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed : and the number of the men was about five thousand.' (Ac. 4 : 4).

269. (by far the greater).

270. (and neither the Messenger nor the Message could be destroyed)

Friday. LXII

(Madinian, 2 Sections and 11 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (يسبح . . . الحكيم) Hallows whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth Allah, the Sovereign, the Holy, the Mighty, the Wise.

2. (هوالذى . . . مبين) He it is Who has raised amidst the unlettered ones[271] a messenger from among themselves, rehearsing to them His revelations and purifying them[272] and teaching them[273] the Book and the Wisdom, though they have been before in gross error[274].

3. (وآخرين . . . الحكيم) And also others of them[275] who[276] have not yet joined them[277]. And He is the Mighty, the Wise.

4. (ذلك . . . العظيم) That is the grace of Allah[278]; He vouchsafes it to whomsoever He will; and Allah is the Owner of mighty Grace.

5. (مثل . . . الظلمين) The case of those who were laden with Taurāt[279] but who bore it not is[280] as the case of an ass[281] bearing tomes[282]. Hapless is the case of those who belie the sign of Allah, and Allah does not guide a wrong-doing people[283].

---

271. (of Makka, out of His solicitude for His creatures), (See P. III. n. 564 and Appendix IV in Vol III).

272. (of all moral and spiritual filth).

273. 'Teaching' includes and implies all the processes of explaining, exposing and amplifying.

274. 'Before the days of Muhammad, Arabia was steeped in idolatry ; female babies were buried alive as unwanted, and other hideous atrocities were committed. Truly can it be said of the Arabian Prophet that he accomplished nothing short of a miracle in raising the country from its slough of crime and ignorance to a united nation with a deep sense of its religious obligations and duties, a nation which was shortly after his death to conquer and lead the world in culture, knowledge and scientific attainments, while the faith of Islam spread from sea to sea.' (Lady Cobbald op. cit., 105, 106)

275. "Of them" i. e., of their faith ; of them in point of faith.

276. Either as yet unborn or as yet outside the pale of Islam.

277. (but will share their faith later on).

278. i. e., His free gift ; not by reason of any obligation.

279. i.e. the Jews, as contradistinguished from the illiterate pagans of Arabia.

280. (in point of futility and fatuity).

281. An animal universally noted for its stupidity. 'The stupidity of the ass is proverbial in the East as well as in the West.' (DB. I. p. 174). JE. (II. p. 221) quotes several old proverbs depicting the ass as an example of stupidity and insensibility. See also P. XXI. n. 291-A.

282. (on its back, but profiting very little from the knowledge and learning contained in them). 'The ass is still the most universal of all beasts of burden in Bible lands.' (DB. I. p. 173).

283. i. e. people who deliberately pursue the path of error and falsehood.

6. (قل . . . صدقين) Say thou[284]: O those who are Judaised[285]: if you think you are the friends[286] of Allah above mankind[287], then wish for death[288], if you say sooth[289].

7. (ولا . . . بالظلمين) And they will never wish for it[290], because of what their hands have sent forward[291]. And Allah is the Knower of the wrong-doers.

8. (قل . . . تعملون) Say, thou[292]: the death which you flee from[293] will certainly meet you[294], and thereafter you will be brought back to the Knower of the unseen and the seen, and He will declare to you what you have been working.

SECTION 2

9. (يا يها الذين . . . تعلمون) O you who believe! when the call is made to the prayer[295] on[296] Friday[297] hasten to the remembrance of Allah[298] and leave off bargaining[299]. That is better for you[300], if you know.

10. (فاذا . . . تفلحون) Then when the prayer is ended[301], disperse on the land and seek of the grace[302] of Allah, and remember Allah much[303]; haply you may thrive.

11. (واذا . . . الرزقين) And when they behold merchandise or sport, they flocked thereto[304], and left thee standing[305]. Say thou[306]: what is with Allah[307] is far better[308] than sport and merchandise, and Allah is the Best of providers[309].

---

284. (O Prophet!)

285. By a legal fiction persons not of the Hebrew blood were admitted to its union as members.' (JE. V. p. 336). Judging by their proper names and the Aramaean vocabulary used in their agricultural life these Jews must have been mostly Judaized clans of Arabian and Aramaean stock, though the nucleus must have been Irraelites who fled from Palestine at the time of conquest by the Romans in the first century after Christ. (Hitti, op. cit., p. 104). (See also P. I. n. 274).

286. (Or favourites).

287. 'The whole Jewish thought may be summed up in this, that as surely as there is only one God, so surely is there only one sacred community.' (ERE. VII. p. 520). See also P. I. n. 409 ; P. VI. nn. 268. 271.

288. (which shall immediately bring you nearer to God).

289. (in your profession).

290. ——conscious as their hearts are of their guilt——

291. (of sins and misdeeds).

292. (O Prophet !)

293. See P. I. nn. 415, 417.

294. (how foolish of you then to ignore it or seek to shun it !) Literally, 'then verily it will be your meeter.'

295. i. e. the mid-day congregational pra\er.

296. 'من' is used in the sense of في in the phrase من يوم الجمعة (LL).

297. Literally, 'the day of Congregation.' Friday to the Muslims is a day of religious joy, not at all like the Sabbath of the Jews and the Sunday of the Christians, a day of idleness and of abstinence from all work. To the superstitious Christians Friday is an inauspicious day. Pope Nicholas I has declared abstinence from meat on Fridays to be obligatory throughout the Church (C.D. p. 384). 'Brides have shunned Friday (and still do !) owing to superstition. Christian people have always considered it an unlucky day for weddings because our Lord was crucified on that day and tradition says that it was on Friday that Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit.'

298. سعى is here synonymous with قصد . 'The daily prayers are not necessarily congregational......But at midday of Friday. the service took a more public form, at which the believers as a body, unless detained by sufficient cause, were expected to attend. The usual prayers were on this occasion followed by an address or sermon pronounced by Mohammad. This weekly oration was usefully adapted to the circumstances of the day and feelings of the audience. It allowed full scope for the Prophet's eloquence, and by its frequent recurrence helped to confirm his influence and rivet the claims of Islam.' (Muir, op. cit., p. 188). 'In dignity, simplicity and orderliness,' says another Christian historian with reference to the Friday congregational assembly, 'it is unsurpassed as a manner of collective worship. Standing erect in self-arranged rows in the mosque and following the leadership of the imām with precision and reverence, worshippers present a sight that is always impressive.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 132).

299. (and all temporal business).

300. (both materially and spiritually).

301. 'The Friday prayer is obligatory upon all adult males. It is held at the mosque at noon with a congregation of at least forty of the Faithful and under the direction of a president, or imam. Before the prayer the president delivers from the pulpit two addresses (Khutba) in Arabic in which reference is made to the head of the State. He then performs two rakats with the congregation. Friday is not regarded a as weekly day of rest, this observance being unknown in Islam.' (Lammens. Islam : Beliefs and Institutions, pp. 59, 60).

302. (by returning to your commerce and worldly occupations). This required special emphasis in view of the Jewish and the Christian conceptions of the Sabbath. 'The Muslim Friday has nothing in common with the Jewish Sabbath or Christian Sunday. It entails no obligation of a weekly rest ; the Faithful are merely obliged to attend public noonday prayer. What, apart from its publicity, distinguishes this prayer from all others is the khutba or sermon, always in Arabic, which precedes it.' (Lammens, op. cit., p. 103).

303. i. e. do not forget His precepts even in the midst of your worldly occupations.

304. It is related that one Friday, during a season of want and scarcity, while the Prophet was delivering his Friday sermon (and not leading the service), the Madina caravan happened to arrive with the usual beating of drums, whereupon the congregation, with the exception of twelve devout Muslims, ran out of the mosque to see them.

305. (on the pulpit). Compare the attitude of the early Christians during the Church service. 'The deacon was to prevent whispering, or sleeping, or laughing, or beckoning. And this direction, it appears, was not superfluous : for Origen complains that there were some who, while scripture was read, withdrew into corners and amused themselves with worldly conversation, even turning their backs upon the reader.' (DCA. II. p. 1684).

306. (O Prophet !)

307. (of His rewards and blessings).

308. i. e., for more conducive to your material and spiritual welfare.

308-A. This required special emphasis in view of the very great preoccupation of the Arabs with money matters and financial transaction. 'In the money-changers' books, men speculated on the currency exchange : they gambled on the rise and fall of foreign monies on caravan freights, on their arrival and also their lateness. The influx of Byzantine, Sasanid and Yemenite coins, the complications of the old monetary systems and the knowledge necessary for their manipulation, gave rise to an infinity of operations and to the most lucrative transactions......Given this business activity there is no cause for astonishment if we find at Makka merchants who in our day would be classed as millionaires,' (Lammens, op. cit., pp. 15, 16).

The Hypocrites. LXIII

(Madinian, 2 Sections and 11 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (اذا . . . لكذبون) When the hypocrites[309] come to thee[310], they say[311]: we bear witness that thou art Allah's messenger. Allah well knows that thou art His messenger[312], but Allah also bears witness that the hypocrites are liars indeed[313].

2. (اتخذوا . . . يعملون) They have made their oaths a shield[314]; and they turn away men from the path of Allah. Vile is indeed what they have been working.

3. (ذلك . . . يفقهون) This, because they first believed[315] and then disbelieved[316], their hearts are therefore sealed[317], so that they do not understand.

---

309. ——past masters as they are in the art of deceit and dissimulation.

310. (O Prophet !)

311. (with a view to deceiving thee with their fair exterior and plausible talk).

312. Certainly it is God's own truth.

313. (in their profession of Islam) i. e., their hearts are giving lie direct to their tongues.

314. i. e., with a view to saving their life and property.

315. (to all appearance). 'The word ايمان is sometimes employed to signify the acknowledging with the tongue only; and hence in the Koärn ذلك بانهم آمنو ثم كفروا. That is because they acknowledged with the tongue, then disacknowledged with the heart.' (LL).

316. i. e., rejected the faith before their men.

317. (as a sequel to their habit of hypocrisy and dissimulation).

الْعَدُوُّ فَاحْذَرْهُمْ ۚ قٰتَلَهُمُ اللّٰهُ ۖ اَنّٰى يُؤْفَكُوْنَ ۝٤ وَ اِذَا قِيْلَ لَهُمْ تَعَالَوْا يَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ لَوَّوْا رُءُوْسَهُمْ

يَّغْفِرَ اللّٰهُ لَهُمْ ۗ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفٰسِقِيْنَ ۝٦ هُمُ الَّذِيْنَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ لَا تُنْفِقُوْا عَلٰى مَنْ عِنْدَ

4. (واذا . . . يؤفكون) And when thou lookest at them, their persons please thee[318], and if they speak[319], thou listenest to their discourse[319-A]; they look[320] as though they are blocks of wood propped up[321]. They[322] imagine every shout to be at them. They are the foe; so beware of them[323]. Perish them Allah! whither are they deviating[324].

5. (واذا . . . مستكبرون) And when it is said to them: come! so that the messenger of Allah may ask forgiveness for you, they twist their heads[325], and thou seest them retire, while they are stiffnecked.

6. (سواء . . الفسقين) It is alike to them whether thou[326] askest forgiveness for them or not; Allah[327] shall not forgive them. Allah does not guide a transgressing people.

7. (هم الذين . . . يفقهون) They are the ones who say[328]: spend not on those who are with Allah's messenger[329], so that they may desert[330] him, whereas Allah's are the treasures of the heavens and the earth. Yet the hypocrites do not understand[331].

---

318. (by their fair exterior).
319. (with their ready and eloquent tongue).
319-A. (charmed by their ready eloquence).
320. (in the hollowness of their interior).
321. (against a wall, and unable to stand upon their own).
322. (with guilty conscience and under constant apprehension of exposure).
323. (O Muslims !)
324. (from the Path).
325. (in pride and disdain, instead of showing any signs of penitence).
326. (in thy kind-heartedness, O Prophet !).

327. Well aware as He is of their perfidy.

328 (to the citizens of Madina). The allusion is to Abdullah ibn Ubai and his band of the hypocrites.

329. i. e., the Muhājirs or emigrants ; those who had accompanied the Prophet in exile.

330. (and separate themselves from him).

331. (a proposition so self-evident).

وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلَٰكِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تُلْهِكُمْ أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ
عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ ۚ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ ذَٰلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ۝ وَأَنْفِقُوا مِنْ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ
أَحَدَكُمُ الْمَوْتُ فَيَقُولَ رَبِّ لَوْلَا أَخَّرْتَنِي إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ قَرِيبٍ فَأَصَّدَّقَ وَأَكُنْ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ۝ وَلَنْ
يُؤَخِّرَ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِذَا جَاءَ أَجَلُهَا ۚ وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

8. (يقولون . . . يعلمون) They say[332]: surely if we return to Madina, the mightier[333] shall drive out the meaner[334] thence; whereas the might belongs to Allah[335], and His messenger[336] and the faithful[337]. Yet the hypocrites do not know.

SECTION 2

9. (يايها الذين . . الخسرون) O you who believe: let not your riches or your children[338] divert you from the remembrance of Allah[339]. And whoso does that[340], verily they are the losers.

10. (وانفقوا . . . الصلحين) And spend of that with which We have provided you before death comes to one of you, and he says[341]: Lord: wouldst Thou not respite me for a short time, so that[342] I would spend in charity and become of the righteous.

11. (ولن . . . تعملون) And Allah does not respite a soul when its term has arrived, and Allah is Aware of what you do[343].

332. This they said in the course of the expedition against Banū Mustliq. 'The army having encamped for several days at the wells of Al-Moraisi, an altercation sprang up between a citizen and 'Omar's servant, a Refugee......During the quarrel, the disaffected party gave free expression to their disloyal feelings, "This," said 'Abdullah ibn Obai openly, "ye have brought upon yourselves, by inviting these strangers to come amongst us. Wait till we return to Madina; then the Mightier shall surely expel the Meaner." (Muir, oq. cit., p. 296).

3. (خلق . . . المصير) He has created the heavens and the earth with truth[347], and has fashioned you, and has fashioned you in a comely shape[348], and to Him is the return.

4. (يعلم . . . الصدور) He knows whatsoever is in the heavens and the earth; and He knows whatsoever you conceal and whatsoever you disclose; and Allah is the Knower of whatsoever is in the breasts.

---

344. Whether consciously and deliberately, or unconsciouly and automatically.

345. (O mankind !).

346. Whether acts of obedience and righteousness or of blasphemy and rebellion.

347. i. e., perfectly and suited to every requirement.

348. i. e., beautiful and well-proportioned ; adapted to the best and highest ends.

مِن قَبْلُ فَذَاقُوا وَبَالَ أَمْرِهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ۝ ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُ كَانَت تَّأْتِيهِمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَقَالُوا

5. (الم . . . اليم) Has not the news reached you of those who disbelieved aforetime, and so tasted[349] of the ill consequence of their affair, and theirs will be an afflictive torment[350].

6. (ذلك . . . حميد) That was because their messengers came to them with evidences but they said[351] : will there guide us a mere human being[352] ? So they disbelieved and turned away. And Allah did not need them. Allah is Self-sufficient[353], Praise-worthy.

7. (زعم . . . يسير) Those who disbelieved[354] asserted that they would not be raised[355]. Say thou[356] : by my Lord, you shall surely be raised, and to you shall be declared what you worked. And that is easy for Allah[357].

8. (فامنوا . . . خبير) So believe in Allah and His messenger and the light[358] which We have sent down. And Allah is Aware of what you work.

9. (يوم . . العظيم) Remember the Day when He will assemble you, the Day of Assembly ; that will be the Day of Mutual Loss and Gain[359]. Then whosoever believes in Allah and acts righteously He will expiate from him his misdeeds and will make him enter the Gardens whereunder rivers flow, as abiders therein for ever. That is a great achievement.

---

349. (in this very life).

350. (in the Hereafter).

351. (in sheer incredulity).

352. This 'humanity' of the Divine messenger has always been the stumbling-block of polytheistic peoples. It is incomprehensible to them that a mere servant of God, who is neither a demi-God, nor an Incarnation, not yet an angel, should receive and publish Divine message. The barriers between human and divine have always seemed to them impossible to pass.

353. i. e., free of all needs ; absolutely Independent.

354. (in Our Revelation).

355. (and called to account). The reference is to those who denied the

357. i. e., the Almighty.

358. (of the Qurān).

359. Loss to the stiff-necked ones, and gain to the lowly ones of this world. (LL). Or يوم التغابن may be rendered 'The Day of Mutual Deceit.' when the blessed will deceive the damned, by taking the places which they would have had in Paradise had they been the believers, and vice versa.

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا ۖ وَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ ۝ مَا أَصَابَ مِنْ

11. (ما . . . عليم) No calamity befalls man save by Allah's leave[360] And whoso believes[361] in Allah his heart He guides[362]. And Allah is the Knower of everything.

12. (واطيعوا . . . المبين) Obey Allah and obey the messenger; then if you turn away, on Our messenger there is only the clear preaching[363].

13. (الله . . . المؤمنون) Allah! there is no god but He! Let in Allah therefore the believers put their trust.

14. (يايها الذين . . . رحيم) O you who believe! verily you have an enemy among your wives and your children[364]; so beware of them[365]. And[366] if you pardon[367] and pass over[368] and forgive[369], then surely Allah is Forgiving, Merciful[370].

371. That wars are induced by wealth and a growth of population is now recognised by a political writer of the eminence of Professor H. J. Laski :— Probably as a result of increasing population, and consequent pressure on the means of subsistence, there develops the habit of war ; the more a tribe grows rich, whether through agriculture or the progress of arts and crafts, the more it develops the habit of fighting. For riches at once prompt the instinct of defence in the possessors and of attack in those less fortunately situated. We can see from the history of Anglo-Saxon England how its wealth tempted invaders from overseas. These settled down and sought to repel further invaders like the hosts of William the Norman.' (EMK. I. p. 362) See also P. IX. n. 504.

372. (in His way).

373. See P. II. nn. 293-94.

374. See P. XXII. n. 384.

375. Unlike many of the gods of polytheism——of Greece and Egypt in particular——who are not omniscient, whose knowledge is limited and conditioned, and who have to walk on earth to see what is done.

Divorce LXV

(Madinian, 2 Sections and 12 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (يايها النبى . . . امرا) O prophet[376] ! when you divorce women[377], divorce them before their waiting-period[378], and count their waiting-period[379]; and fear Allah, your Lord[380]. And do not drive them out of their houses[381], nor should they themselves go forth[382], unless they commit a flagrant indecency[383]. These are the bounds of Allah, and he who trespasses the bounds of Allah has surely wronged himself. Thou knowest not[384] that hereafter Allah may bring something new to pass[385].

---

376. It is the community who are addressed here through their prophet, and not the prophet individually, as the plural number of the second person almost immediately following shows.

377. (with whom ye have had sexual intercourse or 'valid retirement').

378. i. e., before their monthly course, when they are clean. This interpretation is according to the Hanafi law.

379. i. e, have an accurate account of the waiting-period.

380. (Who in His wisdom and providence has ordained all these laws for your benefit). This emphasizes that matters of marital relationship are not to be treated lightly.

381. i. e., the houses so far occupied by them.

382. (of their own accord, until the term has expired).

383. i. e., any serious breach of moral discipline. فاحشة literally is 'An excess ; an enormity ; anything exceeding the bounds of rectitude.' In the context it means 'The women's going out without permission, or their using foul language against their husband's relations, by reason of the sharpness of their tongues.' (LL).

384. (O reader !).

385. (so that the chances of reconciliation between the parties may become brighter).

وَّأَشْهِدُوا ذَوَيْ عَدْلٍ مِّنكُمْ وَأَقِيمُوا الشَّهَادَةَ لِلَّهِ ۚ ذَٰلِكُمْ يُوعَظُ بِهِ مَن كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ
الْآخِرِ ۚ وَمَن يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَل لَّهُ مَخْرَجًا ۝ وَيَرْزُقْهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ ۚ وَمَن يَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ
فَهُوَ حَسْبُهُ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بَالِغُ أَمْرِهِ ۚ قَدْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدْرًا ۝ وَاللَّائِي يَئِسْنَ مِنَ الْمَحِيضِ مِن
نِّسَائِكُمْ إِنِ ارْتَبْتُمْ فَعِدَّتُهُنَّ ثَلَاثَةُ أَشْهُرٍ وَاللَّائِي لَمْ يَحِضْنَ ۚ وَأُولَاتُ الْأَحْمَالِ أَجَلُهُنَّ أَن يَضَعْنَ حَمْلَهُنَّ ۚ
وَمَن يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَل لَّهُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ يُسْرًا ۝ ذَٰلِكَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ أَنزَلَهُ إِلَيْكُمْ ۚ وَمَن يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يُكَفِّرْ عَنْهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِ

2. (فاذا . . . مخرجا) Then[386] when they[387] have attained their term[388], either retain them reputably[389], or part with them reputably, and[390] take as witnesses two honest men[391] from among you, and set up your testimony for Allah[392]. Thus is exhorted he who believes in Allah and the Last Day. And whoso fears Allah He makes an outlet for him[393].

3. (ويرزقه . . . قدرا) And He provides for him from whence he never reckons. And whoso puts his trust in Allah, He will suffice him. Verily Allah is sure to attain His purpose, and has assigned to everything a measure[394].

4. (واللائی . . . يسرا) And as to such of your women[395] as have despaired of menstruation[396], if you be in doubt thereof, their waiting-period is three months, as also of those who have not yet menstruated[397]. And as to those with burdens[398], their term is when they have laid down their burden[399]. And whoso fears Allah, He has made his affair[400] easy unto himself.

---

386. (in the course of revocable divorce).

387. i. e., the divorced women.

388. (but have not yet quite completed them). بلغ المكان is not only 'He reached, attained, arrived at, or came to, the place,' but also 'He was, or became, at the point of reaching it, attaining it, etc.' So the phrase in the text means, 'And when they are near to attaining, or ending, their term ; or are at the point of accomplishing their term.' (LL).

389. (in wedlock, by revoking the divorce).

390. (in either case).

391. i. e., men of integrity.

392. i. e, as giving evidence before God, O witnesses !

393. i. e., a way out of all afflictions ; a place of safety.

394. i. e., in His fore-knowledge every event is timed according to His will.

395. i. e., such of divorced wives.

396. (by reason of their age).

397. (on account of extreme youth).

398. i. e., pregnant women ; those who carry life within their wombs.

399. Usually the waiting-period is the three monthly courses after separation ; if there are no courses, or they are in doubt, it is three full months ; in the case of pregnant women it is till after delivery.

400. Whether of the world or of the Hereafter.

وَيُعْظِمْ لَهُ أَجْرًا ۝ أَسْكِنُوهُنَّ مِنْ حَيْثُ سَكَنتُم مِّن وُجْدِكُمْ وَلَا تُضَارُّوهُنَّ لِتُضَيِّقُوا عَلَيْهِنَّ ۚ وَ

الْأَلْبَابِ ۚ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا ۚ

ع ١٢

5. (ذلك . . . اجرا) That is the commandment of Allah which He has sent down unto you. And whoso fears Allah[401], He will[402] expiate his misdeeds from him, and[403] will magnify his wage for him.

6. (اسكنوهن . . . اخرى) Lodge them[404] wheresoever you are lodging[405] according to your means, and do not hurt them so as to straiten them[406]. And if they are with burden, spend on them until they lay down their burden[407]. Then if they suckle their children for you[408] give them their wage[409], and take counsel together reputably[410]. And if you[411] make hardship for each other, then another woman shall suckle for him[412].

7 (لينفق . . . يسرا) Let the affluent spend[413] according to his means, and whoso is stinted in his subsistence, let him spend of what Allah has given him[414]. Allah does not task any soul except according to what He has vouchasafed it. Allah will soon appoint ease for hardship[415]

SECTION 2

8. (وكاين . . . نكرا) And how many a city[415] trespassed the commandment of its Lord and His messengers. We therefore reckoned with them sternly and inflicted on them[417] a chastisement unheard of.

9. (فذاقت . . . خسرا) So they tasted the ill consequence of their affairs[418], and loss was the end of their affair.

401. (in this as in other matters).

402. (on the negative side).

403. (on the positive side).

404. (during the waiting-period).

405. i. e., in the same house, but not in the same apartment.

406. (making their lot miserable and hard to bear).
407. (and not for three months only).
408. (in consideration of some money).
409. (in full, as stipulated).
410. i, e., in the mutual good spirit of give and take.
411. i. e., the parties concerned.
412. i. e., as engaged by the father).
413. (for the maintenance of the child).
414. (in proportion to his means).
415. So none should be frightened at this necessary expenditure.
416. i. e., its population.
417. (in this very life).
418. i. e., they were blotted out of existence ignominiously.

قَدْ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ اِلَيْكُمْ ذِكْرًا ۙ رَّسُوْلًا يَّتْلُوْا عَلَيْكُمْ اٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ مُبَيِّنٰتٍ لِّيُخْرِجَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ

10. (اعدالله . . . ذكرا) Allah has prepared for them a grievous punishment[419]; so fear Allah, O men of understanding! those who have believed. Surely He has sent down unto you an Admonition ——

11. (رسولا . . . رزقا) a messenger reciting you the revelations of Allah as evidences, that he may bring forth[420] those who believe and work righteous works from darkness[421] unto light[422]. And whoso believes in Allah and works righteously, him He shall cause to enter the Gardens whereunder rivers flow as abiders therein for ever. Surely Allah has made for such an excellent provision.

12. (الله . . . علما) Allah it is Who has created seven heavens[423] and of the earth the like thereof[423-A]: His commandment[424] comes down between them; so that[425] you may know that Allah is Potent over everything, and that Allah does encompass everything in His knowledge.

419. (in the Hereafter).

420. (by his precept and example).

421. (of infidelity and impiety).

422. (of belief and piety).

423. See P. II. n. 129.

423-A. This means that the layers of the earth are seven in number.

424. i. e., God's law, spiritual as well as physical.

425. i. e., you are told this in order that——

The Prohibition LXVI

(Madinian, 2 Sections and 12 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTIONS 1

1. (يا ايها النبى . . . رحيم) O prophet! why dost thou forbid[426] for thee what Allah has allowed to thee, seeking the goodwill of thy wives[427]? And Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

2. (قد . . . الحكيم) Surely Allah has ordained for you absolution[428] from your oaths[429]; and Allah is your Patron[430], and He is the Knower, the Wise.

---

426. (by taking a vow). The allusion is to some incident in the holy Prophet's domestic life.

427. (in thy over-fondness or tenderness towards them).

428. (by having fixed an expiation for that purpose).

429. (of such a kind).

430. i. e., your friend, helper and protector.

الْخَبِيرُ ۝ إِن تَتُوبَا إِلَى اللَّهِ فَقَدْ صَغَتْ قُلُوبُكُمَا ۖ وَإِن تَظَاهَرَا عَلَيْهِ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ مَوْلَاهُ وَجِبْرِيلُ

3. (واذ . . . الخبير) And recall when the prophet confided a story[431] to one of his spouses, then she disclosed it[432]. Allah apprised him of it[433]; he made known a part of it[434], and[435] a part he withheld[436]. Then when he had apprised her of it, she said: who has told thee of it? He said: the Knower, the Aware has told me.

4. (ان تتوبا . . . ظهير) Then if you twain[437] turn to Allah repentant, it is well, surely your hearts are so inclined. But if you support each other against him, then verily Allah! his friend is He and Jibrīl, and so are the righteous believers[438], and furthermore angels are his aiders[439].

5. (عسى . . . وابكارا) If he divorce you[440], perchance his Lord will give him in exchange better wives than you[441]: Muslims, believers, devout, penitent, worshippers, given to fasting, both non-virgins[442] and virgins.

6. (يايها الذين . . يومرون) O you who believe! guard yourselves and your households[443] against a Fire the fuel whereof is mankind and stones[444]. Over it are angels, stern[445], strong[446]; they do not disobey Allah in what He commands them[447], and they do[448] what they are commanded[449].

7. (يايها الذين . . تعملون) O you who disbelieve[450]! excuse not yourselves To-day; you are only being requited for what you have been working[451].

---

431. What exactly this story was is rather immaterial, and is therefore not preserved in the Holy Writ.

432. (to a co-wife).

433. (by a special Revelalion).

434. (to the wife who had divulged his secret) تعریف signifies, 'The making to know, syn. اعلام.' (LL).

435. (out of modesty and considerateness of her eelings).

436. (thereof from her), i.e., the Prophet told her that he had come to know of her breach of confidence, but forbore from upbraiding her in any way.

437. i. e., the two co-wives concerned.

438. (so the Prophet cannot be injured by any petty domestic intrigues).

439. Here is 'an instance of ظهير in a plural sense.' (LL).

440. (O wives of the Propbet !).

441. (so you ought not to presume too much on yourselves).

442. ثيب is 'A woman who has become separated from her husband in any manner, or 'one that is not a virgin,' or 'a woman to whom a man has gone in.'(LL)

443. (by adopting a life of righteousness).

444. 'On the eve of the Hijra in all nomadic Arabia, particularly in the Hijaz, religion shows, behind this practica multiplex, and throughout the varying local observance one characteristic trait ; the predominance and popularity of litholatry, the cult of sacred stones.' (Lammens, op. cit., p. 17). See also P.I. n. 103.

445. (not gentle and tender towards the inmates of Hell).

446. Who cannot be ovecome or successfully resisted by anyone.

447. i. e., most unflinching in their duty.

448. (precisely and without fail).

449. The angels, in Islam, possess like all living sentient beings distinct personalities, and are neither degraded gods nor mere attributes and abstractions personified. They are perfectly obedient servents of God. This does away with the Jewish and Christian misconceptions of angels. 'The OT nowhere lays stress on the moral character of angels......Consequently, angels were divided not into good and bad, but into those who worked wholly and those who worked only partly, in obedience to God. This latter division still seems to hold its own in NT alongside of the former.' (EBi. c. 168)

450. Thus will the infidels be addressed as they will be cast into Hell.

451. i. e., you are only reaping the harvest of your own deeds.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا تُوْبُوْٓا اِلَى اللّٰهِ تَوْبَةً نَّصُوْحًا ؕ عَسٰى رَبُّكُمْ اَنْ يُّكَفِّرَ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّاٰتِكُمْ وَيُدْخِلَكُمْ جَنّٰتٍ

SECTION 2

8. (يايها الذين . . قدير) O you who believe! turn to Allah with a sincere repentance, Belike[452] your Lord will expiate from you your misdeeds and cause you to enter Gardens whereunder rivers flow; on the Day whereon A lah will not humiliate[453] the prophet and those who believe with him. Their light[454] will be running before them[455] and on their right hands, and they will say: our Lord! perfect for us our light[456], and forgive us: verily Thou art over everything Potent.

9. (يايها النبى . . المصير) O Prophet! strive hard against the infidels[457] and the hypocrites[458], and be stern to them. And their abode is Hell: a hapless destination.

---

452. عسى 'as uttered by God, is expressive of an event of necessary occurrence in the whole of the Kuran,' (LL).

453. (but on the other hand, honour and glorify).

454. Symbolic of their true faith.

455. (and leading them on the right way to Paradise).

456. Unlike the light of the hypocrites, which will fail them in the way.

457. (with arms).

458. (with words).

عَنْهُمَا مِنَ اللّٰهِ شَيْئًا وَّقِيْلَ ادْخُلَا النَّارَ مَعَ الدّٰخِلِيْنَ ۝ وَضَرَبَ اللّٰهُ مَثَلًا لِّلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا امْرَاَتَ فِرْعَوْنَ ۘ اِذْ قَالَتْ رَبِّ ابْنِ لِيْ عِنْدَكَ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَنَجِّنِيْ مِنْ فِرْعَوْنَ وَعَمَلِهٖ وَنَجِّنِيْ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ۝ وَمَرْيَمَ ابْنَتَ عِمْرٰنَ الَّتِيْٓ اَحْصَنَتْ فَرْجَهَا فَنَفَخْنَا فِيْهِ مِنْ رُّوْحِنَا وَصَدَّقَتْ بِكَلِمٰتِ رَبِّهَا وَكُتُبِهٖ وَكَانَتْ مِنَ الْقٰنِتِيْنَ ۝

10. (ضرب . . . الداخلين) Allah propoundeth for those who disbelieve[459] the similitude of the wife of Nūḥ and the wife of Lūt[460]. They were under two of our righteous bondmen[461], then they defrauded them[462]. Wherefore the twain availed them naught against Allah[463], and it was said: enter you twain the Fire with those who enter.

11. (و ضرب . . الظلمين) And Allah propoundeth for those who believe[464] the similitude of the wife[465] of Fir'awn, when she said[466]: my Lord! build me in Thine presence[467] a house in the Garden and deliver me from Fir'awn and his handiwork[468], and deliver me from the transgressing people.

12. (ومريم . . القنتين) And the similitude of Maryam daughter of Imrān[469], who preserved her chastity[470], wherefore We breathed in it[471] of Our Spirit[472]. And she testified to the words of her Lord[473] and His Books and she was of the devout[474].

459. (that they may be warned thereby).

460. (both of whom on account of their infidelity and impiety perished in this world and the Hereafter). See P. VIII. n. 570 ff; P. XII. n. 249 ff: P. XIX. n. 301.

461. (and had thus every opportunity of coming in close contact with faith and virtue). It is said of a married woman كانت تحت فلان, she was under the authority of so-and-so.' (WGAL. II. p. 196) فلان تحت فلانة means 'Such a one has as his wife such a woman.' (LL).

462. (of their due as the apostles of God, and persisted in their course of impiety and unbelief),' خيانة is the contrary of امانة, and does not relate only to property but also to other things.' (LL).

463. So mere personal relationship or close association, without faith and virtue, can do no good.

464. (that they may be consoled thereby).

465. Whom the Bible mistakenly calls his daughter——a believing woman who had saved the life of Moses in his infancy. See P. XX. n. 112.

466. Perhaps as she was being persecuted for her true faith.

467. Literally 'near Thee.'

468. i. e., the evil consequences of his acts of blasphemy.

469. See P. III. n. 356.

470. See P. VI. no. 538 : P. XVII. n. 206.

471. (through our arch-angel Gabriel).

472. Which caused her conception.

473. Which she received through His angels.

474, Neither a Divine Being to be adored as imagined by the Christians, nor an immoral woman as supposed by her Jewish culminators.

Sūrat-ul-Mulk

The Sovereignty. LXVII

(Makkan, 2 Sections and 30 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (تبرك . . . قدير) Blessed be He[1], in Whose hand is the sovereignty, and He is Potent over everything.

2. (الذى . . الغفور) Who has created death[2] and life[3], that He might test you[4] as to which of you is excellent in work[5]. And He is the Mighty[6], the Forgiver[7].

3. (الذى . . . فطور) Who has created the seven heavens in storeys[8]. Thou shalt not find any oversight in the creation[9] of the Compassionate. Then repeat thy look, dost thou find any crack[10] ?

4. (ثم . . . حسير) Then repeat thy look twice over, and thy look will return to thee dim and drowsy[10-A].

---

1. 'When used in speaking of God, the assertory (not optative) prefects تبارك and تعالى are examples of the reflexive signification of this form : تبارك الله : God has made Himself (is become of and through Himself) blessed, or perfect, above all, (WGAL. I. p. 40).

2. This corrects and contradicts the Jewish views : "God created man to be immortal ;......nevertheless through envy of the devil came death into the world. For God made not death." (JE. IV. p. 483).

3. Both life and death have been personified and deified by the pagans, who have raised temples and sung hymns of praise to them. In Islam they are no more than 'created' beings like the rest of creation.

4. (O mankind !) In the words of a distinguished scientist, 'death came that life may be worth living.'

5. So it is by action that man can make his soul grow and save it from corruption.

6. i. e., Able to punish the guilty and to carry out His Will and Purpose perfectly.

7. This corrects and contradicts the view that God is bound by the necessity of His own law to effect requital in every instance.

8. طباقاً may also mean 'in harmony.'

9. (of heaven, O reader !)

10. i. e., canst thou detect any flaw or defect in God's handiwork ? The argument is from the cosmic order of the universe, 'Reason is that in us which demands sequence, regularity, and order in things. It resents mere accident and chance occurrence. It could, in fact, only exist in a cosmos, i. e., an orderly world. And such a cosmos it finds from the first in sun and moon, in plant and animal, but mixed as it appears with what is incalculable and purely capricious——that is irrational. But the more it knows, the more ground it finds for confidence that the appearance of capriciousness is due only to its ignorance. Nature, it grows to believe, is, in this sense, rational through and through, that it corresponds to this fundamental demand of reason for law and order in all things. This faith in a universal order——a faith continually more and more fully justified——is what makes science possible.'

10-A. The more we observe Nature, the more we realise that it is a vast, huge Unity, every part in the substantial fabric of the Universe being bound to every other part, with no rift, no lacuna whatsoever.

بِمَصَابِيحَ وَجَعَلْنَاهَا رُجُومًا لِّلشَّيَاطِينِ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لَهُمْ عَذَابَ السَّعِيرِ ﴿٥﴾ وَلِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ عَذَابُ جَهَنَّمَ

وَأَسِرُّوا قَوْلَكُمْ أَوِ اجْهَرُوا بِهِ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿١٣﴾

5. (ولقد . . . السعير) And assuredly We have bedecked the nearest sky[11] with lamps[12] and We have made them missiles for pelting devils[13], and We have prepared for them the torment of the Blaze.

6. (والذين . . . المصير) And for those who disbelieve in their Lord will be the torment of Hell —— a hapless destination !

7. (اذا . . . تفور) When they will be cast in it, they will hear a braying as it boils up ;

8. (تكاد . . . نذير) it almost bursts up with rage[14]. So often as a company[15] is cast in it, its keepers will ask them[16] : did not a warner come to you[17] ?

9. (قالوا . . . كبير) They will say: surely a warner did come to us but we belied him and said : God has not sent down aught[18] ; you are naught but in a great error[19].

10. (وقالوا . . . السعير) And they will say[20] : had we been wont to listen[21] or to reflect[22], we would not have been among the fellows of the Blaze.

11. (فاعترفوا . . . السعير) So they will confess their sin[23]. Far away be they, the fellows of the Blaze !

12. (ان الذين . . كبير) Those Who are in awe of their Lord unseen[24], theirs shall be forgiveness and a great wage.

13. (واسروا . . . الصدور) And whether you keep your discourse secret or disclose it, verily He is the Knower of what is in the breasts.

---

11. i. e., nearest in relation to the earth.

12. i. e., with radiant stars.

13. رجوم means 'shooting stars, which are believed to be hurled at the devils that listen by stealth, beneath the lowest heaven, to the words of the angels therein.' (LL).

14. غيظ is, vehement anger, and has a more intensive signification than غضب.

15. (of the infidels).

16. (reproachfully wondering at the incredible perversity of mankind).

17. i. e., are you taken unawares, or is it that you refused to profit by his warnings ?

18. (by way of Revelation).

19. i. e., you are yourself deluded.

20. (in utter anguish).

21. (to the voice of the warner)

22. i. e., to use our own intelligence. Apart from glittering light of Revelation, there are in all nature around us and in our own conscience enough 'manifest signs' of God and His unity.

23. (of infidelity). The confession at this belated hour would be of no avail as the time for amendment would have long been past.

24. i. e., without perceiving Him with their bodily eyes they realize Him in their very being.

14. (الا . . . الخبير) Will not He Who has created know? He is the Subtile, the Aware.

SECTION 2

15. (هوالذى . . . النشور) He it is Who has made the earth subservient[25] to you; so go forth in the tracts thereof, and eat of His provision[26]. And to Him is the Resurrection[27].

16. (اامنتم . . . تمور) Are you secure that He Who is in the heaven[28] will not sink the earth with you, and then it should quake?

17. (ام . . . نذير) Or are you secure that He Who is in the heaven will not send against you a whirlwind[29]? Soon[30] you shall know how[31] has been My warning.

18. (ولقد . . . نكير) And assuredly those before them have belied, then how[32] has been My wrath?

19. (اولم . . . بصير) Do they not see the birds[33] above them outstretching their wings[34] and also closing them[35]? None sustains them except the Compassionate. Verily He is Beholder of everything.

20. (امن . . . غرور) Who is he, besides the Compassionate, that can be an army unto you and succour you? The infidels[36] are but in delusion.

---

25. It is the earth that is made for man, and not man for the earth. The enunciation of this simple doctrine demolishes the polytheistic conceptions of 'Earth-Goddess' and 'Mother-Earth.'

26. Which grows upon the earth.

27. Which reminds us that in all human activities the Hereafter is the real goal.

28. i. e., Who rules the heaven as well (Th).

29. (driving the sands to overwhelm you)

30. i. e., immediately at your death.

31. i. e., how true and fateful !

32. i. e., how terrible !

33. Whose flight is one of the most wonderful instances of purposive adaptation.

34. (continuously in their flight).

35. (at will ; and they maintain in either case their balance in the mid-air as ordained by God's providence).

36. (wandering away from God's mercy and grace, the only two sources of our strength).

نُفُورٍ ﴿٢١﴾ أَفَمَن يَمْشِي مُكِبًّا عَلَىٰ وَجْهِهِ أَهْدَىٰ أَمَّن يَمْشِي سَوِيًّا عَلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ قُلْ هُوَ الَّذِي

ع

21. (امن . . . نفور) Should He[37] withhold His provision, who is he that can provide for you? Aye[38]! they persist in perversity and aversion[39].

22. (افمن . . . مستقيم) Is he, then, who goes about[40] grovelling upon his face[41] better directed[42] or he who walks evenly on a straight path?

23. (قل . . تشكرون) Say thou[43]: He it is Who has brought you forth and has endowed you with hearing and sights and hearts[44] Little thanks it is you[45] give!

24. (قل . . . تحشرون) Say thou: He it is Who has spread you over the earth, and to Him you shall be gathered[46].

25. (ويقولون . . صدقين) And they[47] say[48]: when will this promise[49] come to pass, if you say sooth[50].

26. (قل . . . مبين) Say thou[51]: the knowledge[52] thereof is only with Allah, and I am but a manifest warner[53].

27. (فلما . . . تدعون) But when they will see it proximating sad will be the countenances of those who disbelieve[54], and it will be said: this is what you have been calling for[55].

176. In Pre-Islamic Arabia, 'beside the poet (Shāir), and below him, was the Kāhin, or the soothsayer, and below him the 'arrāf', a kind of diviner. These, too, were under the influence of Jinn, but in a less exalted way. The Kāhins were soothsayers connected with a sanctuary...The Kāhins usually cast their oracles in verse.' (ERE. X. p. 136) See P. XXVII. n. 77.

180. When the consequences of its rejection will become apparent to them.

181. i. e., the very truth. Every truth is in itself certain, but certainty has degrees. First there is a certainty of reasoning or inference, known as علم اليقين . Next there is a certainty of sense-perception, called عين اليقين . Last, there is a certainty, the highest degree of it, the absolute certainty, with no possibility of error, either of judgement or perception, and this is what is termed حق اليقين .

182. i. e. in return for this great gift of Divine Revelation.

183. (O Prophet !)

184. The Author of this Book.

12. (وصاحبته و اخيه) and his wife[202] and his brother,

30. (الا . . ملومين) save in regard to their women[217] and those whom their right hands own[218]. So they are not reproachable.

31. (فمن . . . العدون) Add whoso seeks beyond that, then it is those who are the trespassers[219].

---

202. صاحبة literally is 'an accompanier.' This incidentally but clearly emphasises the fact that companionship is the essential factor of marriage,

203. i. e., in short, every one whom he held dear and near on the earth.

204. So unbearable will be the suffering !

205. i. e., draw and bring.

206. (from the faith while in this world).

207. (riches unlawfully).

208. (them out of convetousness and greed).

209. i. e., the unbelieving man.

210. i. e, one who does not sufficiently exert his will to believe.

211. (and full of complaint, beyond proper limits).

212. (in the performance of his duties and in the payment of his obligatory dues).

213. (both as regards its timings and its proper conditions). Of the effects of the Islamic prayer writes a Christian convert to Islam :—'My ancestors were Roman Catholics......My community......hated Muslims. Protestants were considered upstarts, and Muslim renegades. In such an atmosphere I grew up. The foremost item that drew my attention was the idols and pictures of Virgin Mary and other saints kept for worshipping... But when the time for prayer comes I noted that a Muslim wherever he may be whether walking in the street, boarding a train, or a boat, spreads his cloth. turns to Kaba, and starts his Namaz. No priest is required for him. He is at once in communion with his Creator quite oblivious to his surroundings, This appealed to me. I peeped into the mosques. and found no idol kept there. It did not take me long to find out that no difference is made in a mosque. All stand shoulder to shoulder without distinction of colour and rank. What a marvellous unity and brotherhood ! Need I say that it melted my heart.' And observes a mordern Christian scholar : 'Perhaps the most gracious thing ever said about Moslem prayer is that it is an intimate converse with God. A creative feature in Islam ; it has fostered a feeling of equality among believers. mitigating the rankling sense of superiority and caste, and opening a new inlet for the unity of mystical experience into the Moslem heart' (Jurji's Great Religious of the Modern World, p. 187). See also P. XVIII. n. 2.

214. Food, in Islam, observes a learned Christian, 'is given to any one who needs it, and charity is administered direct, and not by the circuitous means of a Poor Law system. Indeed from a Muhammadan, as also from the Buddhistic point of view, the giving of charity puts the giver into a state of obligation to the receiver, since it enables the former to cultivate his sense of benevolence.' (Dr. G. W. Leitner, M.A., Ph. D. Religious Systems of the World, London, 1905, p. 296)

215. i. e., none can presume to feel secure from it : it has to be reckoned with.

216. i. e., keep themselves away from every kind of sex abuse.

217. i. e., free women who are joined to them by regular marriage bond.

218. i. e., women taken captives but not raised to the status of legal wives. See P. XVIII. n. 8.

219. i. e. every other form of gratifying sexual passions is criminal. See. P. XVIII. n. 10.

32. (والذين . . . رعون) As also those who keep their trusts and their covenant[220],

33. (والذين . . . قائمون) and who stand firm in their testimonies,

34. (والذين . . . يحافظون) and who are observant[221] of their prayer.

35. (اولئك . . . مكرمون) Honoured, they shall dwell in Gardens.

SECTION 2

36. (فمال . . مهطعين) What ails those who disbelieve, hastening towdard thee[222],

37. (عن . . . عزين) on the right and on the left, in companies ?

38. (ايطمع . . . نعيم) Does every one of them[222-A] covet that he shjal enter the Garden of Delight[223] ?

39. (كلا . . . يعلمون) By no means ! We have created them from what they know[224].

40. (فلا . . . لقدرون) I swear by the Lord of the easts and wests[225] that We are Able,

41. (على . . . بمسبوقين) to replace them[226] by others better than they, and We are not to be frustrated[227].

42. (فذرهم . . . يوعدون) So[228] let thou[229] them alone plunging in vanity and sporting, until they meet their Day which they are promised ——

43. (يوم . . . يوفضون) the Day whereon they will come forth from the sepulchres hurrying as if they were hastening to an altar[230].

44 (خاشعة . . . يوعدون) Downcast shall be their looks, abjectness shall overspread them. Such is the Day they were promised.

---

220. i. e., those who fulfil all their obligations, whether financial or otherwise. Very remarkable is the sacredness attached to everyday trusts and convenants in Islam.

221. (at their proper time). See P. XVIII. n. 12.

222. (to deny thee and to accuse thee of imposture, O Prophet !)

222-A. i. e., the scoffers, the infidels.

223. (of himself, without following the course that leads thereto).

224. i. e., of filthy seed, which bears no apparent relation or resemblance to the dignity of a man. So it is imperative that he who aspires to enter Paradise must perfect himself in faith and spiritual virtues, to fit himself for that place.

225. مشارق and مغارب in the plural signify the different points of the horizon at which the sun rises and sets in the course of the year. This completely repudiates the polytheistic idea of Loka pālas or guardians of the world, presiding over the four cardinal and the intermediate points of the compass. Among the Hindus, for instance, 'Indra, the chief of the gods, was regarded as the regent of the east ; Agni the fire, was in the same way associated with the south-east ; Yama with the south ; Surya, the sun, with the south-west ; Varuna originally the representative of the all-embracing heaven or atmosphere, now the god of the ocean, with the west ; Vāyu, the wind, with the north-west, Kubera, the god of wealth, with the north ; and Soma, with the north-east.' (EBr. III p. 1016). The Tibetan mythology also has a parallel set of deities for each of the four cardinal points. See ERE. VIII. p. 76.

226. (after destroying them).

227. (and evaded).

228. i. e., after all these arguments.

229. (O prophet !).

230. See P. XXVII. n. 233.

233. Which means that had they repented they would still have obtained mercy.

234. (to the exclusion of your idols).

235. (if you accept the true faith). من in من ذنوبكم is according to many commentators, redundant.

أَعْلَنتُ لَهُمْ وَأَسْرَرْتُ لَهُمْ إِسْرَارًا ۝ فَقُلْتُ اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ غَفَّارًا ۝ يُرْسِلِ السَّمَاءَ عَلَيْكُم مِّدْرَارًا ۝

---

249. (in their individual capacity).

250. ——to vary my method of approach——

251. i, e., every possible method of persuasion I have tried, and all the resources at my command I have used.

252. (by believing in Him and in His Guidance).

253. i. e, He will send down upon you copious rain. 'The heaven' in the text is here synonymous with the rains.

254. ——to instance some of His blessings in this world——.

255. i. e., endow you with all the sources of prosperity, both national and individual.

256. (as is evident from your worshipping other gods beside Him).

257. i. e., by various steps or changes from the original matter till you became perfect men.

258. (and there is no 'Sky-god' or 'Heaven-god' beside Him).

259. (illuminating the day). These details merited special mention, as the organised pantheon of the Noahian people was to a large extent, astral.

260. (of a special kind, O mankind !).

261. (from your graves).

262. (after he had exhausted his patience in the thankless task of preaching and found his audience incorrigible.)

263. i. e., the big ones of the community.

كُبَّارًا ۝ وَقَالُوا لَا تَذَرُنَّ آلِهَتَكُمْ وَلَا تَذَرُنَّ وَدًّا وَلَا سُوَاعًا وَلَا يَغُوثَ وَيَعُوقَ وَنَسْرًا ۝ وَقَدْ
أَضَلُّوا كَثِيرًا ۖ وَلَا تَزِدِ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا ضَلَالًا ۝ مِمَّا خَطِيئَاتِهِمْ أُغْرِقُوا فَأُدْخِلُوا نَارًا فَلَمْ
يَجِدُوا لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَنْصَارًا ۝ وَقَالَ نُوحٌ رَبِّ لَا تَذَرْ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ
دَيَّارًا ۝ إِنَّكَ إِنْ تَذَرْهُمْ يُضِلُّوا عِبَادَكَ وَلَا يَلِدُوا إِلَّا فَاجِرًا كَفَّارًا ۝ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي
وَلِوَالِدَيَّ وَلِمَنْ دَخَلَ بَيْتِيَ مُؤْمِنًا وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَلَا تَزِدِ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا تَبَارًا ۝

22. (ومكروا . . . كبارا) And they have plotted[264] a tremendous plot.

23. (وقالوا . . . نسرا) And they have said[265]: you shall not leave your gods[266], nor shall you leave[267] Wadd[268] nor Suwā[269] nor Yaghūth[270] nor Ya'ūq[271] nor Nasr[272].

24. (وقد . . . ضلالا) And surely they[273] have led many astray[274]. Increase Thou these wrong-doers[275] in naught save error[276].

25. (مما . . . انصارا) And because of their misdeeds they were drowned, and then made to enter the Fire. Then they did not find for themselves any helpers beside Allah.

26. (وقال . . . ديارا) And Nūḥ said[277]: Lord: leave not of the infidels any inhabitant upon the earth.

27. (انك . . . كفارا) For shouldst Thou leave them, they will[278] lead astray Thy bondmen and will surely beget sinning infidels.

28. (رب . . . تبارا) Lord! forgive me and my parents[279] and him who enters my house as a believer[280], and all the faithful men and women[281], and increase not the ungodly save in perdition[282].

---

264. (against me and my Message, with ambitions to defeat God's Plan and Purpose). كبار is an intensive form of كبير and signifies 'excessively great.' (LL).

265. (to the lesser men of their community).

266. (of the national pantheon).

267. (in particular). The name of the five false gods and the symbols under which they were represented are as follows :—

Pagan god	Shape	Quality represented
1. Wadd	Man	Manly power
2. Suwā'	Woman	Mutability, Beauty.
3. Yaghūth	Lion (or Bull)	Brute strength.
4. Ya'ūq	Horse	Swiftness.
5. Nasr	Eagle, or Vulture, or Falcon	Sharp sight, Insight.' (AYA).

268. 'Wadd, also pronounced Wudd, or Udd, i. e., "friendship," was, according to the Qurān, a god worshipped by the contemporaries of Noah. But it would be a mistake to conclude that his cult was obsolete in Muhammad's time, for we have sufficient evidence to the contrary. The poet Nābigha says once, "Wadd greet thee !" There was a statue of this god at Duma, a great oasis in the extreme north of Arabia. The name 'Abd Wadd occurs in a number of wholly distinct tribes.' (ERE I. p. 662). 'His erotic character is evident from a verse of Nābigha preserved by Ibn Habīb and cited by Wellhausen:—"Farewell Wadd, for sporting with women is no longer permitted us since religion is now taken seriously", i. e., since the introduction of Islam.' (ERE. VIII. p. 180).

269. 'He had a sanctuary at a place in the territory of Hudhail, but none, so far as we know, elsewhere. The meaning of his name is altogether obscure.' (ERE. I. p. 663). Wadd, according to the Oxford Assyriologist Dr. Langdon, was, in pre-Islamic polytheism of Arabia, the proper name of the moon-god. (Marston, The Bible Comes Alive, p. 273). An officer was deputed by the Prophet to destroy the sanctuary of this god in the land occupied by the tribe of Hudhail. (Hell. op. cit., p. 31).

270. 'The list of Arabian deities includes a Lion-god(Yaghūth) and a Vulture-god (Nasr).' Robertson Smith, Religion of the Semites p. 226). 'An Arabic poet says, "Yaghūh went forth with us against Morād" ; that is, the image of the god Yaghūth was carried into the fray.' (p. 37). 'That the Coraish worshipped Yaghūth we know from the names 'Abd Yaghūth and 'Obaid Yaghūth. But the Meccan religion was syncretistic, the cults of all the tribes that frequented the great fair being represented at the sanctuary ; the local and tribal seat of the worship of Yaghūth lay elsewhere.' (Kinship and Marriage in Early Arabia, pp. 192-93). 'At a later period we hear of a god Yaghūth whose idol was an object of contention among the tribes of northern Yemen, and the name Abd Yaghūth occurs in various parts of Arabia, even in the tribe of Taghlib on the north-eastern frontier' (ERE. p. 663).

271. 'Ya'uc is said to have been god of the Hamdan or of the Morād or of both tribes......Horses were worshipped by the Asbadhiyun in Bahrain, but the name is said to be of Persian origin, and if this is correct, the cultus also may be Persian,' (Robertson Smith, Kinship and Marriage in Early Arabia, p. 208). 'The name of the god Ya'uq......probably means "the Preserver", his cult seems to have been confined to Yemen.' (ERE. I. p. 663).

272. 'Nasr, the vulture god, was an idol of the Himyarites......The vulture worship of the Arabs is attested by the Syriac Doctrine of Addai, p. 24.' (Robertson Smith, Kinship and Marriage in early Arabia, p. 209). 'The Talmud and the Syriac Doctrine of Addai, mention Neshrā, the Aramaic form of Nasr, as an Arabian god ......The Sabaeans likewise had a god called Nasr. Thus the worship of the Vulture-god was once widely diffused over the Semitic lands.' (ERE. I. pp. 662-663).

273. i. e., the elders and chiefs of the community.

274. (by their precept and example, and have spread extreme moral corruption).

275. Who are only incorrigible reprobates.

276. (justifying Thy sentence on them and drawing it nearer).

277. (while uttering the imprecation upon his people).

278. (in the future, as they have done in the past).

279. Who were both believers.

280. This excludes such members of his family as were unbelievers.

281. (in general, and of the future generations).

282. i. e., purge the world of their sin and wickedness altogether.

Sūrat -ul-Jinn

The Jinn. LXXII

(Makkan, 2 Sections and 28 Verses)

In the name of Allah, th Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (قل . . . عجبا) Say thou[283]; it has been revealed to me that a company of the Jinn[284] listened[285] and said[286]: verily we have listened to a Recitation wondrous[287],

2. (يهدى . . . احدا) guiding to rectitude ; so we have believed in it, and[288] we shall not by any means associate any one with our Lord.

3. (وانه . . . ولدا) And He, exalted be the majesty of our Lord[289], has taken neither a wife[290] nor a son[291].

4. (وانه . . . شططا) And the foolish[292] among us were wont to forge a lie against Allah exceedingly[293].

5. (وانا . . . كذبا) And verily we believed that neither man nor Jinn could ever forge a lie against Allah[294].

6. (وانه . . . رهقا) And persons among mankind have been seeking[295] refuge with persons of the Jinn[296], so that[297] they[298] increased them[299] in evilness[300].

7. (وانهم . . . احدا) and indeed they[301] imagined, as you too imagined[302], that Allah will not raise any one.

8. (وانا . . . شهبا) And we sought to reach the heaven[303], then we found it filled with a strong guard[304] and darting meteors[305].

283. (O Prophet !).

284. See P. VII. n. 644 ; P. XXVI. n. 85.

285. (to the Holy Qurān).

286. (to their community on their return to their abode).

287. i. e., so superior in its sublimity to all other discourses. ' قرآن ' with تنوین as distinct from القرآن (with the definite article ال), means 'a recital or a discourse.'

288. (now, as guided by it).

289. (foolishly violated by the polytheistic peoples in various ways).

290. (as implied in the conception of 'goddesses'). In the Hindu mythology, for instance, the male nature of the triad required each of the three gods to be supplemented by a female consort. See also P. V. n. 513 ; P. VII. n. 651.

291. (as implied in all theories of the Fatherhood of God).

292. سفه (or lightwittedness) here it is used in respect of religion not in that of wordly affairs.

293. i. e., ascribing to Him plurality, sonship, fatherhood, etc. شطط is 'an action, or affair, and a saying, that is extravagant, or exorbitant, or exceeding the due bounds.' (LL).

294. (involving as it does incredible audacity).

295. (in their stupidity).

296. 'In the belief of the heathen Arabs ......nature is full of living beings of superhuman kind, the Jinn or demons......They have certain mysterious power of appearing and disappearing, or even of changing their aspect and temporarily assuming human form, and when they are offended they can avenge themselves in a supernatural way, i. e., by sending disease or madness.' (Robertson Smith, Religion of the Semites, pp. 119-120). In Arabia the demons were never the objects of a cult, in the strict sense of the word, but on certain occasions, as, for example, at the building of a house, it was thought prudent to conciliate them with some offering, lest they frustrate the work.' (ERE. I. p. 670).

297. (by their acts of adoration).

298. i. e., superstitious men.

299. i. e, the Jinn.

300. i. e., conceit and folly, رهق is 'excessive disobedience' or 'foolishness, or stupidity,......and ill-nature, or evil disposition.'

301. i. e., unbelieving men.

302. (before your conversion to Islam, O genii !).

303. (in conformity with our previous practice, to pry into what was transacting there). الس لى فلانا means, 'Seek thou for me such a one.' And the phrase in the text means, 'Verily we sought to reach heavens.' (LL).

304. (of angels).

305. See P. XIV. n. 32.

وَّاَنَّا كُنَّا نَقْعُدُ مِنْهَا مَقَاعِدَ لِلسَّمْعِ ۖ فَمَنْ يَّسْتَمِعِ الْاٰنَ يَجِدْ لَهٗ شِهَابًا رَّصَدًا ﴿٩﴾ وَّاَنَّا لَا نَدْرِیْۤ اَشَرٌّ اُرِيْدَ بِمَنْ

9. (وانا . . . رصدا) And we were wont to sit on seats therein to listen; but whosoever listens[306] now[307] finds for him a darting meteor in wait[308].

10. (وانا . . . رشدا) And we do not know whether evil[309] is boded for those on the earth[310], or their Lord intends for them[311] a right direction.

11. (وانا . . . قددا) And of us there are some righteous and of us are some otherwise; we have been following very diverse paths[312].

12. (وانا . . . هربا) And we[313] know[314] that we cannot frustrate Allah in the earth, nor can we elude Him[315] by flight.

13. (وانا . . . رهقا) And when we heard the Message of guidance we believed in it, and whoso believes in his Lord, he shall fear neither diminution nor wrong.

14. (وانا . . رشدا) And of us some are Muslims[316], and some are deviators[317]. Then whoso has embraced Islam —— such have endeavoured after a path of rectitude.

15. (واما . . . حطبا) And as to the deviators, they shall be firewood for Hell[318].

16. (وان . . . غدقا) And had they[319] kept to the right path[320], surely We would have watered them with plentiful rains.

17. (لنفتنهم . . . صعدا) That We might try them thereby[321]. And whoso turns aside from the remembrance of his Lord[322], him He shall thrust into a vehement torment.

18. (وان . . . احدا) And prostrations are for Allah[323], so do not call along with Allah anyone.

---

306. i. e., attempts to listen.

307. i. e., now that the Qurān has been revealed.

308. (and all means of access to Divination are now closed). It is a fact too curious to be overlooked by history that a century or two before the birth of the holy Prophet, the ancient oracles found themselves gradually and automatically becoming dumb——a fitting prelude to the advent of Islam. Even the voice of the great Delphic Oracle, so well-known and so important in antiquity, became still. 'As a force in history it had long lost all power; in the first century after Christ. Delphi and Ammon had given place to Chaldaean astrologers, as Strabo and Juvenal agree in saying, and Plutarch wrote a treatise inquiring into the reason; and in the fourth century, when Julian sent to consult the Delphic Oracle, the last response was uttered for him; "Tell the king, to earth has fallen the beautiful mansion; no longer has Phoebus a home, nor a prophetic laurel, nor a fount that speaks: gone dry is the talking water". (DB, Extra volume, p. 155).

309. (in the physical sense) i. e., disaster, plague).

310. (by their going against this new Prophet.

311. (forthwith, and that therefore there will be no opposition to the Prophet).

312. i. e., following divergent paths; some believing and some disbelieving.

313. i. e., the believing genii.

314. (as an article of faith).

315. (anywhere outside and beyond the earth).

316. i. e., have come to accept the doctrine of the Holy Qurān.

317. (from the right course).

318. At this point ends the discourse of the Jinn among themselves. See verse 1.

319. i. e., the Makkan pagans.

320. (and followed the right course——to profit by the example of the Jinn).

321. i. e., as to which of them are grateful to God and which of them are not.

322. i. e., true belief in Him.

323. (exclusively). مساجد here means, acts of adoration, not places of worship. (Th).

19. (وانه . . . لبدا) And when the bondman of Allah[324] stood calling upon Him, they almost pressed upon him stifling[325].

SECTION 2

20. (قل . . . احدا) Say thou[326]: I simply call upon Allah, and do not associate anyone with Him.

21. (قل . . . رشدا) Say thou: I[327] do not own for you power of hurt nor of benefit[328].

22. (قل . . . ملتحدا) Say thou: none can protect me from Allah[329], nor can I find besides Him any refuge[330].

23. (الا . . . ابدا) Mine is but preaching from Allah[331] and His messages[332]; and whosoever disobeys Allah and His messenger, his portion is the Hell-fire, abiding there for ever.

24. (حتى . . . عددا) They will go on denying until they[333] see[334] what they are promised[335]. Then they will know[336] who[337] is weaker in protectors and fewer in number.

25. (قل . . . امدا) Say thou: I[338] do not know whether what you are promised[339] is nigh, or whether my Lord has appointed it for a distant term[340].

26. (علم . . . احدا) He is the Knower of the Unseen and He does not disclose His unseen to anyone,

27. (الا . . . رصدا) save to a messenger chosen[341]. And then[342] He causes to go before him and behind him a guard[343].

28. (ليعلم . . . عددا) that He may know[344] that they[345] have delivered[346] the messages of their Lord[347]. And He comprehends whatever is with them[348], and He keeps count of everything numbered[349].

324. (and His chief apostle). For عبد الله see P. I. n. 98.

325. The allusion is to the rough treatment which the Prophet received at the hands of the crowd at Tā'if. His attitude and behaviour on the occasion have won the admiration of even some of his hostile critics. 'Stirred up to hasten the departure of the unwelcome visitor, the people hooted him through the streets, pelted him with stones, and at last obliged him to flee the city, pursued by a relentless rabble. Blood flowed from both his legs......The mob did not desist until they had chased him two or three miles across the sandy plain to the foot of the surrounding hill......There is something lofty and heroic in this journey of Mohammed to At-Tāif; a solitary man, despised and rejected by his own people, going boldly forth in the name of God, like Jonah to Nineveh, and summoning an idolatrous city to repent and support his mission. It sheds a strong light on the intensity of his belief in the divine origin of his calling.' (Muir, op. cit., 109-113.

326. (O Prophet !).

327. —— far from being a godling or associate god—.

328. i. e., of myself I am perfectly powerless.

329. (——were I to go against Him in any way, and to prove false to my mission——).

330. i. e., my only refuge from all kinds of trouble and difficulty is in Him ; and I cannot but obey.

331. (of His truths).

332. بلاغ implies general and public as opposed to individual and restricted preaching ; while رسالات emphasises the total, as opposed to partial, preaching. (Th .

333. i. e., the infidels.

334. (with their own eyes).

335. (and everything is seen in true perspective).

336. i. e., discover for themselves.

337. i. e., which of the two parties——the believing and the unbelieving.

338. ——even I, the chosen apostle of God——.

339. (and the coming of which is absolutely certain).

340. So irrespective of its approach or remoteness the coming of Judgement is certain.

341. (and then even to him only such portion of it as He thinks proper .

342. (to keep the secret well-guarded from the devils).

343. (of angels at the time the secret is revealed to the apostle). (to keep the secrets well-guarded from the devils).

344. (demonstrably).

345. i. e., the revealing angel and his associates.

346. (to the apostle concerned).

347. (absolutely faithfully ; pure and far from any diabolical suggestions).

348. i. e., He has surrounded all their doings ; He is well aware of all their states and conditions——their reliability, their sinlessness, etc.

349. So He preserves all His Revelations in the mind of the Prophet. عددا is here used in the sense of معدودا, and is put in the accusative case as a denotative of state. (LL).

The Enwrapped. LXXIII

(Makkan, 2 Sections and 20 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (يا يها المزمل) O thou enwrapped[350] !

2. (قم . . . قليلا) Keep vigil[351] all night save a little ——

3. (نصفه . . . قليلا) half of it, or a little less of it[352],

4. (او زد . . ترتيلا) or a little more. And intone the Qurān with a measured intonation[353].

5. (انا . . . ثقيلا) Verily We ! soon We shall be casting on thee a weighty word[354].

6. (ان . . . قيلا) Verily the rising by night[355] is most curbing[356] and most conducive to right speech[357].

7. (ان . . . طويلا) Verily for thee is the day a prolonged occupation[358].

8. (واذكر . . . تبتيلا) And remember thou the name of thy Lord[359] and devote thyself to Him[360] exclusively.

9. (رب . . . وكيلا) Lord of the east and the west[361] ! No god is there but He ! so take Him for thy trustee.

10. (واصبر . . جميلا) And bear thou patiently with what they say[362], and depart thou from them with a becoming departure[363].

---

350. (in thy garments). The Prophet is addressed thus, as he sat wrapped up in his mantle, in a melancholy and pensive posture, being reviled by some of the Quraish, in the early days of his ministry.

351. i. e., stand to prayer.

352. The usual practice of the holy Prophet was to stay up in prayer for long hours every night.

353. (in those night prayers as in all other prayers). ترتيل 'signifies pronouncing the word or words with ease and correctness : this is the proper signification but the conventional meaning is, being regardful of the places of utterance of the letters, and mindful of the pauses, and the lowering of the voice, and making it plaintive, in reading or reciting. (LL).

354. i. e., the Holy Qurān. ثقيل like its verb, is also applied to an ideal thing, and signifies'......momentous, formidable.' (LL).

355. (for the purposes of prayer and contemplation).

456. (to passions, and best suited for prayers, recitation of the Qurān and other acts of devotion). Night-time, by reason of the absence of every noise and distracting object, is obviously the best time for meditation and prayer.

357. Cf. the OT :—'At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments.' (Ps. 119 : 62). Also the NT :—'And at midnight Paul and Siles prayed, and sang praises unto God.' (Ac. 16 : 25).

358. (in both mundane and religious affairs).

359. (at other times of day and night)

360. تبتل إلى الله means, 'He detached himself from worldy things, and devoted himself to God;......or he forsook every other thing, and applied himself to the service of God.' (LL).

361. See n. 225 above.

362. i. e., the blasphemies they utter against God and the calumnies they utter against thee.

363. 'And avoid thou them, i. e., avoid thou associating with them in person, or speaking to them, or entertaining friendship for them in the heart, with an avoiding of a becoming kind.' (LL).

11. (وذرني . . قليلا) And let Me alone[364] with the beliers, owners of comfort[365] and respite thou them a little[366].

12. (ان . . . جحيما) Verily with Us are heavy fetters and Scorch,

13. (وطعاما . . . اليما) and a food that chokes[367] and a painful torment,

14. (يوم . . . مهيلا) on a Day when the earth and mountains[368] shall quake[369], and the mountains[370] shall become a sand-heap poured forth.

15. (انا . . . رسولا) Verily We! have sent to you a messenger[371], a witness over you[372], as We sent to Fir'awn a messenger.

16. (فعصى . . . وبيلا) Then Fir'awn denied the messenger, therefore We seized him with a painful grip.

17. (فكيف . . . شيبا) How then, if you deny, shall you escape, on a Day that will make children grey-headed[373],

18. (السماء . . مفعولا) and the sky will be split therein[374]. His promise is certainly to be accomplished.

19. (ان . . . سبيلا) Verily this[374-A] is an admonition; let him therefore, who will[375], choose a way unto his Lord[376].

---

364. i.e., busy not thy heart respecting them, and commit their case to Me as I alone can deal adequately with them.

365. (and plenty) i. e., rich in the pleasures of this life, who have special cause of gratitude to God.

366. i. e. do not long for their immediate punishment.

367. Like thorns and thistles.

368. (apparently so still and motionless).

369. (and fall into a state of violent commotion and convulsion).

370. (now cleft and scattered and fallen into pieces).

371. (to reclaim you from sin).

372. i. e., bearing witness against you on the Judgment Day.

373. (through extreme terror).

374. i. e., on that Day of calamity.

374-A. i.e., the Qurān.

375. i. e., who is willing to be admonished and guided.

376. (by accepting this code).

النهار علم ان لن تحصوه فتاب عليكم فاقرءوا ما تيسر من القرآن علم ان سيكون منكم مرضى وآخرون يضربون في الارض يبتغون من فضل الله وآخرون يقاتلون في سبيل الله فاقرءوا ما تيسر منه واقيموا الصلوة واتوا الزكوة واقرضوا الله قرضا حسنا وما تقدموا لانفسكم من خير تجدوه عند الله هو خيرا واعظم اجرا واستغفروا الله ان الله غفور رحيم

SECTION 2

20. (ان . . . رحيم) Verily thy Lord knows that thou[377] stayest up near two-thirds of the night[378], or a half of it[379], or a third of it[380], and also a party of those who are with thee. And Allah measures the night and the day[381]. He knows that you cannot compute it[382] ; so He has relented towards you[383]. Recite now of the Qurān[384] so much as is easy[385]. He knows that there will be among you some diseased[386], and others shall be travelling in the land seeking grace of Allah[387], and some others shall be fighting in the cause of Allah. Recite of it, therefore[388], so much as is easy, and establish the prayer[389], and pay the poor-rate, and lend unto Allah a goodly loan[390]. Whatsoever good you will send on for your souls[391], you will find it with Allah, better and greater[392] in reward. And beg forgiveness of Allah ; verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

377. (O Prophet).
378. (in prayer and meditation).
379. (sometimes).
380. (at other times).
381. (and has the proper measurement of time).
382. (with precision and exactitude). In their inability to know exactly what part of the time had passed, some of the early Muslims used to watch the whole night, standing and praying, till their feet swelled.
383. (by making the matter easy to you and dispensing with your scrupulous counting of the hours of the night).
384. (in the night prayer).
385. (unto you, and do not tax yourselves too severely).
386. (and infirm).
387. i. e., seeking their livelihood.

---

393. (in thy cloak). The holy Prophet speaking of a break in his early Revelation has said : '(Once) whilst I walked, I heard a voice from heaven and I lifted my eyes——and there was the angel who had come unto me at Ḥira, sitting on a throne between heaven and earth. And he inspired me with awe, and I returned home and said : "Wrap me up ! Wrap me up !" Thereupon Allah, the Most High. sent down : "O thou enveloped ! Arise and warn"——to his words "and the pollution shun !" Thereafter the revelation became intensive and continuous.' (Bkh. I : 1).

394. i. e., be steadfast in the duty which is being imposed on thee.

395. This forms the beginning of the public career of the holy Prophet.

401. (in return) i. e., serve God's creatures devotedly and whole-heartedly, not with a view to obtaining from them something in return.

403. (for the second time for congregating at the Resurrection).

404. ——the Day of Reckoning and terrible Reality.

405. The allusion is to a particular infidel of the Prophet's time, named Walīd.

406. (without any merits on his part). All the blessings a man enjoys are gifts from God, not an outcome of his own merits.

407. (and not obliged, like most of the Makkans, to go abroad to seek their livings).

408. By facilitating his advancement to power and dignity. For the construction used in the text see n. 246 above.

409. (in his insatiable greed).

412. i. e., in the Hereafter.

413. صعود literally is 'an ascending road; a mountain-road difficult of ascent; a difficult place of ascent.' And We have made this number only a trial for them who disbelieve, so that those who are vouchsafed the Book may be convinced[429], and that the faithful may increase in faith, and that those who are vouchsafed the Book and the faithful may not dubitate, and that those in whose heart is a disease[430] and the infidels may utter: what does Allah mean by this description? Thus does Allah send astray whom He will, and guide whom He will. And none knows the hosts of thy Lord[431] but He. And this[432] is not but an admonition to man.

The Resurrection. LXXV

(Makkan, 2 Sections and 40 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (لا ... القيمة) I swear[456] by the Day of Resurrection.

2. (ولا ... اللوامة) and I swear by the self-reproaching soul[457],

3. (ايحسب ... عظامه) does man imagine[458] that We shall not gather his bones[459] ?

4. (بلى ... بنانه) Yes[460] ! We are Able to put together evenly[461] his very fingertips[462].

5. (بل ... امامه) Aye ! man desires that he may go on[463] sinning[464].

6. (يسئل .. القيمه) He questions[465], when will be the Day of Resurrection ?

7. (فاذا ... البصر) When, then[466], the sight shall be dazed[467],

8. (و خسف القمر) and the moon shall be eclipsed[468],

9. (وجمع ... القمر) and the sun and the moon shall be joined[469],

10. (يقول ... المفر) Man, on that Day, shall say[470]: whither to flee ?

11. (كلا لا وزر) Certainly[471] no refuge on that Day.

12. (الى ... المستقر) To thy Lord[472] that Day shall be the recourse.

13. (ينبؤا ... اخر) To man shall be declared that Day what he has sent on[473] and left behind[474] ?

14. (بل ... بصيرة) Aye ! man shall be an evidence against himself[475],

15. (ولو . . . معاذيره) though he may put forth pleas[476].

16. (لا . . . به) Move not[477] thy tongue therewith[478] that thou mayest hasten[479].

456. See P. XXVII. n. 405.

457. i. e., the soul that is ever conscious of having offended, or of failing of perfection, notwithstanding its endeavours to do its duty, and thus hoping to reach salvation.

458. i. e., the infidel who denies the possibility of Resurrection.

459. (after he is dead, and raise him again).

460. i. e., We shall surely reunite them. بلى is here meant to convey reproof.

461. (as they had been).

462. i. e., even the smallest parts of the human body.

463. i. e., go on sinning and committing abominations.

464. i. e., for all the time that lies before him, discarding the fear of Resurrection.

465. (not by way of simple inquiry, but in a spirit of denial and defiance).

466. i. e., let the scoffer note.

467. (and dazzled, so that man shall not be able to see).

468. (and darkened). This express mention of the moon has particular reference to the high dignity of the moon-god in the Arab pantheon.

469. (in the loss of their light).

470. (in utter consternation).

471. (shall he find no time or place of refuge).

472. (and to none other).

473. (of his own deeds).

474. (of their example, good or bad, to be followed by later generations).

475. i. e., sufficient evidence apart from all records, his own conscience will testify to his guilt; every sin of his will be manifest unto him. Man is created self-conscious; he has in him the power of making or unmaking himself. The reference is here clearly to that inward judge—conscience—whose vigilance none can evade and from whose judgment there is no escape.

476 (to excuse himself falsely). It is the Holy Qurān which, with all the lustre and brilliance of a newly discovered truth, awakened in man the idea of his accountability to God, and inculcated in mankind the doctrine of man's being a moral agent.

477. (O Prophet).

478. i. e., with this Qurān, repeating the revelations brought to thee by Gabriel, before he has finished the same. Says Ibn 'Abbās: The apostle of Allah was severely affected by the revelation, and was wont to move his lips......Thereupon Allah, the Most High, sent down "Move not thy tongue therewith that thou mayest make haste with it. Verily upon Us is the collecting thereof and the reading thereof"......And after that, when Gabriel came unto him, the apostle of Allah would (only) listen, and when Gabriel departed the Prophet would recite it as he (i. e., Gabriel) had recited it.' (Bkh. I. 1 : 6).

479. i. e., with a view to commit it to memory all the more quickly. 'Faced as he was with the tremendous responsibility of exactly reproducing the Word of God, the Prophet was afraid lest he should forget the words of the Revelation ; he, therefore, used to repeat them rapidly while Gabriel was speaking.' (ASB. p. 21).

17. (ان . . . قرآنه) Verily upon Us[480] is the collecting of it[481] and the reciting of it[482].

18. (فاذا . . . قرآنه) So when We recite It[483], follow thou the reciting thereof[484].

19. (ثم . . . بيانه) And thereafter upon Us is the expounding of it[485].

20. (كلا . . . العاجلة) By no means[486] ! Verily you love the Herein[487],

21. (وتذرون الآخرة) and leave the Hereafter[488].

22. (وجوه . . . ناضرة) Faces[489] on that Day shall be radiant,

23. (الى . . . ناظرة) looking towards their Lord[490].

24. (ووجوه . . . باسرة) And faces[491] on that Day shall be scowling[492],

25. (تظن . . . فاقرة) apprehending that there will befall them a calamity waist-breaking.

26. (كلا . . . التراقى) By no means[493] ! When it[494] comes up to the collar-bone[495],

27. (وقيل . . . راق) and it is cried aloud[496] : where is the enchanter[497] ?

28. (وظن . . . الفراق) and he[498] thinks that it is the time of parting[499],

29. (والتفت . . . بالساق) and shank is entangled with shank[500].

30. (الى . . . المساق) The drive that Day is unto thy Lord[501].

SECTION 2

31. (فلا . . . صلے) He[502] neither believed nor prayed.

32. (ولكن . . . وتولى) Indeed, he belied[503] and turned away[504].

33. (ثم . . . يتمطى) Then he departed to his family conceitedly.

34. (اولى . . فاولى) Woe to thee[505], woe !

35. (ثم . . . فاولى) And again woe to thee, woe !

36. (ايحسب . . سدى) Does man imagine that he is to be left uncontrolled[506]?

37. (الم . . . يمنى) Was he not a sperm of emission emitted[507] ?

38. (ثم . . . فسوى) Then he became a clot; then Allah created him[508] and formed him[509].

39. (فجعل . . الانثى) And He made of him the two sexes, male and female,

40. (اليس . . . الموتى) Is not That One[510] then Able to quicken the dead[511] ?

---

480. i. e., incumbent upon Us.

481. (in thy mind).

482. i. e., teaching thee its true recital.

483. (unto thee by the tongue of Our angel).

484. (silently and attentively without repeating it so that it may become firmly-rooted in thy understanding).

485. (to the people, by thy tongue).

486. (can ye escape the inevitable Doom ? O pagans of Makka !). The parentheses finished, there is reversion to the original theme.

487. i. e, the life of this world. العاجلة signifies the present hour or time, and the present dwelling, abode, world, life, or state of existence : countrary of الاجلة (LL).

488. That it was really the enjoyment of this material life and material gains that was at the root of the obstinate pagan opposition to the teaching of the Qurān and the Prophet is recognised even by historians hostile to Islam. 'The more clearly they perceived that Mohammad's claims as a prophet might endanger their priestly position and their lucrative privileges as guardians of holy temple, the more fiercely did their anger burn, and the more vehement became their threats and abuses,' (HHW. VIII. pp. 115-116). 'The vehement opposition which Muhammed encountered is to be explained as due......partly to the desire of retaining certain material advantges which were inseparably connected with the local sanctuaries.' (ERE. I. p. 659).

489. (of the faithful).

490. (in joy and hope).

491. (of the infidels).

492. i e., with excessive contracted expressions of fear.

493. (shall ye be able to escape the Doom).

494. i. e., the soul departing from the body.

495. (in the agony of death).

496. (by the attendants and the standers-by in despair).

497. (who can charm him out of death and thus save him at the last minute ?)

498. i. e., the patient in the last stage of his disease ; the man on his death-bed.

499. i. e., the time of his departure from this world.

500. (in extreme agony, as is usual with dying persons).

501. (and His judgement).

502. i. e., the infidel persons.

503. (the Message and the messenger).

504. (from the truth).

505. (O thou infidel wretch !).

506. i. e., free to lead an aimless life, and with no responsibility for his actions.

507. i. e., a creature originally so insignificant. Incidentally, this repudiates the doctrine of the sanctity of human semen. Even Christian sects have been known to deify the seminal secretion. The Carpocrations, for instance, while forbidding procreation, 'divinized the spermatic fluid. It is quite probable that the Cathers were given to similar excesses, and specially that his disciples, the troubadours, were.' (Dr. Rongemont, Passion and Society, p. 111).

508. (as a man).

509. (with just proportions).

510. i. e., the All-Powerful Creator ; the Doer and Performer of all these things.

511. Which is a thing far easier than the original creation.

---

1. i. e., the pagans of Makka.

2. i. e., the Day of Resurrection. نبأ is not only 'tidings' but also signifies 'An announcement of great utility, from which results either knowledge or a predominance of opinion, and truth.' (LL).

3. (with the believers, and also among themselves some denying it altogether, others doubting it).

4. (they cannot escape).

5. (they cannot escape).

6. (to lie upon, to sit upon and to walk and run upon).

7. (to fix the earth). See P. XIII. n. 203 ; P. XIV. n. 33.

8. i. e., male and female.

9. This stresses the biological fact that sleep is not something negative, a cessation of activities, a mere state of unconciousness, but a positive, potent factor in life——its recurring rejuvenator, its sweet restorer. Sleep is in fact one of the greatest Divine boons to man. It is sleep that gives millions of body-cells every opportunity to recoup themselves, get rid of the fatigue poison and get ready for the next period of wakefulness. Psychological research has revealed that lack of sleep kills humans and higher animals quicker than starvation. See also P. XXI. n. 131.

10. As it covers or conceals everything by its darkness.

11. This gives expression, incidentally though, to a very profound scientific fact. 'The food of all living things comes ultimately from plants which, in the presence of sunlight, and only in that presence, and in virtue of its actions upon their green leaves, manufacture starch and sugar from the carbonic acid which exists in the air and water around them, whilst they are also thus enabled to take up nitrogen, and so to form their living substance or protoplasm. At night these particles or cells of the living protoplasm of plants which are furnished with transparent green granules, so as to entangle the sun-light, and by its aid feed on carbonic acid, cease this work. They necessarily repose from their labour because the light has gone. This is the simplest examples of the sleep of living things....This alternation of activities in day and night occurs even in the invisible microscopic vegetation of pools and streams. Animals even the most minute, only visible with a strong miscroscope ——move about in search of "bits" of food——in fact, bits of other animals or plants——and they, too, are, with special exceptions, checked in their search for food by the darkness, for even extremely minute and simple animals are guided in their search by light, that is to say, by a more or less efficient sense of sight. (Lankester, Science from an Easy Chair, pp. 157-159). Thus even the most rudimentary forms of 'livelihood' are performable only in day time.

12. (is such a One, then, not Able to bring about Resurrection ?)
13. Or 'of Distinction between good and evil.'
14. (heralding Judgment).
15. (to judgment, O mankind !).
16. Or 'in bands,' grouped as believers and infidels of various communities.
17. Perhaps for the angels to pass through.

The Prophet, habitually so solicitous for the poor and lowly, apprehended that at the moment the haughty Quraish would take umbrage at this importunity of a ‘commoner’ and would make it a pretext for their immediately leaving his company, and in the interest of Islam ignored the intruder and turned away his face from him.

VIII. p. 8) 'Amongst the Arabs before Mohammad......sons were preserved, but daughters were usually buried alive.' (ERE. I. pp. 3, 4) 'At any rate in some places and sometimes, there was a strong pressure of public opinion against sparing any daughter, even though she were the only child of her parents' (Robertson Smith. Kinship and Marriage in Early Arabia, pp 129-30). In India the practice continued so late as the middle of the nineteenth century. 'Among all the races of India; there is none more noble than the Rajput ; and among the Rajputs. the first rank belongs to the Chuhans......These people are numerous in the United Provinces In the district of Mainpuri there are more than 30.000 of them, and not about sixty years ago it was discovered that among them was not a single girl. Every daughter that was born was killed. The higher the rank of the family the more constant and systematic was the crime......This is not rhetoric but the statement of a fact. In 1856 special inquiries were instituted. It was found that this practice of infanticide although especially prevalent among the Rajputs, was by no means confined to them, and it was common not only in the Agra province but in Oudh, the Punjab, and in parts of the Bombay Presidency. Numbers of villages were visited where there was not a single girl and where there had never been one within the memory of man...... In 1869 another investigation showed that there was little change for the better.' (Strachey, India, 4th Ed., pp. 433-34) 'Infanticide of female infants has been practised in India from unknown times amongst the ancient Gakkhar race in the Punjab, and it has been a constant custom, and continued in several parts of India down to the later third of the 19th century.' (EI. II. p. 397) As a matter of fact, wherever polyandry is in existence baby-girls are killed in large numbers.

19. (لتركبن . . . طبق) surely you will march on from stage to stage[242].
20. (فمالهم . . . يومنون) What ails them[243], that they do not care to believing[244]?
21. (واذا . . . يسجدون) and that when the Qurān is read to them, they do not prostrate themselves[245] ?
22. (بل . . . يكذبون) Yea ! the infidels belie[246].
23. (والله . . . يوعون) Whereas Allah knows Best what they cherish[247].
24. (فبشرهم . . . اليم) So announce thou[248] to them an afflictive torment.
25. (الا . . . ممنون) But those who believe and work righteously, unending will be their wage.

241. i. e., wild beasts gathering together at night.

242. (O mankind !) i. e., your existence is not fixed or stationary ; you must be ever changing, growing, journeying from the state of the living to that of the dead, and from the state of the dead to a new state of life in the next world. عن is here synonymous with بعد; and طبقاً عن طبق is equivalent to حالة بعد حالة .

243. i. e., the unbelieving mass of humanity.

244. (and thus wilfully lose the best of opportunities).

245. (in God).

246. i. e., they go so far in their infidelity as to reject the truths of God forthwith.

247. (in their breasts, of hatred and malice).

248. (O Prophet !)

The Big Stars. LXXXV

(Makkan, 1 Section and 22 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (والسماء . . . البروج) By the sky adorned with big stars[249],
2. (واليوم الموعود) and by the Promised Day[250],
3. (وشاهد و مشهود) and by the witnessing day[251] and the witnessed day[252],
4. (قتل . . . الاخدود) perish the fellows of the ditch,
5. (النار ذات الوقود) of the fuel-fed fire[253],
6. (اذهم . . . قعود) when they[254] sat by it,
7. (وهم . . . شهود) and were witnesses to what they did with the faithful[255].
8. (وما . . . الحميد) And they persecuted them for naught save that they believed in Allah, The Mighty, the Laudable.
9. (الذى . . . شهيد) Him, Whose domain is the heavens and the earth. And Allah is Witness over everything.
10. (ان الذين . . الحريق) Verily those who persecuted the believing men and women, and then repented not, for them shall be the torment of Hell[256], and for them shall be the torment of burning.

---

249. i. e., stars of the first magnitude

250. (for judgment and requital). The occurence of that Day is not a matter of opinion, but a definite promise on the part of God.

251. i. e., Friday, the day of weekly Muslim congregation. (Th).

252. i. e., the ninth of Zul-hijja, the day of Pilgrimage. (Th).

253. The allusion is to a frightful persecution of the Christians by a Jewish king in Yemen. 'In 523 A.D. the throne was seized by a bigoted and dissolute usurper. A proselyte to Judaism, he perpetrated frightful cruelties on the Christians of the neighbouring provinces of Najran who refused to embrace his faith. Trenches filled with combustible materials were lighted, and the martyrs cast into the flames. Tradition gives the number thus miserably burned, or slain by the sword, at twenty thousand,' (Muir, op. cit., Intro. p. xciii). In the early part of the sixth century the Herbew religion had such a hold upon al-Yemen that the last Himyarite King dhu-Nuwas was a Jew....Rivalry between the South Arabian converts of the two newly introduced monotheistic religions led to active hostility. Evidently dhu-Nuwas representing the nationalistic spirit, associated the native Christians with the hated rule of the Christian Abyssinians. To this Jewish monarch is ascribed the famous massacre of the Christians of Najran in October 523. (Hitti, op. cit., p. 62). The event is of great historical importance, since it led to the intervention of the Negus of Ethiopia, at the instance of the Emperor Justinian, in the Yemen and its capture by him. The Jews too have a tradition of their own fiery persecution of an idolatrous king. (Cf. JE. II. p. 363).

254. i. e., the cruel persecutors.

255. (gloating over the agonies of their victims).

256. Which includes a multitude of torments.

تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ ذٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْكَبِيْرُ اِنَّ بَطْشَ رَبِّكَ لَشَدِيْدٌ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ يُبْدِئُ وَ يُعِيْدُ
وَ هُوَ الْغَفُوْرُ الْوَدُوْدُ ذُو الْعَرْشِ الْمَجِيْدُ فَعَّالٌ لِّمَا يُرِيْدُ هَلْ اَتٰىكَ حَدِيْثُ الْجُنُوْدِ فِرْعَوْنَ
وَ ثَمُوْدَ بَلِ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا فِيْ تَكْذِيْبٍ وَّ اللّٰهُ مِنْ وَّرَآئِهِمْ مُّحِيْطٌ بَلْ هُوَ قُرْاٰنٌ مَّجِيْدٌ فِيْ لَوْحٍ مَّحْفُوْظٍ

11. (ان الذين . . . الكبير) Those who believed and worked righteous works for them shall be the Gardens whereunder rivers flow; that is the supreme achievement[257].

13. (انه . . . يعيد) Verily He! it is He Who begins[258] and repeats.

16. (فعال . . . يريد) Doer of whatsoever He intends.

17. (هل . . . الجنود) Has there come unto thee[260] the story of the hosts,

18. (فرعون وثمود) of Fir'awn and the Thamūd?

19. (بل . . . تكذيب) Aye! those who disbelieve are engaged in denial[261].

20 (والله . . . محيط) While Allah is encompassing[262] from behind them[263],

21. (بل . . . مجيد) Aye! It is a glorious Recitation[264],

22. (في . . . محفوظ) inscribed in a Preserved Tablet[265].

---

257. Surpassing all the achievements of this world.

258. (th ecreation).

259. (without let or hindrance). His is absolutely sovereign will, unfettered by any conditions or restrictions. Nothing can come between His will and its execution. Unlike the head of many a pantheon, who is surrounded by fellow deities and whose will frequently clashes with their's and who must at times bow to the overruling Fate, the God of Islam is all-in-all. Sovereign in the absolute sense of the word. See also P. XII. n. 312.

260. (O Prophet!).

261. (of the Qurān itself; so how can they profit by its narratives?).

262. (enforcing His decrees).

263. (so that they can by no means escape).

264. 'The critics hold fast to their belief in the divine nature of the text: here, indeed, all Muslims are united. If we do not share that belief, we can still acknowledge the extraordinary importance of the Quran for students of history and religions, its vast influence upon the minds and lives of peoples widely different in culture, and its peculiar interest as the work in which the last of the great Semitic prophets gave his message to the world.' (Dr. R. A. Nicholson, in Palmer's Translation of the Quran, Intro, p. XIX).

265. i. e., guarded from every sort of alteration or corruption. لوح محفوظ is the depository of all the Divine decrees, willed events ordained by God.

---

311. (O Prophet !) الغاشيه means Resurrection, because it will overwhelm with its terrors, or because it will come upon mankind as a thing covering them, so as to include them universally.' (LL).

312. (of some).

313. i. e., labouring through Hell-fire.

314. i. e, fatigued by the most unavailing labour.

315. (kindled by their own handiwork).

316. (of others).

317. (in the life of world).

318. i. e, the pagans.

319. (as evidence of Great Design and Mercy on His part).

320. Of all the domestic animals the utility of the camel is perhaps the greatest. Of economic importance to the cultivator and of considerable use to the Defence Department in war time, in general, it is of incalculable value to the Arab countries, parts of Africa, and parts of India (i. e., the Punjab, Sind, Baluchistan and the Rajputana states). In desert warfare camels are more serviceable than any mechanized unit. 'Of animals the most characteristic of Arabia is undoubtedly the camel, the ability of which to go without water twenty-five days in winter and five days in summer, working hard all the time, renders it of unique service in the desert.' (DB. I. p. 133) 'In the ancient literature of Arabia, just as in practical life, the camel has a pre-eminent position....There is not a single poet of the desert but sings the praises of his camel, and....compares his mistress to it, often carrying the analogy to minute details. Snouck Hurgronje recalls the cry of women lamenting a dear husband : "O my son, my eye, my camel," interpreting it in the sense of "O thou who wast my help in supporting life's burden." (ERE. III. p. 173). 'It will carry a load of 500 to 1000 lb. 25 miles a day for three days without drinking.' (EBr. IV. p. 657) 'That the camel has been associated, as a characteristic domestic animal; with the Arabs in general and the nomad Bedouins in particular, is not a fortuitous circumstance. Neither the horse nor the cow, nor any other animal that is known to be associated with the life of other pastoral peoples, could take its place in the arid steppes and deserts of Arabia. ....This animal alone is adapted, by virtue of its peculiar qualities to the geographical conditions of Arabia....No animal puts its owner to less expense and trouble for its keep....The value of the camel for the Arabs in general and the nomads in particular, cannot be overestimated ; and it is far from easy to enumerate and exhaust all the possible ways in which it is made use of.' (Inayatullah,, op. cit., pp. 57, 58, 60). 'The camel is certainly from the nomad's point of view the most useful. Without it the desert could not be conceived of as a habitable place. The camel is the nomads nourisher, his vehicle of transportation and medium of exchange....It is the Bedouin's constant companion, his alter ego, his foster parent....To him the camel is more than "the ship of the desert"....The part which the camel has played in the economy of Arabian life is indicated by the fact that the Arabic language is said to include some one thousand names for the camel in its numerous breeds and stages of growth.' (Hitti, op. cit, pp. 21-22). In the hard desert and waterless countries the camel is perhaps the greatest friend of man. Nor has it lost its importance even in the modern mechanical warfare. Observe the following enconiums lavished upon it by a military writer in the year 1943 :—

> 'One of the oldest forms of transport known to man—the camel—is playing its part side by side with tanks and high-speed modern trucks in the Allied drive for victory.
> The camels mostly come from the Punjab. Hundreds of zilladars from there are bringing along their camels to help India's war effort.
> Camel transport units are now a regular part of the RIASC. Zilladars are being encouraged to produce more camels and a Government breeding centre is proposed.
> Complaining, but never unwilling, camels can pull a 20-maund cart-load with ease, equivalent to the work of four draught mules. Four camels can take a load equal to that of 20-cwt. lorry—and take it to a lot of places no motor could go.
> For length of service the camel stands alone. Properly cared for, its average life is 18 years. Few army mechanized vehicles last even half that time. The camel is not fussy about its food, and is far less liable to injury than the horse, mule or even motor truck.

18. (والى . . . رفعت) and at the sky, how it is raised[321] ?
19. (والى . . . نصبت) and at the mountains, how they are rooted[322] ?
20. (والى . . . سطحت) and at the earth, how it is outspread[323],
21. (فذكر . . . مذكر) Admonish thou then[324] ; thou art but an admonisher.
22. (لست . . . بمصيطر) Thou art not over them[325] a warden.
23. (الا . . . كفر) So whoever will turn back and disbelieve ——
24. (فيعذبه . . . الاكبر) Allah shall torment him with the greatest torment[326].
25. (ان . . . ايابهم) Verily unto Us is their return.
26. (ثم . . . حسابهم) Then unto Us is their reckoning.

---

321. See P. I. n. 92.

322. Note that it is only the quality of firmness and stability of mountains that the Holy Qurān makes mention of. Compare and contrast this with the attitude of fetishistic religions towards mountains worshipping them and regarding them as god. Parvats (mountains) in the Indian religions are well-known deities.

323. See P. I. n. 91.

324. (O Prophet !).

325. (with either power or authority to force their will).

326. (in the hereafter).

10. (وهدينه النجدين) and shown to him[374] the two highways[375] ?

362. Muir quotes this Surah, 'in which are set forth the two paths of virtue and vice, and the difficulties of the straight way' as illustrating the Prophet's 'honest striving after Truth.' (op. cit., p. 41).

363. (of Makka). بلد is any city or territory, but البلد (with the definite article) is a name applied to the sacred territory of Makka.

364. (free-hand ; full control ; O Prophet !). In this sense the words are spoken of prophetically, conveying a promise of that absolute power which the Prophet ultimately attained on the taking of Makka.

365. i. e., the first progenitor of human race——Adam.

366. i. e., entire human race

367. Even his control over the forces of nature, unless accompanied by a parallel growth of control over himself, leads eventually to his own undoing. Human life, says a distinguished modern biologist, 'is unthinkable without tragedies, without the tragic element. The more highly developed and the nearer to perfection man is, the greater are the possibilities for tragic conflicts....Most fearful are the tragedies which are deeply rooted in man's own nature. These are far more hopeless because up to the present time it has been extremely difficult to eliminate them.' (Nemilov, Biological Tregedy of Woman, pp. 13-15).

368. i. e., the ungrateful man.

369. (in ostentation and vanity, and to oppose the true faith). The allusion is to certain antagonists of Islam in the Prophet's time.

'This passage seems to tell forcibly against those Muslims who pursue the slave-trade. This disposition to free the slave is here said to be a sign of man's being a true believer. Muhammad himself practised the precept here enunciated.' (Rev. E. M. Wherry).

378. i. e., when she appears in the sky after the sun has set.
379. i. e., when it shows forth the sun's splendour to its full.
380. i. e., made it to be adapted to its exigencies.

381. (as the Author of His Universal scheme).

382. i. e., the human soul.

383. Which comes through the devil, and is developed to a responsible human act by man's own free-will.

384. Which comes through angels, and is developed to a responsible human act by man's own free-will.

385. (by good works, in exercise of his free-will).

386. (under evil works, in the exercise of his free-will). All this clearly repudiates, on the one hand, the Paulinish doctrine of an original, hereditary sin, and, on the other, the Hindu and Buddhist determinism known as Karma. Sin is nothing more, nothing less, and nothing else than a man's wrong use of his free-will, just as merit is its right use.

387. (their Prophet).

392. i. e., the punishment.

393. (unto all) i. e., He made the punishment common or universal, as they had all shared in the crime.

394. Islam knows no such thing as the 'repentance' of God and His 'grief' over His own actions, as portrayed by the Bible ;—'And it repented the Lord that he had made men on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.' (Ge. 6 : 6).

14. (فانذرتکم . . . تلظی) Wherefore I have warned you of a flaming Fire.
15. (لا . . . الاشقی) None shall roast therein except the most wretched[406].
16. (الذی . . . وتولی) who denies and turns away.
17. (و سیجنبہا الاتقی) And the pious shall avoid it altogether.

18. (الذی . . . یتزکی) he who spends his substance[407] that he may be cleansed[408],

19. (ومالا . . . تجزی) and who has no favour from any one to pay back[409],

The Morning Brightness. XCIII

(Makkan, 1 Section and 11 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

1. (والضحی) By the morning brightness[411],
2. (واليل ... سجٰی) by the night, when it darkens[412].
3. (ما ... قلٰی) Thy Lord has not forsaken thee[413], nor is He displeased[414].
4. (وللاخرة ... الاولٰی) And the Hereafter is indeed better unto thee than the present life[415].
5. (ولسوف ... فترضٰی) And soon[416] shall thy Lord give unto thee[417] so that thou shalt be well-pleased[418].
6. (الم ... فاوٰی) Did He not find thee an orphan[419]? so he sheltered thee[420].

10. (واما ... تنهر) and as to the beggar, chide him not;
11. (واما ... فحدث) and as to the favours of thy Lord, discourse thou thereof[425].

---

411. The word properly signifies the bright part of the day, when the sun shines full out, some three or four hours after it has arisen.

412. Or 'becometh still.'

413. (O Prophet !). The implication is that God never forsakes His devoted servants, much less His true prophets. And thus the verse contradicts the reported cry of agony of Jesus. 'My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken me.' (Mk. 15 : 34 ; Mt. 27 : 46).

414. (with thee, ever in this world). In the beginning of the ministry there was a period during which the holy Prophet received no Revelation, and the pagans began to mock him as one forsaken by his God.

415. So then thou shalt be raised to still greater ranks.

416. i. e., in the Hereafter, as also in this world.

417. (rich and abundant reward).

418. 'Illumined by the divine light, endowed with an inflexible will-power and an ardent spirit, tempered by compassion, charity and tenderness, he undertook the difficult mission and the stupendous struggle connected with it, and he did not rest until he had attained what he wanted : until Arabia professed his Faith.' (Daumer, quoted in Zaki Ali's Islam in the World, pp. 12-13).

419. Orphan's condition was specially deplorable in pagan Arabia.

420. (thee providentially out of His solicitude for thee).

421. (in thy pre-prophetic life)

422. (in the way of God, born as thou wast in the midst of worst idolatry) i. e., struggling to find thy way ; in search of the true light. That the character of the Prophet was even in his youth exemplary and exceptional in the most tempting environment of Makka is borne out by hostile biographers. 'It is quite in keeping with the character of Mohammed that he should have shrunk from the coarse and licentious practices of his youthful friends. Endowed with a refined mind and delicate taste, reserved and meditative, he lived much within himself, and the ponderings of his heart no doubt supplied occupation for leisure hours spent by others of a lower stamp in rude sports and profligacy. The fair character and honourable bearing of the unobtrusive youth won the approbation of his fellow-citizens; and he received the title, by common consent, of Al-Amin, the faithful.' (Muir, op. cit., pp. 19-20).

423. (thee to the very source of Light, by making thyself the recipient of Revelation). See also P. XIX. n. 144.

424. (to express thy gratitude in action and deed).

425. Compare a remarkable tribute paid to the spiritual genius and constructive greatness of the holy Prophet paid by an unfriendly Christian :—'Muhammad's career is a wonderful instance of the force and life that resides in him who possesses an intense Faith in God and the unseen world...he will always be regarded as one of those who have had that influence over the faith, morals, and whole earthly life of their fellow-men, which none but a really great man ever did, or can exercise, and as one of those whose efforts to propagate a great verity will prosper.' (Rodwell, 'The Koran,' Preface, pp. 14-15).

---

426. (by disposing and expanding it to receive the Truth and wisdom, and by freeing it from ignorance and uneasiness, O Prophet !).

427. (by making thy soul fully illumined).

428. (in thy pre-prophetic period). In all he did and wrote 'Muhammad, was actuated by a sincere desire to deliver his countrymen from the grossness of its debasing idolatries...that he was urged on by an intense desire to proclaim that great truth of the Unity of the Godhead which had taken possession of his own soul.' (Rev. Rodwell, The Koran, Preface, p. 13).

429. So much so that even the anti-Muslim Christian scholars have to acknowledge the greatness, almost super-human, of the holy Prophet. 'One of the most remarkable men in history of the world.' (Drinkwater op. cit., I. p. 146). To mention another tribute, Mr. Charles Issawi of New York City, writing under the caption 'Muhammad's Historical Role', says at the end of his article....'It does no steem too much to say that if any one man changed the course of history that man was Muhammad.' (The Muslim World, Hartford, for April, 1950, p. 95) 'The man', says Draper, who 'of all men, has exercised the greatest influence upon the human race.' (Intellectual Development of Europe, I. p. 329). The verdict is endorsed in one of the recent editions of the Encyclopaedia Britannica which refers to him as 'that most successful of all prophets and religious personalities.' (EBr. XV. p. 898 11th Ed.) In the words of yet another Christian : 'Compare Mohammed with the long roll of men whom the world by common consent has called "Great"....Take him all in all, what he was and what he did, and what those inspired by him have done, he seems to me to stand alone, above and beyond them all.' (Bosworth Smith, op. cit. pp. 339-340). And to come to an estimate still later :—'Within a brief span of mortal life Muhammad called forth out of unpromising material a nation never united before, in a country that was hitherto but a geographical expression ; established a religion which in vast areas superseded Christianity and Judaism and still claims the adherence of a goodly portion of the human race ; and laid the basis of an empire that was soon to embrace within its far-flung boundaries the fairest provinces of the then civilized world.' (Hitti, op. cit., pp. 121-122). See also P. IV. n. 212; P. XXVI. nn. 107, 333; n. 425 above and n. 580 below.

430. The passage revealed at the moment of the greatest difficulties in the life of the holy Prophet, when he was derided and shunned 'must have struck the disbelievers as ridiculous. It...'speaks of future events as accomplished, as is usual in the Koran, the revelation coming from a plane where time is not. Verse 4. speaking of his fame as exalted, must have seemed particularly absurd at that time of humiliation and persecution. But to-day, from every mosque in the world, the Prophet's name is cried, as that of the messenger of God, five times a day and every Muslim prays for blessings on him when his name is mentioned.' (Pickthall). See also nn. 580. 581. .

447. (everything, O Prophet!)

448. (although thou art not learned in reading actual scripts, O Prophet!) 'The primary duty of a Prophet, in contrast with that of any other spiritual leader is not to produce images and ideas born in his own mind; it consists only in the reading out of the unseen book of Divine Truth and the reproducing of its meaning to mankind without additions or substractions. In the word "Read!" which opened the first revelation to Muhammad his call to Perfect Prophethood is already fully expressed. The law of God, the Eternal Truth behind the perceptible things, was laid bare before him, waiting to be understood by him in its innermost meaning.' (ASB. I. p. 19).

449. i. e., the ungrateful man.

450. (and trespasses his bounds).

451. (in plenty and riches).

452. (of one and all).

453. (O reader !).

454. It is related that once Abu Jahl arrogantly threatened the Prophet that if he found him in the act of adoration, he would set his foot on his neck. But when the Prophet was next in that posture, and Abu Jahl came to him, he suddenly turned back as in a fright, and said that he actually saw a ditch of fire between himself and the Prophet with terrible troops to defend him.

455. (O reader !).

456. i. e., Our bondman.

457. (to others, as an apostle).

471. (when the Prophet received his first revelations). قدر is power, honour, glory, and also decree, and destiny. قدر means, 'He (God) distributed, divided, or apportioned, [as though by measure,] sustenance, or the means of subsistence. Hence some say, the appellation of ليلة القدر as being The Night wherein the means of subsistence are apportioned.' (LL). See also P. XXV. n. 143.

472 To pray in that single night is even more meritorious than to pray during these long months. 'The Apostle of Allah said : "Whosoever keepeth awake during the night of Qadr with faith and in view of God, shall be forgiven that which is past of his sin.' (Bkh. I. 15 : 35).

500. (against the stones).

501. i. e., horses making a hostile incursion. The spirit and swiftness of the Arab horse are 'proverbial. The Arab horse is an almost exclusively war animal, and an Arab is prepared to take endless trouble on its account, because it serves him as a weapon of war.' (Inayatullah, op. cit, p. 67). An Arab could take better care of it than even of his own children. 'He milks first for his mare and would pour out the last drop from the water-bag for the pampered animal, while the children are crying for water.' (p. 66). 'Renowned for its physical beauty, endurance, intelligence and a touching devotion to its master, the Arabian thoroughbred is the exemplar from which all Western ideas about the good-breeding of horseflesh have been derived...In Arabia...its possession is a presumption of wealth. Its chief value lies in providing the speed necessary for the success of Bedouin raids. It is also used for sports : in tournament-coursing and hunting.' (Hitti, op. cit.. p. 21) Arab horses 'are accustomed only to walk and to gallop :...no sooner do they feel the touch of the hand on the stirrup than they dart away with swiftness of the wind. (GRE. V. p. 315). There have also been even outside Arabia, several war horses famous in history. For example, the charger of Alexander ; the stallion of Napoleon ; and the favourite of Caligula. See also P. X. n. 93.

502. (the enemy camp). This picture 'of a cavalry charge in a morning fray is as spirited as any in the Arabic literature.' (Inayatullah, op. cit., p. 68). 'The gusto and pride, with which the Arab warrior poet describes the fine points of his valued mare and the martial exploits performed on its back. are well known to all readers of Arabic poetry' (ib). 'It is much easier to make or repel an attack on horseback than when mounted on a camel. The power and prestige a tribe enjoys is proportionate to the number of horses it can bring into the field.' (pp. 67, 68).

503, 504. i. e.. in that early hour. 'The Arabs generally chose the early morning to fall upon the enemy tribe.' (Bell).

Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper ? the glory of his nostrils is terrible. He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength ; he goeth on to meet the armed men.... He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage.' (Job. 39 : 19-24).

540. The chapter is remarkable for its allusion to an incident in the history of Makka, as an example of how God deals with those who oppose His will. About fifty days before the birth of the Prophet, Abraha the Abyssinian viceroy of Yemen, Christian by religion, proceeded against Makka, at the head of a large army, with the object of destroying the K'aba. He had with him, one or more elephants, and the invading army was deemed invincible. The Makkans in their despondency retired to the neighbouring hills, leaving the Lord of the K'aba to protect it. Suddenly a large flock of birds, like swallows, came flying from the sea-coast and pelted the invading army with stones. Panic-stricken they made a hasty retreat in disorder and dismay, and there was an outbreak of smallpox in the camp. Scattered amon gthe valleys, and forsaken by their guides, everyone of these perished, including Abraha himself, and the Holy K'aba was miraculously saved from destruction. 'The incident is said to have taken place in the year of the birth of the Prophet (570 or 571), which year has been dubbed 'am al-fīl' the year of the elephant. after thee lephants, which accompanied Abraha on his northward march and which greatly impressed the Arabians of Al-Hijaz, where elephants had never been seen. The Abyssinian army was destroyed by smallpox, "the small pebbles' (sijjīl) of the Qorān'. Hitti, op. cit., p 64). This Abraha had 'built in San'a, now the capital, one of the most magnificent cathedrals of the age' called by the Arabian writers al-Qalis. The cathedral, of which little is left to-day but the site, was built from the ruins of ancient Ma'rib (Hitti, pp. 62-63).

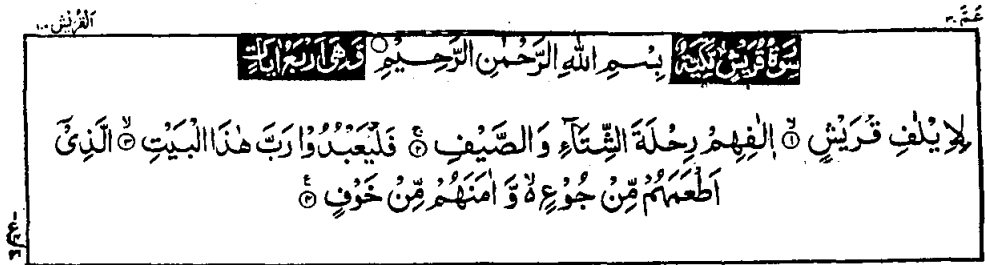
541. (by disappointing Abraha's magnificent and elaborate preparation in a manner totally unexpected and unforeseen, O Prophet!). 'The passage is a glorified description of an epidemic of smallpox——also termed "small stones" in Arabic-- which is historical. The Abyssinian army retreated and Abraha died at San'a of the foul disease. The news that the Ka'ba had been protected by divine intervention must have spread far and wide, and greatly enhanced the sanctity of the shrine and the prestige of the Ka'ba.

542. (and failure).

543. (by cattle).


Sūrah Quraish

The Quraish[544]. CVI

(Makkan, 1 Section and 4 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (لايلاف قريش) For[545] the protection of the Quraish[545-A],

2. (الفهم . . . والصيف) for certain protection in the journey[546] in the winter and the summer[547]——

3. (فليعبدوا . . . البيت) let them worship the Lord of this House[548],

4. (الذى . . . من خوف) Who has fed them[549] against hunger[550], and has rendered them secure from fear of being waylaid[551].

---

544. The Quraish, among whom the Prophet was born, was a tribe held in great esteem as the guardians of the K'aba by the Arabs. The tribe was a branch of the Northern Arabs, was of the purest stock, and formed the aristocracy of Hijāz.

545. i. e., in gratitude of.

545-A. Originally nomads, they had been settled in Makka for about two hundred years, wielded full authority and were even the de facto ruling tribe of the city.

546. i e, their setting forth of the caravan of merchants. 'Mecca is placed almost at an equal distance, a month's journey, between Yemen on the right, and Syria on the left hand. The former was the winter, the latter the summer, station of her caravans ; and their seasonable arrival relieved the ships of India from the tedious and troublesome navigation of the Red Sea...The lucrative exchange diffused plenty and riches in the streets of Mecca ; and the noblest of her sons united the love of arms with the profession of merchandise.' (GRE. VI. p. 202). The extent and degree of business actively carried by means of these caravans were truly astonishing. 'Few caravans set forth in which the whole population, men and women, had not a financial interest'...On departure the caravans carried leather, speices precious essences, and metals, particularly silver from the Arabian mines.' (Lammans, op. cit., p. 16). 'On their return every one received a part of the profits proportionate to his stake and the number of shares subscribed. The dividend was never less than 50 per cent and often amounted even to a double.' (ib).

547. (to Yemen and Syria respectively). 'Makka owed its economic prosperity to its geographical position and to its relations with the important trade route to India...From Babylonia, from the ports of the Persian Gulf as well as from the Yemen, flowed the rich products of the Middle East and of India : from Syria those of the Mediterranian world. We see Makka opening negotiations with the neighbouring states, obtaining safe-conduct, free passage for her caravans, and concluding the equivalent of commercial treaties with Byzantium, Abyssinia, Persia and the Emirs of Yemen. (Lammans, op. cit., p. 13).

548. i. e., K'aba. 'This temple, which Abraha al-Ashram had wished to destroy, had been throughout the ages the object of the greatest veneration ; it was looked on as a present made by Jehovah to the Arab race to bear witness to its condition privileged beyond all others. It was the oratory of Abraham and Ishmael, the house of Allah...The Sabians, the fire worshippers, sent their offerings to it; even the Jews showed a deep respect for this revered spot. The guardians of the temple, the Koreish clan, had a sort of religious authority which was willingly recognised by all.' (HHW. VIII. p. 112) 'Though in an inhospitable and barren valley with an inclement and unhealthy climate this sanctuary at Makka made Al-Hijaz the most important religious centre in North Arabia.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 101).

549. ——dwellers of arid desert as they are——

550. (by means of the aforesaid caravans).

551. (in the course of their journeyings, by making them respectable and esteemed in the eyes of others as guardians of the Holy House). The blessings of satiety and security, welcome everywhere, were particularly more so in a country so poor in natural resources as Arabia.

2. (فذلك . . . اليتيم) It is he who pushes away the orphan[554],
3. (ولا . . . المسكين) and[555] does not[556] urge the feeding of the poor[557].
4. (فويل للمصلين) So[558] woe be to such performers of prayers,
5. (الذين . . . ساهون) as are heedless of their prayers[559] ——

553. (in word and deed).

554. (in his hard-heartedness, and treats him with harshness, roughness, or violence).

555. (far from himself feeding the hungry).

556. (even upon others).

557. i. e., who are, in short, altogether negligent of the rights of their fellow-beings.

558. Evil as it is the negligence of the rights of human beings, far worse is the negligence of the rights of the Creator.

559. i. e., those who are not regular in their prayers; those who do not observe the proper conditions of prayer.

560. (of men, when they pray at all). راءى signifies : 'He acted ostentatiously; i.e., he did a deed in order that men might see it; or رياء signifies making a show of what one does to men, in order that they may see it and think well of it.' (LL).

Abundance of Good. CVIII

(Makkan, 1 Section and 3 Verses)

SECTION 1

1. (اناأعطينك الكوثر) Verily We have bestowed on thee[563] Kauthar[564].
2. (فصل . . . وانحر) So[565] pray thou to thy Lord[566], and sacrifice[567].
3. (ان . . . الابتر) Truly it is thy traducer[568] who shall be childless[569].

---

563. (O Prophet !)

564. Or 'abundance of good.' كوثر is literally 'A large quantity, or number. من مال وغيره of property, or cattle.' And الكوثر, as a proper name, signifies 'A certain river in paradise, from which flow all the other rivers thereof, pertaining specially to the Prophet.' (LL).

565. i. e., in recognition of Our great favour to thee both in this world and the Next.

566. (with fervency and intense devotion).

567. i.e., slay the victims, as a counterpart to these acts of devotion.

568. (taunting thee with the absense of a male issue). Some of the leading pagans rejoiced in the fact that the Prophet had no son, and therefore none, they argued, to uphold his religion after him.

569 (and cut off from all future hope). Apart from the superstitious pagans, the Jews also have considered it as the greatest curse for a man to remain childless. 'Since the days of Abraham, to possess a child was always considered as the greatest blessing God could bestow ; and to be without children was regarded as the greatest curse. The Rabbis regarded the childless man as dead ; while the Cabalists in the Middle Ages thought of him who died without posterity as of one who had failed in his mission in this world.' (JE. IV. p. 27).

The Infidels. CIX

(Makkan, 1 Section and 6 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

SECTION 1

1. (قل . . . الكفرون) Say thou[570]: Infidels[571] !
2. (لا . . . تعبدون) I worship not what you worship[572],
3. (ولا . . . ما اعبد) Nor are you[573] the worshippers of what I worship,
4. (ولا . . . عبدتم) and I shall not[574] be a worshipper of what you have worshipped.
5. (ولا . . . ما اعبد) Nor will you be the worshipper of what I worship[575].
6. (لكم . . . دين) Your requital shall be yours[576], and my requital shall be mine[577].

570, (O Prophet !)

571. Some of the leading pagans of Makka had proposed to the Prophet a compromise between Islam and the ancient faith such as they conceived it, whereby he would concede to their gods an honourable place. This chapter indignantly repudiates all such suggestions. And 'It (this surah) breathes aspirit of uncompromising hostility to idolatry.' (Muir op. cit., p. 74).

572. (on the other hand I deny and repudiate your gods).

573. (at present).

574. (in future).

575. (so long as you cling to your views of Godhead ; so that their can be no common ground between the worship of the One and the many——monotheism and polytheism).

Succour[578]. CX

(Madinian, 1 Section and 3 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (اذا . . . والفتح) When there come the succour of Allah and victory[579].

2. (ورايت . . . افواجا) and thou finds the mankind entering the religion of Allah[580] in crowds[581],

3. (فسبح . . . توابا) then hallow the praise of thy Lord, and ask forgiveness of Allah[582]. Verily He is ever Relenting.

---

578. The chapter is only Madinian in the sense that it was revealed during the Madinian period of the Prophet's life. It was actually revealed at, or near, Makka when the Prophet was there on the occasion of his farewell pilgrimage.

579. (causing thee to prevail over thy enemies and to enter the city of Makka in triumph, O Prophet !) Only too often, in this world, success is the criterion of right and truth. It is no wonder then that after the ascendancy of Islam was assured the Arabs who had hitherto held aloof, 'now hastened to give in their allegiance to the new religion.' (Arnold, Preaching of Islam, p. 38). 'Delegations flocked from near and far to offer allegiance to the prince-prophet....Tribes and districts which had sent no representatives before, sent them now. They came from distant 'Uman, Hadramaut and al-Yemen. The Tayyi' sent deputies and so did the Hamdan and Kindah. Arabia, which had hitherto never bowed to the will of one man, seemed now inclined to be dominated by Muhammad and be incorporated into his new scheme. Its heathenism was yielding to a nobler faith and a higher morality.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 11`).

580. A detractor, not an admirer, of the holy Prophet and his teachings thus sums up the chief characteristics of the religion of God :—'One characteristic is its uncompromising monotheism ; its simple enthusiastic faith in the rule and fatherhood of God and its freedom from theological complications. Another is its complete detachment from the sacrificial priest and the temple. It is an entirely prophetic religion, proof against any possibility of relapse towards blood sacrifices. In the Koran the limited and ceremonial nature of the pilgrimage to Mecca is stated beyond the possibility of dispute, and every precaution was taken by Muhammad to prevent the deification of himself after his death. And a third element of strength lay in the insistence of Islam upon the perfect brotherhood and equality before God of all believers, whatever their colour, origion or status.' (Wells, Short History of the World, p. 165). To us, in the fourteenth century of the Hijri era, the doctrine of monotheism might well look almost as a truism, but in the pagan world of the sixth century of the Christian era it had all the elements of shocking and rebellious innovation. To preach such a moral doctrine to a world such as that in which the Prophet lived, required a rare amount of courage and heroism. It was a work in which success was impossible without Divine help and support. That it succeeded and succeeded so well, is in itself a convincing proof of its Divine origin.

581. The almost instantaneous expansion of Islam is one of the stupendous miracles still bafflin gthe intellect of many a. student of history. Gibbon refers to it as 'one of the most memorable revolutions which have impressed a new and lasting character on the nations of the globe.' (GRE. V. p. 311). And says a modern rationalist : 'The expansion of Islam is the most miraculous of all miracles. The Roman Empire of Augustus, as later enlarged by the valiant Trojan, was the result of great and glorious victories, won over a period of seven hundred years. Still it had not attained the proportions of the Arabian Empire established in less than a century.' See also n. 429 above.

582. The verse gave a clear hint to the Prophet of the approach of his death, as it announced that his work of preaching had been finished.

Flame. CXI

(Makkan, 1 Section and 5 Verses)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (تبت . . . وتب) Perish the two hands of Abu Lahab[583], and perish he[584] !

2. (ما . . . كسب) His riches[585] availed him not[586], nor what he earned[587].

3. (سيصلى . . . لهب) Soon[588] he shall roast in a Fire, Flame,

4. (وامراته . . . الحطب) and his wife also[589]; a fuel carrier.

5. (فى . . . مسد) Around her neck[590] shall be a cord of twisted palm-fibres[591].

---

583. Abu Lahab (literally, 'The Father of Flame') was the surname of Abdul 'Uzza, an uncle of the Prophet, and a bitter and powerful opponent of Islam. 'He made it his business to torment the Prophet, and his wife took a pleasure in carrying thorn bushes and strewing them in the sand where she knew that the Prophet was sure to walk barefooted.' (Pickthall). 'Until his death he sided with the most resolute adversaries of Muhammad in Makka.' (EI. I. p. 97). The two hands of Abu Lahab may mean his hopes both in this world and the next.

584. 'The news of the bad issue of battle (of Badr) threw him in such an anger that he betook himself to violent acts against the bearer of the news and his wife. Shortly afterwards (7 days according to Ibn Hishām) he died of smallpox...His sons feared to touch his corpse, which they let to become corrupt, and when they were ordered to remove it, it got an unworthy burial.' (EI. I. p. 97).

585. i. e., his capital.

586. (which great wealth he had set apart for opposing Islam).

587. (by way of profit on his capital).

588. i. e., immediately at his death.

589. Known as Umm Jumail, a daughter of Harb and a sister of Abu Sufiān, she was the miserable creature who had often strewn thorns in the Prophet's path. 'She showed much hostility to the Prophet and stirred against him her husband's antagonism.' (EI. I. p. 97). 'She used to tie bundles of thorns with ropes fo twisted palm-leaf fibre and carry them and strew them about on dark nights in the paths which the Prophet was expected to take, in order to cause him bodily injury.' (AYA).

590. (in Hell) جيد is generally a beautiful neck. Here the use is ironical.

591. The phrase in the text is also said to mean : 'A chain seventy cubits in length, whereby the woman upon whose neck it is to be put shall be led into hell, firmly twisted of iron ; as though it were a rope of iron strongly twisted (LL).

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

SECTION 1

1. (قل . . . احد) Say thou[593] : He is Allah, the One[594].
2. (الله الصمد) Allah, the Independent[595].
3. (لم . . . يولد) He begets not[596], nor was He begotten[597].
4. (ولم . . . احد) And never there has been anyone co-equal with Him[598].

---

592. اخلاص properly signifies 'The asserting oneself to be clear, or quite, of believing in any beside God.' (LL). The chapter is rightly held to contain the essence of the Holy Qurān ; and, according to a saying of the Prophet, it is equal in value to a third part of the whole Book.

593. (O Prophet !).

594. (and only) i. e., One in person and nature. ' الاحد as an epithet, is applied to God alone, and signifies The One ; the Sole ; He Who has ever been one and alone ; or the Indivisible ; or He Who has no second to share in his lordship, nor is his essence. nor in his attributes.' (LL). The polemic is aimed not at the pagans alone, but also clearly at the trinitarian Christians.

595. (of everyone and everything, and yet besought of all) i e., lacking in nothing, and wanting none to complement Him ; the Absolute ; the Eternal. صمد and الصمد , as epithets applied to God, signify 'A lord ; because one repairs, betakes himself, or has recourse, to him, in exigencies, or, when applied to God, because affairs are stayed, or rested, upon Him and none but He accomplishes them ; ....or the Being that continues, or continues for ever or is everlasting ; or the Creator of everything, of whom nothing is independent, and whose unity everything indicates.' (LL). The verse strikes at the root of the pagan and Christian conception of incomplete God.

596. (as believed in by the Christians and many polytheistic peoples). Compaer and contrast the Christian creed :—'God the Father, the First Person of the Blessed Trinity....is Truly Father as He begets a co-eternal and co-equal Son, to whom He imparts the plenitude of His nature and in Whom He contemplates His own perfect image.' (CD. p. 360) According to popular Hinduism, the creation was brought about by Brahma's incest with his daughter. See ERE. II. p. 811.

597. (as believed in by several polytheistic rel'gions). In Vedic India, for example, the father Heaven and the mother Earth 'were regarded as the parents not only of men but of the Gods.' (FWN. I. P. 23). In the Vedas, the gods themselves 'had been the earliest products of creation. They were semi-anthropomorphised forces of nature.' (Tara Chand, Influence of Islam on Indian Culture, p. 4). 'The account which became popular was that the primeval being created the waters on which floated the golden egg, he then entered it, and was born from it as Brahma, the first of created things. Brahma then created gods, heaven, earth, sky sun, moon, universe and man.' (ib. pp. 2-3). Many of the Hindu gods are the results of 'the union of a male divinity with a female being, conceived almost always as irregular, and very often incestuous.' (Barth, Religions of India, p. 27).

598. (in nature, person, or attributes). i. e., least of all He is an anthropomorphic God. 'In this uncompromising monotheism, with its simple, enthusiastic faith in the supreme rule of a transcendent being, lies the chief strength of Islam as a religion.' (Hitti, op. cit., p. 129). 'The Vedic pantheon was peopled with gods that lived in the heavens or in the atmosphere or upon earth, their number was reckoned as thirty-three, but those to whom the greatest number of hymns were devoted were Indra, Agni, and Soma....Later Siva and Visnu attained the predominant position and joined with Brahma formed the great Trinity.' (Tara Chand, op. cit., p. 5). For Christolatry see P. VI. n. 261 ; P. XXII, n, 307.
